Ed Nelson Named City Manager

Hospital Addition Complete Public Invited To Opening Jan. 14-17, Banquet Planned

BY CLARA WALDRON

Masons, carpenters and painters have gathered up their tools and departed, plumbers have returned for the last time for the last pipe wrench, the dust of construction has been polished away, furnishings and equipment are in place — Herrick Memorial Hospital's newest and largest wing is ready for use!

But first on Thursday, Jan. 14, 2:30 to 4 p.m. and on Sunday, Jan. 17, 2:30 to 4:30 p.m., the citizens of the community are invited to visit it during a public open house.

Made possible through the generosity of R. W. Herrick and dedicated to the memory of his parents, this is the fourth unit of the hospital's construction. The original building, the result of a concerted community effort, was completed in 1938, additional wings were added in 1941 and in 1951 and now this largest addition brings the hospital's capacity up to seventy beds plus space for the latest and most up to date medical, surgical and obstetrical care.

During the sixteen years the hospital has been available to the community it has cared for 22,000 individual patients many of whom have returned up to as many as twenty-five times. Nearly 5,000 of those patients have been babies who call the hospital their birthplace.

Four hundred and seventy-five new citizens were born there in 1953, 237 girls and 238 boys of whom there were six pairs of twins.

The present medical staff of the hospital has five honorary members, Dr. H. H. Loveland and Dr. Wesley Mast of Tecumseh, Dr. L. C. Kent of Manchester and Dr. E. T. Morden and Dr. D. A. Parker of Adrian. The Active Medical Staff consists of Drs. R. G. B. Marsh, M. R. Blanden, R. F. Helzerman, Richard Dustin, John Thompson Jr. and C. L. Claxton of Britton, while the Junior Active staff is comprised of Drs. Richard Hammel, and C. L. Cook of Tecumseh and A. R. O'Conner and G. C. Wilson of Clinton.

Hospital care is further augmented by an Associate Staff of Drs. W. B. Hornsby of Clinton, W. P. Purfield and A. P. Holstein of Manchester; P. P. Sayre of Onsted, W. H. Hewes and A. B. Hewes of Adrian, J. G. Prout of Saline, G. W. Williamson, Dundee; G. W. Wynn, Adrian; R. E. Harrison, H. E. Isley and R. V. Tubbs, Blissfield and L. Miller of Adrian; and by a junior associate staff of Drs. Q. A. Brashares of Brooklyn and M. R. Hannum and R. J. Venrose both of Milan.

Three other doctors are very important in the activities of the institution, Dr. Donald A. Parker, of Adrian, consulting radiologist, who has served in that capacity for over four years; Dr. Bernard Steinberg, of Toledo, an authority in the field of laboratory technology who is director of that work here on a part time basis and Dr. Arthur Brown, the staff specialist in dental surgery, who has also administered all gas anesthesia at the hospital since its opening.

Two doctors, who were closely associated with the conception of the hospital idea and with its early struggle for success, will be present at the dedication only in the memories of others. Dr. H. H. Hammel and Dr. P. B. Hardy gave of their time and labor to make it possible and to Dr. Hammel it was of first importance until his untimely death last spring.

COMPETENT NURSES

The nursing staff, always of primary importance, has from the beginning had a competent graduate corps which during the last few years has been supplemented by a group of nurses aides and by the presence of student nurse classes from various hospital nursing schools. The hospital has been fortunate also in being able to call on the services of a large group of married nurses in the community who have given generously of their help on a part time basis.

Six full time and two part time workers take care of the kitchen department and there are two men and three women in charge of maintenance.

At the center of all its activity, carrying its hundreds of necessary details as part of her own existance is the superintendent. Gertrude Spaulding R. N. came to the hospital in October 1938, four months after its opening. Born in Hudson, Mass., she is a graduate of Henry Ford Hospital school of nursing with special training in hospital administration and as Director of Nurses and much of the really exceptional success of the hospital has been due to her tireless devotion to its interests.

PUBLIC BANQUET

Thursday evening, January 14 a Dedicatory Dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the Products Union Hall to which the public is cordially invited. Planned by the hospital auxiliary and under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Mensing it promises to be one of the important civic events of the new year. Appearing on the program will be Ray W. Herrick, F. K. Smith and Dr. M. R. Blanden while the speaker of the evening will be Dr. Robin Buerki, executive director of Henry Ford hospital and an authority on hospital administration. Dr. Buerki has a personal interest in Herrick Memorial hospital as he has been a frequent consultant in its construction.

Mrs. C. W. Hanna will be in charge of ticket sales for the dinner and wishes to announce that they should be secured this week as all reservations must be in by Monday. They will be on sale at Hanna's Insurance and Kohler's real estate office as well as through the Rotary and Exchange clubs and from Mrs. Hanna and Mrs. Mensing.

Governor Kicks Off March Of Dimes

The 1954 March of Dimes officially got underway today when nine-year-old Diana Van Hook of Garden City, pretty victim of the crippler Polio, received the first contribution in Michigan from the hand of Gov. G. Mennen Williams. Diana was stricken with the disease Oct. 7, 1953 and is making a remarkable recovery at University of Michigan Poliomyelitis Respirator Center, which is supported by the March of Dimes. Governor Williams is honorary chairman of the Jan. 2 to 31 campaign which provides funds for the research, patient aid and other programs of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

NO MORE BONDS AT POST OFFICE

Postmaster Jack Metcalf announced that United States Post Offices will no longer sell Savings Bonds after Jan. 1. They can be purchased at banks, however.

Only saving stamps, 10c, 25c, 50c and $1 denominations are offered at the Post Office.

Metcalf also pointed out to aliens that they must report to the Post Office between Jan. 1 and 31 for annual registration.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Holloway Presbyterian church will be held Thursday evening. There will be a family night cooperative supper at 6:30 p.m.

Tecumseh's FFA Chapter Reports Fifty Projects Completed During Past Year

Thirty-seven youthful farmers who comprise Tecumseh high school's Future Farmers of America chapter have just completed a remarkable year with 50 profitable projects completed.

Instructor Paul Burns announced the year's records with pride for each boy's accomplishment, all were done in a business-like manner though many were new to the "farmers of tomorrow."

He said the 37 boys who undertook 50 projects, spent $18,205.77 for operating expenses, all aside from labor, and at the end their total net return was $5,850.32 for labor and investment.

Each student actually owns the project, Burns said, it is a business venture, aimed at experience for the boy, plus profit in the end.

Of the 50 projects, one raised seven acres of soybeans, 15 raised 115 acres of corn, two oats, project amounted to 14 acres, two wheat projects, 14 acres; one tomato project, one acre; three home gardens, 3/4 acre; six poultry, 841 birds; eight hog projects, 51 hogs; two sheep, 10 animals; three steers, three; five dairy, nine; one alfalfa, 3/4 acre; one horse breeding project, one filly.

The 37 students also completed 164 improvement projects averaging 4.4 per boy. This is quite high since an improvement project is one which increases the real estate value of the farm or the efficiency of the farm business. Some examples are: tiling a field, shingling a barn roof, keeping a complete set of farm records, or planning a complete farming program. These projects are usually owned by someone other than the student. The purpose of these projects is not to provide direct income to the student but to furnish a basis for instruction in class and by learning through additional experiences which productive projects may not provide.

The FFA boys also completed 493 supplementary farm practices, an average of 13.5 per boy. This is also high, 10 being good. A supplementary farm practice is a small farm job for additional skill and experience. The boy need not have ownership in the project. Some examples are: dehorning, castrating, innoculating legumes, testing soil for minerals or acidity.

Of the 37 boys, six were placed on farms for experience. Placement for farm experience is for farm boys whose advantages are limited on the home farm or for city boys who are interested in becoming farmers, or some related job. This part of the supervised farming program is to give those boys lacking practical experience the vocational advantages of those boys living on farms.

KIRK SMITH JOINS WINTER GOLF TOUR

A Tecumseh golfer whose sights are on someday joining the professional ranks, is shooting in the qualifying rounds of the Los Angeles open tournament this week.

He is Kirk Smith, 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, who has joined the PGA's winter golf tour as an amateur.

HOLIDAY ENDS

Classes resumed in Tecumseh public schools this week after the annual Christmas holiday recess. Mid-semester examinations will be held later in January beginning Jan. 19.

Basketball play also resumes this week for the Indian cagers who travel to Morenci Friday night and then next week journey to Monroe on Tuesday and Clinton on Friday. Their next home game will be with Hillsdale here Jan. 26 when coach Victor Lawson hopes to be on the new gymnasium court.

Local March Of Dimes Follows National Pattern

Mrs. Rolland Reister, director of the Lenawee County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in charge of Tecumseh and Raisin townships, announces that the campaign for the March of Dimes is being conducted locally during the month of January in accordance with the plan throughout the county, state and nation.

Recently, representatives from all organizations met in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church and organized the Tecumseh-Raisin Council under the direction of Paul Ahleman, chairman of the Lenawee Chapter. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Ted Golat; vice-president, Mrs. Charles Stephenson; secretary, Mrs. Bill Osburn; treasurer, David Dick. Mrs. T. Rentschler was appointed as chairman of publicity.

Mrs. Earl Pennington will be in charge of activities in Raisin township while Mrs. Rollin Fairbanks will have charge of the Mothers March.

Information about the Mothers March or Porchlight Drive in Tecumseh will be announced later. Canisters have been placed in all public places for your contributions by the Men's Club of the Presbyterian church. The office of the local Chamber of Commerce has been designated as headquarters for the Tecumseh-Raisin Council.

Therefore, all checks should read "March of Dimes" and be left at the Chamber of Commerce. People who will be out of town for winter vacations are asked to make their contributions before leaving. All organizations are asked to hold benefit parties, bake sales, free-will offerings, or use any legitimate method to increase their giving over the treasury gift idea this year because the need for money is greater than ever to carry on the work of this national foundation. All expenses of the patient come from this fund from the time the case is diagnosed as polio until no further help is necessary. Since the facilities at Warm Springs, Georgia, are limited, only the cases recommended by the University hospital are admitted from this area, according to Mr. Ahleman.

CIVIL AIR PATROL

All pilots and aircraft owners in the Tecumseh vicinity are invited to attend a meeting of the Civil Air Patrol Tuesday evening Jan. 12 at 8 o'clock in the Sage building. The meeting will be devoted to a discussion of plans for acquiring an air strip.

Charles Mensing Elected Mayor As New Council Takes Over

Tecumseh's top municipal job went to E. J. "Ed" Nelson Tuesday night as the wheels of city government were put into motion.

Nelson was appointed for an indefinite period to the $7,500 position by the new city council which officially took over the reigns of local government this week.

The former village engineer was the logical appointment. He is 52, a former Cyclone Fence plant manager for 17 years and has been connected with municipal operations, engineering and personnel work in various other communities. Nelson was village engineer for the past year and a-half after supervising construction of the disposal plant.

As city manager he holds the top post in city government and its operation, for his job is comparable to that of a factory manager in a corporate-owned industry. The city council acts as the corporation's board of directors while the citizens are all stockholders.

Nelson's duties are outlined in the adopted charter and are vastly increased from that of a village engineer though he still directs all city projects.

Appointment of the city manager was one of the first steps taken after the council took office. The retiring village body also met Tuesday night as a formality and closed their final session "sine die" — never to meet again. President E. M. Campbell spoke a few words of thanks to everyone who had given their cooperation during the past nine months to make the village operation smooth-running. George McCombs spoke further of the council's gratitude to the public.

Then after 100 years, the reins of Tecumseh government changed hands. History was in the writing as the new village council took over. A brief prayer by Rev. B. O. Bashore, a member of the council, opened the session.

"Almighty God, our Father, we humbly beseech Thee to continue to give our community the blessings of freedom, peace, health, safety, and justice. May the actions of this council be only for the well-being of those whose lives they shall affect. We seek Thy guidance in all our deliberations. Grant that we may prove good stewards of all that is entrusted to us. Our Father, we desire the blessings of God's best for ourselves and our posterity. Make us truly Thy servants — and the people's.

"Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

After taking the oath of office from James Beardsley, the council opened business with the unanimous election of Charles Mensing as mayor of the city. Under the new form, the mayor continues to serve as councilman, has a vote and voice in all matters, can move, support or oppose any motion. But figuratively he is the head of the city.

Mensing has served faithfully on former councils and has made municipal operation and finances sort of a personal hobby. He received the top number of votes among all seven elected councilmen last month.

After taking over as mayor, he spoke humbly of the trust placed in his hands and said that he will continue to do his best toward making Tecumseh the greatest little city on earth.

Hugh Hanna was then elected mayor pro-tem and thanked the council for the compliment.

Among the first session's business included appointment of Jim Beardsley as city attorney; continuation of village funds to city use; establishment of regular bi-monthly meeting nights at 7:30 p.m. on the first and third Mondays and arrangement of council seats alphabetically from Bashore around to Titley.

First act by City Manager Nelson was the appointment of John Saling as city assessor. The appointment was approved. All former village employees automatically continue under city form unless otherwise replaced.

L. H. Titley was appointed one of four supervisors. Three others will be appointed later. Lawrence Mohr was appointed deputy city treasurer.

Mayor Mensing explained that requests, gripes, compliments and the like should be made directly to the city manager in the future, he in turn brings the matters up before the council, which, under the new form, acts more as a policy making body. Otherwise Tecumseh's municipal operation continues much the same as in the past. People are always welcome at council meetings.

Quick Thinking Saves Mike Velandra From Globe Pond Skating Tragedy

Only the presence of mind and quick thinking of three little boys and the courage and know-how of two young people prevented tragedy the day before Christmas.

Seven year old Jim Newell and the two Velandra boys, Tom, seven, and Michael five, all of whom live in Herrick Park took their sleds out on the ice on the Globe Mill pond in the late afternoon.

Unfortunately they chose that part where the current of the race prevents heavy freezing and about fifteen feet from shore, little Michael broke through.

By some miracle he clung to the sled while Jim Newell, lying full length on the ice held the sled rope and Tom ran for help.

Ardis Drewyor, of Tecumseh, and Carmen Carpenter, of Adrian, were skating on the south end of the pond and as soon as they realized the situation went to the rescue. Because of the thin ecklter ice they had to skirt the shore and in all little Michael was dangling in the deep, icy water for at least ten minutes.

It was necessary for Mr. Carpenter to lie on the ice and lift the boy out as he could not be pulled over the edge of the ice, and both he and Miss Drewyor also broke through before Michael was finally brought to shore.

Impeded by skating shoes, they carried the child to the William Damon home and he was taken to Herrick Memorial hospital where he was treated for shock but was soon released.

"WALK" SIGNALS ARE LATEST IN FLASHERS

New "Walk" and Don't Walk" flashers went up on the main intersection of Chicago and Evans this week to give Tecumseh's new inter-com signal system a synchronized hook-up for both drivers and pedestrians.

Chief George Kilbourn praised the latest addition for future safety as the latest thing in flasher lights.

Despite the overhead signals, he pointed to slippery streets as the cause for three minor accidents this week, there were no charges in two.

Mrs. Gladys Hawkins, Tipton, is in the hospital after colliding with a Jim Barton owned oil truck, driven by Willis Davenport, Tuesday morning at Chicago and Union.

An Ida school teacher, Leon J. Alger Jr., bumped into the rear end of a car driven by Dorlor D. Rye, Tecumseh truck driver, near Ben's Market on Tuesday evening.

On Monday, Abelardo Lopez, Newburg highway, was charged with failing to stop in a safe distance when he crashed into the back of a car driven by Leo Hepner, Ypsilanti on the main street.

Chief Kilbourn extended the force's sincerest thanks and appreciation to the community for cooperation during the past year and hoped that 1954 would find everyone in Tecumseh as helpful and law abiding.

The entire year found the force handling a record number of 247 complaints, 410 traffic summonses, 446 meter violations, 162 arrests and 88 accident reports. Total revenues from the department's activities exceeded $10,000.

Attorney Reviews Legal Activities

Keeping up with Tecumseh's many activities of progress kept the village judiciary branch busy during the past year, Attorney James C. Beardsley told the council in final session Monday night.

Reviewing the year's work and outlining matters ahead, the attorney reported, "Tecumseh's village compiled ordinances have been completed and finally brought up to date."

The old "watering trough" ordinances have been removed from the books with only up-to-date, enforcable laws remaining. However, Beardsley pointed out a need for a uniform traffic ordinance for the City which should comply with the state's code and an appropriate rezoning of new land within the enlarged city boundaries.

"There have been nearly a dozen not guilty pleas for different offenses during the last year," Beardsley said, "but all have been found guilty upon trial or upon pre-trial settlements, though there are some criminal prosecutions still pending.

"For some years I have been working on a booklet which will describe every parcel of land owned by the Village and which will give a little map of each piece. At the present rate of progress, it should be completed by 1975. The City Attorney should be urged to expedite the matter," he reported.

"It has often been my recommendation that the old Village Minute Books be photostated as the writing is becoming faded and there is evidence of mildew. It is conceivable that these records could be of tremendous importance. The total cost should not exceed $50.00 and then they would be preserved for all time."

WARING DISTRICT VOTES ON ANNEXATION, JAN. 13

Officials of School District No. 9 fractional, Waring District east of Tecumseh, have requested permission from the State Department of Public Instruction to be annexed by Tecumseh school district No. 7. A meeting of the electors of the district will be held Wednesday evening Jan. 13 at 7 p.m. at the Grange hall to vote on the matter.

11 YEARS SERVICE

E. M. Campbell Retires From Hospital Board

The recent retirement of E. M. "Ernie" Campbell at the expiration of his term as a member of the board of trustees of Herrick Memorial hospital was the end of eleven years of able and devoted service to that institution.

Appointed first to fill a vacancy he served two additional five year terms the longest period of any board member since the hospital was organized.

Kenneth Herrick was appointed to replace Mr. Campbell and in addition the present board consists of Frank K. Smith, who is president, Lloyd Rhein, vice president; Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, secretary treasurer; Clarence Gilman, Lester Rogers and Glenn Kohler.

Nine others have served on the board since the hospital was opened in June 1938; Ray Herrick, who was the first president, R. K. Anderson, for ten years secretary and treasurer; R. S. Moore, Richard Roe, the Rev. E. R. Green, Clarence Wagner, Ned Baldwin, Lillard Brown and Dwight Hodges. F. K. Smith is now the oldest in service having been on the board for ten years.

CHILDREN'S PARTY

Mrs. Gerald Baker was hostess to twenty members of the Westminster League, Presbyterian church, who enjoyed a children's party Tuesday night. A short business meeting was conducted by the new president, Mrs. Douglas Murdock, during which it was decided to earn money for the March of Dimes by a bake sale.

INFINITE VARIETY — Michigan's infinite variety of industrial and agricultural life passed in front of us last weekend during an interesting 300-mile visit into the state's rich Thumb area where soybeans grow alongside crankshaft factories and grain elevators cross shadows with rubber industries.

How many varied and different industrial operations there are! Plants by the score making consumer items by the hundreds, like car mirrors, fishing tackle, paper, tractor parts, house trailers; there's no stopping, for this one small section of Michigan alone is heavily dotted with industry. Where do all the products go? Where does all the man power come from? And all the new homes and new subdivisions taking shape, where do all the families come from? All the cars on the highway, all the service stations, all the small businesses — there's so much newness, so many signs of recent growth, of new additions, of new beginnings, Michigan shows all the signs of growing pains.

And do not think for a minute that Tecumseh hasn't taken a front seat in the state's industrial revolution. Three or four times we were asked about our community, "Where is Tecumseh?" one person asked, "We've heard a lot about Tecumseh lately but have never been there." Another declared, "That litttle Tecumseh is really getting on the map." Whereupon we explained that little Tecumseh nears 6,000 and is a fast growing city.

Communities are a great deal the same, they have the same mutual problems, people are generally alike and behave alike; oddly enough many spoke adversely of changes in their community but pointed with pride to its growth. As for '54, everyone saw more of the same. There will be more highways, and more cars; more goods and services, more people to use them; more opportunity, more time to relax, more work to do, more money to save, more goods to acquire, more friends to enjoy—there'll be more of everything ahead in Michigan this year.

We can't predict much change for '54, especially for the life of a weekly newspaper, recording life's activities in a typical growing and prospering small town—which was well summed-up by a Pennsylvania editor as . . . "to work on a weekly newspaper you must be either dedicated or slightly off. There are few professions which demand so much for so little. Dealing with people is one of the most difficult assignments in the world. People wear you down, make you sore as a boiled owl; cause you to hate yourself and your family. And then, when you've just about decided to call the whole thing 'quits', people can be so darned understanding and appreciative that they make you feel like a queen, or cry like a fool. For emotional ups and downs, try newspaper work on a small publication. It beats the roller-coaster all hollow."

PUT AND TAKE — Advance jubliation over Uncle Sam's New Year's gift of a cut in income tax of about 11 per cent (which seems a pretty healthy slice) is going to mean a "morning-after" for a good many people . . . if Congress allows Uncle to keep that piece of Social Security pie he's cutting for himself, also on New Year's Day.

In the lowest income brackets, that increase in the Social Security tax (that you pay yourself) from 1.5 to 2 percent more than wipes out the benefit of the income tax cut. For instance, a single individual earning $660, on which he pays no income tax, pays $3.30 more for Social Security. If he earns $880.00, he pays $4.22 less income tax and $4.40 more on Social Security—for a net loss of eighteen cents.

Married couples earning up to $1,780 a year are losers in the tax switch, as are those with one child and making up to $2,670. Those with two children have to make over $3,500 before then can win.

And then too, this tax juggling will cost Uncle five billion dollars in revenue . . . which he may need. So maybe you'll have to reach in your other pocket for that—in the form of a tax we don't know anything about—yet.

Realty Views

"Here are the keys to my house. I have been transferred to another state, and the moving van is loading our things right now." The man seemed in a big hurry.

"And here's a deed already signed. You fill in the new owner's name after you sell the house. All we want is the cash. Can't be bothered with sending legal papers back and forth."

"Hold on," I said, somewhat surprised," are you sure you want to leave everything in our hands?"

"Yes," he said, "I have confidence in your firm."

"Well," I remarked, "we appreciate that and will be glad to handle all the details for you. But how much do you want for your house?"

"Whatever it's worth on the market," he said, "I don't know how much that is. Come with me and we'll set a price."

We agreed on a figure and he signed an exclusive listing. In a few weeks the house was sold. His confidence was not misplaced.

Let us help you to sell your house. We'll do the right kind of job for you too. Just call 36.

BRITTON

Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield
Correspondent

Born, Sunday, Jan. 3, at Herrick Memorial hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. George J. Cline of Milan, a son. Mrs. Cline is the former Virginia Crutchfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield of Britton.

Mrs. George Roberts with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Culbert and children of Oxford called on Mr. and Mrs. Byron Covell, Wednesday.

Mrs. William Cundiff spent a few days last week with Mrs. Sam Goldfine and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hart and family in Detroit.

William Cundiff was pleasantly surprised New Year's Day when his daughters assisted Mrs. Cundiff in serving a dinner in honor of his birthday anniversary. Besides his daughters Mrs. Wayne Dunbar and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield and their families, guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Cundiff of Sylvania and Mr. and Mrs. George J. Cline of Milan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham and children entertained in their home Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Graham's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Graham of Monroe on their 25th wedding anniversary. A four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and baked by Mrs. Celia LaBounty of Tecumseh was a feature of the refreshment table. Besides the honored couple, guests included Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ostrand and family of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Graham Sr. of Hillsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Graham Jr. and Mrs. LaBounty of Tecumseh and Paul Graham of Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crutchfield and children Zelta, Bob and Marian of Wayne called on Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield and family and Mr. and Mrs. David Cook and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Griffith of Toledo spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood.

Miss Vel Parker with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Detroit were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Underwood. Miss Parker remained for a longer visit.

New Year's Eve guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Logan were Mrs. Edith Logan and son Edwin and Pfc. Russell Logan of Petersburg. Pfc. Logan left Friday for overseas duty. Miss Joyce Logan of Petersburg spent the weekend with the Gordon Logans.

MONDAY CLUB

The sixtieth birthday anniversary of the Tecumseh Monday Club will be celebrated at its next meeting, Jan. 11. All former members are invited to be guests of the club which will meet at the Methodist church at 2:30 p.m. An interesting program of music and sketches about former members and past activities has been arranged by Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, and a birthday tea will be served by the hostess committee.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS from the Bible

For great is Thy mercy toward me, and Thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.
—(Psalm 86, 13.)

Life would be unendurable indeed if we were not assured by the Word of God that the repentant sinner can change himself and be changed, through the forgiveness and the mercy of the Lord Almighty, into goodness and righteousness—delivered from the hell of his own making.

WIT AND WISDOM

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins opened their home Monday evening for the January meeting of the Wit and Wisdom Club. Thirty-six members were present. An impressive memorial service for the late Mrs. H. H. Loveland was conducted by the Rev. Alvin Brazee after which a short business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. John Lott.

A musical program arranged by Mrs. Collins began with two piano selections played by Sandra Hall. F. C. Dickinson then sang a group of three vocal numbers and was followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Thomas Gallant. Mrs. John Hamilton completed the musical evening with a piano composition. The guests were then divided into groups and vied with each other in presenting musical charades.

Refreshments were served by the hosts, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mrs. Earl Wickwire and Miss Marjorie Wickwire.

MRS. ALEANDER GIBSON SERVICES HELD MONDAY

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. in the Niblack Funeral Home for Mrs. Florence Gibson, wife of Alexander Gibson of Britton. The Rev. O. E. Friest officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery, Tecumseh.

Mrs. Gibson was born in Macon township and spent her entire lifetime in the Britton community. She was the daughter of the late Thomas and Jennie Murphy.

A graduate of Tecumseh high school and Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti, Mrs. Gibson taught in Lenawee county schools as well as at Leslie and Dundee. She married Mr. Gibson Nov. 14, 1912. She was a member of the Congregational Christian church, the Dorcas Class, Order of Eastern Star, Woman's Club and was serving as Britton treasurer of the National Federation of Republican Women.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Jayne Davis, Adrian; a son, Robert, Britton; six grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Ella Boyd, Detroit, and a brother Earl Murphy, Detroit. She was preceded in death by a daughter in infancy, her parents, a sister and brother.

Hospital Notes

A letter from Miss Rozella Schlotfeldt, associate professor of Nursing at Wayne University expresses the appreciation of the student nurses from foreign countries who were entertained by the hospital and its auxiliary. She says the visit did much to promote good feeling.

Patients greatly enjoyed the various groups of carolers who visited the hospital during Christmas week. Many of them expressed their gratitude and appreciation.

RARE THINGS — We once read of a life guard near Chicago who suffered such great shock and fatigue from swimming into deep water beyond his usual bounds of duty to save the lives of six men in a capsized boat, that he himself died from over-exposure and over-exertion. Only one of the six men whom he saved bothered to attend his funeral or thank his family.

You've probably heard better stories along this one-in-six theme, but from the pencil of Sue Ann Hammack, 410 W. Brown we have a Dec. 28, 1953, thank you note to Santa Claus which might be a good parallel.

Intercepted at the local Post Office, the letter reads, "Dear Santa: My sister Kathy and I want to thank you for all the gifts you left us. We like out Toni dolls best of all. I guess you liked the hot coffee we left you, because you drank all of it. The other letter I sent to you was in the Tecumseh Herald. Have a happy New Year. Love, — Sue Ann Hammack.

LOCAL ITEMS — You'd have to see these arrows, welded together as they are, to believe the feat of Mike Hite, Tecumseh's Robin Hood who shot the impossible. And he had witnesses. At 15 yards, Mike shot one aluminum arrow directly into the rear shaft of his previous arrow on the Lenawee county conservation club range. Doc Dustin and Harold Hall saw the second arrow go dead center into the rear of the first, peeling down part of the aluminum and then stopping like two arrows, fused or welded together.

A. L. "Speed" Roe found a 2-way police type radio a big boost to his contracting and excavating business. With a station in his home and a receiving set in his truck, "Speed" can keep a close finger on his large force. He recently helped out a neighboring contractor, who, when fresh out of oil, called the Roe home and got word immediately back to the crew working afield.

Former Tecumsehian John Wilson, son of Mrs. Ralph Westgate and the late John A. Wilson, was featured in a picture and story in the Toledo Blade recently for winning a $1,350 award in a nationwide plywood selling contest. As a salesman for the Michigan Wholesalers Co., Toledo, Wilson, who is a Tecumseh high grad., covers Northern Ohio and Southern Michigan selling plywood and other products connected with the construction industry. What will he do with the $1,350 prize? U. S. Savings Bonds!

PRETTY EASY — This week's puzzle is so simple we hardly dare print it, but for those minds dulled by the holiday excitement this might be a refresher for better teasers to come.

"A man looked in his billfold to find he had but six bills totalling exactly $63. There were no one-dollar bills, so what were the denominations of the six bills he had? Easy answer is below."

WANT A POOL TABLE — Members of the Tecumseh volunteer fire department are looking for a used pool table, not too expensive to install in their club rooms. Some of the money to buy it has been received from the Protane Gas Co., which sent a very nice check along with this note to the force after its heroic action in battling that August fire.

Cecil Alderdyce, Chief
Tecumseh Volunteer Fire Dept.
Tecumseh, Michigan
Dear Mr. Alderdyce:

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your fine group of firemen in rendering your services at the fire we had at our bulk plant on August 12, 1953.

We think your group rendered yeoman service as a team in working on the fire. Please accept the enclosed check for $250.00 (two hundred and fifty dollars) as a donation to your volunteer group.

Very truly yours,
The PROTANE Corporaton
Ross K. Albon,

Cancer In Children Can Be Prevented...

Though cancer is a disease primarily of older age groups, it ranks ahead of tuberculosis, diphtheria, and whooping cough as a cause for death among children.

Hopeful is the fact that more than half the cancer in children can be cured. Early diagnosis is essential. Regular examination by the family Doctor, a pediatric specialist, or a child-health clinic are the best protection.

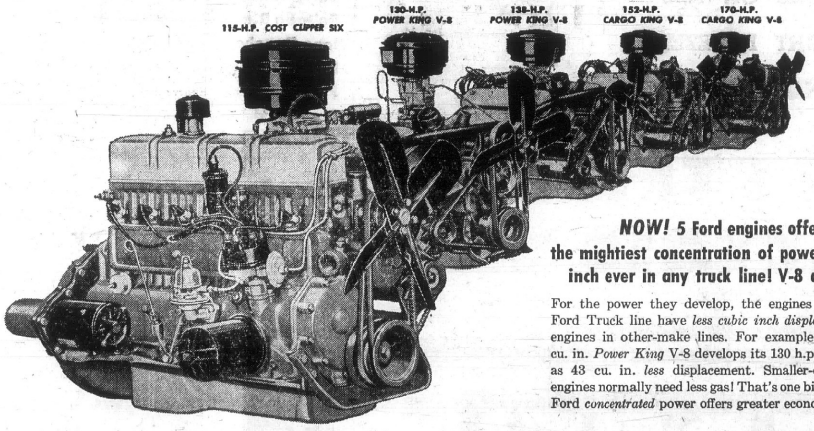
NEW FORD TRUCKS
with TRIPLE ECONOMY!



NOW! 5 Ford engines offer the mightiest concentration of power per cubic inch ever in any truck line! V-8 and SIX!

For the power they develop, the engines in the 1954 Ford Truck line have less cubic inch displacement than engines in other-make lines. For example, Ford's 239 cu. in. Power King V-8 develops its 130 h.p. on as much as 43 cu. in. less displacement. Smaller-displacement engines normally need less gas! That's one big reason why Ford concentrated power offers greater economy!

Ford takes the lead in ALL 3 vital factors that make for lower-cost trucking!

1. Now, only in Ford Trucks—gas-saving, LOW-FRICTION, high-compression, overhead-valve, deep-block engines in all truck models! 115- to 170-h.p.!

2. New Driverized Cabs, Master-Guide Power Steering, Power Brakes, Fordomatic Drive for faster control!

3. New greater capacity! New Factory-Built "6-wheelers," gross up to 48% more!

New Ford F-900 Big Job, G.V.W. 27,000 lbs., G.C.W. 55,000 lbs.

Is That So

By Miss Clara Waldron

St. Moritz and Lake Placid may have the most famous sled runs and Coney Island the roller coasters with the most of everything but there was a time when Tecumseh had a combination of the two that was exciting and dangerous enough for local, amateur taste.

In 1888, a carpenter by the appropriate name of Valorous J. Woodward, who lived in one of the Brownville houses on the east side of Mill street on the top of the bluff above the valley of Evans creek, built a toboggan slide that combined the elements of sport, speed and danger. At the crest of the hill he erected a wooden tower, 20 feet high and from it a wooden chute 600 feet long leading to the valley floor at about the location of the present athletic field.

A description of the slide written at the time it was opened to the public, says it descended at a 45 degree angle for the first 150 feet with a gentler slope for the remainder of the run. An accompanying picture shows a calm lady in a fur "tippet" and muff gliding serenely down the 45 degree slope without losing a hairpin, the toboggan gallantly guided by a derby-hatted young man, both sitting primly erect and neither possessing so much as a visible ankle.

Mr. Woodward had toboggans for rent but those who had their own could enjoy an entire evening's sport for 25c. As part of the sport involved walking back, the last 150 feet by a flight of wooden steps, there was plenty of exercise thrown in. On Saturday school children could ride all the afternoon for a dime, all contingent of course on the weather. Snow was desirable but not absolutely essential for the slide was kept well coated with ice and wooden barriers along the sides made it "completely safe."

It is remembered that the slide was kept in repair for only two or three years and then was torn down. How financially rewarding it proved is not known but while it lasted Tecumseh had its own Sun Valley.

BRITTON

Sunday callers on Mrs. Ethel Steele were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hall and baby of Vacaville, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Schreder, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Hall, Terry and Dennis Valentine and Mrs. Betty Pero and baby, all of Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Greunke and family of Toledo were Sunday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Craig and family. The Greunkes and Craigs and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Loveless of Tecumseh visited Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dunbar and son Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zarnow, Clarence, Wilbur and Caroline Scott spent Sunday with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Scott of Allenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Myers of Toledo spent Saturday in the Edward Kanous home and called on Mrs. John Gittus in the evening.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank all the folks for their cards, flowers and gifts which I received during my recent stay at Herrick Memorial hospital. These all helped to make the days as pleasant as possible and were greatly appreciated.

Twenty-four persons were admitted to the Methodist church, Sunday.

George Heesen after 36 years in the business has sold his clothing stock to Wesley and sons of Adrian.

Frogs were croaking and robins were seen New Year's day.

This is the 58th anniversary of the Globe Flouring Mills.

Bert Myer and Don Wright leave Monday for Chicago to attend a college of pharmacy.

Ira Rogers and family have moved from their farm at Springville to the L. M. Kellogg house on S. Evans St.

Born, January 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Waring, a son.

Married, December 31, Ernest Robison and Zella Bennett.

Sleigh bells, bobsleighs and cutters were much in evidence since New Years.

Maynard Mulvaney and Ivah Caswell were married January 2 in Ypsilanti.

Electric lights have been installed in the Britton schools.

A Mah Jongh Club has been organized here with 20 members.

Married, by the Rev. G. D. Prentice at the Presbyterian Manse in Adrian December 29, Bertha Nortley and George McKendry, both of Tecumseh.

Enlarged Motel Now Open

Tecumseh's Motel last week opened a new section, built directly east of the original building. This new area doubles the capacity making eight rooms, each with tub and shower bath.

"There was definite demand for the additional rooms," said A. C. Hamaker, owner of the motel. "As the steady demand for rooms increased it was necessary to make this addition to accommodate the many visitors to Tecumseh. We trust that the demand may continue to grow."

The high standard of the Tecumseh Motel could be a pattern for any such accommodations. Compeltely sound proof rooms, fine beds, plenty of softened hot water, automatic gas heating and aluminum screen and storm windows are just a few of the quality features in evidence. The cleanliness and attractive furnishings are most appreciated by the guests, many of whom have returned again and again. The motel is planning an open house in the near future to which the people of the community will be invited.

LOCALS

With remarkable DE-ICER additive

New Standard Premium does what no other gasoline will do!

starts 10% faster!

Standard's new DE-ICER additive permits Standard scientists to "go the limit" in putting fast-firing, "light-end" molecules into winter gasoline. These start you 10% faster.

warms up 20% faster!

Actually your engine will warm up 20% faster because the DE-ICER additive permits this great gas to carry a full charge of warm-up molecules.

helps prevent ice in gas lines!

Keep your tank well filled to avoid excessive condensation, and this DE-ICER additive will help prevent trouble from ice in gas lines.

prevents a major cause of stalling!

New Standard Premium does what no other gasoline will do—prevents stalling in traffic. DE-ICER additive prevents formation of carburetor ice.

Try a tankful today!

You can't buy a more powerful gasoline!

You expect more from STANDARD and get it!

The '54 BUICK's got it— The BIG CHANGE you've been hoping for!

Exemplar of the 1954 Buick's years-from-now styling is this stunning new Super Riviera

THE instant you see these 1954 Buicks, you'll know that something sensational has happened in automobile styling.

Here is vastly more than the usual model changeover. Here is vastly more than could be done just by warming over what Buick had before. Here is something accomplished by going far beyond artful face-lifting.

Here is that rarity of rarities—a completely new line of automobiles.

But Buick didn't stop with the bolder, fresher, swifter-lined beauty you see in raised and lengthened fender sweep—in the huge and back-swept expanse of windshield—in the lowered roofline—in the host more glamor features of exterior modernity.

They upped all horsepowers to the highest in Buick history.

They engineered a new V8 for the SPECIAL—and in the process came up with new Power-Head Pistons that boost gasoline mileage in every engine.

They brought to market a sparkling newcomer with a famous name, the Buick CENTURY—a car with phenomenal horsepower for its weight and price—a car with more pure thrill per dollar than any Buick ever built.

And they did all this without change of the price structure which, for years, has made Buick the most popular car at its price in the world.

We invite you in to inspect these great beauties, these great performers, these great buys. Then you'll see why the Detroit previewers are already saying, "Buick's the beautiful buy!"

'54 FORD the "worth more" car declares a dividend

3 distinctive lines
—14 brilliant body styles

YOU'LL FIND THAT EACH new feature in the '54 Ford is an extra dividend in driving enjoyment . . . establishes Ford, even more in '54, as the "Worth More" car. You get a special dividend in styling with Ford's distinctive new appearance. You get sparkling new interiors, too, that are a dividend in themselves. And each of the new Fords gives you special dividends in ride and performance . . . with new Ball-Joint Front Suspension, the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years . . . with your choice of Ford's new low-friction Y-block V-8 or I-block Six, the most modern engines in any car today! With 28 brilliant new models to choose from, you'll find the exact car to suit your tastes and requirements. Come in . . . See and Test Drive the '54 Ford.

PERFORMANCE DIVIDENDS

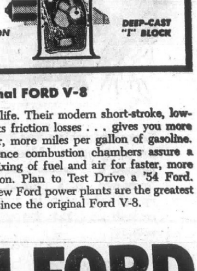
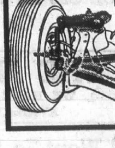
The new 115-h.p. I-block SIX



RIDE DIVIDEND



New Ball-Joint Front Suspension

This revolutionary new suspension is exclusive to Ford in its field. It allows greater up and down wheel travel for a smoother ride. And it helps keep wheels in true alignment for consistently easy handling. Movement of wheels is on ball joints, whether in up and down motion or in steering motion—right or left.

The greatest engine advances since the original FORD V-8

BOTH NEW 1954 Ford engines . . . the Y-block V-8 and the I-block Six . . . have overhead valves for most efficient high-compression operation on today's fuels. Valves are free-breathing to give you the most GO . . . free-turning to seat tightly and maintain high compression. Both engines have a deep-cast block with skirt that extends well below the crankshaft for greater strength and rigidity . . . smoother, quieter performance and extra-long engine life. Their modern short-stroke, low-friction design cuts friction losses . . . gives you more usable horsepower, more miles per gallon of gasoline. New high-turbulence combustion chambers assure a more thorough mixing of fuel and air for faster, more efficient combustion. Plan to Test Drive a '54 Ford. You'll find these new Ford power plants are the greatest engine advances since the original Ford V-8.

Plus five optional power assists* you might find only in America's costliest cars

DIVIDEND IN DRIVING EASE

Master-Guide Power Steering
It does up to 75% of your steering work for you, makes parking a pleasure, leaves you with the normal feel of steering on the straightaways.

Swift Sure Power Brakes
Power does up to one-third of the work of stopping for you! You are less fatigued, more relaxed, in the stop and go driving of congested traffic.

Power-Lift Windows
Windows open or close at the touch of a button under each window or on left front door. Driver may operate any of the four Power-Lift Windows.

4-Way Power Seat
Push one of two controls and the front seat goes up or down . . . puts the other and it goes front or back. It's a real convenience and comfort feature.

Fordomatic Drive
You get the smoothness of a fluid torque converter plus the instant "go" of an automatic intermediate gear. Ford also offers gas-saving Overdrive.

OVER FIFTY CLUB

All men and women over fifty years of age are cordially invited to a potluck luncheon at twelve o'clock in the Methodist church on Thursday, Jan. 14. Those attending are asked to bring their own dishes, silverware and food to pass. The rolls and beverage are furnished. Those who do not have housekeeping facilities are invited to use the church dishes and pay for their luncheon. During an informal program which will begin about one o'clock, the people present will be asked to contribute their experiences with "Tramps and Gypsies." The Temple Dependables will be the hostesses, however, this meeting is interdenominational. Mrs. T. Rentschler is in charge of the arrangements.

Holidays Prove Season Of Good Will For Scouts

The holiday season proved to be a time of giving as well as receiving for the Girl Scouts of Tecumseh.

Not only did Troops 9 and 16, as reported last week, pack a box of needed things for a family, but Troop 17 under the leadership of Mrs. Victor Peterson and Mrs. Gerald Griffin prepared a box of canned foods for Raymond Steuwe of Clinton, who is in the University hospital with polio. Troop 11 with Mrs. Wallace Rutherford as leader also packed a box following their Christmas potluck supper. Troop 2 under the guidance of Mrs. Junior Fouts assembled interesting articles for their little spastic friends.

Troop 1 under the leadership of Mrs. Gordon Greiman, made Christmas table favors which were presented to the members of the Over Fifty Club at its December meeting and which were appreciated very much by their older friends. Through such projects it is hoped that the Brownie and Girl Scouts will become better citizens and will learn to realize that human beings need each other.

The Brownie and Girl Scouts also enjoyed fellowship together during their Christmas parties which had to be held separately because the Scout cabin is not large enough to hold all at one time. Mrs. E. J. Crawford was chairman of the activities for the Intermediate Girl Scouts and adopted the big sister plan whereby an older troop and a younger troop held a party jointly. At each of these parties, the scouts had a supper together around the Christmas tree in the cabin and then enjoyed an exchange of gifts while Troops 17 and 7 went carolling at the Parrett Nursing Home and made a personal call on Mrs. Anna LaPointe.

The Junior Hi Troop held its party at the home of Mrs. Joseph Rohweder and the Senior Hi Troop enjoyed a Christmas supper together. Mrs. Junior Fouts was chairman of the arrangements for the four Brownie troops. The Brownies, their leaders, assistant leaders, and committee-women enjoyed a Christmas supper in the Parish House on East Chicago Blvd. After singing carols around the Christmas tree and playing games, they were through in time to greet Santa Claus when he arrived in Tecumseh. Mrs. Fouts was assisted by Mrs. Kenneth McEnroe, Mrs. Frank Robinett, Mrs. Melvin Smith, Mrs. Richard Duffin, Mrs. Gordon Greiman and several committee-women.

During the month of December all troops sold Girl Scout calenders with Mrs. Victor Peterson as chairman. Mrs. Lyle Grigg will be chairman of the Girl Scout cooky sales during the month of January. Also, the scouts are planning ways of earning money for the March of Dimes whereby their friends across the country who are afflicted with polio will receive help.

Mrs. T. Rentschler, president of the Girl Scouts Association, is calling a meeting of officers at her home on Friday morning, Jan. 8 from 9:30 until 11 o'clock.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary met Monday evening with Mrs. Vern Manwaring presiding. Announcement was made of the joint meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary to be held Thursday evening at 8 p.m. at the Legion Home.

Mrs. Ted Golat asked for volunteers to aid in the Mother's March on Polio, which will be held Thursday evening at 8 p.m. Anyone able to help is asked to get in touch with Mrs. Golat.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. L. E. Brown, Mrs. Hal Lewis and Mrs. Dale Tingley.

GOLDEN RULE OFFICERS INSTALLED

Golden Rule Division of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday night on the cheerful hearth of the recreation room of Mrs. Hugh Hanna's home. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Don Heesen, Mrs. Mabel Beardsley and Miss Ruth Harding.

During the business meeting, the group unanimously agreed to collect labels from baby food containers for the Lenawee Assn. for retarded children. The association redeems the labels at one cent each and uses the money for its worthwhile project. Anyone interested in helping with this program can contact any of the members of the group or send labels to Mrs. Hershel King at 7050 Green Road.

Golden Rule announces that Mrs. George Walworth has been made an honorary member of the group. Mrs. Thurman Stephenson was a guest Tuesday evening. When business was concluded, Mrs. Ronald Harris, retiring president, read a moving poem wishing good luck for the coming year to the new president, Mrs. Cecile Williams.

Officers for 1954 are: President, Mrs. Cecile Williams; vice president, Mrs. Ted Pihl; secretary, Mrs. Robert Peck and treasurer, Miss Geraldine French. Mrs. Williams appointed the following committee chairmen: Program, Mrs. Ted Pihl; membership, Mrs. Frank Smith and Mrs. Ronald Harris; finance, Miss Geraldine French; sunshine, Mrs. E. C. Boss; hopitality, Mrs. Hugh Hanna and Mrs. Don Heesen; floral, Mrs. Frank Purcell and Mrs. J. H. Rohweder; maintenance, Mrs. Mel Partridge and Mrs. Charles Howe; publicity, Mrs. Robert Peck; kitchen, Mrs. L. E. Brown; dinners, Mrs. Charles O'Neill; devotions, Mrs. Glenn VanDenburgh.

The Junior Choir robes which the group helped to purchase have arrived. They are green with a white surplice and match the pew cushions. They will be used for the first time Sunday, Jan. 10. After adjournment, refreshments were served upstairs. Mrs. Beardsley and Mrs. Williams poured. Christmas cookies and fruit cake matched the holiday decoration theme.

Looking up from the patient register in Herrick Memorial Hospital's ultra-modern reception room is pretty Jeanene Heflin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Heflin, 303 E. Pottawatamie. A Junior class student, Jeanene works part time at the hospital on the cooperative training program, as a receptionist. In the foreground is part of the beautifully furnished lobby which opens from the new entrance. Jeanene is working in the hospital's newly equipped business office.

Sixty Years Past History Noted By Monday Club

An anniversary of what has become a Tecumseh institution was marked Monday afternoon when the Monday Club celebrated its 60th birthday with a program held in the Methodist church and attended by over one hundred past and present members. A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara and the devotional observance was the parable of the blind from the gospel of St. Mark, read by Mrs. Percy Hand.

Past presidents of the club who were present, Mrs. Guy Pocklington, Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, Mrs. Truman Rentschler, Mrs. Herbert Temple, Mrs. Perry Hayden and Mrs. E. J. Aebersold, and Mrs. R. S. Moore as an honorary president were introduced as were officers of the County Federation, Mrs. Paul Ahleman, Adrian, president; Mrs. Harold Cole, Manitou Beach, first vice president; Mrs. Cleon Mason, Blissfield; second vice president; Mrs. Harold Thielan, Adrian, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur Wonder, Adrian, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clifford Slocum, Addison, recording secretary and Mrs. Rentschler, Tecumseh, parliamentarian. After their introduction, all the honored ladies were presented with corsages.

Brief reports were given regarding the Cancer Clinic committee, about the club's sponsorship of a contestant for a musical scholarship and about the club bake sale to be held Saturday at Hanna's Insurance for the benefit of the Polio fund.

Announcement was also made about a change in the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert McCoy instead of with Mrs. Mel Partridge as scheduled.

Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney was leader of the afternoon's program which had as its theme the history of the club during its sixty years. Group singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" was the first number after which Mrs. Mulvaney sang Shelley's "When Soft Voices Die" as a vocal solo.

The first ten years' history from 1894 to 1904 was read by Mrs. W. G. Waldron and was followed by a medley of the songs of the period played by Mrs. C. A. Staulter and ending with group singing of "God Bless America."

Mrs. Claire Baland then read of the period from 1904 to 1914 and Mrs. Duaine Service sang Eugene Fields "Sleeping in God's Acre."

The ten years between 1914 and 1924 were described by Mrs. Ralph Westgate and the theme music of the period was sung by Mrs. Thomas Gallant, Brahm's "Lullaby."

Mrs. Veva Connor told of club activities from 1924 to 1934 and was followed by a piano solo "To a Wild Rose" played by Mrs. William Hayden, while the next ten years were covered by Mrs. Edward Harper and again the music was supplied by Mrs. Hayden, playing an Hungarian dance.

Mrs. Joe Rice brought the story up to date with the work of the past ten years and the musical part of the program was climaxed by Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. Hayden playing "Stars and Stripes Forever" as a piano duet.

The early history of the club was written by Mrs. John Shull, one of the club founders and later additions have been made by other members. All the ladies taking part in the parade of the years wore costumes appropriate to the period being covered which added much to the interest of the program.

A beautiful birthday cake was both decoration and refreshment for the tea hour which followed and was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Floyd Elliott, Mrs. Gale Fisher, Mrs. Herbert Murphy, Mrs. Guy Pocklington, Mrs. John Quigley, Mrs. Truman Rentschler, Mrs. W. Benham and Mrs. J. M. Artman. Mrs. Fred Marsh and Miss Edith Ingersoll presided at the tea and coffee urns.

Ultra Modern Hospital Wing Open For Public Inspecion Today, Sunday

There will be some "oh's" and "ah's" when Tecumseh wanders through the spacious new two-story addition to Herrick Memorial hospital today and Sunday.

For the ultra modern east wing is not only lavishly furnished but complete in up-to-date equipment for convenient, efficient, modern operation. It is the last word in hospital planning.

Doors will be thrown open to this new $250,000 addition at 2:30 this afternoon for public inspection. Sunday's open house hours are 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Then the addition will go into official use.

What Tecumseh will see on a "Cook's tour" of the addition is almost beyond accurate description, for a personal visit is necessary to absorb the true atmosphere of the surroundings.

From the outside the new addition blends perfectly with the old building. The new entrance features an outside vestibule, window box and overhead name marker. Landscaping is already underway. Within, the visitor steps across a threshold into a beautiful lobby and approaches the new business office, ideally located between the old and the new as a link to administer the affairs of the entire hospital.

Furnishings for the lobby were donated by the hospital auxiliary and are the last word in comfort and attractiveness.

Wandering through the two floors of the addition, visitors will see an array of new hospital rooms which are far from the drab rooms typical of hospitals in yesteryear. These new rooms increase the hospital's capacity to 76 beds.

The new addition includes a complete maternity ward with a well-lighted 24-bassinette nursery. There are two operating rooms, two delivery rooms, three labor rooms, a central supply and sterilizing section, 14 maternity beds in the new addition. The upstairs maternity section is serviced with an elevator.

A highlight of the dedication is tonight's Dedicatory Banquet which will be held at 6:30 at the Products Union Hall. All arrangements for the affair have been completed by the Hospital Auxiliary, Mrs. Charles Mensing, president, said.

The ticket committee, headed by Mrs. C. W. Hanna, reports selling 275 banquet tickets.

Guests will be greeted at the Union Hall by hostesses from the auxiliary membership, including Mrs. G. A. Rathbun, Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer, Mrs. Donald Nixon, Mrs. R. H. Moore and Mrs. Robert Hanna.

In addition to the speaker of the evening, Dr. Robin Buerki, there will be preliminary remarks by R. W. Herrick, F. K. Smith, Dr. M. R. Blanden and the new city mayor, Charles Mensing. Assembly singing will be led by Robert Moore with Mrs. Glenn Driscoll at the piano and the invocation and benediction will be given by the Rev. George Walworth and the Rev. Edward Escolme.

During the Thursday afternoon reception hours of 2:30 to 4 when the public will be welcomed at the hospital, auxiliary hostesses will be Mrs. Paul Eddy, Mrs. Harold Kelso, Mrs. Robert Fuller, Mrs. Vincent Haight, Mrs. Joseph Rohweder, Mrs. Frank Purcell, Mrs. Robert McCoy, Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mrs. R. H. Moore, Mrs. E. C. Boss, Mrs. William MacBeth and Mrs. Paul Keyser.

On Sunday beginning at 2:30 visitors will be welcomed by Mrs. Paul Ammer, Mrs. Allan Russell, Miss Alice Hopkins, Mrs. Veva Connor, Mrs. Frances Miller, Mrs. Charles Butler, Mrs. Ray Sluyter, Mrs. Hugh Andrews, Mrs. Joe Horvath, Mrs. J. F. Furry, Mrs. Carl Fosbender and Mrs. H. H. Hanna.

DAR Honors 1954 Good Citizens

Abi Evans Chapter D.A.R. is again sponsoring the selection of "Good Citizenship" girls. Those chosen for 1954 are Miss Margaret Kimerer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Kimerer, Britton and Miss Patsy Purcell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell, Tecumseh.

On February 12 at 2:30 p. m. the girls and their mothers will be guests of honor at a Good Citizens tea held at the home of Mrs. Leon Rossmans, 207 N. Union. There the girls will be presented with gold pins.

On April 27 they will be taken to Battle Creek to the Hart Hotel where they will be entertained at luncheon and other diversions, given in their honor. From the various girls chosen throughout the state one will be the lucky winner of a $100 bond. This selection is decided by a test taken at the time she is chosen, based on current happenings, government and noteworthy

Margaret Kimerer

Margaret Kimerer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Kimerer was chosen to represent the Britton-Macon Agricultural school.

She is editor of the school annual, secretary and treasurer of Student Council, member of school band and has been in both Junior and Senior play casts. She has been active in 4-H work for six years and is also active in church and choir work.

Patsy Purcell

Patsy Purcell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell is vice president of the high school student council and an Honor Roll "A" student. A member of the annual staff, and the Future Nurses Club, she was in the cast of both junior and senior plays. She is a member of the Presbyterian church and sings in the choir.

This is how your dimes and dollars are put to work battling polio by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. In 1954, the dime will have even greater power as a new front is opened in the 16-year battle against polio with a program of Polio Prevention. This will include gamma globulin and trials of the test vaccine. This program alone will cost $26,500,000. Give generously to the 1954 March of Dimes throughout the entire month of January.

INDIANS FALL IN FINAL MINUTE 51-48

Bill Benham and Al Hart powered Tecumseh high's Indians to a last minute advantage at Monroe Tuesday night, but the taller Catholic Central quintet made good with a final rally to nose out the Lawsonmen 51-48.

Friday night Tecumseh invades Clinton and then plays a pair away again next week before returning home Jan. 26 for a long stand.

The new gym will not be ready by the 26th, officials said.

Friday Coffee Sales Will Boost March Of Dimes

"Money from the March of Dimes and Dollars not only provides patients care and research but also wages a war on prevention of Infantile Paralysis," Mrs. Rolland Reister explained during Tecumseh's annual drive.

She pointed out that many interested organizations, not only here but throughout the nation, are putting their efforts into [illegible] affairs of all types to provide funds for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis rather than depending on treasury gifts as they have in the past.

However, treasury gifts are acceptible, if the benefit party cannot be arranged. Paul Ahleman, chairman of the Lenawee Chapter, hopes that contributions of individuals will be as generous as possible because there have been twenty-two cases in Tecumseh-Raisin townships, twelve of which were new during the past year. Contributing to the polio fund is the individual and community way of spreading a mantle of care over victims.

Several owners of local restaurants have agreed to give all coffee sales on Friday to this fund. Members of a Boy Scout troop with Ray Sheldon as Scoutmaster will take turns wheeling an empty wheel-chair through the business section from ten o'clock in the morning until nine o'clock at night on Saturdays during the month of January.

The Porch-Light Drive or Mothers March will be held on Thursday evening, Jan. 28 from 7:00 until 8:00 p.m. throughout the nation. In Tecumseh, this drive will be conducted by auxiliaries of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. Mrs. Rollin Fairbanks will have charge of the march in Raisin township and Mrs. Earl Bennington is chairman of Raisin township activities.

Mrs. Reister, who is a director of the Lenawee chapter in charge of Tecumseh and Raisin township area, says that the attitude is very fine and that in-so-far as possible, people are willing to cooperate with the "specials" designed for the drive. All checks should read "March of Dimes" and be left at the office of the local Chamber of Commerce. There will be no house to house solicitation except during the hour of the porchlight drive. The books of the Lenawee chapter are open for inspection at all times according to Paul Ahleman, chairman of the chapter.

Square Dancing Is New Experience For Sixteen Night School Couples

Sixteen Tecumseh couples are learning that the art of square dancing is indeed an art. Not for them is the free and easy swing of the barn dance. The pupils of Professor Alex Komosinski, of Wayne, who teaches a class of square dancing each Tuesday evening as part of the Adult Education program at the high school are taught the formal steps that make up the traditional quadrille.

Prof. Komosinski is a pupil of Mr. Lovett, formerly master of square dancing at Edison Institute, and well known in Tecumseh when he taught the pupils of the Ford schools here. Mr. Komosinski has himself been here several times before as he has led the dances given by the teacher's club each spring when they entertained the members of the school board. He is a friend of the Delmar Crisps, who studied under him at Michigan State Teachers College, Ypsilanti. He also teaches at Western Michigan College and in several high schools.

The course opened with three "sets" of dancers but has proved so popular that four more couples have joined and there may be a fifth set. One couple comes from Sand Creek and another from Ridgeway while the roll call of those from Tecumseh includes some of the newly and not so newly weds.

Mrs. Herbert Dillon is at the piano and each bssic step has to be practiced and mastered before the complete figure can be danced. When this course of eight lessons is finished another class may be organized about March 1 if desired.

Final Rites For Al Pope Wednesday

Alfred R. Pope Jr., known to his many friends in Tecumseh as Al, was buried in Oakwood cemetery, Adrian, Wednesday afternoon.

He was 32, a former member of the police force and jeweler at Gaston & Son, where he was associated with his father-in-law, Ed Heilman.

Al had served in the Pacific with the 1st Marines during World War II where he contracted malaria, a lingering illness he suffered until his death.

Born in Adrian, July 24, 1921, Mr. Pope attended school there and was graduated from high school in 1940 at Trilby, Ohio. On Jan. 6, 1950, he married Sarah Jane Heilman. They have one son, Edward G.

Late Sunday night Al was taken to the Adrian hospital. Five hours later he died, 3:15 a.m. Monday.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Perkiss Home and burial was made at Oakwood. Rev. R. G. Taylor, Adrian First Baptist church, officiated.

Surviving are his widow and son, his mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ethel M. Pope and Mrs. Estelle Davis, both of Adrian.

Mr. Pope was a member of the American Legion and Exchange club. He attended the Baptist church and belonged to the Masonic Lodge, Adrian.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN ANNUAL COOKIE SALE

The local committee in charge of Girl Scout activities under the leadership of Mrs. Truman Rentschler has completed plans for the annual cookie sale, which is the big fund raising campaign of the year for this project. It will begin this Saturday, with Mrs. Lyle Grigg as chairman and will continue each Saturday until all the ten scout troops have participated. Sales will be made in United Savings Bank during the entire banking hours and will be conducted by the scouts under the direction of their leaders.

LUTHERAN BUILDING PROGRAM IN PROGRESS

At a meeting of the Congregation of Grace Evangelical Lutheran church held at the church Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m., a report was made to the members on the progress of construction of the new church addition.

Ground was broken for the [illegible] by February of 1953, the basement had been finished and was enclosed and covered. Bonds were voted at that time for further work and in August the building of the upper structure was begun. By December, 1953, siding and insulating paper had been applied and a new furnace installed and now the two rooms adjacent to the chancel have been enclosed.

The building committee, who have had the work in charge are, P. Maves, T. B. Nilsen, W. Kaiser and H. Dinse and it is their aim to have the building completed during 1954.

FARMERS HERE FOR JOHN DEERE DAY

Further evidence of Tecumseh's position in this agricultural section of the state was noted at John Deere Day Monday by Fay Whelan who reported nearly 500 in attendance at the free lunch and movies. The most distant came from Berkey, Ohio.

It was an anniversary for John Deere Days in Tecumseh; thirty years ago the first such event was held in 1924 with 30 farmers on hand to see a tractor assembled.

Today the large gathering watched Hollywood stars on the screen as farm safety and mechanical operation of various types were portrayed.

Farmers came from a 20 mile radius, many from as far away as Milan and Blissfield.

Petition Asks Referendum

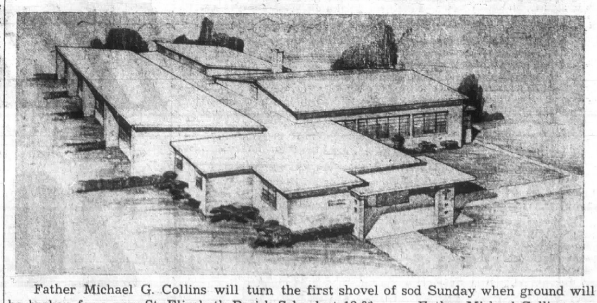
Earl Bryan is circulating a petition this week to bring the question of fluoridation to a public vote.

He said the petition will have more than enough names, a quarter of the registered voters, when it is filed late this week to comply with the charter provision for enacting a public vote.

The next session of the city council will be Monday night.

WILL BREAK GROUND SUNDAY

For New St. Elizabeth Parish School



Father Michael G. Collins will turn the first shovel of sod Sunday when ground will be broken for a new St. Elizabeth Parish School at 12:00 noon. Father Michael Collins was the first pastor at St. Elizabeth Parish, and it was under his guidance that the parish has grown and flourished. Work will follow immediately on the quarter-of-a-million dollar structure scheduled for completion by September. The Krieghoff Co. Adrian will build the parish school as shown in the above architect's drawing. The school will include four classrooms, an all purpose room, auditorium, administrative and general offices, teachers' room, kitchen, all on one floor, accommodating some 180 children, this new parish school is to be ready for use in September. It will be located at North Union and Brown Sts., at the north end of an eight acre piece of parish property. It will be modern in styling, exterior of brick matching the new Church completed several years ago. Floors finished with asphalt tile, timber ceilings, steel sash with large windows, some use of glass brick, gas heat, classrooms of standard size, set well back from the street, provided with plenty of ground for play, the completion of this new school will mark another step in a phenomenal development of a parish which a few years back only numbered a handful of families. Four Dominican Sisters from Adrian will staff the school.

ACRES OF DIAMONDS — How many times have you heard of fortune hunters who have voyaged to far off places only to eventually return home and find "acres of diamonds" in their own back yards. It took a lifetime for the fabulous wanderer of Russell Conwell's novel by that title to find that the treasure he sought lay at his own doorstep — a despised stone.

The moral to such a tale can be applied to Tecumseh. For years people here have been going elsewhere for goods and services — seeking diamonds which are planted right here at home. Modern merchandising has brought to Tecumseh 'diamonds' in the form of needed goods, which at one time were to be found only in the big city — Detroit, Toledo, Adrian.

The quality, style, variety and service is now to be found here in most every line. And it costs less to shop in Tecumseh, as many have already found out. They have found what they wanted, saving time, travel and annoyance of crowded streets and the weariness at day's end. There's enough here for everybody and more too, for increased business at home brings more business. When and if you find something which you cannot buy in Tecumseh, cooperate with our merchants, they can get it if it's available anywhere and you'll find in the future that they'll act accordingly.

NO SANTA CLAUS — A courageous leader is this fine president of ours who took the lollypop away from the baby last week and got away without a whimper. For Ike emphatically stated that this administration is no Santa Claus.

And he didn't stop there, for a vivid red, white and blue thread of old fashioned Americanism was woven through the talk which didn't beat around the bush but got right down to brass facts. He asked for a broadened social security system but flatly came out against socialized medicine. Individual initiative and effort will still provide the fundamental sources for our continued prosperity.

Whenever we heard or read any of those State of the Nation talks or national political speeches, we have always had in the past, a feeling that it was the streamlined writings of a master control board of phraseology experts who worded things in a round about way to say nothing in a lot of words. But listening to Ike is somehow different, he has a remarkable air of genuine sincerity, trying to give us our tonic straight from the spoon.

His straightforwardness is combined with a level thinking head for more economy in government. With the mistaken idea that Uncle Sam is a Santa Claus cleared-up, Ike points to the administration's masterful job of cutting more than $6,000,000,000 from the budget it inherited from the previous regime for the current fiscal year. Indications are that the budget for the next year will be five or six billions below the current year.

That represents commendable progress, even though budget balance is not yet assured. If Congress agrees to the Administration's proposals, it means that the government is curing itself of "the ingrained habit of extravagance."

This is all to the good. A balanced budget means a sound dollar and an end to the threat of inflation. The Administration must continue to strive for further reductions in spending, regardless of the demands of pressure groups.

WOULDN'T IT —

Wouldn't this old world be better
If the folks we meet would say,
"I know something good about you!"
And then treat us just that way?

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy
If each handclasp warm and true
Carried with it this assurance?—
"I know something good about you!"

Wouldn't life be lots more happy
If the good that's in us all
Were the only thing about us
That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy
If we praised the good we see?—
For there's such a lot of goodness
In the worst of you and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking, too?—
You know something good about me!
I know something good about you!

Strange Facts About Polio

Realty Views

Time marches on. John Jones, though now nearly retired, tried to keep pace. He had the latest of everything, except a home.

His home was comfortable, but out of style. However, John was so used to coming "home" every night he just took it for granted. Inside the house, however, it was a different story.

He bought a new car, but he parked it in his old garage. He bought an expensive, brand-new, 1954, TV Set. Naturally, he would have been insulted if the salesman had tried to sell him a used one. Yet, he brought it home to a well-used 1925 model house.

Just the other day, though, John saw that the house wasn't the best he could afford. He realized that his home had not kept step with his present income, tastes, or social requirements. John decided, rightfully, to enjoy life to the fullest in an up-to-the-minute home.

Perhaps you've never given this matter a thought. But, don't forget the home you live in is the outer shell around your whole family life. You spend most of your time there.

You should buy the best you can afford. Like John Jones, you'll discover a good home is the key to good living.

May we help you find it?

BAPTIST ACTIVITIES

Speakers for the mid year meeting of the Lenawee County Baptist Association which meets today with members of the local church as hosts are the Rev. and Mrs. Ben Armstrong, missionaries on leave from work in the Belgian Congo. Their experiences will be of interest to everyone regardless of church affiliations and they will speak at both afternoon and evening sessions, 3:30 and 8:30 p.m. Officers of the state Baptist association will also be present at this meeting and an all church supper will be served at 6 p.m. in the Youth House.

Another activity of church members is the fish supper and bake sale planned for Jan. 22 when baked goods will go on sale at 2 p.m. under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Stevenson and Mrs. Garland Gove. The Ways and Means committee, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barritt, Mr. and Mrs. Millo Swick, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Bilby and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett have charge of the supper which will be served country style beginning at 5:30. Proceeds of both projects will go into the building fund.

V.F.W. AUXILIARY

The regular meeting of the V.F.W. auxiliary last Wednesday evening was presided over by the president Mrs. Bert Warren and plans were made for the organization's part in the annual March of Mothers on Polio which will be held the evening of Thursday, Jan. 28.

Also to assist the Polio fund the auxiliary will hold a bake sale Friday, Jan. 22 at Hanna's Insurance office at 1 p.m., the proceeds to go to that cause. Mrs. Waldo Mohr and Mrs. Carl Kempf are chairmen for this sale.

Announcement was made of the visit to Detroit which will be made in February by the president of the national V.F.W. organization. In conclusion refreshments were served by Mrs. Harold Meade and Mrs. Ted Sisson. The date of the next meeting is Jan. 20.

Grade School News

Grade 4
Mrs. Whiting

We're back in school after the Christmas holidays. There are 32 of us now, as Ralph Slaughter has moved to Alabama.

We enjoyed our Christmas party at school very much. We exchanged gifts and had ice cream and Christmas cookies. As a surprise Allen Hizer's mother sent us each a candle favor, and Bruce Parrott's grandmother sent us each a candy cane.

Our teacher was ill on Tuesday, and Mrs. Crawford was our teacher.

We have been working hard in arithmetic learning long division. Most of us understand it now and like to do it.

In social studies we have been studying about sugar cane. Winfield Walker offered to write to a sugar refining company for materials and David Crosby got an address for us, from his grandfather. We are anxious to see what materials we will receive.

Grade 4
Mrs. Baily

We had a nice Christmas party the last day of school before vacation. Each one of us received a gift and had cookies and ice cream to eat.

We enjoyed our vacation and are now back at work. On Tuesday each one of us brought one of our Christmas gifts to show the other children. That was fun.

Maxine Fouts and Paul Weaver had birthdays in December.

Audrey LaFevre went on a trip to Florida during vacation. She told us about some of the things she enjoyed and brought us some shells that she gathered on the beach.

Dale McCarley visited his grandmother in Bexar, Alabama over Christmas.

Mrs. Baily is raeding the book "Five Little Peppers and How They Grew" to us.

Grade 5
Mrs. Osburn

The holidays are over and most of us are glad to be back in school.

Michael Tucker is still absent as he had his appendix out during our vacation. We all wrote letters to him.

Bradley Bruce has a patch and three stitches on his cheek where he got hit while playing a hockey game.

We are still struggling with long division but when the second semester starts we are going to learn to add and subtract fractions.

Mrs. Westdyke is back and we can have art again. This makes us happy as we like our art class.

For opening exercises this week we have been serambling up the letters of Christmas toys and then trying to guess them. Can you guess what "seciparhe" is? Larry Titley got it for Christmas.

Mrs. Osburn has just finished reading "Tom Sawyer" to us.

The girls in our room have formed a 4-H Club which we named "The Knitting Needle." We are going to learn to knit simple things this year.

The following officers were elected: President, Nancy Smith; vice president, Jane Hodges; secretary, Marjorie VanValkenberg; treasurer, Dianne Fuller. Jean Ann Hoag will be our reporter. We will meet each Tuesday in our school room.

Grade 5
Mrs. Ucksle

Everyone in our room had a very good time at our Christmas party. We missed Isabel McCombs and Billy Morgan. They began their vacation early. Isabel went to Hollywood, Florida to spend Christmas and Billy went to Tennessee.

We are happy that Delbert Poskarbiewicz has a new little sister.

In social studies we have begun to study a new unit. This is about our country as a whole.

We are very much interested in a calendar that has pictures of all the presidents of the United States.

Grade 5
Mrs. Runk

Now that the Christmas holidays are over we find that it is good to be back in school. We have told everyone over and over what we got for Christmas and have had some of our gifts in school. Harold Morgan is back from Tennessee, Norma Holland from Alabama, and Bruce LeFevre from Florida where they spent Christmas. Bruce brought back a cocoanut.

We had a surprise when we got back to school for our floor had been cleaned and waxed and the windows at the back of the room fitted with venetian blinds. These will be nice in the spring when the sun comes in from the back of the room as well as the side.

Our new officers for this month are Susan Nichols, president; Dick Hyatt, secretary; and Vickey Baughey, vice president and treasurer.

Fractions, which we have just started using in arithmetic, are presenting a challenge to us all. They are not so difficult as we thought they might be but they are confusing to some of us.

The joke which had us howling last week was, "What color is a hiccup?" And the answer is, "Burple." Its brother is "What color is shampoo?" The answer, "Drene, of course."

O.E.S. And Master Masons Celebrate

Master Mason night was celebrated Thursday evening by Chapter No. 51 O.E.S. with an address of welcome by the Worthy Matron Louise Partridge following the regular opening ceremony.

An invitation was read from the Monroe chapter to a dinner and reception in honor of Mrs. Catherine Gibson, member of the Jurisprudence Committee of the Michigan Grand Chapter to be held Jan. 19 at 6 p.m. A tea for Mrs. Gibson will be given on the same date by Ruby Cline at her home, 820 S. Monroe from 3 to 5:30 p.m. Tecumseh members are invited to both events and reservations for the dinner must be made by Jan. 15 with Mrs. Helen Hodges, phone 749.

It was announced that Villa calendars are still available for purchase by calling 820.

Any member or officer who does not have a proficiency card is urged to attend Proficiency classes, which are being held at the home of the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, 501 W. Chicago Blvd, starting Monday evening, Jan. 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Florence Gallant, member of the ways and means committee announced that the O.E.S. rummage sale will be held Feb. 19 and 20 at the Baptist church House. All members who can help by donating useable articles are asked to take them to the church Thursday, Jan. 18 for marking. Profits from this sale will be used for chapter improvement. A request was also made for baby food labels and metal coat hangers. These may be given to Louise Partridge or Helen Hodges.

A contribution was made to the March of Dimes.

The Worthy Patron Owen Partridge then introduced the Master Masons who were present and expressed pleasure at the good attendance.

After the closing of the meeting in the usual form, a play entitled "Sister Mason" was given by a cast which included George McCombs, Chester Beach, Dwight Hodges, Jean Barton, Macy Beach, Emma May Benham, Doris Baker, Beulah McCombs, Susie Musch, Leah Hart, Vera Driscoll, Katherine Hunt and Vera Driffell. The first three "brothers" were initiated into O.E.S. by the rest, as a degree team, with Jean Barton as leader. Their thorough initiation terminated with the presentation of corsages made of flowers, dog biscuits, onions and pecan nuts and they were given boxes of popular brand cigarettes which proved to be candy.

A cake walk in charge of Julie Johnson of the ways and means committee followed. Baked goods was furnished by the officers and the proceeds will be used for chapter improvements.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Doris Baker and Beulah McCombs, co-chairmen, and their committee, the tables being decorated by large top hats, with small ones as nut cups and by blue and gold streamers.

At the next regular meeting, Feb. 4, there will be initiation work, the date for officer's practice to be announced later.

BAPTIST WOMEN

Thirty members of the Baptist Women's Society were entertained last Thursday evening by Mrs. Claire Beland's story of her summer trip to Alaska. The program was completed by several whistling solos given by Miss Ardis Drewyor. Mrs. Carl Kempf conducted devotions.

Mrs. Eddie Kirkland presided at the business meeting during which she applonted Mrs. E. C. McConnell as chairman to represent the organization in making arrangements for the World Day of Prayer, March 5.

Plans were discussed for a public fish supper and bake sale to be conducted by the society Jan. 22, the sale to start at 2 p.m. and the supper at 5:30, and for serving the Rotary-Ann banquet, Feb. 12. Final arrangements were also made for the entertainment of the Lenawee Baptist Association which will meet with the Tecumseh church this afternoon and evening. The meetings begin at 2 p.m. with recess for dinner at 6 and will resume at 7:30. Decorations for the dinner, which is an all-church affair, will be furnished by Mrs. Carl Kempf and Mrs. Llewellyn Sisson.

VESTRYMEN ELECTED AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The annual potluck dinner and Parish Meeting of St. Peter's Episcopal Church was held in the Parish House Monday and was well attended by the parishioners.

Reports of the several organizations showed activities of the past year, and were approved as read.

The following names of men who will serve as the vestry for 1954 are: John Brown, Peter Butler, Jack Curtiss, Glenn Drisley, Lee Randall, L. W. Larsen, Russell Cooper, Philip Colgrove, William Wright and Harold Morey.

The annual meeting closed with prayer and benediction by the rector, Edward C. Dickin.

The vestry met immediately following this for appointment of officers, delegates and alternate delegates to the Diocesan Convention. They were senior warden, Larry Larsen; junior warden, Phil Colgrove; secretary of the vestry, Charles Manley; treasurer of the parish, John Zeigler; delegates to convention, Russell Cooper, Glenn Driscoll, Leo Lohrman, Harold Timmons, Larry Larsen, Phil Colgrove and William Wright.

FAMILY NIGHT

Monday evening will be Family Night at the Methodist church with a potluck supper at 6:30 in charge of the Junior Girls Sunday school class whose teacher is Mrs. J. T. Cullihan. An interesting talk will follow the supper given by the Rev. Henry T. Wheeler, Methodist missionary in Tuna, the Belgian Congo, who is in the United States on furlough. Mr. Wheeler is described as one of the few men who is a user of the Swahili dialect of the Congo and who has translated a hymn book into that language.

CHILD STUDY CLUB

Nearly twenty-five members and guests of the Child Study Club were present for the January meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Philip Colgrove. "Let's Look At Our County" was the program topic, with Mrs. Leo Bishop as leader, and the subject was very ably presented by LeRoy Titley, township supervisor. He outlined the various county departments and bureaus with their officers and functions and told how citizens could cooperate to make them most effective. The discussion period which followed brought out many more interesting points.

The club decided to use the proceeds of their Christmas bazaar as their contribution to the Polio fund. Refreshments were served by the hostess with the help of Mrs. Robert Manchester and Mrs. Hershel King and clever little sail boats were the children's favors, which were supplied by Mrs. Lester Runk, Mrs. Howard Truesdale and Mrs. Warren Peck. Mrs. Robert King, Mrs. Charles DeRemi and Mrs. Wayne Pence were guests of the evening.

CLAIRE BELANDS WED FORTY YEARS

The fortieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Beland will occur January 17 and in recognition of their years of care and devotion as parents, their children have arranged a reception in honor of the event. Open house will be held Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the Baptist Youth House with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beland and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beland as hosts. All friends of the honored guests will be welcomed but are requested to bring no gifts.

HOLLOWAY

At the annual meeting of the Holloway Presbyterian church last Thursday evening officers were elected for the year of 1954. Mrs. Elwood Comfort and Roy Cadmus were re-elected elders and trustees are Clark Sinclair, Lyle Calhoun and Floyd Judson. Leslie Calhoun was chosen Sunday school superintendent with Mrs. Paul Kopke as first assistant and Lyle Calhoun as second. Secretary-treasurer is Margaret Ann Lunn assisted by Jill Bennington and the pianist is Mrs. Kenneth Kopke. In the primary department the superintendent is Mrs. Rollan Fairbanks with Mrs. Gale Austin as her assistant; the flower treasurer is Mrs. Kenneth Kopke and Mrs. Bertram Klappick has charge of the cradle roll.

There will be a meeting of the Holloway Ladies Aid Thursday, Jan. 21 at the home of Mrs. Clark Sinclair when Mrs. Hoyt Whelan of Tecumseh will show pictures taken on her recent trip to Hawaii.

Residents of the Holloway area will be interested in the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Templeton of the marriage of Mrs. Templeton's sister Helen Fowler Jewett to Harry Edward Hopper which took place Jan. 7 at the Templeton home in Reading, Mass. After February first they will be at home on Maumee Court in Adrian.

FLORENCE WELD GUILD

Mrs. Ted LaBounty assisted by Miss Alice Hopkins entertained the Florence Weld Mission Guild Monday evening in her home on E. Logan street. Mrs. E. E. Davis led the devotions which were followed by a brief business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Thomas Hamilton. The group voted five dollars to the Polio fund. Mrs. Margaret Kidman then presented an entertaining book review of "Labrador Nurse." Refreshments were served by the hostesses in conclusion. The February meeting will be a bazaar at the home of Miss Mary Whitelock assisted by Mrs. J. F. Rector.

I'm Often Wrong

By Neil Hunter

NOTES ON C.A.P. — An oldtimer is a person who has become so accustomed to his own way of life that he no longer sees the new ways of his community. Savvy?

New things which are growing in the stride of forward progress. Things like the Civil Air Patrol which is a part of the new American way and is making a firm stand right here in Tecumseh with a growing membership and increased activity.

There's something about these flier friends of ours that we can't help but like and the story of their organization's development is just as exciting as the settlement of the old west. Born of the need for a home-front airlift in the days just before Pearl Harbor, Civil Air Patrol has grown both in numbers and stature until now, with the lighting of the 12th candle on the cake, CAP ranks as a full partner with the regular Air Force, the Air National Guard, and the Air Reserve on America's aerial team.

Civil Air Patrol has come a long way from the days of early 1942, when the infant organization's tiny, single engine planes ranged out over the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico in search of enemy submarines. The service rendered by these volunteer patriots convinced people that CAP rated a permanent place in the nation's aviation make-up.

The 79th Congress gave Civil Air Patrol a charter to act as a non-profit corporation dedicated to the proposition of promoting civil aviation, bringing aviation education to the youth of America and performing certain non-combatant missions for the Air Force.

In the spring of 1948, action by the 80th Congress made CAP the official civilian auxiliary of the U. S. Air Force.

Since that time Civil Air Patrol has constantly strengthened its place as a partner on the defense team through dilligent labors in behalf of air power.

Congress in chartering CAP stated that it would "provide an organization of private citizens with adequate facilities to assist in meeting local and national emergencies." Today that organization includes 36,269 such private citizens of whom some 16,000 are rated pilots and 2,500 are observers. These same pilots have brought into CAP — for use in emergencies — more than 4,000 private aircraft.

This organization also includes a nation-wide radio network featuring approximately 9,000 mobile, airborne and portable stations and 1,800 fixed installations.

Augmenting the private aircraft committed to CAP use by their CAP-member-owners are 2,700 other private planes offered by non-member-owners for use in case of need; some 300 surplus liaison and training planes owned by CAP Inc.; and nearly 500 Air Force liaison planes on-loan to CAP.

Civil Air Patrol's accomplishments as it enters its 13th year of activity are indicated by the organization's record for the first six months of 1953. According to the Air Forces Rescue Service, CAP has flown 83 percent of the total sorties and 73 percent of the total hours in all search and rescue activity accomplished in continental United States.

The CAP Coordinated High School Aviation Education program has been incorporated into 200 high schools and junior colleges. Five thousand students have enrolled in the course and 2199 of these are CAP members.

One of the prime missions assigned Civil Air Patrol by the Air Force is the maintenance of a pool of trained cadets as a source of personnel procurement for the Air Force and civil aviation. Today some 48,000 cadets are active in the CAP program. In the first six months of this year 513 entered various branches of the armed services. Of these, 277 chose the Air Force.

The twelfth birthday of a national organization is generally not considered to be a very auspicious occasion. Companies and agencies proud of their heritage in a young country boast of golden, silver and centennial anniversaries, but seldom call attention to birthdays between one and 20 years.

However, Civil Air Patrol reached the ripe young age of 12 years in December and we are sounding the trumpets for this occasion.

We are not waving banners because Civil Air Patrol has reached its 12th birthday. Rather, we are taking this opportunity to review accomplishments of the organization in its dozen years of life, and pausing to contemplate the years ahead.

CAP is not motivated by desires for profit, influence or power — incentives common to many American corporations. Civil Air Patrol is a corporation of people bound together by only two things — an appreciation of aviation and a sincere desire to be of service to others.

These feelings are now shared by some 80,000 people. As long as these unselfish incentives continue to exist, Civil Air Patrol will exist and grow — a firm supporter of air power and a servant of the people.

Talk of the Town

Mrs. L. B. Dimond visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Adamson last week.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw that Mrs. Robert Laidlaw and children arrived safely in Yokohama, Japan the day before New Year's. Her husband met her with the good news of his promotion to the rank of captain.

Miss Louise Phelps is recovering from a recent illness at her home on East Kilbuck street.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Updyke and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Waldron were hosts Sunday evening during the social hours of the Methodist church.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Bowers were weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Howe Jr. in Hillsdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hadley and son Bill left Wednesday for a month's vacation at Fontana, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe O'Pravil left by air last week for two weeks stay at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Mrs. George McKendry is quite seriously ill at her home on west Monroe road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Moore left Wednesday to spend the remainder of the winter at the Vinoy Park Hotel, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cole of Detroit spent the weekend here wiht Mr. Cole's sister, Mrs. Lillian Hoagland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Hara and son Neil spent Sunday in East Lansing as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert O'Hara.

Mrs. Carl Burch has been ill for the past three weeks at her home on E. Kilbuck St.

Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett, who underwent major bone surgery at University hospital, Ann Arbor, last week is reported to be progressing satisfactorily, but will probably be a patient there for the next six weeks.

Richard Hubbard is expected home this weekend from East Lansing to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hubbard.

D.A.R. CHAPTER

Election of officers comprised most of the business session of the January meeting of the Abi Evans Chapter D.A.R. last Friday afternoon held at the home of Mrs. Mabel Whiting. Those elected were: Regent, Mrs. Joe Rice; first vice regent, Mrs. Charles Branigin; second vice regent, Mrs. Neil Pearson; chaplain, Mary H. Swan M. D.; recording secretary, Mrs. Arthur Brown; corresponding secretary, Miss Ethel Garlinghouse; treasurer, Mrs. Don Hunt; registrar, [illegible]orian, [illegible]ss Edith Ingersoll; librarian, Mrs. Vergil Deming; directors, Mrs. Kenton Hunt and Mrs. LaVern Russell.

With the exception of Mrs. Branigin, who had been second vice regent and Mrs. Pearson and Mrs. Don Hunt, the officers were the same as those who held office in 1953.

During the program hour, Mrs. Fred Morse of Jasper spoke in a most interesting manner about her experiences as a teacher of home economics on an Indian reservation in South Dakota nearly fifty years ago. The topic of the afternoon was "Indians Today" and Mrs. Morse said that while her information covered what was practically a pioneering period, a visit not long ago led her to believe conditions were little changed today.

The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments after the meeting by Mrs. Charles Mensing, Miss Mary Swan and Mrs. Burtsel Claus.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

The Men's Fellowship of the Adrian Quarterly Meeting met Monday evening at the Tecumseh Friends church with the men of the local church as hosts. Business of the regular session was transacted and the devotional message was given by the Rev. David LaShana, pastor of the Ypsilanti church. Waldo Johnson of Birdsill then entertained the group with his moving pictures of wild life and his adventures of hunting and fishing.

Announcing The New Packard CLIPPER

The new Packard CLIPPER Panama Hardtop Sportiest car in the new CLIPPER line.

See the 1954 Packard line at your dealer's beginning Friday, January 15th.

America's Newest Medium-Priced Car!

Luxury at a lot less...because Packard builds it

A year ago the new Packard CLIPPER was introduced as America's newest medium-price car.

■ First, automobile men looked it over. Then reporters looked it over. Columnists looked it over. The motoring public looked it over—and the news started! And this was the news: "That's a lot of car for the money!"

■ And it was a lot of car for the money. And it is a lot of car for the money. Because Packard builds it. Packard-built quality is traditional in the automobile world.

So the news spread!

■ People all over America saw and drove this newest and most glamorous addition to the medium-price field—and bought it.

■ People who had driven other makes for years switched to the new Packard CLIPPER. It was a fine year.

■ So for 1954 the new CLIPPER brings you fine-car luxuries, fine-car power, fine-car ride . . . (the high-price features everybody wants) . . . and yet at a popular, medium price!

■ We have built a finer car for '54 because experience with the '53 CLIPPER proved that there are many thousands of Americans who want a true luxury car in the medium-price range.

■ Most cars in the medium-price field are simply big brothers of smaller cars made by the same company. These cars may offer the modern gadgets and the smooth look of the big car, but in most cases their basic engineering and production is still small-car engineering.

"Packard-built" makes the difference

■ No feature or claim will ever give you a more powerful reason for buying a CLIPPER than the name Packard.

■ Packard started building quality into automobiles more than half a century ago. Of the more than fifty cars displayed at the first automobile show in Madison Square Garden in 1903, only Packard survives!

■ You'll find the reason when you take command of a Packard CLIPPER and put it through its paces over a road of your own choosing. Make that date with "Packard-built quality at a popular, medium price" very soon . . . won't you?

■ You'll get luxury for a lot less in a Packard CLIPPER.

Since you can't test the new Packard CLIPPER at the famous Packard Proving Ground, get the story, fact by fact, on the pocket proving ground at your dealer's. But don't stop there! For the real thrill, drive a CLIPPER.

Is That So

By Miss Clara Waldron

(First of two articles about the Charles Branigin house).

It would have made things much easier for the recorders of local history if our house-building forebears had inscribed a few dates somewhere among the walnut timbers they used so lavishly. But who thinks of himself as an ancestor of an historical figure? Certainly not Jacob Ketcham when he was building the house west of town now owned and cherished by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Branigin.

It is a matter of record that he bought the land on which the house stands in 1824, lived with his family in the new settlement that summer, spent the winter in Monroe and returned the next spring to make his permanent home here. That home is the house that still stands, and unless the family lived for a short period in a temporary log shelter, it was built in the year 1825. At least one other "frame" house was built that year—the Green Tavern of General Brown on the southwest corner of Chicago and Maumee, which burned a few years later—and as the saw mill was in busy operation by that time, the necessary lumber would have been available.

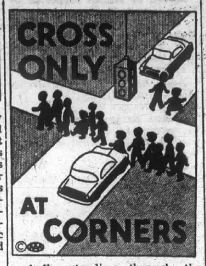
It is a little difficult to visualize the original house behind the pillars of the twentieth century portico which give it a borrowed elegance of southern colonial. But a picture, taken in 1877, shows the plain facade. The Ketchams came from the east and their house was as New England as mince pie. It was a typical example of what is commonly called a "salt box" house, rectangular, of two stories and an attic with a shed wing at the back and other additions built thereto.

Of the barn-frame construction of the period, its handhewn beams are so wide that in the second story they project several inches into the rooms for the entire 35 feet of the length of the house and pose a problem for the paperhanger. The house has the wide cornice that was nearly always used at that time, finished with a molding and turned to ornament the gable ends of the structure.

Its small paned windows are evenly spaced and it has a centrally placed front door. Except for the cornice, this door is the one concession to architecural adornment. It is deeply recessed, framed with wide, interestingly carved pillars and lintel and shelters a heavy, paneled door which has the narrow side windows characteristic of the time.

The wide front door opens into a hall extending through the main structure and flanked on either side by large square rooms, which are repeated in the upper story. The east wing which now adds two more rooms was not part of the original house but there were several rooms in the rear wing. The remains of a large fireplace removed from the west room during the reconstruction of the house indicate that that was its method of heating and probably others had been removed earlier.

It will be seen that as first built it was not a very large house and yet it was one of the early inns of the vicinity. Other settlers enjoyed the hospitality of the Ketchams while their homes were being built and later after the LaPlaisance Bay road had been constructed in 1833, and westward migration streamed through Tecumseh, it was probably often crowded to capacity.



Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES Library

New books at the Library are mostly for the benefit of the younger patrons.

For the teen-agers there are "In Clean Hay" by Kelly; "Patsy's Mexican Adventures" by Grumbin; "Buttons and Bows" by Galagher; "Summer Date" by Brucker; "Deep Down Under" by Floherty and "Love, Laurie" by Cavauna.

Of interest to the little folks are "Collected Poems of Freddy the Pig" by Brooks; "The Birthday Story" by Buntain; "The Loneliest Chicken" by Byrd; "All Kinds of Dogs" by Chandoha; "Big Black Horse" by Farley; "Mickey Sees the U. S. A." by Walt Disney; "Cowboy Small" and "Papa Small" by Lenski; "A Trip for Tommy" by Friskey and "Plants We Know" by Miner.

Many of these are illustrated in a fascinating manner, especially, of course, the one by Walt Disney which has his own cartoons.

When you see telephone lines going up, you see proof your telephone company believes in the future of your community.
Your company backs that faith by investing millions of dollars to improve your service. Many of your neighbors share its faith, too. Some show it by investing their savings; others by investing their careers; some by doing both.
It's faith . . . and partnership like this . . . that keeps America great.

The stunning new 1954 Buick Super Riviera, master buy in the middle-price class.
One look settles it—
Buy of the year is BUICK

HIGHEST-POWERED CAR at its price in America is the new 200-hp CENTURY—masterpiece of Buick's outstanding values for 1954.
MILTON BERLE STARS FOR BUICK
See the Buick-Berle Show Tuesday Evenings
We knew them for great automobiles the moment we saw them.
But it turns out we have a far bigger hit on our hands in the new 1954 Buicks than we ever figured.
Folks in a steady stream come into our showroom, look over these glamorous new beauties, and tell us—with signed orders—that Buick's really the beautiful buy, hands down.
It's the biggest new-car excitement in a long, long time—and you ought to take a look at it, firsthand.
Because one look at the sensational new styling of these breath-taking Buicks shows them to be the freshest new automobiles in years.
One look into the modern interiors—and through that spectacular new back-swept windshield—firms the conviction.
One look at the new V8 power story, the new ride story, the new handling-ease story—practically wraps up the sale.
And then, one look at the prices—one eye-opening experience with the hottest values to be brought on the American automotive market in 1954—clinches Buick as the buy of the year.
Come in and see for yourself—the sooner, the smarter.

STYLE DIVIDEND

With its trend-setting advances . . . Ford's worth even more for '54

3 New Body Styles . . . 28 models

Ford offers you three brand new body styles in its line of newly created models. There's a new transparent-roofed Crestline Skyliner . . . a sparkling new Crestline Fordor . . . and a smart new Customline Ranch Wagon. There are 28 models in all, for each of Ford's 14 body styles is available with the new Y-block V-8 or the new I-block Six engine.

New Astra-Dial Control Panel

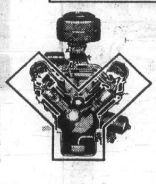
It's designed both for beauty and practicality. The speedometer is placed high on the panel where you can quickly spot the figures almost without taking your eyes off the road. Like the '54 Ford's beautiful new upholsteries and trim, the Astra-Dial Control Panel is color-harmonized with the sparkling new outside body color of your choice.

It's the Dividends that make it Worth More

PERFORMANCE DIVIDEND

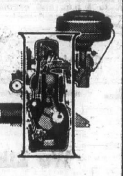
New 130-h.p. Y-BLOCK V-8

An extra-deep skirt extending below crankshaft gives greater rigidity for smoother, quieter operation, longer engine life. Free-turning overhead valves, low-friction design, Double-Deck intake Manifold and high-turbulence combustion chambers give brilliant new responsiveness . . . 18% more power, greater economy.

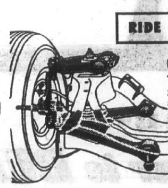


New 115-h.p. I-BLOCK SIX

This new Six has an extra-deep block for greater rigidity, smoother, quieter performance, longer engine life. Free-turning overhead valves, high-turbulence combustion chambers, low-friction design and Ford's Automatic Power Pilot help produce 14% more power —with finer performance on even less gas.



RIDE DIVIDEND



New Ball-Joint Front Suspension

This revolutionary new suspension is the greatest chassis advance in 20 years . . . and it's exclusive to Ford in its field. It gives front wheels greater up and down travel to smooth out the going on rough roads. And it helps keep the wheels in true alignment for consistently easy handling. Movement of the wheels is on ball joints whether up and down, as wheels travel over rough spots, or in steering as wheels turn right or left. Ball joints are sealed against dirt and water.

DIVIDEND IN DRIVING EASE

Ford offers five optional power assists* you might expect to find only in America's costliest cars

Master-Guide power steering does up to 75% of your steering work, yet leaves you with natural steering "feel" on the straightaways. Swift Sure Power Brakes do up to one-third of the work in stopping. Fordomatic Drive gives torque converter smoothness and the "Go" of automatic mechanical gears. And only Ford in its field offers Power-Lift Windows, both front and rear, that open or close at a button's touch . . . and a 4-Way Power Seat that adjusts up and down, as well as front and back, at a touch of the controls. They're all worth-while optional extras available in the 1954 Ford!

*At extra cost. F.C.A.

No CAR in the low-price field has ever offered so many "Worth More" features as the '54 Ford. In addition to all the features that have already established Ford as the "Worth More" car, you now get a host of brand new dividends. These include a choice of two new deep-block engines . . . the most modern engines in the industry. You also get Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension . . . beautiful new interiors . . . and styling that will make your heart beat faster.

And, remember, Ford also makes available to you all the optional power assists . . . features you might expect to find only in the costliest cars.

If you have not yet seen the new Ford models for 1954, come in and inspect them today. Then Test Drive a '54 Ford . . . and once you do, you'll want to drive it home!

More than ever . . . THE STANDARD for THE AMERICAN ROAD

'54 FORD

Come in . . . Test Drive it today!

Safety Program Returns Friday

Once again popular Jerry McSafety will be back in Tecumseh with his police sergeant master Wayne Fernelius, to entertain and instruct grade school pupils with two performances Friday in Central auditorium.

The little policeman-ventriloquist is returned to Tecumseh after a year's absence by C. O. Butler, of Butler Motor Sales, and will appear before grade pupils at 10 a.m. and again at 2 p.m. Friday. He will also in the dealer's show rooms to entertain the public after his school talk.

Jerry McSafety's illustrated lectures are practically a command performance with youngsters. He demonstrates with songs, stories and exciting charts the practical commonsense safety rules for children of every age . . . and leaves a lasting impression in the minds of his youthful audiences.

Jerry McSafety and Wayne Fernelius have appeared at many other groups to dramatize schools, lodges, churches and ...ised for careful observance ...f approved safety rules.

No. 9: Don't Change a Tire In Traffic

No person would be foolhardy enough to stand within two feet of a railroad track as a streamliner roars by. But some motorists take far greater risks when they change a tire on the shoulder of a high speed highway with cars whizzing by at 60 miles an hour.

The stage is set for disaster—especially at night when a motorist can't see the emergency repair situation until he is almost upon it.

All it takes to produce an accident is for the tire changer to slip back a foot or two or for the oncoming motorist to move over a little due to a puff of crosswind, a car coming toward him, a car passing him or headlight glare.

Many View Hospital Addition

NEW WING DEDICATED AT BANQUET; 1,100 ATTEND OPEN HOUSE

Tecumseh went out of its way this past weekend to inspect the extensive two-story addition to Herrick Memorial hospital — which surpassed the fondest expectations of the 1,100 who turned out. For the new east wing structure contains the latest facilities for medical treatment with its ultra-modern equipment and furnishings.

The Sunday afternoon open house followed an official dedication banquet Thursday evening when Mayor Charles Mensing accepted the completed addition in behalf of the community from hospital board chairman Frank K. Smith.

During the banquet, which was attended by doctors, medical personnel and numerous friends of the hospital from distant points, a throng of 300 heard the "inside" story of the hospital's origination, development, growth and general background.

Ray W. Herrick, donor of the $250,000 wing and main supporter of the project since its conception in 1937, gave an impressive memorial address in which he paid tribute to the late Dr. H. H. Hammel, R. K. Anderson and others who have given so generously of their time and talent to make possible such an outstanding structure in Tecumseh. He also praised the nurses, Miss Gertrude Spaulding, the staff of doctors and the women's auxiliary.

Mr. Herrick pointed to future growth of the community and need for even more hospital accommodations in not too far off years. He said the hospital belonged to the people and invited them to the open house.

It was at these two public open house gatherings, Thursday and Sunday, that members of the auxiliary went into action, escorting over a thousand citizens through the hospital's newly completed corridors.

Thursday, the hostesses were assisted by members of the Future Nurses Club and Sunday afternoon Troop 4 of Boy Scouts whose leader is Ray Skelton was on hand to help. Each day the hospital personnel also acted as guides.

The interest and admiration of the crowd was almost evenly divided between the lobby with its modern furnishings, supplied by the auxiliary and the ultra modern features of the nursery. Much favorable comment was heard regarding the soft but cheerful colors used throughout, the frequent observation being "it does not look like a hospital."

The new type bassinetts, the workroom for baths and treatments between the two nurseries and the two isolation areas were all objects of special interest as being departures from the old set up. Two delivery, three labor and two operating rooms are all on the second floor as is the new sterilizing room with equipment and capacity to supply the entire hospital. Fourteen beds for new mothers are on the first floor, each room equipped with toilet facilities and each having oxygen piped in for immediate use.

The new boiler room came in for much favorable comment, especially among the masculine visitors, and each group was routed through the old and inadequate kitchen and nurses dining room to show the basis for future change.

Because of a change in the announced program arrangements of the dedicatory banquet, Thursday evening the toastmaster was the Rev. George Walworth who was introduced by the board chairman, F. K. Smith. The Rev. E. C. Dickin pronounced the invocation and group singing was led by R. H. Moore, with Mrs. Glenn Driscoll at the piano. Rev. Edward Escolme gave the benediction.

Dr. M. R. Blanden, chief of staff, welcomed those attending and introduced guests and friends present. The formal presentation of the new building was made by Mr. Smith and it was accepted on behalf of the city by Mayor Mensing.

The main speaker of the evening, Robin Buerki, M.D., executive director of Henry Ford hospital, wh had acted as consultant in the planning of the new building, emphasized that the hospital existed for the service it could render to the community. He reviewed the relationship between the modern hospital and the public and stressed the need for continued cooperation.

Arrangements for the reception and banquet were the work of the hospital auxiliary, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Mensing.

The sparkling newness of the hospital had been brought to a high luster by long hours of hard work on the part of the maintenance staff. It combined with the many beautiful flowers, compliments of friends, with the colorful draperies and walls and with the animated crowd to produce a holiday atmosphere that will probably never again pervade its work-a-day walls.

GROUND BREAKING ceremonies were no sooner completed Sunday at St. Elizabeth Parish school than workmen took up with construction equipment the job that Father Michael Collins started with a small spade. Pictured during the history making ceremony are Father Thomas Collins, Father Michael G. Collins, Sister Regina Marie, O.P., and Sister Francis Paul, O.P. The four classroom parish school will be located next to the Catholic church on North Union street. It is of one-story design adapted to addition. Completion is expected by September. The above photo by Dixon Studio shows only a portion of the throng on hand for ground breaking last Sunday.

Starting Time Changes Announced By Supt. J. H. McDowell As New Patterson School Nears Completion

By Supt. McDowell

Tecumseh school busses have been seriously overcrowded all this year due to the fact that the Patterson school and the High school additions were not completed.

It was planned to operate the elementary school and secondary school at widely spaced intervals when school opened so that the busses would not be overcrowded. However, the Patterson school will be open on Monday, Jan. 25, if all goes well, which is the start of a new semester of school.

There then will be no need for classes running through the noon hour at the High school and home room periods will also be provided. These home room periods will be 15 minutes in length daily, except Friday when they will be 35 minutes in length. These periods are provided for the purpose of attendance needs, counseling, special programs, development of school spirit, discussion of future educational opportunities and similar information.

The kindergarten children will begin school at 9 a.m. and be dismissed at 11:15 a.m.; the afternoon kindergarten will begin at 1:15 p.m. and out at 3:30 p.m. No kindergarten children will be transported by bus in the afternoon. The first through the sixth grades will begin at 9:00 a.m. and dismiss at 12:15 p.m., start at 1:15 p.m. and dismiss at 3:30 p.m. The seventh through the twelfth grades will begin at 8 a.m. and dismiss at 12:07 p.m., reconvene at 1:08 p.m. and dismiss at 3:01 p.m.

It is possible by this schedule to serve both the secondary and the elementary pupils in the high school cafeteria at noon and provide three trips by each of our busses which will eliminate the overcrowding in the busses. No secondary bus child will have to leave home more than approximately 35 or 40 minutes before school opens and will be home within approximately that length of time after school.

Elementary children who ride the first bus must leave approximately 55 minutes before school and will be home within approximately 25 minutes after school. Elementary children who ride the second bus will leave home approximately 25 minutes before school and be home within 55 minutes after school. Bus children have been furnished new bus schedules and should be ready for the proper bus on Monday, January 25th. Parents who pick up both elementary and secondary children at noon will have but eight minutes to wait instead of the present fifteen minutes.

Other additional reasons which were important in considering the time changes were the requests by numerous parents within the city that their high school boys and girls be out earlier in the day so that they might work at home or in stores and factories. The farm population has also been interested in an earlier closing hour.

The spring sports program of golf, baseball, and track has also been a headache for the school. Everytime there was an event of this kind the boys missed at least two classes which was a hindrance to their formal education. Now, they will miss but one and on home dates only a portion of one period.

There will be no further bus transportation for pupils on North Union for these elementary children all live within one mile of the Patterson school which is the limit for furnishing bus transportation. Secondary pupils may be expected to walk up to two miles but in no case will this be necessary as all children more than 1½ miles from the school will receive transportation.

A new elementary physical education program is being inaugurated Monday. Each elementary child in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will receive approximately one half hour of physical education per day by a qualified physical education teacher of the same sex. One class period each week will be devoted to showers, which in the past have been a luxury as well as a necessity which was denied these children.

Classes will be less than an average of 20 pupils in size and results should be noticed by parents very soon. This has been a portion of a child's life in our schools neglected because of lack of facilities. We hope that all will enjoy this new program.

Robert Warren To Join Herald Staff

A new face will be seen on Tecumseh's main street beginning Monday, when Robert L. Warren assumes his duties as assistant to the publisher of The Herald, succeeding Neil Hunter.

Mr. Warren is a native of Hillsdale and comes to Tecumseh from Lapeer, Mich., where he has been associated with the Lapeer County Press, America's largest weekly newspaper.

He is a graduate of the University of Michigan, receiving both Bachelor's and Master's degrees in journalism. He served as editor of the Wayne Dispatch for four years before going to Lapeer.

Mr. Warren is married and the father of four children, and as soon as housing is available, Mrs. Warren and family will come to Tecumseh.

Mr. Hunter, who has been with The Herald for a year, will go to Richmond, Mich., where he will be editor of the Richmond Review.

FOR POLIO

Porchlight workers are needed to call on homes during the evening of Thursday, Jan. 28. Workers will go out in teams of three, a driver and two "leg men." Each team can do a street in an hour.

Volunteers are asked to call Mrs. Rolland Reister 66-R, Mrs. Ted Golat 264-W or Mrs. Grenval Spangler 380-J — or be on hand Jan. 28 at the VFW Post rooms.

PTA TO SHOW POLIO FILM

Because of the broad interest in the program planned for the January meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association Thursday evening, it will be held in the auditorium of the Central building instead of the high school cafeteria as usual. A film furnished by the National Polio Foundation and narrated by Helen Hayes will be shown by Paul Ahleman of Adrian, county polio chairman. The meeting will begin promptly at eight o'clock and the public is urged to attend.

Share of Gasoline Sales Friday Go To March of Dimes

Friday will be "Gasoline Day" in Tecumseh as far as March of Dimes authorities are concerned — for when you drive up to a local service station and say "fill 'er up" you'll be giving a share of the proprietor's regular profit to the fight against polio.

Mrs. Rolland Reister, director of the Lenawee Chapter for Infantile Paralysis in charge of Tecumseh and Raisin townships, and Mrs. Ted Golat, president of the newly formed Tecumseh-Raisin Council, report that the drive for polio funds is progressing satisfactorily in this area. The organizations and individuals feel their responsibility in the matter and are doing something about it.

Several benefit projects have been held with good results and more are scheduled. The churches are realizing that this is their opportunity to apply the teachings of Christianity and as a result are supporting this drive for funds which will not only provide patient care and research but will provide measures to prevent polio.

On Saturday, the Westminster League of the Presbyterian church will sponsor a bake sale at Hanna's. The empty wheel chair manned by Boy Scouts will be in the business section on Saturdays during January. Also remember that there are canisters in all public places for your convenience being placed there by the Men's Club of the Presbyterian church. Anyone wishing to buy a souvenir coin which is a Roosevelt dime encased in bronze may secure same from Mrs. Reister. These coins have proved to be a popular means of revenue besides commemorating the good work of the founder. The coins are one dollar each.

According to Mrs. Golat the auxiliaries of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars have been busy organizing the Mothers March better known as the Porchlight Drive to be held on Thursday evening, Jan. 28, from seven until eight o'clock. Apparently this is not only a mothers' march but a fathers' and not only on dimes but on dollars as well. While several of the men will be on the march many of them will be at home watching over the children while their wives participate in the drive. Be sure to turn on your porchlight as a signal or put some kind of a light in the window. It is suggested that if you live in an apartment building, you tie a white handkerchief or old shoe on your door for a signal.

There will be no other house to house solicitation besides the porchlight drive. The following members have agreed to work: JoAnn Sisson, Thelma Braden, Helen French, Olga Lowe, Shirley Herrick, Isabelle Aluto, Loraint Radant, Gladys Meyer, Floris Snyder, Joyce Manwaring,

Annual Commerce Banquet Features Famed Radio Man

A well known WJR radio announcer will be the featured speaker Wednesday night at Tecumseh's annual Chamber of Commerce banquet.

He is Dale McIntyre of "Know Your America" fame, a program which has won national acclaim.

The banquet will be held at Tecumseh Country Club beginning at 6:30 p.m.

McIntyre has spoken on similar occasions here before and is popular throughout the state as an after-dinner-speaker.

Also included on the evening's program will be announcement of five new members of the Commerce club board. Merchants are now voting on a list of 10 candidates, Bill Zwick, Virgil Tucker, Dick Jennings, Elmer Eberhardt, Russ Garno, George Green Jr., Dick Beemer, Leo Lohrman, Dick Eggleston and Harold Green.

C of C president Clarence Beach will preside at the meeting and a brief review of the year's activity will be given. J. C. Beardsley will be toastmaster. Mayor Charles Mensing and a number of other men will make remarks on the community, past, present and future.

The annual "Citizen of the Year" award will be presented.

Rotary and Exchange clubs are making this their regular meeting next week. Wives and husbands of Commerce Club members are invited to attend.

Two dollar tickets are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office.

COOKY SALES CONTINUE

Girl Scout cooky sales will continue through the next nine weeks giving each troop a chance to earn money. Cookies are on sale in the United Savings Bank on Saturdays only during regular banking hours. Each troop will be assisted in its sales by leaders and committee-women. This is an opportunity for the girl to learn salesmanship and to handle money and keep records of her sales. Mrs. Lyle Grigg is chairman of the cooky sales for the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association. Each cooky bears the trefoil. Troop No. 5, who had charge of sales last Saturday.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Annual election of officers Tuesday at United Savings Bank resulted in no change of officers or directors for 1954. Guy E. Belding was re-elected president; J. R. Thompson, vice president and cashier; Glenn VanDenbergh, Bernice I. Duncan, A. D. Woodward and M. H. Downing, assistant cashiers.

Directors of the bank are Mr. Belding, E. M. Campbell, R. G. Conlin, Lester C. Rogers, P. C. Satterthwaite, W. E. Swick and Mr. Thompson.

CULBERTSON VOTE

At the special election held Tuesday evening at the Culbertson school house, the voters of the school district decided against the use of the school basement for school purposes. An expansion program for the school is needed and use of the basement had been suggested. Ninety-three votes were cast and the election was very close, the issue being decided by a margin of only three votes.

TAX FORMS

Special forms for disabled veterans who are allowed a twenty per cent real estate tax exemption, are available at either the City Hall or the Camera Shop, assesor John Saling announced.

Council Calls Special Election For March 8

Tecumseh will soon have a chance to answer the sixty-four dollar fluoridation question and quiet a long standing undercurrent.

For on Monday, March 8, the question, appropriately phrased, "Shall the fluoridation of the City of Tecumseh water be continued in accordance with the State Health Department recommendations?" will be put squarely before the voters.

It will be a special election, called this week by the new City Council.

The resolution calling for the special vote at the earliest possible date was offered Monday night by Councilman Kelso and read, "The council of the City of Tecumseh recognizes that there is currently a controversy regarding the benefits derived from the fluoridation of the water supply for public use."

During a general discussion, members of the council all commented favorably on the resolution and agreed to decide the question "once and for all, the democratic way . . . the only fair way to clear the air."

It was the first major action by the new governing body which held its second bi-monthly session Monday night. The move will unify the infant City of Tecumseh. It will end agitation which started last July when the Anti-Fluoridation committee opposed the public health program.

During the remainder of Monday night's council meeting, there was an emphasis on organization.

City manager Ed Nelson first went over the list of current bills which were approved and placed on file at the City Hall for public inspection. Budget and finances were generally discussed. Old village books are being closed and a new city budget will take effect after a six months interim period.

The council decided upon a regular pattern of conducting meetings and appointed a tax review board of E. M. Campbell, Glenn Driscoll and F. C. Dickinson.

A petition was accepted from Earl Bryan and referred to the city clerk for verification, then a curb and gutter schedule was outlined for spring and summer work with Feb. 15 established as a hearing date for property owners involved. Plans were made for a permanent planning and zoning commission.

Recommendations by the City Manager for subordinate city posts were approved and a raise to $65 a week was granted two employees in the city business office.

Frank Smith appeared before the council on behalf of the hospital board.

Nelson outlined a nine-point work schedule for the city crew which is already underways.

- Repair curb and gutter forms
- Check on city equipment and repair
- Install chlorinator at Sewage Disposal Plant
- General street maintenance
- Repair fire hydrants
- Remove dead trees
- Install fence at Water Works
- Install storm sewer on Maumee street, south of Brown street and fill in dirt in order to widen road. Also, to cut down sharp raise in street approaching Brown street
- Remove all old village signs and put up appropriate new ones.

Monday night's meeting was well attended by a gallery of interested citizens. Complete details of the session including motions, resolutions, voting and general minutes of the meeting appear under the legal notices elsewhere in The Herald this week, as they do each week. This is required by law.

WE LOVE PEACE

On October 22, 1953, The Herald published a statement to the effect that Dr. W. S. Britton had stated to the Village Council that the Anti-Fluoridation group was under investigation by the F.B.I. and Department of Internal Revenue. This statement was in error in that Dr. Britton in no way referred to the F.B.I. in his conversation.

REGISTRATION

All persons of legal age who live within the new limits of the City of Tecumseh are eligible to vote in the March 8 election — providing they are registered.

City clerk. Mrs. Naomi Sallows explained that all persons who voted in the city charter election, or in other recent city or township elections, are automatically registered for the special fluoridation vote.

Newcomers to Tecumseh or others who have not voted in the past can register at the City Hall. If you do not know your voting status, the council advised all persons to check with the clerk before the Feb. 8 registration deadline.

Puppets Entertain Cub Scout Packs

Puppets were the entertainment theme of the January meeting of Cub Scout Pack No. 4, held at the Baptist Youth House Monday evening. Three dens took part: Den 9, led by Mrs. Radant, assisted by Mrs. Miller presented a skit in which the actors were puppets made of fruit, their lines spoken by their special cub; Den 4, under the leadership of Mrs. Beevers and Mrs. Truesdale used vegetables as their medium while Den 2 used decorated paper sacks which represented miniature "cubbies."

Awards made during the evening were: Bobcat, Robert Peck; Wolf Badge, Tim Sisson; Gold Arrow under Wolf Badge, Jack Rutherford; Silver Arrow under Wolf Badge, Billy Truesdale; Graduation Certificate, James Bashore. Six boys who had completed a year of cubbing were given a service star. They were, Richard Golat, Allan Hizer, Gary Honeycutt, Craig Rosacrans, Jack Rutherford, and Winfield Walker. Two year service stars were awarded to Philip Head, Larry Meiers and Billy Truesdale and three year stars to Kenneth Beevers and Billy LaPrad.

Opening and closing ceremonies were in charge of Den 7 and Den 2, respectively and announcements were made regarding Scout Sunday, Feb. 7, when Pack 4 will attend morning church service at the Baptist church and about the annual Blue and Gold banquet to be held Feb. 15 at the Baptist Youth House. Reservations for this event should be in by Feb. 1.

Walter Hizer was welcomed as the new assistant Cub Master and it was announced that the next cub committee meeting will be held at his home on Outer Drive, Feb. 8 at 7:30 p.m.

Cubby went to Den 7 for the best attendance.

FAMILY NIGHT

At the family night meeting of members of the Methodist church Monday evening, a program which followed the 6:30 potluck supper was interesting colored pictures of a western trip shown by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Greene. They kindly substituted for the expected speaker a returned missionary who had been taken ill with a recurrance of the malaria he had contracted in his work.

FOUND GUILTY

Cletus W. Nichols was found guilty of drunk driving when involved in an accident on Christmas Eve on South Adrian street, in Justice court this week and was fined $75 and sentenced to 15 days in jail. Justice R. L. French presided.

WHY NOT HERE—Michigan's Department of State and its 220 branch offices are now appealing to automobile owners to "save time—don't stand in line—buy your 1954 plates today." Today is the earliest possible day before the Feb. 28 deadline.

Main reasons for this advertising effort is to save the state's taxpayers $10,000 or more in extra help heretofore required during the last few weeks of selling and to eliminate a lot of wasted time standing in line. There's also hope of eliminating the title bottle-neck in Lansing at the last minute.

Editorially, we ask the public to cooperate in buying their plates as early as possible.

But we would also like to ask Mr. Owen J. Cleary, Secretary of State, to take the politics out of state business, put his office on a sound financial operating basis and consider a request from Tecumseh for a branch office to locally distribute license plates. Just such branch offices as are located in Manchester, Dundee, Temperance and many other communities much smaller than Tecumseh. We know that unfortunately such matters are often settled after a community's heavy contribution to the central party's fund, but since Mr. Cleary appeals to us to help the state save some ten thousand dollars, we'd like to ask in return, why does Lenawee county create a bottle-neck by funneling all the license plate business into one small office in Adrian? Why not do as other counties have done and give Tecumseh, number two community, a local office? Plates could just as easily be distributed here for this northeast corner of the county.

MORE HOME OWNERS — Granted that home owners make better community citizens, we have to question the plan of Indiana Senator Homer E. Capehart to establish a $1,000,000,000 government fund to allow people 40, 50 or even 60 years to pay off a house mortgage. Those are more than just a lot of zeros in our mind, for they mean a billion federal dollars banked out over more than the average length of a couple's married life.

Capehart says such a long range program would be an effective one in downing Communism, and that even if the government lost some money, in the long run, it would pay off. As we said, we like to see more and more home owners in this community, and all over the country, for this tends to develop better community spirit. But from a practical viewpoint fifty years is a trifle long for a mortgage.

Over that period interest rates would pay for two or three homes and eat up all the money which should go for home improvements and family savings. Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday we'll soon remember, once told America that in his opinion the easiest way to break a young man's spirit was to saddle him with a debt which he couldn't see his way out of.

MEN OF DISTINCTION — Those who were on hand for last week's dedication dinner saw and heard a group of men who are generally known more for their action than words. That's probably why everyone enjoyed the informal talks so much. Each of the local men, who have backed the hospital's growth and continued expansion, told of his interests and accomplishments in his own self-styled way.

Their names have been written and rewritten in these columns many times, their positions in this growing community are well known, their unbounded ambitions have probably never been fully tested, for as Mr. R. W. Herrick explained in his colorful talk, that took Tecumseh back to the days before the present hospital was built, "nothing is impossible in this land of America."

That's the way we look at Tecumseh, NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE when the community's forces can be combined for a united effort.

MRS. ERNEST GOVE BURIED MONDAY

Mrs. LuSeba Helen Gove, 51, wife of Ernest Gove, 107 N. Oneida street, died at 12:30 a.m. Saturday at Herrick Memorial hospital where she had been a patient since Thursday after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage.

Born Nov. 10, 1902, in Cambridge township, Mrs. Gove was the daughter of Isaac J. and Jennie Sickles Newton, and spent her entire lifetime in Lenawee county. She was a member of Tecumseh Grange and Lenawee County Pomona Grange.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Gove is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ted (Wyona) Vineze and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cole, Tecumseh; a sister, Mrs. Mills Swick, Macon and a grandson, Emerson K. Vincze, Tecumseh. Her father preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Green Funeral Home. The Rev. Edward Escolme officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery. The bearers were Irving Gove, Clinton; Gordon Gove, Tipton; Garland Gove, Harold Gove, Edwin Gove, and Julius Vincze, Tecumseh.

SERVICES SATURDAY FOR MRS. WILLIAM ELTON

Mrs. Dorothy Bladen Elton, wife of William Elton of Elton road near Tipton, died Thursday afternoon at the Beach convalescent home in Dundee.

Mrs. Elton was born in Toledo, Ohio, May 15, 1869, and was the daughter of the late Thomas and Elizabeth Durrell Bladen. She had spent her entire life in Toledo until coming to Tipton several years ago with her husband to be near their daughter, Mrs. John Keeney.

She is survived by herhusband, daughter Mrs. Keeney, two grandsons and one great-grandson, all of Tipton.

Arrangements were made at the Collins Funeral Home here and a graveside service was held in Woodlawn cemetery in Toledo at 1 p.m. Saturday with burial in the family lot. The Rev. E. C. Dickin of St. Peter's Episcopal church officiated.

ALTAR SOCIETY

Twenty-two members, of whom four attended for the first time, met for the January meeting of the St. Elizabeth Altar Society, Wednesday evening at the Catholic Parish hall. Most of the business session was taken up with a discussion of the adoption of a new constitution. The January committee includes Mrs. Richard Jennings, Mrs. Kenneth McEnroe, Mrs. Gladys Lopshire and Mrs. Peter Knight. It was announced that the society will hold a bake sale sometime this month, the date to be announced later. A prayer by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins closed the meeting.

Just a short while ago Mr. Leeds stopped by, "I guess I've got feathers on my feet," he said with a grin, "at least we plan to move away. We want you to sell our house. We will leave it strictly up to you since your reputation assures us we'll get satisfactory results."

At the Leeds' home, we arrived at a fair selling price.

"There is one step I'd recommend," I said, "That is an F.H.A. loan appraisal. Most buyers need a large loan anyway, so the expense won't be wasted. And, we'll know exactly what size down payment is required. Also, it provides an independent estimate of value."

"That sounds okay," Mr. Leeds remarked. "Is there anything wrong with the house itself that should be corrected?"

"I think it would help to fill in the small crack in the archway. It catches your eye as you enter your house."

"Fine," he said, "we'll see that it's done. Now, go ahead and sell our home."

It is a big responsibility to be singled out to sell a home. One that we prize and try to meet. With a cooperative owner, like Mr. Leeds, we nearly always get results.

Keep us in mind when you want to sell. The phone number is 36.

Grade School News

Grade 6
Mr. Kaiser

Jim Randall has been spending two weeks in Florida.

Jonathan Cook is a new boy in our room. He moved here from Harpster, Ohio.

We sent the box to C.A.R.E. that we have been filling. So far we have not heard from anyone that received any of the things.

The new officers in the room are: Richard Stevenson, president; Jonathan Cook, vice president; Ralph Helzerman, secretary and Alice Titley, treasurer.

We have elected people to serve on the safety patrol and service squad. They will go on duty when we move to Patterson.

Grade 6
Miss Hopkins

Sharon Mitzner won our spell-inb-bee today. Last year we thought we knew how to subtract fractions. But 1954 sees us faced with mixed numbers. We are mastering them too. After taking down our Christmas decorations the room looked bare until Dave Weakley and his helper mounted and taped to the wall a row of assorted pictures.

They are scenes in the Rocky Mountains as well as pictures of various birds and other animals. Our new Dunbar-Borton calendar has small pictures of every president and a larger one of Eisenhower.

Next week we plan to continue our book reports. So far, we have been told about several types of prose and of fiction. Adventure and mystery are favorites but not the only favorites. Animal stories, biography, invention, and travel are literary attractions too. Books have one great attraction that television lacks—NO COMMERCIALS!

The second semester holds delights for us, not the least of which is gym at Patterson School every day for the boys. The girls are to stay here for the first nine weeks. Nevertheless, they too are to have gym every day.

The semester tests will dwindle in importance before the end of the week when all students are to have a holiday on Fridsy while the teachers compile records and complete reports. Then, of course, there's the County Teachers' Institute early in February. Thus we are to be gently led into the rigors of our last semester in the elementary school.

We have enjoyed the distinction attendant upon service-squad work and patrol duty. However, there is not the least doubt that we are glad to hand over those responsibilities to the eager hands of our friends in the fifth grades. Good luck to you, fifth graders, and best wishes for success and pleasure in your new duties.

Our study of the thirty freedoms listed in our social studies text book was an exhilarating experience, even though we couldn't escape the fact that our ancestors had wrested from King George III and given to us the enormous obligation to govern ourselves. We don't pretend to solve all such problems in the sixth grade. But we do take time to ponder these things in our hearts. And—citizens of Tecumseh, we are watching you!

Mrs. Buttolph

We enjoyed our visit to the Herrick Memorial hospital last Thursday. We were met at the door by nice guides who took us through both the new and old additions. Each group went from the first to the second floor on the new electric elevator. On our tour we got to see Jimmy Withrow and take him a basket of fruit. He told us that he hoped the doctor would let him go home soon.

Each one of us has read three basic readers.

In social studies we are studying about the Eskimos. We are making a large movie showing how they live.

We each have joined the ivory inspection patrol. When we pass inspection we win an Ivory Sticker that's recorded on a large classroom chart. And for a winning weekly score we are given an Ivory Merit Badge to paste on our own record.

MACON

Mrs. Hamilton Moore
Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Scudder are spending several weeks in St. Cloud, Florida.

David Handley, son of Ed Handley, left Tuesday for service with the paratroopers.

Miss Zelma Crittenden is able to be around her home after an infection in her leg.

The Macon church executive board met Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall with eleven members present. It was decided to have a Family Night Sunday, Jan. 31 with refreshments at 7 o'clock with a program to follow. The Father and Son banquet will be held Thursday, Feb. 4 with tickets reserved in advance. It was reported that ten Christmas boxes had been sent to servicemen by the church and members of the W.S.C.S. Mrs. Charles Gorton took charge of sending the boxes. Mrs. Hall served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Billy Kahle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kahle is a patient in Saline Community hospital with pneumonia.

Mrs. John Schroeder is a patient at Bixby hospital, Adrian.

The January meeting of the Macon Women's Society of Christian Service will be held Thursday, Jan. 28 at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Joseph Sheward. Final plans for the Father and Son banquet will be made.

The Macon Women's Club met Thursday with Mrs. Otto Graf. A potluck lunch was served at one o'clock, followed by a business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Clarence Schroeder. During the afternoon, members handed in a dollar they had earned and told how they had earned it.

The Rev. Pierce of Lincoln Park will be guest speaker at the Family Night to be held Jan. 31. He will tell of his trip to the Holy Land last summer and will show colored pictures taken.

Mr. and Mrs. George McQuires, formerly of Macon, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Jan. 25. They now reside in Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Barmon of Dansville and Fred Snauble were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Scudder. It was in honor of Mr. Walker's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bruder were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Moore and sons. Both families were celebrating their wedding anniversaries.

A large group from Macon attended the Singspiration held Sunday evening in the Rea church. The Macon choir sang a number directed by Mrs. Vaughn Whited. On Feb. 21, the Singspiration will meet in Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knight and family of Clinton were Sunday evening visitors in the Charles Bigelow home.

Mrs. Jennie Younglove has gone to Britton to spend the rest of the winter with her brother, Alex Gibson.

Clare Camburn has returned home after spending several days in Chicago.

William Service is a patient in Herrick Memorial hospital. He received several broken ribs and a broken nose in an automobile accident on the Macon-Clinton road, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horvath and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hall spent Saturday in Ecorse visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Horvath.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knight and family of Clinton were Sunday evening visitors in the Charles Bigelow home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Underwood of Bowling Green, Ohio, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Papp and family.

Mrs. C. Wyman Rhoades and infant son returned home from Herrick Memorial hospital Saturday.

Colony of Tecumseh Artists Guided By Adult Night School Instructor

Whether you are a real artist whose pictures have been "hung," or the newest amateur who is not sure what will happen when two colors meet, you will receive the same careful instruction if you are enrolled in the Adult Education art class now meeting every Thursday evening at the high school.

In fact the seventeen pupils of Frank Cassara, professor in the School of Art at the University of Michigan, might be said to run the gamut from kindergarten to college.

They include four ladies from Adrian, at least two of whom are in the professional class, one or two from Tecumseh who have had advanced training, several members of the last year's adult education class and some who never before attempted to put paint on canvas. All of them are being skillfully guided through their problems by Mr. Cassara, who is an inspiring teacher as well as an artist of ability.

The four lessons given so far have been devoted to still life subjects and to the explanation of basic principles, each of which is developed as the group reaches the necessary understanding. Classroom routine is not rigid, however, and pupils are encouraged to bring other specimens of their work for constructive criticism.

The course ends Feb. 4, and if Mr. Cassara can arrange his schedule, another term of lessons may be offered to those who find inspiration in this form of self expression.

The classes for grown ups are not all color and music, however. While some groups dance and paint, others can equally busy with more "practical" subjects.

There are eleven members in the class of refresher shorthand, eleven in beginning typing and eight who are taking advanced typing. Under the guidance of Mrs. Harold Clark, eleven ladies are learning dressmaking by the efficient method of actual practice. She also teaches nine others how to make draperies and slip covers.

Here again they learn by doing as they bring their own chairs to cover and make drapes for their own windows. These pupils will all graduate Jan. 21 but other practical housewives and secretaries may join other classes on the first of March.

INTERESTED FRIENDS VISIT HOSPITAL

Among the many interested friends of Herrick Memorial hospital from out-of-town, who attended the opening and dedicatory banquet were several professional visitors. They included Miss Catherine Lyman, assistant director of nursing service of the University School of Nursing, Ann Arbor; Miss Helen Avery, head of the School of Nursing of Wayne University and the Misses Rozella Schlofeldt, Hazel Beland and Mary Reed from the same school.

Student nurses who were formerly connected with Herrick Memorial were Barbara Meyer now at the U. of M. School of Nursing; Joan Hinds from Harper hospital nursing school; Mary VanDeMark of Clinton, who is studying at St. Joseph hospital; Beverly McLaury from Sparrow hospital, Lansing and Marcella Niblack of Britton, now at Riverside hospital, Toledo.

Several groups of student nurses who were affiliated with Herrick Memorial as part of their training in other schools of nursing also came for the opening, including eight from Wayne University. Also attending were nearly all the doctors from every section of Lenawee county and many from Washtenaw.

Cubs Present Talent Show

Ninety-five Cub Scouts and leaders gathered Monday evening in Fellowship Center for the regular meeting of Cub Pack No. 73. The presentation of the flag was made by den three after which dens eight, one, three and eleven, led by eight in the formation of a kitchen band, marched in singing "Hail, Hail the Gang's All Here."

Acting as master of ceremonies, Jerry Robinette, chief of den one, had everyone sing "How Do You Do" while shaking hands with their neighbor. After welcoming parents and friends he announced that they would now have an amateur show put on by the pack. It opened with a skit of magic tricks on the part of den three, with David Brooks as MC. Pat Holdridge, as an inventor, with Tom Barton as his helper, demonstrated their hair cutting machine with surprising results as did inventor, Edsel Brooks and helper Larry Flowers, their equally amazing growing machine. Den three completed their part of the program by singing, "The Smile Song."

Den eleven then put on their version of Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scout show, opening with "The Hilltoppers of Cheboygan, Wis." in the persons of Michael Rice, Joe Anderson, Rex Smith and Gary Hicks, singing "Doggie in the Window." Bobbie Bonner, Chucky Osburne and Bruce Parrett, as the "McGoon Brothers" sang "I've Been Working On the Railroad" and Godfrey himself, feeling in the mood, rendered a selection, "Candy and Cake" to the accompaniment of his ukulele. Godfrey was played by Ronald O'Neill. After bringing out the contestants for finals, they hurriedly left the air as they were running out of time.

Den eight, still in the guise of a kitchen band played three selections, "Lobby Loo," "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow" and "Pop Goes the Weasel."

The contribution of den one consisted of a poem, "All About Boys," given by Larry Harper; a round song "Old McDonald Had a Farm," a fast dance by Larry McLain and a skit featuring Paul Winchell and Jerry Mahoney given by Barry Hall and Norman Grigg.

This completed the amateur show and Bear Badge Awards were made to Richard Mead and Larry Flowers of den three and Joe Anderson of den eleven. It was announced that Bobbie Holmes has graduated from cubbing and is going on to join Boy Scout Troop 73. The promotion coincided with Bobbie's eleventh birthday.

Cubby for January went to den three, who had an attendance of 89%. Helpers for den mothers for the next three meetings will be: Den one, Mrs. Edward Harper; den three, Mrs. Charles Flowers; den eight, Mrs. LeRoy Tilley and den eleven, Mrs. Anderson.

It was announced that on Sunday, Feb. 7, the pack in full uniform will attend the Presbyterian church for the services honoring scouting and that on Feb. 15 the annual blue and gold banquet will be held in Fellowship Center. Singing of the Scout Goodnight Song closed the meeting.

HOME EXTINGUISHER ON SALE BY SCOUTS

A fire extinguisher in every Tecumseh home is the aim of Boy Scout troops 73 and 4 as they prepare to begin a preventive campaign. The Scouts are offering for sale to residents of this community a new spray type fire extinguisher with push button control similar to an insect bomb. Sale of this product begins Monday and proceeds will go to the Scouts to be used to further scouting in Tecumseh.

I'm Often Wrong

By Neil Hunter

HAROLD 'n HARVEY — Two names which seem to go together are those of Harold (Green) and Harvey (Wilson), both good friends of ours and both good friends of each other; in fact as friends and neighbors on North Union street, they have gone into a kind of brotherly sympathy. For when one suffers an accident the other sympathizes with a like injury.

Harold first smashed his thumb with a hammer while carpentering, so Harvey jimmied his finger doing a similar task. No slouch, Harvey did a good job of it, jimmying it right into a cast.

Then Harold fell down while ice fishing breaking his arm, so Harvey kept pace rolling his car over on the tar speedway to Adrian and injured his leg. At this writing he's under observation and may have a cast put on but will be back in business later this week.

Both are top-notchers whom we hate to see out of circulation with any more sympathetic injuries.

MIXED UP — When we read of the troubles over prep athletics which the big cities are going through we can't help but ask, "How mixed up can you get?" We realize that basketball is an intense game, one in which the fans are sitting so close to the action that they can see everything; they are closer to the spirit of competition than in almost any other game. It is a game, contrasted to football, which the fans understand. They easily give vent to their feelings, but it behooves the game, the school, the community, to see these feelings improperly used.

We once heard of a basketball game that was stopped, the referees cleared the stands of spectators who were refunded their money, and the game was completed before an empty gallery.

These things are rare in smaller schools and smaller towns where sportsmanship and fair play have the main emphasis. Of course, even here, there's that do-or-die spirit, but the trend has always been toward moulding better young men through good clean play — before, during and after the game.

LEAVE IT TO LEON — No sooner than Leon Rosacrans read last week's editorial, "Acres of Diamonds" than he recalled the old traveling lectures of the 1880's when Russell Conwell, author of that old masterpiece, who spoke here. That's what we call a real memory!

A lot of time working for one company is tied up in three former Tecumseh men, all brothers of Mrs. William Kempf, 318 N. Pearl. They are Floyd ((32 years), Edwin (30 years) and William Willnow Jr. (28 years) who have been working all that time at the Pittsburgh Forge Co., Jackson. All recently received 25 year service watches.

BETTER READING HABITS — Times change for the book reader just like they do for anyone else. It used to be standard procedure to concentrate on one word at a time, but now that's considered too slow and the reader is told to pick off longer phrases or lines in big "eye bites," darting through a story like mad.

Here are a few new reading rules suggested by some educators who should know.

1. Concentrate to get what you're reading the first time so you don't have to read it over. This saves time, lets you read faster and the added concentration raises your comprehension.

2. Put all of your energy into reading. Sit in a comfortable position in good light so you don't waste effort balancing on the edge of your spine or staring at words on a too-dark page. This isn't just an academic suggestion; it's a proved scientific fact.

3. Don't twiddle your thumbs or form the words silently with your lips. Observation has shown that you can't read any faster than you can whirl your fingers or speak the words.

4. Strive for the meaning of phrases rather than of individual words and look for the main thought in a paragraph. Do those two things and you'll automatically read faster, searching for the next idea.

5. Make a definite attempt to read faster by timing yourself. Emphasis on your reading rate requires concentration which in turn raises understanding of material.

METHODIST W.S.C.S.

The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Sisson Thursday beginning with a cooperative luncheon at 12:30. Mrs. Iva Bishop was co-hostess. Guests present were Mrs. Pearl Schiller of Albion and Mrs. Belle Baker of Clayton, who came to help the group to honor Mrs. Hattie Wood, who was celebrating her birthday.

Devotions were given by Miss Julia Gilmore and the program topic, "Love Never Faileth" was presented by Mrs. Jane Bird. She was assisted by Mrs. Vivian Fansher, Mrs. Stella Wagner and Mrs. Edith Southard.

During the business meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. Pauline Bailey, a letter was read from the district supply secretary asking for aprons and mittens for children of Korea. Patterns were enclosed and the members are asked to have sewing ready for the February meeting.

Announcement was made of the study of the book, "The Prophet Jeremiah" under the direction of the Rev. Haybert Woodall in cooperation with the Britton W.S.C.S. The first meeting is to be held at the Gilmore home in Ridgeway, Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 9:30 a. m.

O. C. Sweetland of Tedrow, Ohio, was a caller Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Linn.

The Men's Forum has re-elected the following officers for the new year: President, William Fletcher; vice president, Robert Welker; secretary, Jennings Frayer; treasurer, Curtis Beach.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Peters, who died in Florida, was held Tuesday afternoon in the Nazarene church. Rev. C., A. Bearinger officiated and burial was in Ridgeway cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Boss of Adrian spent the past week with her sister Estella Hite.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carican have gone to Florida for a few weeks stay.

Mrs. Marcia Baker was a guest of her daughter Mrs. Mildred McDonnell of Dearborn and celebrated her birthday over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Auten and family entertained at a family dinner Sunday in honor of Harold Auten who was recently discharged from service. Harold arrived home Friday after serving a year and a half in Germany. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Duane Auten and children of Athens, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Auten, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Auten and children and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Miller and children.

Talk of the Town

Lyle Grigg, William Butler, Harvey and Ted McConnell left Friday afternoon for a weekend of fishing at South Branch. They stayed in the McConnell cabin.

Miss Mary McWilliams, who was injured in a fall two weeks ago, is still confined to her home and on crutches.

Dr. Elman Service, son of Duaine Service and professor at the University of Michigan, was seen and heard on a television program for the second time Sunday. He lectured for a full half hour showing pictures he had taken in South America and playing records of typical music. He teaches in the Department of Anthropology.

Mrs. George French, who underwent surgery at Herrick Memorial hospital last week, is still confined to her home but is making satisfactory progress.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. O. Bashore returned Monday evening from Baltimore where they had been called by the sudden death of Mr. Bashore's brother, Chester O. Bashore. His death, which was due to a heart attack, had occured the previous Monday afternoon and funeral services were held Friday at 1 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Bashore drove to Baltimore by way of Miffintown, Pa., the home of Mr. Bashore's mother, Mrs. Emma Bashore and she accompanied them to Baltimore.

Pvt. David Ousterhout has completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and spent part of his leave visiting friends at Oregon, Ill. He is at his home here for a few days, reporting Friday at Fort Monmouth, N. J., for training in the army signal corps. His work will be in the division of radar and radio.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce were called to Frankfort, Ind., Saturday because of the sudden death of Mrs. Bruce's brother, James Hufford. Their son Bradley stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer during his parent's absence.

ATTEND MEETING

A group of Tecumseh ladies which included new officers of the auxiliary of Herrick Memorial hospital went to Detroit Tuesday for the meeting of the Detroit Area Association of hospital auxiliaries. It was held in the Wayne County Medical Society Building and those attending were Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, Mrs. Charles Mensing, Mrs. Robert Fuller, Mrs. Paul Eddy, Mrs. Hugh Andrews, Mrs. Dale Bowen and Mrs. William MacBeth.

GARDEN CLUB OFFICERS INSTALLED

The 1954 officers of the Garden Club took charge for the first time Friday when the club met at the home of Mrs. Edward Best. Thirty-three members and one guest were present and Mrs. Robert McCoy presided over the short business meeting. It was voted that club members would sell gift enclosure cards furnished by the State Federation of Garden Clubs as their contribution to the Polio Fund.

Mrs. Stanley Reese of Carlton was the speaker of the afternoon. The former Mrs. Sova of Tecumseh, she reveiwed the early days of the organizaiton and then gave some interesting information on the subject of bulbs for spring planting.

Tea was served at a table with a low centerpiece of pink African violets flanked by miniature bouquets of sweetheart roses and poms.

Mrs. McCoy and Miss Ann Carson poured. The next meeting of the club, Feb. 19 will be at the home of Mrs. Leon Rosacrans.

These things I command you: that ye love one another.
—(St. John 15, 17.)

Obeying the command of Christ Jesus, we would in all ways, large and small, be considerate of one another—be thoughtful, kindly, unselfish. That would mean helping others, but helping ourselves, too, in the end. How easily it can be done—and what a wonderful day today would be if we did—or even but tried.

Is That So

By Miss Clara Waldron

(Second of two articles about the Charles Branigin house).

For a Michigan house to have preserved its identity for more than a century and a quarter, it must have fallen into appreciative and understanding hands. This has been happily true of the Branigin house. It has been owned by just four families; the Ketchams, who built and maintained it as a tavern and a home until 1849; two generations of Joseph Tildens, who owned it for the next 75 years; the Harry Moores, who transformed it into an antique shop with a charmingly authentic atmosphere; and the Charles Branigins who have been content to live in and care for the house while they make its adjoining acres produce as never before.

There was, of course, no road to decide the location of the house in the beginning, although the Indian trail which was later the basis of the LaPlaisance Bay survey may well have skirted the creek, so it was doubtless the creek itself, then a plentiful source of pure water, which was the deciding factor — the creek and the elm tree which still overshadows the house and which foresters say was even then a lusty giant.

Its early years in the Ketcham household must have been busy ones. Until the panic of 1837 began to choke off the flow of migration, all the many inns along the main roads were frequently so full that "the soft side of a board" was a welcome bed. The Ketcham family seem to have taken an active part in the early life of the town also and Phoebe, daughter of Jacob, married a Williamson and became the great grandmother of our present generation.

The first Joseph Tilden is recorded as a boot maker and taught his trade to his son, but whether they practiced it after they bought the farm is not known. They are remembered as farmers. Soon after their purchase they built the east wing, which with its recessed porch and well proportioned pillars adds much to the balance of the house. Joseph Jr. or "Uncle Joe," as he will be remembered by many lived alone on the farm for many years before his death, and as a result the house, while fundamentally sound, was rather neglected. Its restoration and preservation are due to the enterprise and good taste of Harry and Ella Chilson Moore, who employed a deft touch in the changes necessary to make it comfortably modern.

Their most radical alteration was the building of the pillared portico which rises from a brick terrace the full length of the main structure. It completely changes the original "down east" architecture but is so well done that it seems to be part of the house plan. Their interior changes are also in keeping with the atmosphere. The inside wood finish, simple but not commonplace, has been maintained throughout and perhaps most notable are the original door latches on nearly all of the doors. From the ponderous one on the front door to the delicate wrought iron design of those on the interior doors, they date back to the days of the inn. Even the "step down" into the rear rooms is still there. It was necessary to gain head room in the leanto addition but, to the housewife who has to negotiate it many times a day, it is more quaint than comfortable.

During the early days of the Moore's residence, a house guest of acknowledged psychic powers became much disturbed by what she described as hostile influences. She said the disembodied presence of at least one former occupant was bitterly resentful of the unwelcome intruders and the changes they had made in the house. However, only the most vivid imagination could find anything malign in its present dignified old age. The alterations made by the Branigins have been mainly in the form of unobstrusive improvements to the heating, wiring and plumbing which should make even the ghosts comfortable and happy.

LENAWEE BAPTIST ASS'N.

Miss Emma Brodbeck, a missionary returned from China, was the main speaker at both afternoon and evening sessions of the mid-season meeting of the Lenawee Baptist Association instead of the speakers originally scheduled. Miss Brodbeck, who has spent most of her life in China, had an inspiring story to tell of her experiences there before she was forced to leave by the rise of the Communists to power.

The association was entertained by the Tecumseh church and was addressed briefly by the visiting state officers: the Rev. E. Floyd Morton, state director of Christian education and the Rev. Ralph Karney, director of town and country relations. The Rev. Ralph Andrews, state executive secretary from Lansing, presided at the meetings.

Nearly 100 were present for the six o'clock supper, served by the ladies of the church, and the evening was attended by 125.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Open Even When He's Closed

Must have been daydreaming on my way to a meeting down in Centerville the other night. My car ran dry before I thought to look at the gas gauge, but I managed to coast into a gas station—and found it closed!

Well, I thought my plans were ruined for sure until I noticed a gasoline can with a sign: "This is emergency gas. Just help yourself and leave the can with $1.00. Thanks."

Got started, made the meeting on time, and had enough gas to get back home again—thanks to a trusting friend.

From where I sit, folks who trust their neighbors make the world a better place to live in. For instance, letting a friend express his personal preferences, is one way of trusting your neighbor. Sometimes I prefer a temperate glass of beer in the evening but I'll always ask what you'd like before I pour yours.

Joe Marsh

Sure, it's a long way down to the corner when you are in the middle of the block and you want to get across the street. And it looks like such a short jump straight across. But, that short jump is likely to scare two people half to death — the driver of that car you thought was a long ways off — and yourself.

Mixing two-footed lightweights and four-wheeled heavyweights in the same traffic ring is an unfair battle at best. That's why crosswalks are painted at intersections to give the pedestrian his own place to cross.

When you cross in the middle of the block the motorist is not expecting you — and you may be hidden by a parked car.

CITY OF TECUMSEH
COUNCIL MEETING
January 18, 1954

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Councilman Kelso and supported by Councilman Hanna.

WHEREAS it is the desire of this body that a continuing improvement be made in supplying the City with adequate curb-and-gutter installations; and

WHEREAS numerous residents have petitioned the Council praying for such installations adjacent to their property.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the installation of curb-and-gutter shall be undertaken as soon as practicable on both sides of the following described streets:

a. West Brown Street between North Union and Ternes Road (North side only)

b. North Maiden Lane between Chicago Blvd. and W. Logan streets.

c. West Logan street between North Pearl and North Maiden Lane (South side of street only)

d. West Kilbuck street between South Maiden Lane and South Pearl street.

e. East Pottawatamie street between South Maumee and South Wyandotte street.

f. Maple street between West Pottawatamie St., and Parkway street.

g. West Kilbuck street between Union and Van Buren street.

h. Lots 91 to 100 inclusive and lots 111 to 129 inclusive on Wenonah street between Seneca and Nokomis streets and on that portion of Seneca and Nokomis streets East of Wenonah street in the Plat of Moore's Second Addition to Indian Acres, City of Tecumseh.

2. That the cost thereof is estimated to be $2.00 per lineal foot.

3. That said cost shall be 40% paid by City, and 60% paid by the particular property owners.

4. That the particular property owners are defined to be those persons who own realty abuting on any of the above described areas of improvement.

5. That the Clerk cause this resolution be published for two successive weeks in the Tecumseh Herald, designating Monday, February 15, 1954 at 8:30 p.m. at the Council Chambers as a time and place for hearing any objections hereto on the part of any person or persons considering himself or themselves aggrieved by the proposed improvement and assessment.

BELANDS CELEBRATE FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY WITH OPEN HOUSE

Eighty friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Beland joined to help them celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary Sunday. Held at the Baptist Youth House from three to five in the afternoon, the informal open house was planned by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beland and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. O'Brien.

Four of Mrs. Beland's girlhood friends, who had served at her wedding also assisted in serving refreshments Sunday. Mrs. Floyd Bryan cut and served the cake. Mrs. Leon VanValkenberg had charge of the punch. Mrs. Lillian Hoagland poured coffee and Mrs. Norman McConnell served the ice cream. Mrs. Athol Brainard, who sang at the wedding forty years ago, was also present. Two granddaughters, Nancy and Evelyn Beland registered the guests and also recited a poem, written by Mrs. Beland's mother, Mrs. D. T. Hall, on the occasion of her own mother's golden anniversary.

Decorations, flowers and cake were all in the color scheme of red and white, significant of the ruby anniversary. Refreshments were served from a table covered with a beautiful lace cloth which was an anniversary gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Beland were married in the home of the bride's grandfather, Minor Davidson, and it was a replica of her mother's wedding which had taken place twenty-two years before at the same time and place. She wore her mother's wedding gown. The Rev. William Hartzog performed the ceremony.

Out-of-town guests for the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Stohl, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beland and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Beland, all of Dundee; Mr. and Mrs. George Heimerdinger and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ernst, Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Beland, Lula, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. George Squires and Douglas Daykin, Britton; Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Baker, Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Athol Brainard, Onsted.

Their daughter, Mrs. W. J. O'Brien came from St. Louis, Friday with her son Martin and remained with her parents until Tuesday.

TOP MUSICAL TO BE SHOWN IN 3-D

Broadway's top musical, "Kiss Me Kate," starring Kathryn Grayson and Howard Keel, can be seen in technicolor, three dimension on the screen at the Strand theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Walter Nichols, theatre manager, reports that new, improved glasses have been purchased for the special screening, also the clip-on type for persons who wear glasses. Mr. Nichols said that the finest equipment and projection have been installed in the local theatre, comparable with Detroit show houses.

MUSIC CLUB

Tschaikowsky was the subject for the Music Club this month and a very well coordinated program of his life and his music was presented by the leader, Miss Edith Ingersoll.

Held at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Collins Tuesday evening, it began with a resume of his life by Miss Ingersoll, highlights of which she continued to present in introducing the musical numbers. They were: A ballet number "Thorn Rose" interpreted by the dancing of little Sharon Gallant with her mother Mrs. Thomas Gallant at the piano; "Waltz of the Flowers," a duet by Mrs. Gallant and Mrs. W. G. Waldron; "Dance of the Reed Flutes," played by Mrs. William Hayden; "Concerto in B Flat," Mrs. Arthur Schwartz; "None But the Lonely Heart," sung by Mrs. Murray Day; "Waltz From the Serenade for Strings," Mrs. Hayden; "Romance," a piano solo by Mrs. P. B. Hardy and for a final number "Selections from Fifth Symphony" played by Mrs. John Hamilton.

Refreshments were served to the twenty-one members and guests by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Robert McCoy, Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney and Mrs. Duaine Service.

TWENTY YEARS OF PROGRESS 1934 - 1954

Tecumseh Products Company Developed New Production Techniques In Fast Growing Refrigeration Industry

When the Hillsdale Machine and Tool Co. moved its meager assets to Tecumseh back in 1934, a new idea was planted in this community.

It involved a revolutionary change in the production technique of what was then an infant refrigeration industry.

The idea was well planted, for it thrived through the years, until today, two decades later, the name of Tecumseh is acclaimed as the world's largest producer of refrigeration compressors and condensing units.

Twenty years have seen vast changes in the firm which was once concentrated in a small garage-type shop in Hillsdale. Now Tecumseh Products sprawls over 403,621 square feet of plant here and has large factory operations in Toledo and Marion, Ohio, and Emeryville, Calif.

Destined to establish Tecumseh as a center for the manufacture of compressors, the Products organization was pyramided on an "idea", which was outlined in a recent issue of the TP BROADCAST.

Basically, the idea was to design compressors to which mass production and precision machining methods could be applied . . . the same techniques proved so successful in the automotive field, now to be applied to products which heretofore had been practically hand made.

The market was ready, refrigeration appliance manufacturers who were not equipped to produce their own units and who could not find competitive sources in an industry largely influenced by a few major manufacturers.

The constant aim was to produce more units of better quality at less cost, resulting in wider distribution of complete refrigeration equipment.

The following comprises a tabulation of the growth of this company from its small beginning to its present size. Included are the basic policies which have been followed as well as a number of the methods used to attain these policies.

Good customer relations have always been of first importance to Tecumseh Products. Down through the years these policies have briefly been:

● To produce only quality products, using the best materials available.

● To offer these products to all customers at a price based on an established fair per cent of profit.

● And, to guarantee that no end products will be manufactured which would place the company in competition with its customers.

Barring completely unforeseen changes within the industry or within the economy itself, these policies will continue to direct the operation of Tecumseh Products Company.

The fact that 72% of its issued stock is owned by men actively engaged in operating the business has been an important factor in Tecumseh's growth.

Responsibility is thus in the hands of men who have a much keener interest in the company's progress. This provides a flexibility of operation that enables management to meet emergencies without delay with practical decision and positive action.

Tecumseh Products has grown to be proud of its place in refrigeration and points to five factors as contributing reasons for success — Production Development, Quality Control, Purchase of Materials, Contributions to Living and Market Development.

These factors were analyzed in detail by the recent TP Broadcast.

● Production Development

In establishing its competitive position in the refrigeration industry, Tecumseh has participated in a number of the major advances made in behalf of better unit design and more efficient operation.

Tecumseh was instrumental in the development of the space-saving pancake compressor, offering manufacturers the advantages of reduced costs, increased capacity and the opportunity to gain additional food space through the reduction of the physical size of the compressor.

Tecumseh was the first independent manufacturer to promote the inherent cost advantages of the capillary tube over other liquid controls in commercial applications.

Tecumseh pioneered the extensive use of Freon 22 in hermetic units for a wide range of applications; and the use of synthetic plastics as a motor insulating material in large production.

Forced feed lubrication without additional parts or the use of complicated pumps was still another engineering advancement backed by Tecumseh research.

And, Tecumseh was the first to obtain a high degree of quietness in all sizes of hermetic units, commercial and domestic. Tecumseh is recognized as the manufacturer of the quietest units in production today.

● Quality Control

Precision machining of parts, selective fitting, cleanliness and careful inspection prior to assembly, are absolute essentials in the production of efficient and dependable hermetics. These have been standard shop practices at Tecumseh since the beginning of operations.

All bearings and moving parts are finished with the latest precision tools. Diameters are held to one or two ten-thousandths of an inch; surfaces are true to within a few millionths. All hermetic units undergo dehydration processes and are tested for leaks.

It is this quality control that has consistently maintained Tecumseh's reputation, high product efficiency. Result: comparatively few service problems in the field.

● Purchased Materials

A steady flow of raw materials follows mines, fields and supplier plants all over the country . . . pour into Tecumseh daily to keep the wheels of mass production turning. And as Tecumseh grows, the amount of materials needed in the manufacture of its products increases. Already Tecumseh, an important customer to a considerable number of suppliers, is the world's largest buyer of hermetic refrigeration motors.

Broadly, this helps to benefit the economy as a whole. Specifically, the customers of Tecumseh are benefited; for savings gained in large quantity buying are passed on to customers in the form of lower product costs. Thus, even lower freight rates resulting from carload buying, can conceivably reduce the price of a refrigerator.

In the year 1953 the following materials were purchased: 44,000 tons of steel; 1,360,000 pounds of copper tubing; 2,092,000 pounds of freon; 920,000 gallons of oil; 36,000 tons of cast iron; 3,220,000 hermetic motors; 226,000 fan motors and blades; 2,600,000 overloads; 985,00 condensers; 663,000 evaporators; 2,600,000 relays and 25,000,000 gaskets.

Tecumseh Products Company had 302 employees when it started operations here in 1934. In 1953 it had 3900 employees and the number is still increasing.

Band Concert Set For Monday Night

Lenawee County Band Directors' Association will present the 70-piece All-County Band in a concert Monday night in the Adrian College auditorium at 8 p.m.

Robert Francouer, Elaine Kimerer and Phil Surratt, members of the THS Band, are members of the All-County Band.

This is the band's fourth annual concert. "Selected by audition," Robert Peck, local director said, "members are the finest musicians in the county."

A different kind of program will be given Monday. Each of the 13 bands in the county will play a selection and the All-County Band will play the finale "Czech Rhapsody" and "Washington Grays March" under the direction of Paul Ranier, music supervisor in Adrian schools and well-known in school music throughout the state.

Bands taking part Monday night are Adrian, Adrian Catholic Central, Addison, Blissfield, Clinton, Morenci, Hudson, Sand Creek, Deerfield, Britton, Madison, Onsted and Tecumseh.

The Adrian High school orchestra also will be featured.

Tecumseh residents have seen these bands on the football field many years and this will be an excellent chance to hear the same bands in the concert hall, Mr. Peck said.

Patterson School Opens; Dedication Set Feb. 18

By Supt. James McDowell

Patterson School opened Monday. The building has not been completed but students and teachers moved in. The new school will be dedicated Feb. 18.

The following are members of the Patterson School staff: Wayne Kaiser, principal and sixth grade; Mrs. Purnell Osburn, fifth grade; Mrs. Lela Colson, fourth grade; Miss Frances Baker, third grade; Mrs. Marguerite Garlick, second grade; Mrs. Louise Faling, first grade; and Mrs. Dorothy Updyke, kindergarten. "Hank" Young is custodian.

The playroom, work rooms and minor details have not been completed.

Patterson is one of the most modern and complete elementary schools in the state.

It is hoped that parents and friends will visit it at their convenience.

The PTA is planning an official dedication program for Thursday, Feb. 18. Details will be announced later.

The grounds are not yet ready and much work has to be done to complete the sidewalks and entrances.

Traffic from the school should move from Democrat St. north and out to North Union St.

Parents are asked to enter from the south on Democrat St. so children will have to watch for cars only from one direction.

Signs are being placed at strategic points. The general public is asked to cooperate as the road is not a public one and the school is responsible for the supervision and maintenance. Safety requires a speed limit of not more than 15 miles per hour. Don't endanger a child — obey the signs!

Form Committee To Gather Facts On Fluoridation

A meeting was held Monday night in the offices of Robert Murray, DDS, for the purpose of organizing a program to present the facts about fluoridation to the people of Tecumseh.

The committee for this program was formed and consists of most of the doctors and dentists in this area.

This group is planning an educational program on the advantages of adding fluoride to the water and will be registered under the name, Fluoridation Facts Committee.

Assisting this committee will be a group of citizens representing various interests in the community.

Their duties will be to collect the material for this program for approval by the committee and to act as liasion between the committee and the community.

Because of the large number of second grade children, the board decided to add another second grade room, making five in all. Mrs. Iva Van Valkenburg is the teacher and the class is in what used to be the library at Central school.

Bus schedules seem to be running fairly smoothly and it is hoped that they will be satisfactorily adjusted by the end of the week. Bus service was restored to the trailer park on North Union St. for the present and it is hoped that it can be continued.

City Operation Reviewed By Manager Nelson

(Tecumseh's City Council heard its first report of progress by manager Ed Nelson at the last council meeting, and from the general response of approval, the Council was well pleased with the city's initial operation. Here is Nelson's report in full).

By E. J. Nelson
City Manager

I have been busy the last two weeks setting up the various programs, such as, curb and gutter of which all footage and cost has to be listed and put in The Tecumseh Herald so we can have a hearing date set. Also, have worked out with the State Department on the additional major and local streets. We will have 4.38 miles of major streets and 5.28 miles of local streets. Mr. Stapshet of the county was in to see me last Tuesday. He is setting up the ground-work to change the additional streets in the city from the county system. This should be accomplished in about three weeks.

The Highway Department has been busy doing work that we let go in the fall while the weather was good, so as to continue new construction. We were in hopes the frost wouldn't get too deep so we could continue with the sanitary sewer and water mains on Burt St. but it was necessary to discontinue this project due to the frost.

We have been cutting down trees that became dangerous and have several more to cut down.

We have completed the new addition to the city garage with the exception of the concrete floor. We will wait until spring to complete this.

We have completed the 24-inch storm sewer on Burt st. from the bridge to M-52 intersection. This tile should be carried on north 100 feet to connect with tile coming across M-52 from the west to assure against any future pos-

TURN ON YOUR LIGHTS!

Baptist church bells will ring Thursday evening at 7 p.m. heralding the start of the Mothers March on Polio and signaling the moment for turning on porch lights of the city.

The local drive will be conducted by the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliaries.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Vern Manwaring and Mrs. Bert Warren urge all citizens to turn on their lights and give to the March of Dimes.

Trucker Is Burned In Fiery Crash

A truck driver suffered critical burns over three-fourths of his body about midnight Monday when his large semi missed the curve north of the bridge on Maumee St., crashed into a tree and burned after turning over.

In the University of Michigan hospital with third degree burns, cuts and shock is Donald Robinson, 37, of 2008 Elmwood St., Port Huron. He was enroute from Detroit to Adrian.

Robinson, driving a Conklin Truck Line rig, owes his life to the quick action of Stanley Van-Duzen who witnessed the accident.

After the truck left the road and crashed into a large tree, the truck's burning cab caught Van-Duzen who had been driving behind the truck, dragged Robinson from the burning cab.

Patrolman Skinner and Heberlein who investigated the accident said it could not be determined if Robinson went to sleep while driving or whether he missed the curve near the bridge as he traveled south toward Tecumseh.

He was in too much shock to give patrolmen a clear statement.

Before he was taken to University hospital, he was given first aid at Herrick Memorial hospital.

Tecumseh firemen also were called and put out the blazing cab before the fire spread to the trailer. The tractor was a total loss.

Auxiliary Offers Scholarship Plan

OPEN TO GIRLS IN TECUMSEH AREA

A scholarship of $200 is again being offered by the Auxiliary of Herrick Memorial hospital for a student entering nurses training in September 1954. It is open to any girl graduating in the upper half of her high school class, either from Tecumseh high school or from any of the neighboring towns served by the Tecumseh hospital.

To be eligible for this award, girls must have been tentatively accepted by May 1, by an accredited nursing school for entrance next fall, and must have had the auxiliary scholarship application completely filled out and returned to the committee chairman by May 15.

Since the process of being accepted by a school of nursing demands a good deal of time, the auxiliary urges that girls who are interested in applying, begin contacting the school of their choice at once. Mrs. E. C. Boss, scholarship chairman of the auxiliary for this year, will be glad to talk personally with any girls hoping to be nurses.

Application forms may be obtained either from high school superintendents or directly from Mrs. Boss.

Fire Department Had Good Year

Tecumseh's annual/fire loss report shows the local department had an excellent year from the standpoint of fire prevention.

Covering Tecumseh and Tecumseh township and parts of Clinton, Macon, Raisin and Franklin townships, the department answered 75 alarms in 1953. These fires caused total loss of $7,325.

The annual report shows the department had nine automobile fires, 3 dwelling fires, 1 fire in the bulk storage plant, 24 grass fires and 24 miscellaneous alarms. Firemen also were called out on two false alarms.

Fire losses totaled $1,475 on dwellings, $4,050 on other buildings, $825 on contents of dwellings and $875 on miscellaneous losses.

Causes of fires ranged from thawing frozen water pipes to careless burning of rubbish. Also included were one fire from careless smoking and one from careless use of matches.

Several ware listed as "unknown" causes.

Factory Payrolls Increased $6 Million In Past Year

A progress report released by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce shows that payrolls of city industries increased by more than six million dollars last year over the year 1952.

The exact increase was $6,-771,-503. Payrolls for 1952 totaled $15,002,110. Payrolls for the year 1953 totaled $21,773,613.

This industrial progress of the City of Tecumseh was given Wednesday night by Clarence Beach, president of the Chamber of Commerce, at the annual meeting of the chamber.

This is the comparison report of Tecumseh's 13 industries:

Mothers March on Polio Tonight

Arrangements for the Mothers March or Porchlight Parade scheduled for tonight (Thursday) from 7 to 8 p.m. have been completed, according to Mrs. Rolland Reister and Mrs. Ted Golat.

This nation-wide drive for polio funds will be conducted in Tecumseh township jointly by the auxiliaries of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars under the leadership of their respective presidents, Mrs. Vern Manwaring and Mrs. Bert Warren.

All workers are asked to meet in the V.F.W. rooms at 6:30 p.m. for instructions and should have a glass jar along for a canister. After the march they will return to the same rooms to hear combined reports and for fellowship.

Residents of Tecumseh township are asked to turn porchlights on promptly at 7 p.m. as a signal for contributions. A light in the window also will act as a signal or a white handkerchief or old shoe tied to the door-knob, if you are in an apartment building. If anyone expects to be away from home during the specified time, he may leave his contribution at the office of the local Chamber of Commerce in the Sage building.

Mrs. Ted Golat, president of the Tecumseh-Raisin Township council, announced that the following persons also will work: Dorothy Glenn, Ella Baaske; Mrs. Max Smith, Elsie Filter, Betty Cooper, Jean Smith, Margaret Leighton, Doris Commet, Ann Green, Dorothy Damon, Mary Bower, Dorothy Grigg, Lucile Drake, Marilyn Driscoll, Lucy Geringer, Doris Bagshaw, Mrs. Allan Russell, Mrs. Mervyn Boltz, Mrs. Homer Colson, Mrs. Wallace Whiting, Purnell Osburn, Louise Faling, Bonnie Purkey, Carl Kempf and Harlan Boyes.

Mrs. Rollin Fairbanks, chairman of the Porchlight Parade in Raisin township, has organized her territory according to school districts with local people in each district as the workers. All school districts are cooperating.

David Dick, treasurer of the Tecumseh-Raisin Township Council, asks that money from all benefits, organizations and others be left at the office of the Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible so he may complete his report by Jan. 31, if possible. All checks should read "March of Dimes."

Canisters are in public places for convenience, souvenir coins are available and the empty wheel-chair will be in the business section again this Saturday.

Mrs. Reister also announces that Mrs. Wellington Wotring, Mrs. Donald LaBounty, Mrs. Marian Hanna and Mrs. P. G. Colgrove sold souvenir coins at Tecumseh Products Co. Monday and Tuesday with gratifying results.

The public's money will provide patient care, research and prevention in the battle against infantile paralysis. The national drive for funds to carry on the work of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will end Jan. 31 but contributions are acceptable anytime.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At the weekly 1 o'clock luncheon of the ladies of the Country Club, held last Wednesday, new officers were elected for 1954. Mrs. Vincent Haight and Mrs. Earl Wickwire are now co-chairmen of the organiaztion, Mrs. Rebert Manchester and Mrs. William Macbeth are the hostess committee, Mrs. Ned Baldwin is new secretary, Mrs. L. M. Hubbard, treasurer and Mrs. C. W. Hanna, Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw and Mrs. Hal Kelso, golf committee.

Two Men Are Cited By C of C

Frank K. Smith, director of sales at Tecumseh Products Company, is the "Citizen of the Year" and Cecil Alderdyce, chief of the fire department, has been cited for many years of fire prevention service to the community and for heroism. Both awards were made at the annual Chamber of Commerce meeting Wednesday night at the Country Club.

Mr. Smith, one of the co-founders of the Products company and long active in community affairs, was honored for his work with Herrick Memorial hospital.

Always taking a sincere interest in Tecumseh since he came here 20 years ago, Mr. Smith also is active in the First Presbyterian church and the Masonic Lodge.

He was influential in the beginning of the hospital here and for 10 years served on the board. He is now president of the board.

Mr. Smith also was a member of the City Charter Commission and has served for the past four years on the Country Club board. He is chairman of the board.

Charles O. Butler, in presenting the medal to Mr. Smith, called him "the man of every year."

Chief Alderdyce was cited for heroism during the Protane Gas Service Company fire last summer.

Risking his life, he prevented a large tank of gas from exploding and causing more serious damages.

He also was cited for his "every day service" to the community in fire prevention.

Mayor Charles Mensing presented the citation.

More details of the annual meeting will be in next week's Herald.

Indians Scalped By Blissfield

This time the Indians got scalped.

Blissfield wielded a wicked tomahawk Tuesday night on the Tecumseh Indians, winning in basketball 49-21.

Playing what Coach Vic Lawson said was their worst game of the year, the Indians fell apart in the second half after a close first half score of 12-10 in favor of the visitors.

Tecumseh led at the end of the first quarter, 5-2 then lost the lead and fell apart in the final two periods. Blissfield fell apart and 21 points in the final two quarters while the Indians were adding only 3 and 8 points.

Keller of Blissfield led the attack with 18 points. Al Hart had 5 for Tecumseh. Hart usually has a better output but not Tuesday. He could not find the range and the Indians had nobody who could take up the slack.

The Junior Indians won their game 50-30 with Miller leading the way.

Friday night Tecumseh plays Hillsdale here in a Southeastern Michigan League game. The junior varsity plays at 7 p.m. with the varsity game at 8 p.m.

WARNING TO DOG OWNERS

Police Chief George Kilbourn announces that numerous complaints have been received by his department regarding dogs that are being allowed to run at large. "They constitute a nuisance and are in direct violation of the city ordinance," the Chief said. Any dog found running at large will be picked up by the dog warden.

Editorials

NO LONGER FORGOTTEN — In a recent letter to weekly newspaper editors Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield reported on operations of the Post Office Department for the past year and plans for 1954.

Believing that the American people should know more about this largest peace-time agency of the government, both as users of the mails and as taxpayers, we're passing along to Herald readers some of the facts stated in this report.

Mr. Summerfield pointed out the big task facing the new postal administration in cutting the deficit to help balance the national budget and put the Post Office department's $10,000,000,000 a year business on a more nearly break-even basis, at the same time providing better mail service. Already, he said, the estimated postal deficit for the current fiscal year has been reduced to about $440,000,000. That represents a reduction of the deficit by about one million dollars every working day. But they are still running behind. In the eight years since World War II, the postal deficit totaled $3,800,000,000. The interest alone on this huge debt costs American taxpayers over $100,000,000 a year.

According to Mr. Summerfield, rural America is no longer the "forgotten zone" of mail delivery. Millions of citizens are now getting better mail service because of a new emphasis on rural free delivery, he said, pointing out that the department is modernizing service everywhere to deliver the mail faster and at less cost.

One of several steps which has been taken to reduce the deficit is the request for Congress to raise the cost of out-of-town letters by one penny from three cents to four cents. That rate hasn't been raised in twenty-one years, but meanwhile the cost of opearting the postal establishment has doubled in that time.

Postmaster General Summerfield pointed to these improvements in service this past year: Later pick-ups from mail boxes in most cities; air transportation is being used as an experiement in speeding first-class mail; merit is the primary criterion for promotion of postal employees to supervisory positions; longer hours of post office window service.

A WARMER WORLD — Few people will be surprised that meteorologists believe the world's temperature is rising when they think of the mild Michigan winter we've had this year. We have already heard from folks who say, almost regretfully, there are no blizzards today like that of '88 and from those who feel that the heat-and-hate-of war must affect even the weather. So it is not strange to hear of actual changes in climate.

Evidence of this is given in Harper's magazine by a distinguished British meteorologist. Glaciers are melting at a more rapid rate — enough to raise all the oceans by an inch in this century. Fish and birds are ranging farther north. Agriculture has been finding steady success in formerly barren tundras of Canada and Asia.

For 100 years glaciers have been retreating. Some theories trace these variations to changes in the sun. The British meteorologist thinks this process could go on until melted ice raised the oceans 200 feet.

That would be serious. But just taking a layman's look at the map, the seven seas look too big to be so drastically affected. For today at least, we are more concerned about the damage mankind can do.

LOCAL PAPER LEADS — In the comparatively recent past, the local newspaper was about the only place where merchants could advertise their wares. Since then, other important media have come into existence — notably radio and television. But despite the inroads these have made on retailers' advertising budgets, the newspaper is still the dominant factor in the field by a wide margin.

That statement is substantiated by a recent survey of the advertising practices of department stores in all sections of the country. It found that the typical store allocated 80 per cent of the advertising dollar to newspapers, nine per cent to television, four per cent to radio, three per cent to direct mail and four per cent to other media.

The local newspaper offers the surest means of reaching the masses of the people — whether with a news story or an editorial opinion or an advertising message. And that's why merchants place it first when dividing up their advertising appropriations.

It's human nature, I guess, to love to gossip. However, hardly anyone wants to listen to the good fortune or virtues of another. Most prefer to report and discuss the unfavorable and bad things they've heard.

Some wit, with this in mind, has defined a small town. It is a place where everyone knows what's going on, but where they take the newspaper to find out who got caught at it.

Likewise, the same thing is true of our national economy, or "the times." People discuss the unfavorable national trends or sour local situations that they've heard about. But few bother to report the favorable happenings. As a result, many people become gloomy, downcast, and pessimistic about the future.

But the future can be bright. It will be if enough of us act with confidence.

The thoughts we think, the remarks we make, the way we act, affect the future.

If we all start talking things up, instead of running them down, times are bound to stay good — even improve!

Isn't that right?

PARENT-TEACHERS MEET

The Britton-Macon Agricultural school Parent-Teacher Association held its January meeting Monday evening. After the reading of the P.T.A. objects, Keith Bottorff conducted the business meeting. A penny supper is planned for Feb. 15 with Mrs. Clarence Herford as chairman. Mrs. Harold Prielipp gave a talk on the dental health program for this year. Elmer Eberhardt reported on the porch light drive for polio which is Jan. 28. Mr. Bottorff submitted his resignation as president. The fifth grade won the attendance award.

The following program was announced by Mrs. Marion Barrett: Cornet duet by Clifford Haas and Jimmy Dansforth; vocal duet by Jean and Janet Linn and a skit "No Trains Today" by the fifth graders. Mrs. Lillian Kniffen introduced the speaker, Tom Monahan, assistant professor of child physcology at the University of Michigan. He spoke on "Reporting to Parents." Refreshments were served.

Staff Sgt. Lawrence W. Grady, who has been stationed at Braintree, England for the last year and a-half, has been sent to Elevsis, Greece for duty.

Pvt. Donald L. Judd, the husband of Mrs. Polly Judd of Britton and son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Judd of 207 N. Maumee St., Tecumseh, has completed radio school in Nuremburg, Germany and is stationed at Bamberg as a radio operator. Pvt. Judd entered service March 9, 1953, and completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kansas before reporting for overseas duty.

Miss Shirley Bortel underwent an appendectomy Friday in Herrick Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Donald Lutton is a patient at St. Vincent's hospital in Toledo.

Mrs. Walter Prill has returned home after undergoing surgery in Herrick Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pilbeam Jr. entertained at dinner Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Pilbeam and family, Shirley Pilbeam, Mr. and Mrs. George Squires and Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Pilbeam and Roxana.

Sunday evening callers in the Llewellyn Pilbeam home were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Krebs of Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Croll accompanied by Mrs. Ida Miller went to Detroit Sunday where they were called by the death of Mrs. Clare Dennison which occurred Saturday. They were dinner guests of Mrs. Orson Schalten.

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES

Library

Cooperation—the Garden Club has supplied a clever exhibit for the March of Dimes Canister in the library lobby. Tiny figures made of yarn, pipe cleaners and cloth, each carrying a dime, are hurrying across all the states of the union, towards the canister at the back of the table. Each state is a separate cutout and a Red Cross nurse awaits them beside their goal. It is the work of Mrs. Harold Wilson, on behalf of the club.

More cooperation—badly needed additional shelf space has been installed in the west reading room, the work of the high school manual training boys who are members of Mr. Runk's classes. They are movable cases but fit into the northwest corner of the room. The case holding the exhibit of mounted birds has been moved to the basement room.

The recently installed pay book collection is deserving of more patronage than it has received. It includes many of the more desired new books which are not included in the regular library stock and probably will not be purchased. Thus it gives readers an opportunity to obtain contemporary fiction not otherwise available.

Jan. 31, Patricia O'Brien, who has been assistant to the librarian for nearly two years, will enter the University of Michigan. She will begin a five year course in library work, a choice influenced by her association here. "Pat's" cheery efficiency will be missed.

With the opening of the Patterson school, the library basement is temporarily vacated and is now available for club and committee meetings. Those wishing to use it should call the librarian for scheduling.

BROTHER DIES

Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce returned Saturday from Frankfort, Ind., where they had been called by the death of Mrs. Bruce's brother, James P. Hufford. Mr. Hufford died very suddenly of a heart attack at Portland, Ind., while enroute to Kenton, Ohio, to visit his father, Marion C. Hufford. He had lived all his life in Frankfort and was in the outdoor advertising business. His sisters, Mrs. William V. Coons of Utica, N. Y., and Mrs. Bruce and his father are his only survivors. Mr. Hufford, who was 43 years old, had visited many times in Tecumseh during the eighteen years the Bruces have lived here.

Grade School News

Grade 1
Mrs. Faling

Hurrah! the time has finally come. Yes! we are so happy. Patterson is ready for us and we are ready for it. We know there is still a great deal to do to finish the school but we will try our very best to stay out of the workers' way. Do you blame us for being so excited? By the time you read this, we will be all settled in our new room. We could tell you more about this but we would like to tell you some things we are doing right here.

The "Jets" and the "Ships" have finished "We Work and Play" and are ready to read their next book, "We Come and Go." The "Pilots" will soon be finished with their book, too. We have fun talking like the people in our stories. We enjoy our "Think and Do" books. We read them and then do what it tells us to do. If we don't know our words, the pages are different for us.

In arithmetic we are learning to measure. We have our own little measuring sticks and we have measured our desks, our blackboard and many other things in our room. We have even measured each other.

We are almost finished with our first writing books. We have learned to spell seven words already. We are making a list of the words we can spell in the back of our books. Every week our list grows.

In science we are learning about machines. We have found out how important electricity is in our homes and city. Machines make mother and father's work much easier.

We have 33 in our room now. Sue Campbell, Ruthie Satterthwaite and Jeffrey Noe have moved. We miss them very much. We enjoyed the puppet show at the Central last week. We like visiting Central. We learned many things about safety.

Many of us have had birthdays and now are seven years old. They are Renee Rodgers, Phillip Mobley, Lana Scutt, David Mueller, Toni Merrick and Jeff Osburn.

I guess that is all the news we have to tell you this month. We hope you enjoy reading it. The next time we write to you we will be in our nice new room. Bye for now; see you next month.

Kindergarten
Mrs. Heimerdinger

We are back in routine after our nice holiday vacation. We are learning our first five numbers by tactual, auditory, and visual application.

We have had a puppet project and are still in the process of making paper bag puppets. We become puppets during rhythms and our favorite is Pinocchio.

Our new musical game is "Pop Goes the Weasel," and we really do have fun.

We are still practicing memorization of telephone numbers, addresses and birthdays. We are all doing very well. Tying our shoes is quite a feat but we want to place a picture on the shoe, so we really try.

First Grade
Miss Steinhoff

A new year has begun and some changes have come along with it.

Sharon and Billy Burch have left us, and are now going to school in Ridgeway. We are sorry to say that Clair Maynard couldn't be with us for two weeks because of an appendectomy. Douglas Kayner had the same ill luck and couldn't enjoy our Christmas party.

On Jan. 15 we walked over to the Central Building and enjoyed "Jerry McSafety."

Most of us are now ready for our new readers "Fun with Dick and Jane."

This week when Robert Meier's mother visited our room we had our pictures taken as a group. Mrs. Penrod and Mrs. Packard have also visited us recently.

Kindergarten
Miss Bugbee

Happy New Year, Everybody! My, but it seems good to be back in school again after our Christmas vacation. We had lots of fun playing with our toys, and some of us brought them to school to show our friends. Linda Bush and Janis Reed each received dolls from Germany.

We have been able to mark our calendar with snow several times this month. We brought some real snow in and let it melt. We found dirt in it, so we aren't going to put in in our mouths any more. We have played that we were icicles and snowmen, and learned some new songs. Of course, we couldn't forget "Frosty."

"The Eskimos" have taken up a lot of our time this month. We found out that they dress in fur from head to foot, and that they live in houses called "igloos." We were surprised to find out that they have to crawl through a little tunnel to get inside their house. Each one of made a picture book to take home.

Connie Robinett, Donna Glasscock, and Beverly Eggleston all have January birthdays. We really liked the cupcakes which their mothers brought us.

Mrs. Keith Barron and Mrs. Robert Glasscock have visited us this month.

Cathy Haskins brought us a story called "When Grandma Was a Girl." We found so many surprising things in it, especially about the old wooden bath tub.

We're really beginning to feel quite grown up. Just think of it! We get our very first report cards this week. They are very pretty, and we really like them. They are all decorated with gold, red, or green stars.

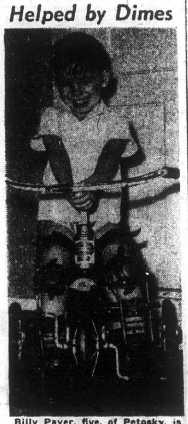
Good-bye, we'll have more news for you next month.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Spreeman were hosts at a surprise dinner party at their home Saturday evening, honoring the birthday anniversary of Miss Myrna Bugbee. The table, which had as a centerpiece a beautifully ornamented birthday cake made by Mrs. Wilbur Boyce, was decorated in red and white in keeping with the Valentine season.

The evening was spent pleasantly in playing cards and Miss Bugbee received a lovely gift from the members of the group. Those present were Miss Bugbee, Miss Lucille Weitenhagen. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spence Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilt, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hendershot, Mr. and Mrs. George Dinius, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Damon and Mr. and Mrs. Spreeman.

Helped by Dimes



Billy Payer, five, of Petoskey, is outdistancing the effects of polio with a tricycle and the March of Dimes. The tricycle helps strengthen his polio-weakened legs while the March of Dimes provides the dollars for braces and further treatment. You can help Billy and thousands of others stricken by this disease. Give generously during January to the 1954 March of Dimes Drive.

Is That So!

By Miss Clara Waldron

ARE YOU A BIRD WATCHER?

Bird watchers belong to that segment of the population who are considered zany by their sensible friends — friends who are "tetched" only on such sensible subjects as dogs, TV sets, new convertibles or cute sayings of grandchildren.

Their friends consider bird-watchers just easy-marks for feathered pan handlers, and there is some basis for their contention for birdwatchers tend automatically to become bird-feeders. If you are to have birds to watch, especially in winter, you entice them into watching range with food. The more you feed the more you have to watch and the more you have to watch, the more you have to feed—especially the more sparrows, starlings and gormandizing blue jays. These are the chaff that must be winnowed before the watcher is rewarded by the choice bits of the feathered world.

Admittedly, you almost at once become the bond servant of beady-eyed tyrants who, on subzero mornings, announce in no uncertain terms that it is time for you to get your mittens on and replenish that feeding tray. It is a rewarding bondage, however, especially for the more faithful slave who keeps trays supplied throughout the year. Your reward is not only in the regular visits of birds you would not otherwise see but, during the spring migrations, some intangible signal, a sort of avian "tramp mark" as it were, seems to draw flocks of rare specimens to the places where they are sure of a welcome.

Tecumseh's birdwatchers fall into the usual categories, the "hit-or-miss" variety and the year round faithfuls and of the latter no one even approaches Mrs. Gervaise Brown in constancy. Her first action when she moved into her N. Maiden Lane home beside the creek six years ago was to establish five feeding stations. They have been "open for business" ever since, with the result that her grounds are a private bird sanctuary.

Just to make other watchers envious, here is a list of the birds that are with her every day: Six pairs of cardinals, fifteen blue jays, clouds of chickadees, Juncos, titmice and nuthatches, both downy and hairy woodpeckers and at least one redhead; many sing for their breakfast on the coldest mornings) a lone flicker, several cedar-waxwings, some king-fishers and many brown creepers. This is, of course, in addition to the inevitable English sparrows and starlings besides Rudolph the pheasant and his family, Rudolph, who has enjoyed the entire six years of Mrs. Brown's hospitality is deserving of a story on his own and will probably get it.

This is just her winter family and Mrs. Brown says there have been no unusual visitors this season—to the garden variety of watcher the list itself is unusual enough.

Bird waching can be more than a hobby. For one Tecumseh lad it has had a business side. Nicky Touborg, under the impressive title of the "Nickodemus Seed Company," supplies sunflower seeds for feeding trays over a wide territory. On a strictly business basis, Nicky buys the output of five acres of sunflowers grown on his father's farm, boxes them in attractive pound cartons and markets them. Some are delivered locally, a la bicycle, some sent by mail to surrounding towns and others on a larger scale are wholesaled in Chicago and New York.

This is the second year of the Nickodemus Co. and the business is growing. In fact it is giving its proprietor what one might (but probably shouldn't) term, a "bird's-eye" view of the business world.

CIVIL AIR CADETS

A new course of instruction is being started by the Civil Air Patrol Cadet class, which for the past six months has been meeting every Wednesday evening at the Central school. Lt. J. Bird of Adrian will begin a series of lectures on Radio Operation this week, which will continue for some time. There has been a regular attendance of about ten air-minded youths since the class was inaugurated and they would welcome additional members. The class is sponsored by the local Civil Air Patrol to interest future recruits for flying, but it is not necessary to be a member of the cadets or the patrol to attend Lt. Bird's classes. Any interested boy or man may feel free to be present.

Business Women Enjoy Fun Night

"Let's make merry" was the spirit of entertainment at the January meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club, Monday evening at the Fellowship Center. Mrs. Jessie Sluyter and Miss Geraldine French were leaders and after counting the audience into groups of four, they secured the merriment by having each quartette sing a song regardless of ability and then tell of life's most embarassing moment. Failure to cooperate cost the member a penny as did a miss in the song quiz which followed. Fines netted $6.06 for the Polio Fund.

The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Duaine Service in the absence of the president, Mrs. George Hay and communications were read from several organizations. The club was invited to attend a tea at the Methodist church Feb. 8, to hear Mrs. Belle Farley Murry, U. of M. extension lecturer, speak on "Old Wisdom for New Days;" and to take part in the mid-winter meeting of the County Federation which will be held Feb. 3, in Adrian beginning at 10:15 with potluck luncheon at 12:30. The federation speaker will be William Austin, superintendent of Adrian schools. The chair appointed Mrs. Sluyter, Mrs. W. G. Waldron and Mrs. Hay as delegates to the meeting.

Club members were requested by the County Association for Retarded Children to collect canned food labels which are to be turned in at French's market or the library. It was voted to sponsor Lee Vescelius, a trombone player in the band, as the club's choice to compete in the district competition for a scholarship to the all state band at the National Music Camp at Interlochen for a week's instruction this summer. The cost of sending the winner of the competition is pro-rated among all federated clubs and the cost to those cooperating is $3.50.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Ogland Lay, Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg and Mrs. Service and they had beautifully decorated the tables with pink streamers and white chrysanthemums for the dinner provided by the Golden Rule Society. Two guests, Mrs. Herbert Murphy and Miss Sue Blossies were present in addition of forty members, three of whom, Ellen Coleman, Mary Drake and Martha Baldwin were new.

The evening was brought to an appropriate close by a trio, Mrs. Duaine Service, Mrs. Naomi Sallows and Mrs. Myrna Tingley, dressed in old fashioned night gowns and caps and carrying lighted candles, singing "Sweet and Low," "Three Blind Mice" and "Good Night Ladies."

The next meeting, Feb. 22 will have the theme "Home Handicraft."

OBSERVE NATIONAL VETERANS WEEK

In observance of National V.F.W. week, local Hall-Slater Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars and its auxiliary attended the morning service of the First Baptist church in a group Sunday.

"Increasing membership of the V.F.W. is an indication that more and more veterans are becoming aware of the need for local, state and national representation to protect their rights and just needs," Harlan Boyes, commander of Hall-Slater Post 4187 said. The organization especially welcomes Korean veterans at this time and all eligible veterans of former wars.

Here's how your March of Dimes contributions were expended during the 16-year history of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. In 1954, there will be a new, costly and epic fourth front opened: Polio Prevention. It will include gamma globulin and trials of a test polio vaccine. Cost of this alone: $26,500,000. The other programs continue, too. This is why the 1954 March of Dimes must be the most successful ever. Contribute generously through the month of January.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB MARKS SIXTIETH YEAR

Another of Tecumseh's literary societies will celebrate its sixtieth anniversary next week. Like the Monday Club, the Wit and Wisdom Society was organized early in 1894, and Feb. 1 it will commemorate that event at its regular evening meeting at the home of Mrs. Hoyt Whelan. W. G. Waldron will be the leader of the program and a history of the club, based on its records, will be given by Mrs. Charles Branigin. Organized with a membership limited to forty, the club has always had an unofficial waiting list. It has included, ex officio, the members of the clergy and their wives and the superintendent and principal of the high school. Its one remaining charter member will not be present at the celebration. Charles Kemp, who is ninety-five years of age is spending the winter in Florida. Members may bring guests for this meeting. Assisting Mrs. Whelan Monday evening will be Mrs. J. Fred Rector, Miss Gertrude Spaulding, Miss Ruth Harding and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw.

QUAKER FELLOWSHIP

Mr. and Mrs. William Hotrum assisted by Hr. and Mrs. Amos Wilson were hosts to the Quaker Fellowship class Tuesday evening at the Hotrum home. Ralph Comfort conducted devotions and also presided over a short business meeting. The Wilsons then acted as MC's for a word quiz for the entertainment of the group, and the hosts served refreshments. No decision has been made as to the place of the next meeting and announcement will be made later.

MONDAY CLUB

Mrs. Robert McCoy was hostess to thirty-five members of the Monday Club for a noon potluck dinner, which was followed by a short business meeting and an afternoon work meeting. One hundred towels were hemmed for the hospital by those present, directed by Mrs. Clarence Beach and Mrs. Edna Codling. Announcement was made of the County Federation meeting Feb. 3, at the Adrian library, beginning at 10:15 a.m. with a potluck dinner at 12:30, and it was announced that $57.13 was realized from the polio bake sale. Mrs. McCoy was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Westgate, Mrs. C. A. Stauter, Mrs. Floyd Waring, Mrs. Vergil Deming, Mrs. Leon Johnson, Mrs. J. Fred Rector, Miss Lillian Cannon and Mrs. Jennie Satterlee.

The next meeting will be a tea at the Methodist church parlors when Mrs. Belle Farley Murray, an extension lecturer from the U. of M. will speak on the subject, "Old Wisdom for New Days."

EVANGELISTS COMING

Beginning Sunday, Jan. 31, and lasting until Feb. 14 there will be a series of evangelistic meetings each evening except Monday and Saturday at the Assembly of God, 210 W. Bidwell St. The Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Wilson, both talented speakers and extensive travelers, will have charge. An accomplished artist, Mr. Wilson will paint a picture in oils at each meeting and it will be given to the member of the audience bringing the most visitors. Mrs. Wilson is a talented musician, both as a soloist and harpist and is also a speaker with an understanding of world conditions. The meetings will begin at 8 p.m. each evening.

sibility of flooding basements as have occurred in the past.

Last week we laid 234 feet of water main on Maple and Park streets. This completes all water mains in Sunset Meade addition.

College Park Homes are very anxious for us to complete the sanitary sewer and water mains to the four homes which are nearly completed on E. Burt street. However, with the frost over 12 inches deep it would be expensive to complete at this time. Will continue this project as soon as possible.

We have the one well which will produce 300 gallons per minute on the Tonneberger farm on Newburg Road. To tie in the well and buy equipment it would cost well over $10,000.00. That is a lot of money to spend for so little volume. It looks like we should go south of the gravel pits on Green Road in order to get a well that will give us the volume we need. Of course this is merely a guess whether we can get the volume needed. We have 10 acres of land that we could drill a test well on.

I asked Consumers Power to make a study of installing street lights in the Tecumseh Acres area. Will have this information in a few days. Also, the Telephone Co. is checking into the phone rates in that area.

There have been two parties asking to build on property south on Mohawk street. This area within the old corporation limit was industrial. I believe we should show the new addition, industrial south to Russell Road.

KEITH SWAIN DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Tecumseh friends of Stanley and Grace Davidson Swain, and of their son Keith have learned of the death of the latter, apparently by murder, which took place near Los Angeles, Calif., last Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

Keith, who was 25 years old, married and the father of a baby son, lived at Santa Cruz, which is also the home of his parents, but had recently gone to work in Los Angeles. He apparently was on the way to visit his uncle, Carleton Swain, whose home is in Melba Beach, a suburb of Los Angeles when the murder took place. His body was found by a police officer and authorities are of the opinion that he had been beaten to death and robbed.

So far as is known here, no arrests have yet been made and no further details are available. Harold Davidson, an uncle of the murdered man, who received a telephone call from his sister, Mrs. Stanley Swain, left immediately by air for Santa Cruz.

Keith, who was born in Tecumseh and attended school here until his parents moved to California nine years ago, is survived by his widow, a son nearly a year old, his parents, a brother, Larry, his grandfather, S. J. Swain and an aunt Mrs. Grace Rosander of Detroit, four uncles, Carleton Swain of Melba Beach, Calif., Harold Davidson and Floyd Swain of Tecumseh and Wilmer Swain of Springville.

EXTENSION CLUB

There was a necessary change in the work of the January meeting of the Comfort Extension club Monday evening held at the home of Mrs. Donald Woods. Instead of a lesson on mending wool, the group of nine members made sixty cancer pads for use at Herrick Memorial hospital.

A report was made of a community card party held Jan. 16 at the Centennial schoolhouse for the purpose of raising money to buy recreational equipment for the school. In spite of a small attendance, $12.75 was realized. Further plans for the same purpose were made which include a smorgasboard supper to be held at the schoolhouse, Feb. 6, from 6 to 8 p.m. Food for the supper will be furnished locally but the general public is invited.

Mrs. Leonard Lewis and Mrs. Donald Woods will be the project leaders for the group for the balance of the course.

COOKIE SALES CONTINUE

Troop No. 1 of the Girl Scouts will be saleswomen Saturday for the weekly cookie sale at the United Savings Bank. Mrs. Harry Schuch and Mrs. George Elliott are leaders of this group and will be on hand to assist.

Those who had sampled the cookies sold the first Saturday of the campaign, Jan. 16, and had planned to repeat their purchase last week were disappointed to find no scouts on hand on the 23. They might be amused as well as irked, as were the scout leaders, to learn that the manufacturers decided so small a community could not possibly need so large a repeat order as had been sent them and did not ship the dozens of boxes ordered by the chairman, Mrs. Lyle Grigg. Hence no sale.

Their preconceived impression of Tecumseh has now been corrected and there will be plenty of cookies at the bank this Saturday.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN JACKSON

Glenn Tansley, a former resident of Tecumseh, who moved to Jackson about 1915, and is remembered by many here, died suddenly Sunday at his Jackson home. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tansley and the Tansley home was at 117 S. Maiden Lane now owned by George Green Sr. He was 64 years of age and a member of the 1908 Tecumseh high school class, leaving school to work in the Albert Marsh meat market.

Mr. Tansley was married and his widow survives as do two daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Alvers, Lansing and Mrs. Mary Gilbert, Baltimore, Md.; two sons Charles, Battle Creek and Willard Jackson; a sister, Mrs. Alma Schlosser, Los Angeles and three grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother Charles.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in Jackson.

PTA SEES POLIO MOVIE

At the January meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association held in the Central auditorium Monday evening, Robert Stites of the county committee of the March of Dimes, showed the 70 members present a reel of Polio News and a movie short, narrated by Helen Hayes. They gave the audience much information regarding the latest developments in research and treatment of poliomyelitis and many valuable suggestions for the campaign of the March of Dimes.

Dr. R. J. Murray spoke on the subject of fluoridation of the water supply and the association voted its endorsement of the matter.

The February meeting will be held in the new Patterson School and will be a combined open house and dedicatory program.

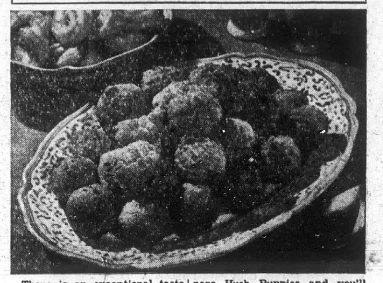
CORN MEAL HUSH PUPPIES SATISFY "Growling" TUMMIES



There is an exceptional taste treat in store for you any time the table fare calls for a flavorful bread to go along with a meal. Whether it's a party for friends or just an every day dinner for the family, you'll find Hush Puppies the corn meal food to delight hard-to-please appetites.

High in nutritive value yet low in cost, Hush Puppies make a delightful service when combined with vegetables, meat, fish or poultry. And they're extra good when served with fresh, boiled shrimp, too. You can serve them with every meal, any time of the day or night, and you'll have the family coming back for more.

Whatever the occasion, prepare Hush Puppies and you'll make meal-time so nice to come home to.

HUSH PUPPIES

2 cups corn meal
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup finely chopped onions
2 cups sweet milk
(If self-rising corn meal is used, omit baking powder and salt.)

Combine dry ingredients and sift together. Add onion and milk and blend well. Preheat deep fat to 365°F., dip tablespoon into hot fat and then into dough, shaping the dough slightly to make fairly round. Drop into hot fat and cook until well browned.

The luxurious 200-hp ROADMASTER Riviera —top buy of the custom-car "hardtops."

It looks like the biggest hit in BUICK history!

WE'VE had more than a fair share of success in this business—but this beats all!

From the day we opened our doors to show the new 1954 Buicks, we've been kept hopping by people, questions and orders.

It seems that folks have been hoping for a really big change in the new cars—and Buick's got what they want, right across the board.

Buick's got it in style—in the sleek, swift, low and glamorous look of the sports cars, but with the room and comfort of Buick size and breadth.

Buick's got it in power—in high-compression V8 engines all stepped up to new horsepower highs and boosted to new economy with Power-Head Pistons.

Buick's got it in ride comfort, too, and handling ease, and visibility—and a whole new list of features as up to the minute as the very look of these great cars.

But—why don't you come see what all the excitement is about?

Then you'll discover that what's helping to make the '54 Buicks the biggest hit in our history are the prices we're quoting—prices that buy more Buick beauty and power and thrill and sheer automobile than smart money ever bought before.

CITY OF TECUMSEH COUNCIL MEETING
January 18, 1954

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Councilman Kelso and supported by Councilman Hanna.

WHEREAS it is the desire of this body that a continuing improvement be made in supplying the City with adequate curb-and-gutter installations; and

WHEREAS numerous residents have petitioned the Council, praying for such installations adjacent to their property.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the installation of curb-and-gutter shall be undertaken as soon as practicable on both sides of the following described streets:

a. West Brown Street between North Union and Ternes Road (North side only)

b. North Maiden Lane between Chicago Blvd. and W. Logan streets.

c. West Logan street between North Pearl and North Maiden Lane (South side of street only)

d. West Kilbuck street between South Maiden Lane and South Pearl street.

e. East Pottawatamie street between South Maumee and South Wyandotte street.

f. Maple street between West Pottawatamie St., and Parkway street.

g. West Kilbuck street between Union and Van Buren street.

h. Lots 91 to 100 inclusive and lots 111 to 129 inclusive on Wenonah street between Seneca and Nokomis streets and on that portion of Seneca and Nokomis streets East of Wenonah street in the Plat of Moore's Second Addition to Indian Acres, City of Tecumseh.

2. That the cost thereof is estimated to be $2.00 per lineal foot.

3. That said cost shall be 40% paid by City, and 60% paid by the particular property owners.

4. That the particular property owners are defined to be those persons who own realty abuting on any of the above described areas of improvement.

5. That the Clerk cause this resolution be published for two successive weeks in the Tecumseh Herald, designating Monday, February 15, 1954 at 8:30 p.m. at the Council Chambers as a time and place for hearing any objections hereto on the part of any person or persons considering himself or themselves aggrieved by the proposed improvement and assessment.

Resolution Declared Adopted:

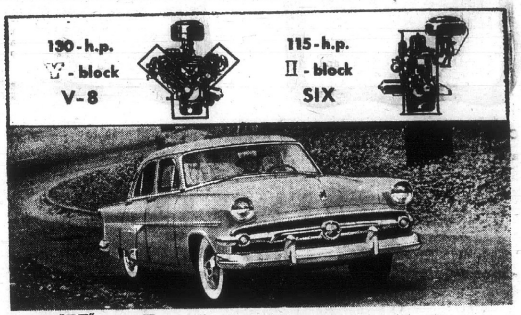
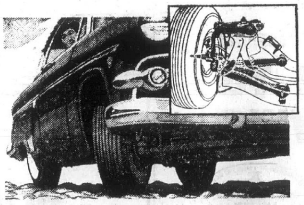
Test Drive a FORD... and you'll want to drive it home

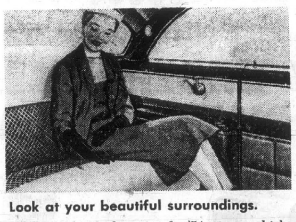


Try the "Y" or the I-. You'll thrill to Ford's greater responsiveness the first time you take a Test Drive. And you'll discover that this new "Go" is yours through the full range of driving speeds! Both of Ford's new engines have an extra-deep block extending well below the crankshaft, giving the V-8 a "Y" shape, the Six an "I" shape—and you a more rigid, smoother, quieter engine. Both are short-stroke engines, too, which means less internal friction, more usable energy, greater gas savings and long engine life.



Feel how Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension cushions the bumps.

You'll find a new kind of ride . . . level and smooth . . . even on rough, rutted roads. And, because Ford's new ball-joint front suspension is simpler than the conventional type . . . with 12 points of wear eliminated . . . that "new car" feel lasts longer.

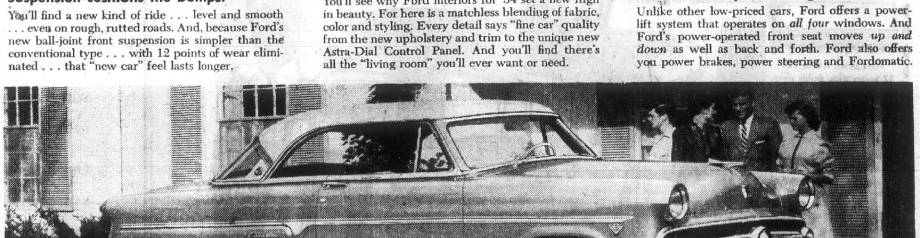


Look at your beautiful surroundings.

You'll see why Ford interiors for '54 set a new high in beauty. For here is a matchless blending of fabric, color and styling. Every detail says "fine car" quality from the new upholstery and trim to the unique new Astra-Dial Control Panel. And you'll find there's all the "living room" you'll ever want or need.

See how Ford's optional power assists* make your driving easier.

Unlike other low-priced cars, Ford offers a power-lift system that operates on all four windows. And Ford's power-operated front seat moves up and down as well as back and forth. Ford also offers you power brakes, power steering and Fordomatic.



Your fun really begins when you own a Ford

Of course, you can't fully appreciate the many, many "worth more" advantages that are yours in a '54 Ford until you actually own one. You'll find that your Ford provides the careful craftsmanship of a hull-tight Crestmark Body, the added safety of Full-Circle Visibility, the easier action of suspended clutch and brake pedals and the convenience of Center-Fill Fueling . . . advances which make your Ford more fun to drive. And only Ford in the low-price field brings them to you. Why not join the swing to Ford!

*At extra cost.

GREAT TV! FORD THEATRE,

We cordially invite you to Test Drive a '54 FORD

In 1934 the Hillsdale Machine and Tool Company became Tecumseh Products Company and relocated at Tecumseh, Michigan. Thus the main plant, shown above, is the direct result of an idea — the evolution of a Hillsdale machine shop into a plant which produces more compressors at lower cost, than any other manufacturer in the industry. It is the result of Tecumseh's product engineering and production techniques, perfected now with twenty years of development in the background . . . twenty years of progress. But production methods, precision workmanship, these are the reasons you see on the surface. There was more to building Tecumseh than these alone. Nerve was added, by men who were willing to work hard and take some chances; a fair share of luck was involved; and the company was blessed with having been born into a free economy.

To increase its productive capacity, Tecumseh has executed ten plant expansion programs, increasing its plant size from 49,700 to 493,621 square feet of floor space, and has accomplished this physical growth largely through the reinvestment of company earnings.

Now tooled almost entirely for the production of hermetic units, the Tecumseh plant produces ⅛ horsepower "compact" or pancake compressors, the internally mounted single cylinder line from ⅛ through ¾ horsepower and the twin lines from ½ through 1½ horsepower.

Executive and sales offices, as well as engineering facilities, are located here.

● Contributions To Living

Through constant research, products development and the application of mass production methods, Tecumseh has been able to accomplish its chief aim: to offer the industry the best product available at the lowest possible cost.

In turn, refrigeration manufacturers are able to provide more products, better products, for an ever increasing number of people. Today, we in the United States enjoy more of the benefits of refrigeration than do any other peoples of the world. Our standard of living is higher accordingly. In a short space of time the refrigerator, for example, has evolved from an item of luxury found in a few homes to one of necessity found in almost every home. The same rapid growth is true of the commercial refrigeration field — performing a wide variety of services, from protecting perishable commodities in a food store, to making the soft drinks in a vending machine so much more palatable through a cooling action. Air conditioning is already in a large number of homes, but in even more offices, theaters and places of business. All of these applications are designed for more comfort, for better health, and, as production is increased, at a cost more and more people are able to afford.

● Market Development

By anticipating new market potentials, Tecumseh foresight continues to set a progressive pace — developing new types of compressors while varying its production to meet the changing needs of an expanding industry. Today, Tecumseh hermetic compressors are produced for a wide range of applications up to 3 h.p. Conventional equipment is produced in all sizes and capacities up to 15 h.p.

This capability of producing for a wide variety of applications stems largely from Tecumseh's close relationship with its customers. Knowledge gained through a working association with top refrigeration engineers has added immeasurably to Tecumseh's ability to produce hermetic units which come close to meeting the exacting requirements of all manufacturers in the refrigeration industry.

In the household refrigeration market there is an estimated need for 4,000,000 units a year, growing slowly but steadily with population increase. This company supplies 33% of this market.

The freezer industry was expected to produce 1,300,000 units in 1953, with the saturation point still in the distant future. Of these many freezers produced in 1953, 73% are equipped with Tecumseh hermetics.

Window type air conditioners have had a phenomenal sales growth in the past few years and there is every indication that the market will continue to grow. Today Tecumseh supplies compressors for 72% of this market.

The market for combination heating and air conditioning systems is just beginning to grow, but its potentialities are unlimited. For this market, Tecumseh has already designed and tooled a new line of integral horsepower internally mounted compressors.

The application of air conditioning to automobiles presents problems not found in other types of installations. Working with automotive manufacturers, Tecumseh has perfected a special compressor to meet the special problems encountered in this application.

Each year more and more Tecumseh units are produced for the commercial field as new refrigeration applications are introduced. Tecumseh now manufactures compressors for frozen food merchandisers, meat and vegetable display cases, soda fountains, juice dispensers, vending machines of all types, ice cream cabinets, water coolers and many other types of commercial equipment.

DID YOU SEND THIS PAIR OF SHOES?

A Korean child clutches the shoes sent from America and given to him by an army chaplain. Such aid is one instance of the relief work which the Episcopal Church has done in many parts of the world.

In a sense, this glimpse of 20 years of Tecumseh history might be called a preview of things to come.

For, though already the world's largest producer of compressors and condensing units, Tecumseh Products Company is comparatively young in years. The vigor of a still growing concern is evident in all of its undertakings. Foresight, keeping pace with an expanding industry, remaining flexible in order to meet sudden industry needs, are constant motivations. And, the original Basic Policies continue without variance as guiding principles

God willing, Tecumseh will continue to grow with the industry, serving it to the best of its ability, abiding by its primary aim—

"To offer the industry, and in turn the consumer, the best product at the lowest possible cost."

EXTENSION CLUB

In spite of bad weather, 17 members of the Northeast Extension club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Boyce. Roll call proved very interesting for members responded with "Gadgets that are time savers" and many brought their special gadget with them to demonstrate. Mrs. Elmer Wilt and Mrs. Raymond Bird, who are project leaders for this season, conducted the lesson of the month which consisted of various methods of mending wool fabrics. The hostess served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Harold Kempf and Mrs. Elmer House. Announcement will be made of the location of the next meeting as a change has been made in the regular schedule.

Robert L. Warren (above) started work Monday as managing editor of the Tecumseh Herald.

A graduate of the University of Michigan with degrees in journalism, he was for four years editor of the Wayne Dispatch and for the past year he served as an advertising and news man on the Lapeer County Press, America's largest rural weekly.

He and Mrs. Warren have four children: Robert Bruce, 11; Aprill Beth, 7; Deborah Elaine, 4; and Christopher Allen-White, 1.

As soon as adequate housing can be found, the Warren family will move to Tecumseh. Meanwhile, Mr. Warren is staying at the home of Mrs. Veva Connor.

TO THE VOTERS OF TECUMSEH —

So that the true facts regarding the advantages of continuing the fluoridation of our water may be presented to the city, the following doctors and dentists have formed the FLUORIDATION FACTS COMMITTEE:

M. R. Blanden, M. D.
T. R. Cage, D.D.S.
W. T. Claxton, M. D.
C. L. Cook, M. D.
R. E. Dustin, M. D.
R. T. Hammel, M. D.
R. F. Helserman, M. D.
R. G. B. Marsh, M. D.
R. J. Murray, D. D. S.

Now that the council has called a special election to decide this controversy, it will be the purpose of this committee to present to the voters the reasons why the weight of medical and dental opinion favors fluoridation.

So far, only one side of the fluoridation question has been heard and it is felt that the voters must know the positive side to make an intelligent choice. Reason must replace fear, facts must replace assertions, and we in Tecumseh must decide this issue without the questionable help of outside writers who will write against anything.

Fluoridation is a step forward in the fight for better health and as such is available to Tecumseh. The decision will be yours and we hope all of you will read our future articles so that you will be completely informed on this subject March 8th.

ONE HUNDRED THIRD YEAR — NUMBER 18 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, FEBRUARY 4, 1954 | FIVE CENTS A COPY

C of C Reviews Year, Takes Look at Future

A review of the past year's progress and a look into the future of Tecumseh were given at the annual meeting of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce last week.

Meeting jointly with Rotary and Exchange clubs, the Chamber of Commerce, Frank K. Smith and Mayor Charles Mensing gave the 250 persons attending a preview of possible future goals.

Clarence Beach, president of the chamber, said 60 new homes have been built here during the past year and street improvements have been made and several stores have added new fronts.

He also reviewed special activities of the chamber which included the July 4th celebration, the Christmas program and decorations, the special census and the promotion of the city election and other promotions; Appreciation Days, information to travelers and action on the parking lot.

"We also were active in keeping the trees in town," he said. "A group of us went to Lansing to ask that the trees be left standing."

President Beach also pointed to the growth of the community. "The special census showed that the city has almost doubled in growth in the past 13 years."

"Payrolls of 13 industries here in 1953 increased more than $6 million dollars over those of 1952."

J. C. Beardsley, toastmaster, introduced Mayor Charles Mensing who congratulated the various groups in town for their community work and support. Speaking as a citizen, he also congratulated merchants for store improvements.

Mayor Mensing also presented the chamber's meritorious citation to Chief Cecil Alderdyce.

Frank K. Smith, recipient of the chamber's "Citizen of the Year" award, said: "With a great deal of honest pride I point to the payroll record of local industries but I begrudge that most of this goes out of town.

"I'm very proud of the new city government. This long has been one of my dreams and hopes.

"But the town still has a lot of things to do. I've been perturbed at times about the boosting of this town. You don't boost the town half as much as we do.

"If merchants would enlarge their stores and put in more merchandise, business will come. I feel you could go in debt and make it pay off.

"You can expect the support from us that the chamber of commerce deserves. If the chamber of commerce shows action, we at Tecumseh Products will back you all the way."

Dale McIntyre of WJR said, "I am a self-appointed salesman for Tecumseh. There is no community I like more.

"We need your type of community in Detroit. We need the convictions of your people; we need your kind of feelings.

"I shall continue to be a salesman for this fine community."

President Beach said: "The chamber of commerce can do more—100 per cent more—but the chamber has done a good job with what it has had to do with."

The Rev. Blair Bashore gave the invocation and the Rev. Father Thomas Collins gave the benediction.

Community singing was led by the Rev. Ronald A. Brunger at the piano and by Wally Whiting and Glenn Driscoll.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED

New members elected to the board of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce are Elmer Eberhardt, George Green and Virgil Tucker for three years; Harold Green for two years; and Russell Garno for one year.

Hold over members are Glenn Kohler, Harold Easton, Ray Herrick and Miss Marjorie Wickwire.

Boy Scouts Have 44th Anniversary

Tecumseh Boy Scouts will observe the 44th anniversary of Scouting as part of Boy Scout Week Feb. 7 to 13, a feature of the celebration being church attendance in a body and in uniform. Parents are also invited with their scouting sons.

Boy Scout Troop No. 73, Francis Packard leader, will attend First Baptist church services Sunday morning. The Rev. Blair Bashore will present the "God and Country" award to Barry Packard.

Boy Scout Troop No. 4, Raymond Sheldon leader, will attend services Sunday at First Presbyterian church. So will Cub Pack No. 73 and its leader Joseph Naugle.

Cub Scout Pack No. 4 and its leader R. P. Radant will attend Sunday services at First Baptist church.

Weather permitting Boy Scout Troop No. 4 will set up a Scouting display in Adams Park and local Scouts will have a Scouting display in the window of Hite's Hardware.

Eli Dickerson of Adrian, area Council Director of Boy Scouts, will speak at First Baptist church Sunday morning.

Meeting dates and places of local Scouts are as follows: Troop No. 73, Wednesdays at 7 p.m. in the Scout Cabin; Troop No. 4, Mondays at 7 p.m. in the Scout Cabin; Cub Pack No. 73, third Monday at Fellowship Center; Cub Pack No. 4, third Monday at First Baptist church Youth House.

FATHER-SON BANQUET

The annual Father and Son banquet of the Baptist church which will be held this evening in the Youth House will have as its main speaker, the Rev. Raymond aTylor of the First Baptist church of Adrian. John Surratt will deliver the usual toast to the sons and his son Philip will respond with a salute of the Dads.

Several accordion selections will be given by Earl Bilby and there will be movie shorts in cartoon style for further entertainment. The banquet which will precede the speachmaking will be furnished by the ladies of the Baptist Society.

City Council Asks Attorney To Check Legality Of Wording On Fluoridation Vote Ballot

A group of lively and interested Girl Scouts from Troop No. 5 visited and inspected the HERALD office and newspaper plant last Thursday.

Accompanied by Mrs. William Wright, the girls saw how a newspaper is put together. Other community groups are invited to visit the HERALD. The latch string always is out, sometimes even at night.

Local Man Killed In Ohio Crash

James Turpin, 49, Tecumseh was instantly killed about 6:30 p.m. Monday night in a two-car head-on crash near Findlay, Ohio, and his nephew Carl Miller, 25, also of Tecumseh was critically injured.

Turpin and Miller were going to Ironton, Ohio, to see Turpin's family when the car driven by Miller collided head-on with a car driven by Leonard Newman of Findlay.

Miller and Newman are in Blanchard Valley hospital in Findlay. Miller's condition is critical and Newman's condition is fair.

Services for Mr. Turpin will be held today in Ironton, Ohio. He is survived by his wife, mother and sister.

Mr. Turpin was an employee of Time Laboratory, Inc.

Mr. Miller is employed at Tecumseh Products and he made his home here with his uncle at 311½ Cummins St.

COOKIES ARE "HOT CAKES"

Girl Scout cookies are going like "hot cakes." Troop 1 sold 295 boxes last Saturday during banking hours at United Savings. Leaders of Troop 1 are Mrs. Harry Schuch and Mrs. George Elliott and this was the second of the nine troops to participate in this sale which will continue each week until March 27.

Smith and Alderdyce Win Service Awards

Frank K. Smith and Chief Cecil Alderdyce were honored by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce at the annual meeting. Mr. Smith is the "Citizen of the Year" and Chief Alderdyce was cited for meritorius service.

"This award belongs to some of the team that I worked with and not so much to me personally; but I do appreciate it and I want you to know this."

This was the short acceptance speech of Mr. Smith.

Always active in community affairs, he was awarded the honor primarily for his work on the Herrick Memorial hospital board.

Charles O. Butler in presenting the award on behalf of the chamber of commerce directors, traced some of Mr. Smith's early history.

"Frank Smith had a crazy idea about getting rid of the old ice box. In his travels from Detroit to Hillsdale to Tecumseh, he was persistent. Today he still has the original drawing of the compressor and today he is known as 'Mr. Refrigeration-' "

Mr. Butler traced Mr. Smith's long record of community service: His aid to the schools, his aid to churches, his work on the hospital board, his work on the Country Club Board and his work on the charter commission.

"He always has been willing to serve and it is a great privilege for me to present this medal to the 'man of all years.' Do you think it could have happened to a finer fellow?"

Mayor Charles Mensing presented the board's award to Fire Chief Cecil Alderdyce for meritorious service.

"That's quite an award and all I can say is thanks to everybody," the chief said in accepting the citation.

The citation reads: "For meritorious service in recognition of a long record of service to his fellow citizens, leading to the happiness and welfare of this community and in particular for bravery over and beyond the call of duty . . . by official action of the board of directors of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce."

School Closes For Teachers' Meeting

Tecumseh Public schools will be closed Friday for the annual Lenawee County Teachers' Institute which will be held in Adrian.

Walter W. Fuller, columnist and fraternal editor of the Detroit News, will be the principal speaker.

Wayne Kaiser, Tecumseh elementary school principal, and Rudolph Koczman, superintendent of the Britton-Macon Agricultural School, will serve on panel discussions.

Earl Greene, Tecumseh elementary school principal, is a member of the program committee.

Polio Drive Is Extended To Feb. 15

The Porchlight Parade was a success in the Tecumseh-Raisin Township area, according to Mrs. Rolland Reister and proceeds amounted to $1607.86 with $1347.-75 coming from Tecumseh City and township.

Contributions in Lenawee county are not sufficient to cover the costs of polio in the county so Paul Ahleman, chairman of the Lenawee Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, has extended the drive to Feb. 15 hoping that the people who were away, forgot, or were unable to contribute during January will do so within the next two weeks.

Contributions may be left at the office of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce. Make all checks to "March of Dimes" and not to individuals.

All organizations who have not turned in their benefit money are requested to do so at once so David Dick, treasurer of the Tecumseh-Raisin Township Council, may complete his reports.

Mrs. Ted Golat, president, and Mrs. Reister, announce the following contributions: Porchlight Parade $1607.86; coffee sales $74.-24; gas sales $72.55; wheel-chair $23.29; souvenir coins $969; benefits to date (many have not reported) $1012.24.

Mrs. Earl Bennington, chairman of the activities in Raisin township, announces the following contributions: Holloway Mothers' Club $7; Raisin Sewing Circle $5; 4-H Bake Sale $20; Kelly PTA $5; Comfort Club $5; Presbyterian Sunday School $10; Raisin No. 3 PTA $3; South Holloway Extension Club $3; Raisin Center School $10.40; and a benefit party sponsored by the Raisin Fire Department, Mitchell PTA, Raisin No. 3 PTA, South Holloway Extension Club, and the Around the Block Extension Club netted $38.

Mrs. Rollin Fairbanks reports $260.11 from the Porchlight Par-

FIRE DAMAGES TOOL SHED

Fire of undetermined origin caused estimated damages of $500 to a tool shed owned by James Bishop, 5004 Macon Rd. Tuesday about 12:30 a.m.

Members of the family called Tecumseh firemen who answered the alarm.

Opinion Will Be Ready For Next Meeting Feb. 15

Councilmen Tuesday night directed Attorney J. C. Beardsley to check on the legality of the wording on the fluoridation vote ballot.

His opinion is expected at the next meeting of the council Monday, Feb. 15.

Voters will vote on fluoridation in the city water supply question Monday, March 8.

Attorney Beardsley was asked to check on the legality of the wording after Earl Bryan, chairman of the anti-fluoridation committee, asked the council to strike out the words "in accordance with the State Health Department recommendations."

Mayor Pro-tem H. H. Hanna said "I can't see it. We only had one thing in mind when we drafted the resolution. This was to call for a 'yes' or 'no' vote of the people."

Councilman Bashore also said the ballot was worded with only this choice of the people in mind.

Bryan said: "This is a biased heading." He also said "We will abide by a 'yes' or 'no' vote and follow the majority rule."

Councilman Harold Kelso said he couldn't see why the question was raised. He said the council followed regulations.

"We have a lot to do to keep our city government running. We should be able to pass resolutions as we see fit. I feel that this type of request is entirely out of order."

However, Councilman Kelso asked that the request be tabled to see if a legal question is involved. Councilman Moore said: "We want to be fair." Mrs. Edith Smith seconded the motion and it was unanimously carried.

A petition circulated by Bryan which called for taking the fluoride out of the city water until the election was accepted by the council and referred to City Clerk Mrs. Naomi Sallows in accordance with city charter provisions.

According to charter, she has sent Bryan a registered letter telling him that he needs more names on the petition.

She said he had 610 names on the petition but 86 names were stricken because they were not qualified under terms of the charter. This left 524 names. There are 2770 registered voters in the city. Bryan needs 692 or 25 per cent of these on the petition.

In other action Tuesday night the council:

Appointed City Manager Ed Nelson highway administrator.

A petition from residents of West Chicago Blvd. and Democratic streets asking for curb and gutter on north Democratic street, north from West Chicago Blvd. to Logan street, was referred to Manager Nelson for scheduling.

Herrick Memorial hospital board was given permission to sign a note for purchasing two operating tables, a dictaphone and an electrocardiograph. The cost is not to exceed $5,000.

Councilmen discussed the administration and maintenance of the swimming pool. Although no official action was taken, they decided to call a future joint meeting of the council, board of education and the recreation board further to study the matter. And Manager Nelson was authorized to study other cities to see what they are doing.

Manager Nelson was directed to check on details of social security for city employees. Councilmen hope the program can be started by March 1.

Perry Satterthwaite and Edna Staulter were appointed for one year to serve with the city clerk on the election commission.

Councilmen approved a $135 per month salary for City Assessor John Saling.

BE SURE TO REGISTER

If you intend to vote in the March 8 special election, make sure you are registered, advises Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk.

March 8 Tecumseh voters will decide the fluoridation question.

Deadline for registering is next Monday, Feb. 8.

Mrs. Sallows points out that all persons who voted in the city charter election or in other recent city or township elections are automatically registered for the fluoridation vote. Newcomers to Tecumseh and others who have not voted in past elections can register at the city hall.

Indians Edged In Overtime, 35-34

A basket in the last two minutes tied the ball game for Tecumseh but this was not enough to win as the Indians dropped a thrilling 35-34 Southeastern Michigan League basketball game to Hillsdale last Friday night.

The game throughout was as close as possible with the teams tied at six all at the end of the first period, and with Tecumseh leading by a single point 18-17 at the end of the half. Hillsdale had a 27-24 lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter but Tecumseh again tied the score, froze the ball and sent the game into overtime.

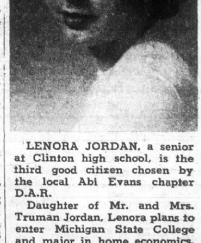
In the three-minute additional period Tecumseh scored a basket and Hillsdale scored a free throw, leaving the Indians leading 34-33.

Then with only five seconds remaining in the period, Todd of Hillsdale sank a long shot from about 25 feet out to give the win to the Dales.

Al Hart had 15 points for high point honors while Arch was high for Hillsdale with 10.

The Tecumseh Junior Varsity won its seventh straight game by turning back Hillsdale in the preliminary 50-36. Ken Miller was high point man for the young Indians.

Tonight the Indians' two teams play Addison there in a non-league game. The first game begins at 7 p. m. with the Varsity game following at 8 p. m.



LENORA JORDAN, a senior at Clinton high school, is the third good citizen chosen by the local Abi Evans chapter D.A.R.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan, Lenora plans to enter Michigan State College and major in home economics. She is an all-A student, secretary of the high school student council, member of the Macon Methodist church, where she teaches a Sunday school class and Christian Faith chairman, not only of the Macon Methodist Youth Fellowship but of the Lenawee county sub-district as well.

Miss Jordan and her mother will be guests of the chapter at the D.A.R. tea, Feb. 12 at the home of Mrs. Leon Rosacrans and on March 27, she will be taken with the other Good Citizens to the Hart Hotel in Battle Creek where a luncheon will be held in their honor, the occasion being the annual State D.A.R. meeting.

Eagles Take Part In Freedom Week

Plans are completed by Chiefs Aerie 1563 Tecumseh Eagles for participation in a colorful ceremony Feb. 12.

Lincoln's birthday will mark the beginning of Freedom Week and in an effort to obtain "Truth Dollar," contributions to the Crusade for Freedom radio campaign, plastic balloons are to be released all over the country.

The local Aerie will send up its quota of red, white and blue balloons from the athletic field at 4:30 p.m. with the mayor and other officials partiepating.

Messages from Don Morley, president of the Aerie, will be enclosed in each, asking the finder to aid the Freedom Crusade and to take the message to the nearest local paper. The balloons are capable of flights of 700 miles.

Radio Free Europe is the major enterprise of the crusade and reaches behind the iron curtain from transmitters in East Europe.

Mayor Mensing Describes City Goals

City goals of the future were outlined by Mayor Charles Mensing at the annual chamber of commerce meeting last week.

Mayor Mensing first complimented the merchants on main street for new store fronts and alterations.

"This," he said, "has given a much needed lift to the downtown area and it is keeping with our new pavement and stop and walk lights. Two more payments and the paving is ours."

Mayor Mensing would like to see this program carried out:

"Storm sewers were needed and curb and gutter on all business and residential streets. In some cases storm sewers must be put in before curb and gutter to handle the water.

"I would like to see the heavier traveled streets paved with concrete asphalt and all residential streets with the present asphalt gravel surfacing. With curb and gutter this type of surface will wear for years on residential streets with a minimum of upkeep. Look at South Pearl. With so many more streets in the new city to surface, it will be necessary to practice every economy.

"I would like to see water extended to every street in the new city area at the earliest practicable time. This is a large and costly program and the advice and council of engineers and financial experts will have to be followed.

"The same is true of sewers. But water should come first for first protection and reduction of your insurance rates in outlying areas.

"I would like to see a general garbage and trash pickup to keep the city clean without charge to the householder. The cost to come out of the general fund and be paid for by taxes. This would improve health.

"Sidewalk extensions and repairs are necessary in many areas.

"A new city hall with proper fire and police areas within is a must in the near future. Also, I would add public rest rooms.

"Last, but most important is additional fire fighting equipment. This is costly but it is a must as we have too many assets here to let a costly fire jeopardize the livelihoods of most of our people. Every precaution should be taken for the protection of our community.

"There are probably many other things which you are thinking about. Your Council is now attempting to set up a new planning commission and a zoning committee. This would be to govern the long range plans for this community and assure you of the value of your property in a given area.

"Let us look at our assets:

"A beautiful, practically new, 76 bed hospital. Worth $500,000, it would take a million to replace. All but $12,000 is paid for.

"A new high school with a new addition now near completion and a new elementary school. A fine recreation area with a new $65,000 swimming pool. A new sewage disposal plant $285,000. A whole list of fine manufacturing plants: Quaker Oats, Bruce Foundry, Ottawa Machine, Universal Button Factory, Meyers Aircraft, R & S Mfg. Co., Tecumseh Sash and Door and the world's largest manufacturer of refrigeration compressors, the Tecumseh Products Co., whose daily output exceeds any comparative assembly operation in this country in volume.

"And above all, the people of Tecumseh, you are the leaders, you are the employers, you are the citizens that make our community great. You are the people that devote your time and effort to Church and school and community. It is your civic leadership which has given us new schools, better churches, and a city form of government.

"Mr. and Mrs. Herrick with their faith in the people and doctors of this community and the cooperation of the hospital board have made our hospital possible.

"The things we have have been achieved by cooperation—the things we need can be completed by cooperation. I am appealing to you as intelligent leaders of the community to fight the schism among the people of our community.

"Your new Council is bringing the fluoridation issue to the voters at the earliest opportunity as you were assured would be the case by your City Charter Commission.

"I believe in the right of every man to express himself at the polls and will fight for that right and abide by the decision without rancor; but I appeal to you as leaders to get out the vote on March 8 and guide our community along the path of progress."

APPRECIATION — "Oh, you'll like it here in Tecumseh!"

If we heard this remark once we heard it two dozen times last week — our first week in town and our first week on the HERALD.

Then the persons making this remark pointed out why we will like it here: The overall progress of the community; the fine schools and churches; the new form of government; the "liveliness" of the town; and the friendliness of the people.

All of these things were discussed; some already have been seen. But the finest of all of them is the friendliness of the people. Everywhere we have gone there has been the friendly cooperation, the friendly smile and the friendly helping hand. We are supposed to be a writer of sorts, but we never could set down words to describe adequately the feeling we had when we met this friendly community and its people. All we can say is this: Thanks, folks, and we know we will like Tecumseh very much.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED — A lot of folks are interested in the HERALD and sincerely so. So it was of little wonder when they asked the new man, "What will be the politics of the paper?"

First, what did they mean by politics? Did they mean partisan politics or community politics?

In the same vein they asked, "Will the new man take a stand?"

They have a right to the answers; and here they are:

The new man, as the folks say, has no intentions of turning the HERALD or the town upside down overnight. It would be entirely premature and presumptuous on his part to begin to comment on the politics of this newspaper and the politics of this community before he became fully acquainted and acclimated.

It can be safely assumed that there will be little or no change in the so-called politics of the HERALD. Such a change would be like a clerk in any store or a receptionist in any office starting out by telling his or her employer that changes in running the business are necessary. It just isn't done in business and there is no reason to assume that it is done in newspapering which also is a business and a very complicated one at that!

Of course the new man has ideas. He has private opinions, too, which perhaps one day will become public opinions in the editorial columns of the HERALD. When that time comes, though, he will not gallop off in all directions and tilt at windmills.

Of course the new man has convictions. What good is a newspaper without convictions? What good is anybody without convictions! There comes a time in everybody's life when he or she has to stand up to be counted. In time the new man will stand up to be counted.

These few comments are made only in fairness to those interested readers of the HERALD who have a right to know. They are made only with this thought in mind: No one needs to be concerned. The new man will when he gets organized try his best to help to put out a newspaper that will be a credit to the progress and to the people of Tecumseh.

SLOGANS OR LIP SERVICE — There are a lot of slogans going around the country today. And there always have been. One that has made the most sense is an old one that is still applicable: This country still needs a good five-cent cigar.

Seriously, though, slogans are fine when they are more than lip-service. They are fine when they are practiced.

Reference is made to the one you hear in every town: "Shop at home."

Everybody knows what this means to Tecumseh. The whole town is better off when folks shop here. But the fact that a lot of folks shop elsewhere is common knowledge.

Certain advertising circulating and published in this area is not helping this situation one bit. It seeks advertising from everybody's half acre, actually inviting folks to shop out of town, thus taking business dollars away from Tecumseh.

The HERALD does not solicit advertising out of the city's limits. This is not to say that the HERALD will not accept outside advertising; but it does not solicit this advertising. There is a big difference.

We believe in the slogan "Shop in Tecumseh": It is not just lip service with us.

"I'm going to write a column on Opportunity," I said to a friend.

"What kind of opportunity do you have in mind?" he asked.

"Opportunities that we know about but still are not advertising. For instance, we know which owners must sell. Naturally, many of them don't want the fact advertised, but they do permit us to tell a prospect why their properties are priced so reasonably and why they might consider a good strong offer.

Likewise, we often know that the opportunity exists for a new or different enterprise here in Tecumseh. There again, in most cases this can't be advertised."

I continued, "Another angle. We can only afford to advertise a small portion of the total opportunities we have available. People may assume we don't have the right property for them, yet it might be on our shelves at the moment. Also, some owners, for various reasons, won't permit us to promote or advertise their properties."

The friend nodded, "I see what you mean. In other words, people who want to buy property or who are thinking of a new venture, should visit your office."

"That's it," I said, "Too many depend strictly on the ads. Yet the big opportunities may not even be advertised. They would gain a lot by coming in and talking things over.

Miss Burleson Wed To James Hewitt

Donna Irene Burleson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson of Tecumseh and James Shannon Hewitt, Detroit, son of Mrs. Elena Hewitt of Hickory, N. Carolina were married Saturday evening at 7:30 at the Methodist church. The Rev. Ronald Brunger performed the double ring ceremony in the candle lighted church which was decorated with hampers of white snapdragons and palms.

Miss Diane Woodward sang "Because" and "With This Ring" accompanied by Mrs. Kenton Hunt, who also played an organ interlude before the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in her gown of lace and tulle over satin, embroidered with pearls and sequins and made with a full hooped skirt which swept into a chapel length train. Her fitted basque had an off the shoulder, scalloped line and her veil was of tulle held by sequined lace cap. White carnations decorated the white, lace covered, Bible which she carried.

Her sister Marilou, as maid of honor, wore a waltz length gown of irridescent taffeta in flamingo red, made over hoops and with a short jacket worn with the strapless bodice. Her mitts and headband were of the same net which trimmed her jacket and her flowers were carnations of the shade of her dress set off by a lighter tulle. The bridesmaids, Stephanie Davis of Detroit and Carole Harper of Tecumseh, were gowned in peacock blue taffeta made in a similar fashion and they carried cream and red flecked carnations.

Little Diane and Susan Hoch of Jackson, neices of the bride, as flower girls had floor length dresses of white nylon tulle over taffeta, fashined with hoops with which they wore poke hats and mits of the same tulle. Their tiny colonial bouquets of white carnations had a background of flamingo red. The ring was carried by Gene Furgason of Jonesville, the bride's nephew.

Mr. Hewitt was attended by Robert Kidder as best man and the ushers were Fred Blakeman and William Takai, all of whom were from Detroit.

Mrs. Burleson chose navy with white accessories for the wedding and the groom's mother was dressed in light blue and navy, both wore corsages of pink camellias.

Two hundred guests were received in the church parlors where Beverly McLaury and Joan Hindes cut the wedding cakes at a table decorated with white snapdragons and lighted candles in crystal holders. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Clarence Gilman, Tecumseh and Mrs. Roy Heilman, Macon, while the Misses Kay Morden, Shirley Mack and Virginia Gregory cared for the gifts and Mrs. Richard Purkey had charge of the guest book. The reception was the work of the Guild of the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Yale Kerby greeted the guests.

Upon their return from a trip into Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt will live at 1140 W. Warren, Detroit. Mrs. Hewitt, a graduate of Tecumseh high school, who has attended Wayne University and Harper hospital for the past year and a-half will be employed in Detroit. Mr. Hewitt, who is now attending the College of Education at Wayne is a veteran of four years service in the Navy.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Elena S. Hewitt of Hickory, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. William Stempian, Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Furgason, and family, Jonesville, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoch and family and Mrs. Frank Hoch and sons, Carl and Frank of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coffey and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wonnell, Detroit and Miss Nelma Bierman of Toledo.

Grade School News

Kindergarten—Patterson
Mrs. Updike

It is hard for us to talk or even think about anything but our beautiful room. We all want to say a big "Thank You" to Phillip Barber's mother and father and Patty Morris's mother and father who helped Mrs. Updike the day before we moved in. They all worked so hard getting all our things put away so that on January 25 everything was ready for us.

Each or has our own little cupboard with our name on it. Our play house is a good place for us to really be good housekeepers and so many kind friends have given us toys that are not being used at home. Brenda Howard brought us a nice doll's high chair and a doll. Shirley Head has also brought several things to make our room more pleasant.

Our room has twenty-three big windows and the first time it snowed, after we had moved in, we sat very still and watched it. We felt that we really were out in the storm except we were warm and cozy. Many pretty plants have come for our windows. One of our little girls told our teacher that our room makes her feel "just like a bird" because she is never crowded or too close to anyone. She likes to skip around and around the first thing every day.

Even our floor is beautiful with a big cow jumping over the moon in the middle.

We hope everyone in our town will stop in and see for themselves. We enjoy having company and it won't bother us at all. If you would like to see fifty-four happy, busy children in a beautiful room — come. It makes us think of all the children in our America who go to school in rooms where there is no beauty like ours, where they are crammed and crowded and unhappy. We wish we could share ours with all of them.

Grade 3
Miss Baker

We are very excited about moving into our new home. It is very nice and we really enjoy it. Our drinking fountain and a sink are right in the room. There is a lot of bulletin board space for our work. We are constructing the Village of Northfield for reading and social studies class.

We took a trip to Adrian on the school bus to visit the new jail as part of our study of the community. All they do is push buttons to operate things. It is a very nice jail but we decided we do not want to stay there.

Grade 2
Mrs. VanWinkle

We were sorry that Donna Wagner, Carol McClure, Jimmy Brown, Michael Hanna, Carol Sisty and Ronnie Anderson left us to go in another Second Grade. We know our room had too many children in it and so it was all for the best. They are happy with Mrs. VanValkenburg and as they are in the same building we can still see them every day.

In music, Mrs. Schippers is teaching us to read notes. Now that we know how to raed so much better, we are using music books to sing out of. We've been looking forward toward this and we think it's lots of fun.

We have been busy all week joining the "March of Dimes." We tried to bring our own money, some that we had earned helping mother or saved from our allowances.

All three reading classes are reading from new books. We are always happy when we finish one and can start in another.

Mrs. VanWinkle is reading to us from the "Bobbsy Twins." It's a good book and we enjoy reading about the good times the two sets of twins have together.

Grade 2
Miss LaPointe

Our enrollment has been decreased by ten. The following children are now attending the Central building. Harold Butler, Sharon Fowle, Delbert Hawkins, Gregory King, John McKenzie, James Osburn, Jean Preston, Charles Saling, Tracy Oliver, and Charles Squires.

In a reading comprehension test the following made a perfect score—Barbara Colgrove, Sharon Korth, Bonnie Kempf, James Osburn, Patricia Schwede, and Susan Whitney. A number made just one or two mistakes.

James Brandt brought a pair of Eskimo moccasions, and a polar bear cut from a walrus tusk, from Alaska. We are reading "The Eskimo Twins" so we were very much interested in seeing them.

We are very grateful to Roger Smith for having presented us with many beautiful pictures which we are using for room decorations and art appreciation.

Carol Campbell and Gary Peterson brought their record players and gave us some good music. Charles Saling brought some bird food for our feeding station. The birds are really enjoying the food. At one time we counted nine birds eating at one time.

Alison Derby, Patricia Schwede, Ruth Kempf, Charles Saling and Bonnie Kempf had January birthdays.

We wish to thank Mrs. James Barton and Mrs. Earl Row for giving us such an enjoyable party for having won the P.T.A. membership contest.

Grade 2
Mrs. Garlick

We are so pleased to be in our lovely new school that we don't mind at all that it isn't quite finished. In the second grade, we have our own drinking fountain, sink, and lavatory. We like this very much. We have a lot of cupboard space. It is easy to keep our room in order when we have places to put things away. Do come to see us anytime—especially Open House night.

Janice Drummonds, Sophia Baughey, Dick Hotchkiss, Cathy Custard, Carolyn Fletcher, and Sandra Petrovich remained at Central with Mrs. VanValkenburg when we moved. We are sorry they lived too far from Patterson to attend with us. We welcome to our room David Dziachan who has recently moved to Tecumseh.

John Mensing, Gene Manwaring, Ann Surratt, David Dustin, and Loretta McKenzie have recently had birthdays. Some of us brought birthday treats which were enjoyed by all.

One reading group is reading about the circus. We are making a circus to set up on the work counter in our room. The reading of all of us is improving so much we are now able to sing out of our music books.

Joey Hanna, who has been in school for half-days for a few weeks, is now in school all day. He will be able to discard his crutches in a month or so and we are happy with him in his recovery from polio.

David Dustin brought "Too Much Salt and Pepper" to school for us to read. We are finding out many things about porcupines by reading about these two — Salt and Pepper.

Grade 2
Mrs. VanValkenburg

We are the new second grade formed at the beginning of the second semester. A few boys and girls, from each of the other four second grades, are combined in our new room which is located on the second floor of the Central building. There are twenty-seven of us who are trying to become adjusted to this new situation: Different friends, different teacher and different room.

We are glad to do our little share for the March of Dimes.

Grade 2
Mrs. Puffer

In our "Hello, David" books we read about the furnace in David's school, so we decided that we would like to learn about the heating system in our own school. We went down to the boiler room where Mr. Atkinson explained to us many interesting and mysterious things concerning the big boilers. We were impressed, too, with the huge coal bin. We became acquainted with some new terms such as hopper, automatic, gauge, dial and steam pressure. When we came back to our room we wrote thank you notes to Mr. Atkinson.

We have had our room decorated with cheerful snow men and snow ladies. We also had a large Frostie on a bulletin board. They were made of cotton and colored paper. Now we are looking forward to next week when it will be our turn to have the large showcase in the hall. We are planning a display of valentines.

Every now and then Mrs. Puffer reads us a story which we later act out. First we have to vote for people to take part in the dramatization, then while we watch the play we have to be good listeners.

In science we have been talking about machines and muscles. We have learned that machines that we operate with our muscles make work easier. Now we are busy finding pictures that illustrate this and pasting them on a long strip of paper on the wall. We are surprised to learn how many, many different kinds of machines there are that help us.

Grade 3
Mrs. Illeck

This is the end of the first half of our school year. We have grown in many ways since September.

We have had many new experiences. Such as going to the hospital. John Cunningham spent a week in the hospital with pneumonia. Mary Lou Hoot had her appendix removed and Shelia Mills fell from the sliding board and was taken to the hospital for X-rays.

Shelia celebrated her birthday by coming home from the hospital. Mary Katherine Sparks also celebrated her birthday this month.

Some of us have finished reading "Streets and Roads," and now we are reading in "More Streets and Roads."

We are planning a puppet show. There are three committees working on the show. One committee is writing the script, one is doing the scenery and the other committee will do the acting.

On the way to school yesterday, Larry Harper found a wounded starling. He took it home and kept it until it was well enough to fly again. Larry McLain brought ten gold fish to school the same day. We had quite a managerie.

Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Packard came to visit. We are always happy to have mothers visit.

There are thirty-seven of us now. Margaret Bayless came to us from Knoxville, Tenn. We are glad to have her join the group.

Many of us had our first ride on the school bus.

Zaiga Freimanis had her tonsils out. We hope she can be with us soon to enjoy our new building.

Linda Selders, Karen Penrod, and Richard Brunger had birthdays in January.

All of the all A students for the year in spelling from Mrs. Vallies, Mrs. Illeck's and our room had a spelldown. Richard Brunger spelled all of them down. Mrs. Illeck gave him a prize.

We are making individual valentine mailboxes for our party. Will all of you be our Valentine until we see you next month?

Grade 3
Mrs. Vallie

We are very happy in our new room. We have moved from room 207 to 204.

Along with our new room, we also have a new girl. Her name is Priscilla Glasscock. She was in Miss Baker's room last semester.

In our science class we had been talking about mouth parts of animals and how they help the animal to get the particular kind of food he eats. April Smith brought a turtle to school and we had quite a time trying to study his mouth.

This has been quite a month for birthdays in our room. Latha Kimerer, Hilda Dotson, Sharon Martin, Nora Holland and Jack Rutherford are nine now and Ladeana Southwell is ten.

We are sordy that we no longer have gym class. We will enjoy our art and music classes though. We have music in the morning now and most of us like it better that way.

David MacDonald has left our room after only being here a short time. We were disappointed that he couldn't stay longer.

As an aid to homemakers who may never have tried to cook rabbit, home economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture have prepared a new booklet on rabbit cookery. Single copies of the booklet, "Ways to Cook Rabbit," giving general cooking directions and about 20 recipes may be obtained free from the Office of Information, U. S. WOUNDED HUNTER IS "WRITTEN UP"

Harry Crosby, who was the "almost" victim of a freak hunting accident last Nov., may be the object of further and more permanent publicity.

The bullet of a careless hunter pierced the tree against which he was leaning—all thirteen inches of it—penetrated his heavy clothing and wounded him slightly.

The incident was featured in the press and an author in McAdoo, Penn. wrote Mr. Crosby for verification and permission to use it in a book. So under the title "Deer Hunting," by Joseph Lulla, Tecumseh's Harry Crosby may become a national figure.

A Glimpse Of The Work Of God . . .

God's will moves in wondrous ways. And in our profession there is unusual opportunity to observe His miracles.

This probably is the appetence that moves us to try to make the passing from this life as beautiful as the love that is present with the arrival of a new soul into this world.

ade which was organized by school districts with all schools participating.

Canisters have not been opened according to Mrs. Reister.

Additional workers in Tecumseh were Mrs. Bert Warren, Mrs. Waldo Mohr, and Mrs. Ruth Ferguson. All workers enjoyed a fellowship hour in the V.F.W. Hall listening to combined reports. Many expressed a desire to work again next year. Mrs. Gelat and Mrs. Reister wish to thank all who helped.

Students of the public schools contributed $434.70 to the polio drive. This figure is broken down into $314.26 for the grades and $122.44 for the high school.

Folders were distributed to each room.

The Sunday school offering of the Friends church last Sunday morning was dedicated to the Polio Fund. The result was a sum of $122.72. Average attendance at the Sunday school sessions is about 240 each week. There are fifteen classes and teachers in all from tiny tots to their grandparents.

LOCALS

The square dancing class of the Adult Education Course will meet for the final lesson of this session Tuesday evening at the new Patterson school and the members are planning a party to celebrate the event.

Visitors to the University hospital in Ann Arbor report that Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett, who is undergoing a long convalescence following bone surgery, is progressing satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Burleson left yesterday for several months stay in Eustic, Fla. Their son, Elmer Burleson, drove them down and will return after a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brees spent Sunday with Mrs. Brees' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Westphal in Clinton.

Lawrence Packard and family have moved to their recently purchased home on Center Drive in Hedrick Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall visited their son, Robert, Sunday in East Lansing. He is a student at Michigan State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Woods, Mrs. Vern Manwaring and Mrs. Louis Schneider were in Dundee, Sunday attending the second district meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary.

Joan and James Breitenwischer were home over the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer. The occasion was the semester recess of their respective colleges, Marygrove in Detroit and Notre Dame at South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Herrick are spending the month of February in Florida.

Miss Linda Brown of Adrian was a weekend guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Danforth and Mr. Danforth.

Future Nurses Plan Active Club Year

An increased interest in the career of nursing on the part of the young women of this community is indicated by the very active Future Nurses Club of the local high school, whose membership has expanded from fifteen to thirty during the current school year.

President of the club is Grace Moore. Sharon Townsend is secretary; Diane Whitecotton, treasurer; Ardythe Eaton, Student Counsel representative, and Julie Crawford is scribe. Their counselors are Mrs. Parke Kinietz and Mrs. Mervyn Boltz.

Meeting twice monthly in the high school cafeteria, the girls started early in the season to make plans for the year's projects and field work. These have included lectures by qualified nurses, entertainment at the Parrett Nursing Home and projected visits to cooperating hospitals as well as practical help elsewhere.

Thus far the group has been addressed by Mrs. Betty Hormoth on the subject, "The Field of Anesthetics," by Mrs. Jean O'Neil, telling of the work and experiences of a Navy nurse and by Mrs. Donald Geringer on the work of an Army nurse. Talks by other local speakers are being arranged.

For the pleasure of patients at the Parrett home at Christmas, two musical scenes were arranged and other entertainment will be provided for Valentine's Day and Easter. As a result of the Christmas "caroling" of club members, an extension phone was presented to Marda Gene Duncan and assistance in the making of cancer pads is planned for the near future.

During the months of February, March and April the field committee has arranged for visits to Mt. Carmel hospital in Detroit, University hospital in Ann Arbor and to Toledo hospital.

Of the thirty members of the club, fourteen are seniors: Lorene Mack, Sylvia Golat, Sally McCarty, Kitty Halley, Barbara Folk, Evelyn Schbella, Grace Moore, Patsy Purcell, Mary Nixon, Doris Tressler, Ardythe Eaton, Diana Whitecotton, Sharon Townsend and Janis Boltz. This means that new members must be recruited to work with the present juniors and sophomores, who are Anita Dickinson, Mary Ellen Folk, Grace Lopez, Beverly Hider, Sharon Claxton, Beth McKenzie, Julia Crawford, Mary Pat McCann, Marcia Bashore, Lovella Bishop and Mary Lou Partridge.

The armchair gardener, who is now spending many an evening with the new seed catalogs, will find a useful addition to the flower and garden library in Farmers' Bulletin 1711, "Growing Annual Flowering Plants." The 26-page illustrated bulletin is free on request to the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

CLUB CELEBRATES 60TH ANNIVERSARY

Thirty-five members of the Wit and Wisdom Club and their eight guests, who were entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Hoyt Whelan made a journey into the past. The occasion was the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the club and the events leading to its organization, together with many of the highlights of its early years, were described by Mrs. Charles Branigin.

Mrs. Branigin used as her text a history of the group written by Mrs. C. A. Slayton for a previous anniversary and it included interesting and amusing incidents of early meetings and programs. Following the history, Wilfred Waldron, program leader, called on club members for reminiscences and anecdotes of their association with the organization.

Group singing opened the program and Mrs. Al Merz and F. C. Dickinson sang "One Alone" as a duet, accompanied by Mrs. Dickinson after which Mrs. Merz responded to an encore with a solo "May the Lord Bless and Keep You."

After a social hour, the hostess, assisted by Miss Gertrude Spaulding, Miss Ruth Harding, Mrs. J. F. Rector and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, served refreshments which included a birthday cake in the form of an open book inscribed, 1894-1954, baked by Mrs. Laidlaw. Mrs. Rector and Mrs. W. G. Waldron poured at a table with a centerpiece of lighted candles and red carnations.

Proceeds from the card party given by the Ivy Leaf camp for the March of Dimes, in the amount of $12. 50 were turned over to the Polio Fund.

Mrs. Duncan's committee, composed of Mrs. Iva Cleveland, Mrs. Edythe Nobles, Mrs. Alice Collum and Mrs. Alice Frost served refreshments after the meeting at tables gay with Valentine decorations. Favors of paper hats and fortunes marked the places.

Another card party, which will be open to the public, will be held at the Eagle Hall Feb. 4.

Angel food cake is in season now—as are other dishes calling for generous amounts of eggs. Homemakers of 20 years ago were careful how they used eggs in the winter time. But thanks to the "modern" hen who lays more and more eggs each week during the winter, today's homemakers needn't exercise economy in the use of eggs during this season.

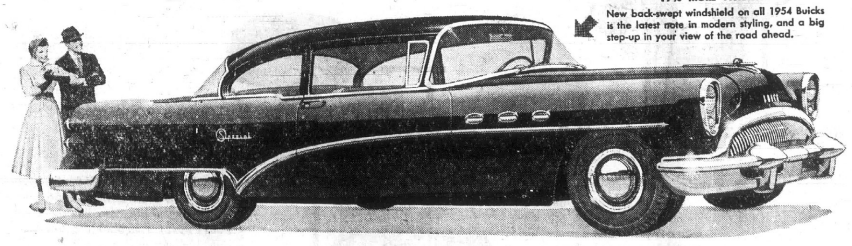
BEAUTY TREATMENT THAT GIVES 19% MORE VISIBILITY

New back-swept windshield on all 1954 Buicks is the latest note in modern styling, and a big step-up in your view of the road ahead.



Even the price is sensational! Only $2227.88* buys this BUICK V8 DELIVERED LOCALLY!

1954 SPECIAL 2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan
Model 48D (illustrated)

*Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

As you look at it, you can see a lot of what makes this new 1954 Buick SPECIAL so sensational.

You can see the long, low, sleek and ultra-glamorous lines that add up to the biggest automotive styling change in years.

You can see the remarkable new windshield with the back-swept corners—greatest visibility improvement since closed cars came on the market.

And of course you can see the price—the local delivered price—which is headline news, too.

For that, as a shopping tour will tell you, is just a few dollars more than those of the so-called "low-price three."

But what you can't see is the rest of the sensational automobile that's yours for the low price shown here.

The spectacular power of this SPECIAL's brand-new V8 engine. The honest six-passenger roominess. The truly modern interior luxury. The superb new handling ease. The sublime comfort of Buick's famed Million Dollar Ride—now steadied even more by a newly developed front-end geometry.

Fact is, there's so much that's terrific about this new glamor car, you ought to drop in and give it a really thorough study and sampling.

That way you'll prove to yourself that the buy—and the thrill—of the year is Buick. Come in this week, won't you?

Is That So!

By Miss Clara Waldron

The careless Detroit reporter, who recently referred to Clinton as a "Washtenaw county village," had a measure of excuse for his lack of accuracy. The highway he had traveled to reach the "oil town" had taken him through that county almost to the village limits, and the northern boundary of the town itself reaches to the county line.

He would have been correct had it not been for a Tecumseh man. It was our first citizen, Musgrove Evans, who decided the location of Clinton. He decided it should be in Lenawee county by the simple expedient of seeing to it that the road, now U.S. 112, crossed the Raisin river well south of the boundary line.

When Congress appropriated money in 1825 for the seurvey of a "Military Road" from Detroit to Fort Dearborn or Chicago, Evans, engineer, surveyor and first settler in Tecumseh and Lenawee county, was one of those who laid out the right of way. When the survey had been made he was then commissioned to build and maintain approximately one-third of the road from Detroit westward.

The survey had followed roughly the "Great Sauk" Indian trail, which through decades of use by moccasined feet, had been worn into a wide, deep path across the peninsula. But it then crossed the Raisin river several miles north in what was to be Washtenaw county. Rivers were important in 1825. They were avenues of travel and sources of all-important water power. Evans knew that where a road crossed a river there would inevitably be a town. Lenawee county and Tecumseh township were dear to his heart and he wanted that town for them.

As a military road the new highway was under the jurisdiction of the Federal War Department and under the immediate charge of the Commander-in-Chief of the U. S. army. The Commander-in-Chief in 1825 was a General Jacob Brown and Gen. Jacob Brown was a brother of Tecumseh's co-founder, Gen. Joseph Brown and a brother-in-law of the aforesaid Musgrove Evans.

It therefore followed—even as today—that when Evans requested of that war department, permission to "take the big bend out of the Military Road" that permission was granted without question. Evans presumably knew where-of he spoke and Washington was a long way from the county line.

Perhaps the new route was a great improvement, who are we to judge after a century and a quarter? In any event, Evans began a new survey about four miles east of the river and ran it southward to the present crossing gradually returning to the original trail several miles west. And when Clinton was born, of the union of trail and river, it was safely within Lenawee county.

For near forty of its early years, Clinton was also in Tecumseh township, for not until 1867, was Town Five divided into the present two townships. Early town meetings alternated between the two settlements. In stage coach days there was a sharp rivalry for traffic and patronage of the local inns, but for most of those years when they were both country towns, Clinton and Tecumseh were close and friendly neighbors.

Oil fields are no respectors of county lines but thanks to the sagacious—and shall we admit, slightly devious?—farsightedness of Tecumseh's Musgrove Evans, Clinton is not a "Washtenaw county village."

WESTMINSTER LEAGUE PLANS VALENTINE TEA

The annual Valentine tea of the Westminster League, which has grown to be a traditional social event of the Presbyterian church and its friends, will be held this year in Fellowship Center Feb. 11 at 2 p.m.

Chairman of the affair, Mrs. Roger Linger will be assisted by Mrs. Ben Gillis, Mrs. Byron Goodman, Mrs. Jean O'Neil and Mrs. Charles Stevenson. The afternoon's program will include singing by a comedy quartette made of Miss Ruby Preston, Mrs. Nina Heath, Mrs. Fred Oberlin and Mrs. Charles O'Neill; a dance, "Tennessee Wig Wag" by Betty Barton and Maurene Boltz and a guest singer. Cards will be played with prizes as usual and there will also be a door prize.

There will be a nursery for children at the church and the public is invited, tickets being available from any member of the League.

CHRISTIAN BUILDERS

Mrs. Harold Hammel entertained the Christian Builders of the Presbyterian church last Wednesday evening, assisted by Mrs. Jack Hollenbeck. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Robert Hamilton and the business of the evening consisted of plans for a rummage sale and appointment of committees.

Chairman of the rummage sale, which will be held at Fellowship Center Feb. 19 and 20, is Mrs. Harlan Dicks and she will be assisted by Mrs. William Sisson, Mrs. Bart Aiuto, Mrs. Earl Baldwin, Mrs. David Faling and Mrs. Donald Purkey in cooperation with the rest of the group.

Committees to cooperate with the Women's Association of the church were apopinted as follows: Kitchen, Mrs. William Sisson and Mrs. Jack Hammel; maintenance, Miss Joyce Warner; flowers, Mrs. Harold Hammel and Mrs. Donald Purkey; membership and calling, Mrs. Bart Aiuto and Mrs. Earl Baldwin.

The February meeting of the group will be held at the home of Miss Anne Thompson with Mrs. David Faling as co-hostess and Miss Joyce Warner will have charge of devotions.

Every city, town or village in the United States boasts that he has the "best" climate in the world.

Doughnut Fruit Burgers

When your little folks need an energizing mid-morning snack, give them Doughnut Fruit Burgers to go with their milk. They're colorful fun to eat, and a tasty supplement to milk. And children will like the taste of powdered sugar coated doughnuts with pineapple. These are the cake quality doughnuts made from a cook book recipe which you get from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department.

Make Doughnut Fruit Burgers by placing a well-drained slice of pineapple between doughnut halves. Top with a stemmed maraschino cherry, if desired. Give them to children as an after-school snack, too. And serve them as a dinner dessert with warm pineapple sauce, or a tart cherry sauce. Make some today for the kiddies' between-meal pickup, and for luncheon or dinner dessert with cherry sauce.

Cherry Sauce

1 cup sugar	½ cup water
½ cup butter	½ cup cherry juice
1 tablespoon cornstarch

Cream the sugar and butter. Add cornstarch and liquid, and cook over hot water until thickened, stirring constantly. Add chopped cherries, if desired. Cool, and serve over Doughnut Pineapple Burgers.

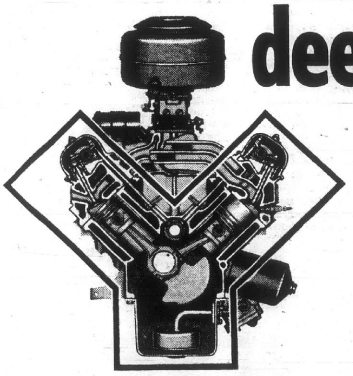
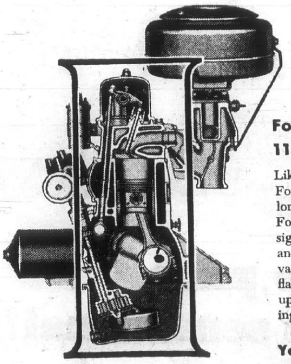
Ford presents two new deep-block engines



They're the industry's most modern engines with free-turning Overhead Valves and integral valve guides . . . high-compression, low-friction design . . . and extra deep-skirted crankcases. Both engines are designed for long life with smooth, economical performance.

Ford's new 130-h.p. Y-block V-8

This brand new Overhead-Valve V-8 has an extra-deep block which resembles a "Y" in cross-section. This new deep-block design means greater rigidity for smoother, quieter performance . . . longer engine life. Other features which make this engine a long-lived, smooth, savingful performer are: new low-friction (short-stroke) design, Free-Turning Overhead Valves, new 5-bearing crankshaft, and new high-turbulence combustion chambers.



Ford's new 115-h.p. I-block SIX

Like the new Y-block V-8, this engine has Ford's deep-block design for greater rigidity, longer engine life. Also, like the V-8, you get Ford's modern manifolding, low-friction design, high-turbulence combustion chambers, and Ford's Automatic Power Pilot. One advantage of both new engines is an amazingly flat "torque curve" which gives you top pick-up power through the whole range of driving speeds.

IT'S EASY TO TALK AGAINST FLUORIDATION

—BUT—

LET'S EXAMINE FACTS

As with any new advancement of science, there are sincere people who arrive at conclusions without having all the facts at hand. Most of us find it difficult to understand all of the parts of a proposal and so attack pieces of it which appear to be in error. The present matter of fluoride in the water is a good example of this type of attack. It has been stated that fluoride is poisonous, it is a tool of saboteurs, it is dangerous to health and many other broad statements. These proposals are backed up by individual, so-called "authorities" or unheard-of associations. These people have two main things in common—

1. They are not now associated with widely known organizations and

2. They are passionately against fluoride in the water. That such a burning issue is made of fluoride in the water is certainly difficult to conceive.

When we investigate medical history, however, we find similar instances in many advancements now accepted as commonplace. We might cite smallpox vaccination, pasteurization of milk, cleanliness in operating rooms (particularly at childbirth) and polio vaccine as only a very few cases where this fight was carried on. To be charitable, we must assume that the majority of the opposition to these advances were people who were either uninformed on the facts of the case.

Now, as in the past, the only way to arrive at an intelligent answer is to place our confidence in men and organizations who are qualified to make these decisions. Impressive titles for an organization are easy to put together. The real test is how long has it been functioning, how well known are its members, and, are they qualified to give expert opinion. When we call a doctor we only know we are sick, we don't know why. But we have enough confidence in his knowledge and ability to follow his instructions and so get well. The doctors have proven their contentions over the years and today we can look forward to a longer life because of them.

Why is it then, when an organization such as the American Medical Association, made up of the top medical men in the country, endorses fluoride in the water, their actions are suspect. They could not and would not endorse it if there were even the slightest proof that it might cause cancer, heart failure, backache, or any other disease. Their reputations are at stake and they have the training to make a sensible decision in this regard.

The same argument will hold for all the other well-known, national organizations who support fluoridation of the water. The American Dental Association, The U. S. Public Health Service, and leading magazines all over the country have endorsed it 100 per cent. These organizations have thousands of members and can speak with authority on a scientific proposal such as this.

Add to this the fact that 790 communities in 43 states with a population of 15,346,000 persons are now adding controlled amounts of fluoride to the drinking water and 3,570,021 persons in 1,152 communities have natural fluoride in the water. Research in some of these localities has been in progress for over 25 YEARS and no adverse effects have been shown.

Therefore, it would seem that the weight of evidence is all in favor of fluoride. The citizens of Tecumseh now have the opportunity of bringing the benefits of better health and sounder teeth to their community. Competent authorities assure us that there are no ill effects. The only question remaining, therefore, is whether or not we want to go forward with medical progress or deny ourselves these benefits on the word of unqualified criers of destruction. Fluoride is here for our use, let's make the most of it.

F.F.A. Attends Farmers Week

Last week Tuesday Future Farmers of America from the high school attended the farmers week convention at Michigan State College in East Lansing.

Transportation for the trip was furnished by Paul Burns, agriculture teacher and these parents: Art Brady, Percy Cadmus, John Quigley, Clarence Wagner, Spec Simmons, Mrs. Elmer Wilt, Wade Hendershot and Archie Scheffler.

The boys left the high school at 7:30 a.m. for the college and returned about 5 p.m.

During noon hour Phillip Young, Kenneth Mangus, Arnold Withrow, Robert Willnow, Bill Lopshire, and Eugene Withrow, a graduate member of the FFA who is now on short course scholarship at MSC, were interviewed by Howard Heath on a radio broadcast for station WPAG, Ann Arbor.

Some of the highlights of the day which interested the boys were: machinery exhibits, especially the cut away tractor motors; self propelled manure spreader; self unloading silo; cow with the "window" in its side, and the natural history museum. The boys also enjoyed the horse pulling contest which was held in the livestock pavillion.

Several of the boys enjoyed visiting with many of the Tecumseh students who are enrolled at the college.

A $9000 building expansion program is currently underway at the Friends Church of Tecumseh. Members of the building committee hope the exterior expansion will be completed by Spring.

This is what the expansion gives the church: an enlarged vestibule, a fire-proof entrance and exit, two rest rooms, one class room and a tower to house bells or chimes or both.

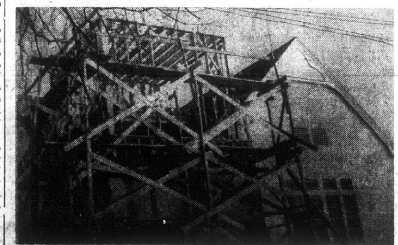
As the bottom picture shows, workmen are up to the tower now with the third part still to be constructed.

R. C. Kempf is the general contractor and the Wesco Supply has the plumbing, heating and electrical work.

The congregation, which now numbers 200 members with an average attendance of 240 at Sunday School every Sunday, began its building fund contributions at the Sunday School Christmas offering and the third Sunday of each month further building fund offerings are made in Sunday School classes and the special Easter Sunday School offering also will go to the building fund.

Interested friends outside the church also have contributed to the building fund.

Members of the special building committee are Ralph Comfort, Amos Wilson of Clinton and the Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the church.



YEARNING FOR LEARNING?

Adult Education Classes Begin March 1 At THS

Enrollment for the second session of adult evening classes will be held next Monday, February 22 from 7 until 9 p. m. in room 5 of the high school.

Courses offered will be as follows:

DRESSMAKING, SLIPCOVERING, AND DRAPERYMAKING—Because of the great enthusiasm of the instructor, Mrs. Harold Clark, and her students, these sewing classes are being repeated. Mrs. Clark is well known in the community for her excellent sewing and her ability to impart her knowledge to others.

BEGINNING TYPEWRITING—Miss Velerh Huffman, a very capable instructor in the commercial department, will teach this course. Miss Huffman has had one year's previous experience in Deerfield, and is completing her second year in this system.

BEGINNING BOOKKEEPING — This course will include all elementary and fundamental principles of bookkeeping. It deals with single proprietorship using one journal and one ledger and advancing to multiple journals and ledgers. The course will be taught by Mr. George Schipper, A.C.P.A., who is employed by the accounting firm, Root, Nicolai and Lockwood.

GENERAL SHOP — This course was closed last session due to the lack of obtaining the minimum enrollment of eight. It is hoped that a greater interest will be shown this session. This class offers opportunities to men and women in woodworking and metal working. Mr. Shank, instructor in the Industrial Arts department will be the teacher.

ROUND AND SQUARE DANCING — On Tuesday night of this week, 16 couples completed eight weeks of early American dancing. The instructor, Mr. Alex Komosinski of Wayne, Michigan, has been so pleased with the enthusiasm that he has consented to come back another eight weeks on Tuesday evenings from 8:30 to 10:30. Besides square dancing, one-half of the time will be spent in learning new steps in round dancing. This class is open for beginners as well as advanced couples.

OIL PAINTING — Starting February 25, Mr. Frank Cassara of the U. of M. art department will again conduct an eight week's class in both elementary and advanced oil painting. This class will meet on Thursday evenings from 7:30 - 9:30 in the art room of the elementary school providing the minimum enrollment of 15 is obtained.

ADULT RECREATION — On Monday evenings starting March

(See Education, page 7)

OPEN HOUSE POSTPONED

A public open house at the new Patterson school, planned by the Parent-Teacher association for Feb. 18 has been postponed for one week until Feb. 25.

It is hoped all will be in readiness and all parents and friends of the school are cordially invited to inspect the new facilities, states Mrs. Wellington Wotring, PTA president.

Girls Pay During THS Sponge Week

It's the woman who pays made a lot of sense at Tecumseh high school during the past week as the men folk were treated to parties and corsages and the women picked up the check.

This annual Sponge Week began Monday when students came to class decked out in their Sunday go to meetin' clothes.

Then Tuesday they tried to drive their teachers wild with gum and candy chewing day.

Wednesday was color day with all colors of the rainbow worn without regard to color combinations and boys wore hats in the halls.

Tonight Thursday) junior high students will have a dance in Central school from 7:30 to 10:30. Maybe the boys will look a little silly wearing corsages but this is the case. The corsages will be made by the girls.

Friday night the seniors will frolic at their dance in Central from 9 to 1 a.m.

Again the boys will be wearing corsages made by the fair ladies.

Friday teachers will have a vacation (it says here) when students and teachers switch. A student selected by the teacher becomes the teacher and the teacher, it is assumed, becomes a student. (Wonder what kind o' grades the teacher will get as a student).

This annual Sponge Week even is a school activity sponsored by the student council.

Baby Killed, Four Injured In Wreck

A three-car crash two miles east of Tecumseh on M-50 Sunday night about 9 p. m. killed a 14-month-old baby and sent four persons to hospitals with serious injuries.

Dead is Patricia Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson of Hillsdale. She was killed instantly.

Her parents are in St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor suffering from serious injuries. Also injured in the pile-up were Barbara Meyer, 18, of Adrian who is in University Hospital in Ann Arbor and Lawrence Young, 21, of Route 1, Tecumseh, who is in Herrick Memorial hospital. All the injured were first taken to Herrick Memorial hospital for first aid.

According to Patrolman Richard Simpson of the Tecumseh Police Dept. who investigated, Young's car going east pulled out to pass an unidentified motorist when a car driven by Ronald Betz, 18, of Blissfield, also going east, struck Young's car and shoved it into the path of Anderson's car which was going west.

Miss Meyer was riding with Young.

Neither Betz nor his passenger Donald Blake of Deerfield were injured.

The highway was dry at the time of the accident and there was no fog. The exact cause of the accident has not been determined. Patrolman Simpson is continuing his investigation.

Services for the infant were held Wednesday from the Fisher Funeral Home and from the St. John's Lutheran Church in Dundee with the Rev. Fred W. Cessler officiating. Burial was in Avalia, Mich.

She is survived by her parents and by her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jasper of Maybee and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Anderson of Milan.

THESPIANS ARE WANTED!

Announcement is made of a new project of the Auxiliary of Herrick Memorial hospital. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Dale Bowen, a committee of Mrs. William Macbeth, Mrs. Joe Horvath and Mrs. Neville Hart is planning to present three one-act plays May 6 and 7.

They will be given at the high school auditorium and will present an opportunity to all those interested in drama to develop their talents.

Mrs. Bowen hopes that anyone who has a flair for the theater or who would like to have, will contact her at 1073-J or Mrs. Macbeth at 673-J.

Others who are aware that they have no acting ability but are willing to help in any back-stage capacity are also asked to call.

Memorial Fund Given By Legion And Auxiliary

As a memorial to Dr. H. H. Hammel and R. K. Anderson, the Legion Post and its Auxiliary have voted to give $100 to the landscaping program being carried on at Herrick Memorial hospital under the auspices of the Garden Club.

Fifty dollars was voted by the Auxiliary for the Polio Fund, and they decided to send $5 to the Wooden Church Crusade. the campaign whose aim is the erection of churches along the borders of the Iron Curtain to keep religious freedom alive in spite of Communism.

A shrimp dinner was held by members of the American Legion and Auxiliary last Thursday evening in the Legion Home. About 125 were present and the serving was done by Robert Lowe, Lyle Grigg, L. E. Brown, Les Fogelsong, Otto Baaske, Larry Cote, Morgan Ford, Harold Anderson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Rosacrans and Donald Maves.

Following dinner, separate meetings of the two organizations were called by Commander Robert Lowe and president Mrs. Vern Manwaring. The Auxiliary decided to buy 7,000 poppies from hospitalized veterans. Mrs. Leland Cheever, chairman of the Poppy committee, announced that the Poppy Poster contest would be conducted soon in the schools under the supervision of Mrs. Dorothy Westdyke, art.

Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, Child Welfare chairman, asked members to knit five inch squares of wool yarn and turn them in to be sent to Korea where the women of that country will join them to make warm afghans. She also requested that articles such as paper and pencils and children's shoes be brought to the next meeting.

Attorney Advises Change In Fluoridation Ballot Wording

2809 REGISTERED

Citizens eligible to vote in the March 8 special election to decide the fluoridation of city water now number 2809, reports Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk.

The previous count was 2770 for the last election held Dec. 14 to decide the city question. Since the last election 39 more citizens have registered.

Registration deadline for the March 8 election was Monday.

Green Heads C of C

George Green Jr., is the new president of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce. He was elected at an organizational meeting of the board Tuesday night. Green succeeds Clarence Beach, retiring president.

Other officers elected are Glenn Kohler, vice-president; Shirley Van Hook, secretary; and Virgil Tucker, treasurer.

In addition to the new officers, other members of the board are Elmer Eberhardt, Harold Green, Russell Garno, Harold Easton, Ray Herrick and Miss Marjorie Wickwire.

Board members discussed informally some of the future goals of the chamber but no official action was taken.

They also accepted the resignation of Miss Shirley Van Hook, secretary. She said she will serve until Feb. 19.

The board decided to hold regular meetings the fourth Tuesday of every month in the chamber of commerce office at 8 p.m.

LAUNCHING SET FRIDAY

Eagles, Community Plan Balloons For Freedom

Chiefs Aerie No. 1563 will participate in the nation-wide Crusade for Freedom campaign by launching three huge plastic balloons here Friday, Lincoln's birthday, in a colorful ceremony simultaneously with the release of thousands of similar balloons in some 1,600 Eagle communities in the United States.

The launching here is planned for 4:30 p.m. from the Tecumseh Athletic Field, with Mayor Charles Mensing, and other officials and the public invited to witness the ceremony.

The most concentrated barrage will come from Springfield, Ill., Lincoln's home, where 2,000 balloons, with messages from Robert W. Hanseh, national president of the Eagles, will be dispatched in a mass launching.

The event will dramatize the start of Freedom Week, extending from Feb. 12, to Feb. 22, Washington's birthday, with programs highlighting the Crusade for Freedom, sponsored by the American Heritage Foundation, to obtain "Truth Dollar" contributions to beam mesages of hope and inspiration from Radio Free Europe to the oppressed peoples of Communist-dominated countries.

The round, helium-inflated balloons, in red, white and blue, will contain mesages from Donald Morley, president of Chief Aerie, stressing the significance of the Crusade for Freedom, and urging support of the project to strengthen the will of the populations behind the Iron Curtain, and thus maintain in world peace by discouraging Communist aggression.

The documents in the balloons also will suggest that the finder aid the Crusade for Freedom, and deliver the messages to his local newspaper. The balloons are capable of 700 mile flights.

"Chiefs Aerie invites the citizens of Tecumseh and neighboring communities to join in this Crusade for Freedom event here and help deliver a telling blow in the fight for freedom and democracy against Communist ideology," said Don Morley.

MURDER SUSPECT HELD

A suspect in the murder of Stanley Keith Swain, former Tecumseh boy who was killed several weeks ago near Pasadena, Calif., is being held by the Los Angeles county sheriff.

Held for investigation of murder is a former sheriff's deputy. His trial is set for Feb. 18.

Swain was shot and killed and sheriff's officers believe robbery was the motive.

He is the son of Stanley and Grace Swain, former Tecumseh residents now living in Santa Cruz, Calif. He was born here and went to Tecumseh high school.

His uncles Harold Davidson and Floyd Swain live here. Davidson flew to California last week to attend services for his nephew.

Rotarians Fete Wives Friday

Members of the Tecumseh Rotary Club will fete their wives at the annual Rotary Ann Banquet scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Friday night in the Baptist Youth House.

The Rev. Ronald A. Brunger, pastor of the Methodist church, will give the invocation.

Dinner music will be by "TNT" and group singing will be led by R. H. Moore, Glenn Driscoll and Ralph Comfort.

"Trouble" will be by "Red" Becker and Harold Kelso.

The Rev. Blair Bashore, club president, will give the welcome to Rotary Anns and guests.

LeRoy Titley, program chairman, will introduce the guest speaker, the Rev. Harvey C. Hahn. He will speak on "That Extra Something."

Opinion Tells Reason, Goes To Council Monday

City attorney J. C. Beardsley has recommended in an opinion to the council that the wording on the ballot for special election scheduled for March 8 be "Shall fluoridation of the city water be continued?"

His opinion, filed with city clerk Mrs. Naomi Sallows per charter provisions, will go to the council at next Monday night's meeting and the council will take the opinion under advisement at this time.

In his opinion he leaves off "in accordance with the State Health Department recommendations."

His opinion said the present wording of the ballot is legal but it should express the question so clearly . . . that no person — no matter how unlettered — can fail to readily grasp the issue presented.

His opinion is printed here in its entirety:

Tecumseh, Mich. Feb. 6, 1954

Definition:

I have been requested to check the legality of the wording of the proposed ballot. In the larger sense there is no such thing as an illegally worded ballot for it is but part of an election and the legality of an election cannot be determined until after it has been held. I shall therefore find it necessary to predicate my opinion upon an assumed statement of fact.

Authority:

18 American Jurisprudence 298, provides "Independent . . . questions must be submitted separately . . . ; two such questions cannot be submitted together, to stand or fall on a single vote."

Muskegon vs. Vanderlan (211 Michigan 95) held: "In submitting questions to the electors, separate subjects, separate purposes, or independent propositions should not be compiled so that one can gather votes for the other."

Discussion:

It would seem that the wording "Shall the fluoride of the City of Tecumseh water be continued in accordance with the State Health Department recommendations?" is of a type which, by implication, presents two different issues, viz.: Should fluoridation be continued and, secondly, should the continuation be made in accordance with the State Health Department recommendations? However, in view of the great publicity which the question has received, I am unable to see how any elector could be confused by the question in its present form. In this connection, a case is reported in 18 American Jurisprudence 38 (supplement) which held: "The inclusion of extrinsic or extraneous matter upon the ballot at a special election, regarding the nature or effect of the proposal submitted, does not vitiate the election where the matter included was not so objectionable as to mislead the voters and has not been shown to have done so.

Opinion:

The present wording of the ballot is legal—unless proof be adduced subsequent to the election that an elector has been deceived thereby.

Secondary consideration:

Nevertheless, as this question is presented as to the wording of a ballot before it is printed, rather than to the legality of an election—after is has been held, I feel that the point deserves further consideration.

Among free men there can be no proper appeal from a ballot. But to be effective, and to clearly suggest but two alternatives, a ballot must be shorn of all unnecessary verbiage and must, ungarnished, express the question with such clarity that no person — no matted how unlettered — can fail to readily grasp the issue presented.

To hold otherwise in this instance would be to invite doubt as to the finality of the election and would tend to leave unhealed the civic ulcer which has been growing at the very periosteum of our community.

Recommendation:

That the wording of the ballot be: "Shall fluoridation of the city water be continued?"

Indians Win Four Basketball Games

Playing four and winning four was the basketball record compiled by Tecumseh High Indians during the past week.

Last Thursday both the varsity and junior varsity took the measure of Addison, with the varsity winning, 67-59 and the reserves adding a 32-28 win.

Benham added a smashing 32 points to the varsity's score.

The Indians had only a three point lead at the half but pulled away in the third period to ice the game.

Score by quarters:

Tecumseh	18	16	22	11
Addison	17	14	15	13

Tuesday night the Lawson five edged Hudson, 44-40, and the jv won, 48-30.

Hart hit 16 and Benham 14 for the Indians and Davis and Bowser worked the boards well. Sweezy hit 15 for Hudson.

The score was close throughout and the contest was not decided until the final period. The outcome was determined in the free throw column with the Indians cashing 12 of 17 charity tosses with Hudson claiming 10 of 19.

Score by quarters:

Tecumseh	7	10	12	15
Hudson	8	8	13	11

In the jv game Morris Yoakum had 21 points to lead the junior Indians.

Next Tuesday night the Indians play two more non-league games against Moreni at home. The first game is scheduled for 7 p.m. with the varsity game following at 8 p.m.

SHORTATORIALS — We have a lot of fun and we learn a lot from talking to folks who drop into the HERALD office to chat.

A newspaper office and plant is a busy place and sometimes we feel like pulling out what few hairs we have left, but we are never too busy to talk to you folks.

One of the many who dropped in to talk over a variety of things was Albert G. Taylor now of the U. S. Navy. Al, who dropped in to check on his subscription, has been in the Navy about six months and was home visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor of Onsted.

He has carried over his civilian duties as a member of the accounting department at the Products to the Navy's counterpart.

A seaman on the USS Columbus which is in Boston, Al has about a year and a-half yet to serve. And do you know what he told us? He said there's a little old tug boat that nudges and teases the large Columbus into dock. The name of the proud little tugboat is The Tecumseh.

See what we mean about learning interesting things talking to folks? So drop in. You always are welcome at the HERALD.

If you want fast results try a HERALD classified ad. Mrs. D. A. Greenman placed a classified and called the day the HERALD came out telling us appreciatively she had rented her house and for us to cancel her ad.

We also tried a HERALD classified ad for a home to rent with three bedrooms and, believe it or not, we also had a call the day the paper came out and can rent a nice home right here in town that will take our four kids, our dog Dispatch, our cat Chitra, our gold fish, Blacky and Goldie and the snail Slowy — the whole kaboodle. If this isn't a miracle we haven't seen any.

The moral to these two stories is this: HERALD classifieds p a y .

One of Mark Twain's favorite expressions was "Everybody complains about the weather, but nobody does anything about it."

Another old chestnut frequently heard in this fair state of ours is this: "If you don't like Michigan weather, wait a few minutes and it will change." It certainly does.

Writing of the weather reminds us of a considerate deed we saw on main street during a recent downpour. A lady with two small children came into Mike Hite's hardware. She asked if they could go through the store to reach their car which was parked behind the store. Mike said "You sure can."

This is a small gesture, you may say, but it is the stuff from which headlines should be made.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

Much has been said concerning those bad accidents out on North Maumee, just north of the River bridge, and had some kind of guard railing been put on this curve, say ten years ago, I feel sure that some of those lives that were lost could have been saved.

Or isn't saving a life important anymore? To my way of thinking it is very, very important. Because who knows who the next person will be—it might be some of your loved ones or mine and any one life is precious in the sight of our Creator.

No doubt many have forgotten, when either in 1944 or 1945, a truck going south, left the pavement and rammed into the shrubbery and the iron fence at the Boulder Park, doing damage to both the bushes and fence, so that the fence had to be taken away.

Then one Saturday night in July, 1948, three young people in a car coming from the north, got off the highway at this curve, headed for the park, hitting a large tree on the northwest corner, a young girl was thrown out and killed.

Next to happen was the terrible accident in August, 1953, on this same curve, a car of young folks, in which a young girl was killed, and the rest were injured, in fact they were scattered all over the ground.

Then January 25, 1954, a large Conklin truck, going south, a driver from Port Huron, had the misfortune to get off the pavement (not because of driving fast either) heading for Boulder Park and striking that same corner tree, leveling it to the ground. By this accident the man was most severely burned, and his boss from Adrian said "He was one of my best drivers." I guess a great many reviewed the remains of the truck the following day.

Maybe this and all the other accidents could have been "eased-up" had there been some kind of guard fence at this unlucky curve, there is bound to be some protection regardless of what kind of guard railing it be.

It's a pretty important subject to be dismissed here in Tecumseh, so why not do something about it before any more lives are lost, — IT IS IMPORTANT.

Editor, The Herald:

I am writing this letter to make clear to the people of Tecumseh that I still consider all of you my friends. Yet, there have been numerous rumors of this and that said which have no foundation.

It has never been a part of my thinking to discredit anyone in this community, whether rich or poor. Money has no place where the protection of our people is concerned or the Constitution of these United States has been violated.

I mean freedom of choice, freedom from fear and freedom of expression. The fluoridation of public water violates the 14th Amendment of the Constitution and I, as an American, protest this.

I hold no animosity against any citizen but I will say some have been badly misinformed as to personalities. Every one of us is equal, but perhaps some of us are more intelligence than others. But this is no crime. I honestly think you, the public, know what is right or wrong. The record speaks for itself.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Wish I'd Said That

You know Miss Perkins. Well, she's been driving her own car around our town for a little more than 30 years.

The other day she had a bit of trouble parking down on Main Street. Didn't quite make it the first try, so she pulled out to start over when a fellow waiting to pass started tooting his horn impatiently.

On the second try, she was still having a little difficulty and so this smart aleck hollered, "Lady, do you know how to drive?" "Yes, young man," Miss Perkins answered, "I do. But I don't have time to teach you now."

From where I sit, it's not always easy to have a good answer ready when you need it. But when somebody insists that I vote for his candidate, for instance, or choose tea instead of a temperate glass of beer with dinner, I know the answer. It's all a matter of personal preference . . . and none of us like "backseat driving" from anybody.

Realty Views

Big decisions don't happen all at once. They are made bit by bit over a period of time.

For example, when you decided to get married, you first had to sell yourself on the basic idea. Probably you had friends who got married, and seemed quite happy. That helped convince you. Then, you had to find the right mate.

Likewise, with home ownership. First, you should be sold on the idea. Then you have to find the right house.

As far as the idea goes, you probably have friends who appear more settled, more secure, more happy—now that they have their own homes.

From a financial standpoint, a home has proved to be among the safest of investments. It puts part of your "rent" money back in your pocket. And it can be acquired easily over many years.

Your family's way of life will also improve. You become more interested in developing good neighbors and a good city. You are established. "Moving days" are gone.

The "right" home is a matter of taste, family needs and pocketbook. But of one thing you can be sure—we will help you find it.

SALES CONTINUE

Girl Scout cookie sales were very satisfactory again Saturday. Troop No. 6, led by Mrs. M. W. Smith and Mrs. Ruth Duffin sold 394 boxes during banking hours at United Savings Bank. Mrs. Lyle Grigg, who is general chairman of sales, reports that several requests have been received from people who are unable to come to the bank asking to have cookies sold at their door as in previous years. She states that anyone wishing cookies may contact any Girl or Brownie Scout and they will make the purchase and deliver the cookies.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Laine Holden has received word of the death, Jan. 26, in Auburn, Washington of Etta Ayers Smith, widow of Charles D. Smith and a former resident of Tecumseh. Mrs. Smith, whose husband was a brother of Joseph Smith, Mrs. Holden's grandfather, was 88 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Tecumseh for Washington in 1904.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Florence Courtwright of Auburn, several grandchildren and several nephews and nieces who include Mrs. Holden and her sister, Mrs. Norman Groeschow of Adrian.

Grade School News

Grade 4
Mrs. Whiting

Our second semester is well under way. We have re-arranged our schedule and for the benefit of our parents are giving it here.

We have music from 9:20 to 9:40 on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, and science on Monday and Thursday at that time. This is followed by penmanship from 9:40 to 10:00. The boys have gym from 10 to 10:25. While the boys are at gym the girls work on a project of their choice. Right now several are making a movie about lumbering, while the rest are making valentines. Our reading class is from 10:30 to 11:15, except on Wednesday, when we have art at that time. Arithmetic is from 11:15 to 11:50 and spelling from 11:50 to 12:10.

Our afternoon classes start at 1:15. Social studies is from 1:15 to 1:45; girls gym from 1:45 to 2:10. While the girls are having gym the boys have been making model airplanes and cars. We have quite a collection. From 2:15 to 2:45 we have geography on Monday and Thursday; health Tuesday and Friday; and reading on Wednesday. Language is from 2:45 to 3:15, which leaves 15 minutes for study period, when we finish anything we may not have had time for during the day.

On Monday we had a Citizenship Club meeting when we elected new officers. John Britton is our new president, Jean Packard is vice-president, Betty Henson is secretary, and Donald Schmidt is treasurer.

Gordon William's mother visited us this week. We were very happy to have her. She and Michael Rohrer's mother are our room mothers this year. We are always glad to have any of our mothers visit us.

Grade 4
Mrs. Baily

We are having a good time decorating our room for this month. There are so many important dates — Ground Hog's Day, Valentine's Day, and the birthdays of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Thomas Edison—that it makes it very interesting.

In geography, we have just started reading about a little boy by the name of Simba who lives in Africa right on the equator. It is hard to believe that it is hot there all the time with never any snow.

We are planning a Valentine party to be held in our room on February 12 because Valentine's Day comes on Sunday. We have drawn names and we hope that everyone will be at school that day.

Grade 5
Mrs. Runk

Valentines galore! Funny ones, pretty ones, big ones, little ones, all safely tucked into our bulging Valentine box ready for our party tomorrow. Judy Mangrum and Eugene Brion decorated the box and everyone has contributed to it. We voted for cookies and pop for our refreshments. We're hoping this party will be very nice for it is the last one for this year.

We chose new officers again this month. Helen Hicks is president now, with Sandra Staulter as secretary, and Francisco Cuevas as vice president and treasurer.

Barbara McKenzie was out of school last week after having her tonsils out. Sandra Creger is still ill. We are hoping they both will be back soon.

The second semester schedule is working out very well for us. We have all our special classes in the morning which allows longer plots of time for our academic work. We like the extra half hour of sleep we get in the morning, too.

The fifth graders took over the Service Squad and Safety Patrol in January. Ann Wilson, Judy Mangrum, Dianne Geve, Cynthia Poley, Betty Bishop, and Shirley Wagoner are on Service Squad from our room. Jerry Breitenwischer, Dick Hyatt, Eugene Brion, Bruce LeFevre, Walter Girbach, Donald Linden, and Gale Kimerer are our representatives on Safety Patrol.

We suspect the boys on Patrol pray for rain so they can wear their new yellow raincoats.

Grade 5
Mrs. Uckele

This semester we have started our work as Service Squad. They are Evelyn Beland, Susan Day, Dorothy Mackey, Nancy Nighswander, and Mary Ann Hunter. Sharon Fielder, Inez Boltz and Dottie Roe help with the smaller children in the cafeteria. The Patrol boys are Delbert Poskarbiewicz, Ronald Dixon, David Grigg, Jerry Kemp, and Gary Haviland.

We are sorry that during January we had two students move away. Jerigene Greenwald moved to Clinton and Lucy Asebedo lives near Clinton.

The Elementary School gave $314.26 to the Polio Fund.

We are sorry that Margaret Henson is absent because of a tonsillectomy.

Our room decorations for February are red hearts.

Jerry Dicker fell in physical education about three weeks ago and broke his arm. He only missed two days of school. The boys have been taking turns helping him.

We enjoyed our vacation last Friday while the teachers attended Institute.

This semester we have begun studying fractions in arithmetic.

In social studies we have completed our study of the New England states. We are now studying the Middle Atlantic states.

This semester both the boys and girls have physical education every day.

That's why people are calling the new 1954 Chevrolet the outstanding motor car value of this new year!

Men and women everywhere are deciding that Chevrolet for 1954 gives more for the money than any other car in its price range.

Here are the reasons why . . .

New style—more beauty of line, contour and color—with stunning new Bodies by Fisher and luxurious new modern-mode interiors.

New power—more pickup, more passing ability, more smoothness and quietness of operation with either of Chevrolet's two advanced 1954 engines—the thoroughly proved "Blue-Flame 125" engine teamed with Powerglide (available on all models at extra cost) or the thoroughly proved "Blue-Flame 115" engine!

New economy—yes, even stronger gasoline savings—because both of these great high-compression engines are designed, engineered and built to wring more power from every charge of fuel.

Moreover, these new Chevrolets remain the lowest-priced line in their field, again this year.

Come in . . . see and drive the new 1954 Chevrolet . . . and place your order now!

SHORTATORIALS — We have a lot of fun and we learn a lot from talking to folks who drop into the HERALD office to chat.

A newspaper office and plant is a busy place and sometimes we feel like pulling out what few hairs we have left, but we are never too busy to talk to you folks.

One of the many who dropped in to talk over a variety of things was Albert G. Taylor now of the U. S. Navy. Al, who dropped in to check on his subscription, has been in the Navy about six months and was home visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor of Onsted.

He has carried over his civilian duties as a member of the accounting department at the Products to the Navy's counterpart.

A seaman on the USS Columbus which is in Boston, Al has about a year and a-half yet to serve. And do you know what he told us? He said there's a little old tug boat that nudges and teases the large Columbus into dock. The name of the proud little tugboat is The Tecumseh.

See what we mean about learning interesting things talking to folks? So drop in. You always are welcome at the HERALD.

If you want fast results try a HERALD classified ad. Mrs. D. A. Greenman placed a classified and called the day the HERALD came out telling us appreciatively she had rented her house and for us to cancel her ad.

We also tried a HERALD classified ad for a home to rent with three bedrooms and, believe it or not, we also had a call the day the paper came out and can rent a nice home right here in town that will take our four kids, our dog Dispatch, our cat Chitra, our gold fish, Blacky and Goldie and the snail Slowy — the whole kaboodle. If this isn't a miracle we haven't seen any.

The moral to these two stories is this: HERALD classifieds pay.

One of Mark Twain's favorite expressions was "Everybody complains about the weather, but nobody does anything about it."

Another old chestnut frequently heard in this fair state of ours is this: "If you don't like Michigan weather, wait a few minutes and it will change." It certainly does.

Writing of the weather reminds us of a considerate deed we saw on main street during a recent downpour. A lady with two small children came into Mike Hite's hardware. She asked if they could go through the store to reach their car which was parked behind the store. Mike said "You sure can."

This is a small gesture, you may say, but it is the stuff from which headlines should be made.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

Much has been said concerning those bad accidents out on North Maumee, just north of the River bridge, and had some kind of guard railing been put on this curve, say ten years ago, I feel sure that some of those lives that were lost could have been saved.

Or isn't saving a life important anymore? To my way of thinking it is very, very important. Because who knows who the next person will be—it might be some of your loved ones or mine and any one life is precious in the sight of our Creator.

No doubt many have forgotten, when either in 1944 or 1945, a truck going south, left the pavement and rammed into the shrubberry and the iron fence at the Boulder Park, doing damage to both the bushes and fence, so that the fence had to be taken away.

Then one Saturday night in July, 1948, three young people in a car coming from the north, got off the highway at this curve, headed for the park, hitting a large tree on the northwest corner, a young girl was thrown out and killed.

Next to happen was the terrible accident in August, 1953, on this same curve, a car of young folks, in which a young girl was killed, and the rest were injured, in fact they were scattered all over the ground.

Then January 25, 1954, a large Conklin truck, going south, a driver from Port Huron, had the misfortune to get off the pavement (not because of driving fast either) heading for Boulder Park and striking that same corner tree, leveling it to the ground. By this accident the man was most severely burned, and his boss from Adrian said "He was one of my best drivers." I guess a great many reviewed the remains of the truck the following day.

Maybe this and all the other accidents could have been "eased-up" had there been some kind of guard fence at this unlucky curve, there is bound to be some protection regardless of what kind of guard railing it be.

It's a pretty important subject to be dismissed here in Tecumseh, so why not do something about it before any more lives are lost, — IT IS IMPORTANT.

Editor, The Herald:

I am writing this letter to make clear to the people of Tecumseh that I still consider all of you my friends. Yet, there have been numerous rumors of this and that said which have no foundation.

It has never been a part of my thinking to discredit anyone in this community, whether rich or poor. Money has no place where the protection of our people is concerned or the Constitution of these United States has been violated.

I mean freedom of choice, freedom from fear and freedom of expression. The fluoridation of public water violates the 14th Amendment of the Constitution and I, as an American, protest this.

I hold no animosity against any citizen but I will say some have been badly misinformed as to personalities. Every one of us is equal, but perhaps some of us are more intelligence than others. But this is no crime. I honestly think you, the public, know what is right or wrong. The record speaks for itself.

Realty Views

Big decisions don't happen all at once. They are made bit by bit over a period of time.

For example, when you decided to get married, you first had to sell yourself on the basic idea. Probably you had friends who got married, and seemed quite happy. That helped convince you. Then, you had to find the right mate.

Likewise, with home ownership. First, you should be sold on the idea. Then you have to find the right house.

As far as the idea goes, you probably have friends who appear more settled, more secure, more happy—now that they have their own homes.

From a financial standpoint, a home has proved to be among the safest of investments. It puts part of your "rent" money back in your pocket. And it can be acquired easily over many years.

Your family's way of life will also improve. You become more interested in developing good neighbors and a good city. You are established. "Moving days" are gone.

The "right" home is a matter of taste, family needs and pocketbook. But of one thing you can be sure—we will help you find it.

SALES CONTINUE

Girl Scout cookie sales were very satisfactory again Saturday. Troop No. 6, led by Mrs. M. W. Smith and Mrs. Ruth Duffin sold 394 boxes during banking hours at United Savings Bank. Mrs. Lyle Grigg, who is general chairman of sales, reports that several requests have been received from people who are unable to come to the bank asking to have cookies sold at their door as in previous years. She states that anyone wishing cookies may contact any Girl or Brownie Scout and they will make the purchase and deliver the cookies.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Laine Holden has received word of the death, Jan. 26, in Auburn, Washington of Etta Ayers Smith, widow of Charles D. Smith and a former resident of Tecumseh. Mrs. Smith, whose husband was a brother of Joseph Smith, Mrs. Holden's grandfather, was 88 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Tecumseh for Washington in 1904.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Florence Courtwright of Auburn, several grandchildren and several nephews and nieces who include Mrs. Holden and her sister, Mrs. Norman Groeschow of Adrian.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Wish I'd Said That

You know Miss Perkins. Well, she's been driving her own car around our town for a little more than 30 years.

The other day she had a bit of trouble parking down on Main Street. Didn't quite make it the first try, so she pulled out to start over when a fellow waiting to pass started tooting his horn impatiently.

On the second try, she was still having a little difficulty and so this smart aleck hollered, "Lady, do you know how to drive?" "Yes, young man," Miss Perkins answered, "I do. But I don't have time to teach you now."

From where I sit, it's not always easy to have a good answer ready when you need it. But when somebody insists that I vote for his candidate, for instance, or choose tea instead of a temperate glass of beer with dinner, I know the answer. It's all a matter of personal preference . . . and none of us like "backseat driving" from anybody.

Grade School News

Grade 4
Mrs. Whiting

Our second semester is well under way. We have re-arranged our schedule and for the benefit of our parents are giving it here.

We have music from 9:20 to 9:40 on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, and science on Monday and Thursday at that time. This is followed by penmanship from 9:40 to 10:00. The boys have gym from 10 to 10:25. While the boys are at gym the girls work on a project of their choice. Right now several are making a movie about lumbering, while the rest are making valentines. Our reading class is from 10:30 to 11:15, except on Wednesday, when we have art at that time. Arithmetic is from 11:15 to 11:50 and spelling from 11:50 to 12:10.

Our afternoon classes start at 1:15. Social studies is from 1:15 to 1:45; girls gym from 1:45 to 2:10. While the girls are having gym the boys have been making model airplanes and cars. We have quite a collection. From 2:15 to 2:45 we have geography on Monday and Thursday; health Tuesday and Friday; and reading on Wednesday. Language is from 2:45 to 3:15, which leaves 15 minutes for study period, when we finish anything we may not have had time for during the day.

On Monday we had a Citizenship Club meeting when we elected new officers. John Britton is our new president, Jean Packard is vice-president, Betty Henson is secretary, and Donald Schmidt is treasurer.

Gordon William's mother visited us this week. We were very happy to have her. She and Michael Rohrer's mother are our room mothers this year. We are always glad to have any of our mothers visit us.

Grade 4
Mrs. Baily

We are having a good time decorating our room for this month. There are so many important dates — Ground Hog's Day, Valentine's Day, and the birthdays of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Thomas Edison—that it makes it very interesting.

In geography, we have just started reading about a little boy by the name of Simba who lives in Africa right on the equator. It is hard to believe that it is hot there all the time with never any snow.

We are planning a Valentine party to be held in our room on February 12 because Valentine's Day comes on Sunday. We have drawn names and we hope that everyone will be at school that day.

Grade 5
Mrs. Runk

Valentines galore! Funny ones, pretty ones, big ones, little ones, all safely tucked into our bulging Valentine box ready for our party tomorrow. Judy Mangrum and Eugene Brion decorated the box and everyone has contributed to it. We voted for cookies and pop for our refreshments. We're hoping this party will be very nice for it is the last one for this year.

We chose new officers again this month. Helen Hicks is president now, with Sandra Staulter as secretary, and Francisco Cuevas as vice president and treasurer.

Barbara McKenzie was out of school last week after having her tonsils out. Sandra Creger is still ill. We are hoping they both will be back soon.

The second semester schedule is working out very well for us. We have all our special classes in the morning which allows longer plots of time for our academic work. We like the extra half hour of sleep we get in the morning, too.

The fifth graders took over the Service Squad and Safety Patrol in January. Ann Wilson, Judy Mangrum, Dianne Gove, Cynthia Poley, Betty Bishop, and Shirley Wagoner are on Service Squad from our room. Jerry Breitenwischer, Dick Hyatt, Eugene Brion, Bruce LeFevre, Walter Girbach, Donald Linden, and Gale Kimerer are our representatives on Safety Patrol.

We suspect the boys on Patrol pray for rain so they can wear their new yellow raincoats.

Grade 5
Mrs. Uckele

This semester we have started our work as Service Squad. They are Evelyn Beland, Susan Day, Dorothy Mackey, Nancy Nighswander, and Mary Ann Hunter. Sharon Fielder, Inez Boltz and Dottie Roe help with the smaller children in the cafeteria. The Patrol boys are Delbert Poskarbiewicz, Ronald Dixon, David Grigg, Jerry Kemp, and Gary Haviland.

We are sorry that during January we had two students move away. Jerigene Greenwald moved to Clinton and Lucy Asebedo lives near Clinton.

The Elementary School gave $314.26 to the Polio Fund.

We are sorry that Margaret Henson is absent because of a tonsillectomy.

Our room decorations for February are red hearts.

Jerry Dicker fell in physical education about three weeks ago and broke his arm. He only missed two days of school. The boys have been taking turns helping him.

We enjoyed our vacation last Friday while the teachers attended Institute.

This semester we have begun studying fractions in arithmetic.

In social studies we have completed our study of the New England states. We are now studying the Middle Atlantic states.

This semester both the boys and girls have physical education every day.

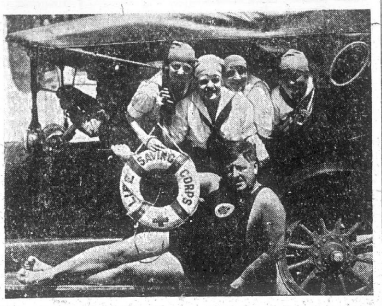
RED CROSS WATER SAFETY 40 YEARS OLD



Only forty years have passed since February 1, 1914, when the first Red Cross Water Safety courses were introduced to the world by the "amiable whale," the late Commodore Wilbert E. Longfellow (on running board). And, though styles in bathing attire have changed drastically in that time, the principles of water safety which the Red Cross has taught to 9,300,000 persons have remained constant. Waterproofing America has paid big dividends; since 1914 the drowning rate per 100,000 population has been cut in half. Water Safety is one of the many Red Cross services you support by your contributions to the annual Red Cross Campaign in March.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Two mighty affirmations undergird the Christian faith: Christ is Godlike and God is Christlike. The writers of the New Testament pile superlative upon superlative in their tributes to Jesus.

"Many were the forms and fashions in which God spoke of old to our Fathers by the prophets but in these days at the end he has spoken to us by a Son . . . He, reflecting God's bright glory and stamped with God's own character, sustains the universe with his word of power."

"Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

Throughout the New Testament, Jesus is spoken of as being good, holy, righteous, faithful, true, just, spotless, sinless. meek, merciful, patient, long-suffering, compassionate, benevolent, loving, self-denying, humble, forgiving, of unblemished purity, mighty in deed and word.

No other form of spiritual nurture equals in power the continuous saturation of one's life with the spirit and message of Jesus. For a person who is seeking serenity and peace of soul, the neglect of Jesus is sheer tragedy.

The Gospels should be read so often, studied so carefully, and reflected upon so deliberately that the example and teaching of Jesus become embedded within us. Even more important than the interpretations of Paul and Peter is the direct impact of the Gospels upon our lives. Happy is the person who disciplines himself to turn often to the man of Galilee as God's supreme revelation of wisdom and power and love.

FATHER-SON BANQUET ATTENDED BY 150

There were one hundred and fifty of the fathers and sons of the Baptist church at their annual banquet Thursday evening in the Youth House. Music during the meal was furnished by a new organization whose musical career was launched that evening, "The Note Tootlers," whose membership is made up of Glenn Driscoll, George Green Jr., the Rev. Ronald Brunger and Vern Manwaring. The Women's Society of the church furnished the banquet and the decorations were the work of Mrs. Carl Kempf and Mrs. Llewellyn Sisson.

The program,, with the Rev. Bashore as toastmaster included the recognition of three sons for their perfect attendance records, Eugene Morley, Gerry Honeycutt and Barry Packard and an appreciation of the service of Clifford Curran as Sunday School superintendent.

Traditional toasts to dads and sons were given by John Surratt and his son Phil, two accordion selections were played by Master Earl Bilby and the principal address, which was most interesting, enjoyable and humorous was delivered by the Rev. Raymond Taylor of the Adrian Baptist church.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

A meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's church will be held this evening, Feb. 11, at the Parish House one week in advance of the regular date. There will be a potluck supper at 6:30 for which meat, rolls and coffee will be supplied. All ladies of the church are urged to attend and are requested to bring a dish to pass and table service. During the program to follow the dinner, reports will be given of the Diocesan Convention.

V.F.W. AUXILIARY

Mrs. Bert Warren presided at tht business meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary Wednesday evening when it was announced that there would be a District Rally Sunday, Feb. 21 at Fowlerville, the meeting being called to order at 10 a.m. in the Odd Fellows Hall.

Announcement was also made that the ladies of the auxiliary would serve the annual Post dinner Wednesday, Feb. 10. The kitchen committee for this dinner will be Mrs. Harlan Boyes, Mrs. Richard Drouillard and Mrs. Richard Eisenmenger.

On Feb. 25 the Post and Auxiliary will pay honor to their past commanders and presidents at a dinner, the committee for which will be Mrs. Ted Golat, Mrs. Gaza Kish and Mrs. Richard Drouillard.

It was reported that $51.36 was realized from the bake sale of Jan. 27, the money to be turned over to the Polio Fund.

Refreshments were served by the supper committee, Mrs. Louis Richards, Mrs. Marion Pease and Mrs. Bonnie Sniffen.

Friday evening, members of the auxiliary served a dinner for the maintenance men of the Tecumseh Products Co.

Michigan Resident Honored By DAV

Earl T. Miller of East Detroit, Mich., has been named recipient of the Disabled American Veterans Citizen Salute of the Month for outstanding assistance to disabled veterans. Miller, 50, a tavern owner, has provided without charge a meeting hall for the East Detroit Chapter of the DAV for a number of years and has continuously contributed to the Chapter service program. The DAV award is one of a series by the organization which each month honors nationally a person who has furthered the cause of disabled veterans in his or her community.

EASTERN STAR TO INITIATE MEMBERS

The regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star was well attended Thursday evening when Mrs. Blanch Camburn, Grand Committee member was a guest During the Proficiency Class conducted by Worthy Patron Owen Partridge, eleven members passed the test and received their proficiency cards.

The chapter has received an invitation from the Adrian Chapter to attend their March 1 meeting, which will commemorate the 60th anniversary of that chapter and which will also be past matron's and patron's night. Grand officers will be present to exemplify degree work. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m., reservations for which should be made with Mrs. Helen Hodges or Mrs. Owen Partridge before Feb. 24.

Announcement was made of plans for the O.E.S. rummage sale to be held Feb. 19 and 20 in the Baptist Youth House with Mrs. Thomas Gallant as general chairman. Those wishing to contribute may contact either Ralph Westgate, 188-W or Owen Partridge, 820 for pick-up.

Feb. 25 the chapter will hold a special meeting for the purpose of initiation and a final officers' practice for this meeting will be conducted Feb. 21 at the hall at 4 p.m. Officers not able to attend this practice are urged to inform the Worthy Matron.

The meeting was closed by the singing of "Prayer Perfect" by Mrs. Edward Beal, chapter soloist.

Suppose You Left No Will

What happens to Michigan farm property after the death of an owner in case he leaves no will is described in a new publication available at Lenawee County Agricultural Agent Louis Hall's office.

Special Bulletin 388, "Inheritance of Farm Property in Michigan," has suggestions that may help farm families to avoid or lessen difficulties in the inheritance, Hall says.

The bulletin describes the Michigan laws on the inheritance of farm property, by descent and by will, and certain related laws. It is authorized by Harold Ellis, of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, and Raleigh Barlowe, and E. B. Hill of Michigan State College's agricultural economics department.

The publication presents examples of how Michigan law has been interpreted in various situations in the disposition of property among heirs. It also describes the special rights of a widow in real estate, how an estate is settled without preceedings, rights and duties of heirs acquiring undivided ownership, advantages and limitations of wills, how to make out a will and other farts on the inheritance problem.

ENTERTAIN AT MEXICAN DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hadley, who returned the first of last week from a three week's trip to the southwest invited ten of their friends to an unusual dinner party Wednesday evening. While in Mexico they bought a supply of typical Mexican food as well as the usual souvenirs and this was the basis of the party dinner. The menu included tortillas, tamales and chili as well as the relishes that are served with them.

The dishes and table cloth were Mexican and the centerpiece was a huge Mexican hat in the folds of whose brim were hidden favors for the guests that also came from south of the border. As the hostess was in the costume of a Mexican senora and their many other purchases were on display, the setting was in keeping with the food.

FLUORIDATION COMPULSORY EXPERIMENTAL MASS MEDICATION IS A MENACE TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Last week's ad in the HERALD said "Let's Examine the Facts."

We on the anti-side of fluoridation never knew that water had to be "vaccinated" or "pasteurized." But they say we are uninformed.

Listed below are the authorities we get our information from. They will be top witnesses in Washington on Bill No. H-R-2341 to outlaw fluoridation nationally. They include:

County Cited For TB Control

Lenawee was one of 55 Michigan counties cited this week in a study by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. The TB association, supported by Christmas Seal proceeds, called attention to the 1952 TB death toll, in a study based on figures from the Michigan Department of Health.

Singled out in the study were 55 lower peninsula counties with populations under 100,000. Lenawee County was one of them.

These 55 counties, the association said, had only 95 TB deaths in 1952, for a collective rate of just 6.4 TB deaths per hundred thousand population.

In terms of TB cases, however, the counties reported 513 in 1952, for a rate of 34.4 new TB cases per hundred thousand population.

Comparing 1951 records with those of 1952, the association said the 55 counties had a cut of 20 per cent in the tuberculosis death rate, from 8.0 in 1951 to the low of 6.4 in 1952.

The Michigan tuberculosis Association's study showed Wayne county and the Northern Peninsula remain the state's top TB trouble spots. State-wide, there was an "exceptional" decline in TB deaths in 1952, the association said, "but only a slight cut in TB case rates."

Hospital Auxiliary Names Committees

Committees to carry on the work of the Auxiliary of Herrick Memorial hospital during 1954 were announced at the regular meeting of the organization held in Fellowship Center last evening.

Appointed by the president Mrs. Charles Mensing and read in her absence by the acting president, Mrs. Robert Fuller, they are as follows: Membership, Mesdames Luther Kempf, chairman, Elmer Buehrer, Elmer Eberhardt, Britton, Robert Manchester and Lloyd Rhein; Finance, Mesdames Harold Kelso, chairman, Gerald Driscoll, George French, W. T. Claxton, G. H. Fisher, A. W. Merz, H. W. Dillon, C. W. Hanna, L. M. Hubbard, Onsted, Joe Horvath, Neville Hart, C. Gilman, P. G. Colgrove, Richard Preston, R. H. Moore, Dale Bowen and Hoyt Whelan; Hostess committee, Mrs. W. Wotring and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson; Publicity committee, Mrs. Paul Eddy, chairman, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and Mrs. C. A. Staulter; Historian, Mrs. Paul Keyser.

The devotionals of the meeting were given by Mrs. Laine Holden. A letter was then read from Dr W. T. Claxton regarding the availability of an oxygen tent for use in Herrick Memorial hospital. In conjunction with donations from anonymous sources, the Auxiliary voted to purchase this equipment.

Mrs. William Macbeth gave a short resume of the Detroit Area Council meeting, which was held recently in Detroit and attended by the 1954 officers and the retiring president, Mrs. Hoyt Whelan.

Chairman of the program, Miss Gertrude Spaulding then introduced the X-ray technician of the hospital, Mrs. Mabel Hamlin, and laboratory technician, Ray Shelton, who described their important work. Mrs. Hamlin showed many interesting X-ray plates and Mr. Shelton told of the tests vital to proper treatment and gave the amazing total of 6,415 tests performed by him during the past year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Al Bagshaw and her committee, Mesdames George Elliott, Donald LaBounty, J. W. Beardsley, Donald Cobb and R. K. Anderson.

Cherry Has Many Uses

In February, many a hostess decides to observe George Washington's birthday — by serving cherry pie.

Cherry pie is certainly a fine traditional way of using cherries. The trouble is, it is pretty traditional the year around. So perhaps February is a good month to vary the pattern by thinking of other ways to use this fruit in your menus, suggests Pauline Paul of Michigan State College's foods and nutrition department.

The two kinds of cherries, sweet and tart red, are available now as canned, or fresh frozen.

When you use sweet cherries, you can eat them just as they come from the package—plain, or with cream, or as a topping for ice cream. You'll find that sweet cherries usually are not pitted before canning or freezing.

They can also be used in fruit salad and in fruit gelatin mixtures. To obtain more flavor, color and food value, use any cherry juice left in the container as part of the liquid for dissolving the gelatin.

Tart red cherries usually are pitted before canning or freezing. They require the addition of sugar or some other sweetener. And most people prefer them cooked.

In addition to being used for the traditional cherry pie, tart red cherries may be used for making fruit dumplings. Or they can be thickened and used as a topping for ice cream, cake or pudding.

They'll also transform that simple, water-base tapioca pudding into a very special dish. Or you might like them as a base for your next sherbet dessert.

City Will Get More For Roads

Net receipts of the State Motor Vehicle Highway Fund for the fourth quarter of the calendar year 1953 amounted to $27,084,596.71, and this money is now being distributed to the State Highway Department, counties, cities and incorporated villages of the state, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announces. Net receipts of the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund for the fourth quarter of 1952 were $23,884,962.81.

The net receipts of the motor vehicle highway fund for the first quarter of 1953 were $57,336,268.62; for the second quarter, $26,682,633.20, and for the third quarter, $27,370,543.99, which added to the fourth quarter receipts makes a total of $138,974,042.54 for the entire calendar year 1953. This compares to $125,554,873.44 in net collections for the year 1952, an increase of $13,419,169.10, or 9.6 per cent.

Under the distribution formula, the State Highway Department will receive $11,917,222.55 as its share of the fourth quarter of 1953 Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections; counties will receive $10,021,300.78 and cities and incorporated villages will receive $5,146,073.38.

Lenawee county's share is $127,471.17. Tecumseh's share is $4,917.50.

Girl Scouts Note Ten Active Troops

REPORT 60 BROWNIES AND 97 GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scout Association held its February meeting in the scout cabin last Wednesday morning with the president, Mrs. T. Rentschler, presiding.

Twenty-three officers, leaders, assistant leaders, and committeewomen were present to discuss the affairs of the association. Anyone wishing Girl Scout calendars may secure them from Mrs. Victor Peterson. Mrs. Lyle Grigg reported that the Girl Scout cookie sales are splendid and will continue for seven more Saturdays in the United Savings Bank, thereby giving each troop a chance to sell.

Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, Mrs. Julius Vincze and Mrs. Richard Duffin were appointed as a nominating committee in preparation for the election of officers in April.

Mrs. Wallace Rutherford, registrar, reported that there are ten active troops representing sixty Brownies and ninety-seven Girl Scouts in Tecumseh this year.

Troop 2 which disbanded last June decided to give the money left in its troop treasury to the Joyce Andrews Memorial Swimming Pool Fund according to their former leader, Joyce Warner.

All Intermediate Girl Scouts and Junior Hi Scouts will be guests of Troop 11 Girl Scout Cadets on Monday, Feb. 22, at 3:30 p.m. in the social room of the Methodist church to observe "Thinking Day." The Cadets are planning an interesting program about the Girl Scouts and Guides in foreign countries emphasizing their cultures and gifts to the world.

At this time the girls will present their offerings to the Juliette Low Fund which helps to promote World Friendship.

The Brownies will observe "Thinking Day" in their individual troop meetings. Mrs. Gerald Griffin will act as chairman of a Girl Scout roller skating party which will be held early in April when the girls will be guests of the association.

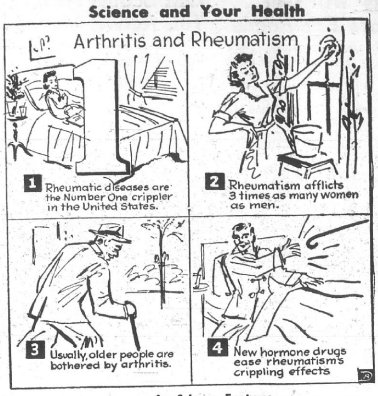
Science and Your Health



by Science Features

Rheumatism and arthritis are two different diseases that are often confused by many people. They are both members of the rheumatic disease family — the country's number one crippler.

About 7½ million people are affected in varying degrees, according to the Public Health Service. They lose an average of 550 million dollars in wages and spend 100 million for medical care annually.

Rheumatoid arthritis, popularly called rheumatism, and osteo-arthritis, or degenerative joint disease, commonly called arthritis, account for 70 per cent of the rheumatic disease cases. The causes and therefore the cures for both of these diseases are not known. Doctors recommend treatments that consist of rest and freedom from mental and physical strain, balanced diets, some exercise, heat applications and, in the case of rheumatism, a new hormone drug.

Rheumatism is the more serious of the two diseases, sometimes resulting in deformity and crippling. It afflicts three times as many women as men, from 20 to 50 years of age. Rheumatism usually starts in the joints of the fingers, wrists, knees and feet and is symptomized by general fatigue, muscular stiffness and pain.

Causing inflammation and swelling of the tissues between the joints, rheumatism produces stiffening and solidity between the bones. Any motion then causes pain and the muscles, as a protective measure, tend to immobilize the joint.

Rheumatism was found to respond dramatically to hormone drugs such as Cortil. Clinical reports show that people who were bedridden and unable to move their joints have been able to hop out of bed and move normally again, when treated with this drug. A hydrocortisone compound, it urges the adrenal glands in the body to release hormones that relieve the inflamed tissues and permit movement of the joint.

Arthritis is one of the oldest diseases, and the most commonly known member of this group. The bones of the dinosaurs show the telltale signs of arthritis and the ancient human, the Java Ape Man, also had symptoms.

This joint disease affects aging people and almost 9 out of 10 over 60 years old have one form or another. It usually damages the weight-bearing joints such as the hips. Chronic irritation or the wearing away of the joints and the degeneration of the cartilage and fibers cause pain and stiffness but never lead to disability.

Monday Club Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the Monday Club was held in the parlors of the Methodist church Monday afternoon and adoption of the report of the nominating committee resulted in election of these officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara; first vice president, Mrs. Herbert Murphy; second vice president, Mrs. Robert Bonner; recording secretary, Miss Lillian Cannon; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Floyd Bryan and treasurer, Mrs. George Bunch. The three new members of the Executive Board are Mrs. Claire Beland, Mrs. Jennie Satterly and Miss Bel Plummer.

A report was made of the election of Raymond Puffer as the club-sponsored student to enter the contest for a musical scholarship. Mrs. O'Hara told of the meeting of the County Federation of Women's Clubs which was attended by five Monday Club members, and of the tour made by the group through the new county jail.

The campaign for funds for Radio Free Europe was discussed and Mrs. W. G. Waldron was appointed as receiver of donations which will be turned over to the local postmaster. Mrs. Truman Rentschler briefly described the activities of the Over Fifty Club and cordially invited all interested to attend.

Mrs. Rentschler, as program leader, then introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Belle Farley Murray, who is connected with the extension department of the U. of M. and who has been an instructor at Cranbrook school and elsewhere in religious work. Her topic was "Old Wisdom For New Days" and the theme was the responsibility of the older generation for the development of youth of today.

Tea was poured at the close of the meeting at a table decorated in the Valentine motif, with Mrs. O'Hara and Mrs. Delmar Finch presiding.

Statement of the American Medical Association

The Council on Pharmacy and Chemistry and the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association, on November 12, 1951, issued a joint statement regarding the fluoridation of community water supplies. In the opinion of both Councils the addition of one part per million of fluoride to drinking water under approved methods of control is harmless.

DO YOU BELIEVE YOUR DOCTOR??

The statement printed here in its entirety is the official statement of the American Medical Association on fluoridation. This association includes over 200,000 physicians throughout the country. All of our local physicians are members of this association and it is recognized as the most authoritative source of information on medical matters in the country. These are the men in whom we place our confidence when we are sick and, as you can see, they definitely state that fluoridation of water is harmless.

Unfortunately for the layman, many professions use the title of Doctor within their groups. Some legitimate and sincere people, the members of the clergy for instance, are often referred to as Doctors of Divinity or Dr. for short. In fact, colleges and universities grant Doctors degrees in economics, teaching, mathematics or any other field of advanced study. The fact that a great many "Doctors" have little or no knowledge of medicine is usually overlooked by most people. Unfortunately some quacks and nostrum peddlers also like to refer to themselves as "Dr." even though they may never have completed the sixth grade. Further, some medical doctors or dentists also have been denied membership in their Association for malpractice or other reason. The last two groups plus a very few of the others are most likely to use the term with the intent of deceiving. The "authorities" quoted in backing up most of the anti-fluoridation committee's propaganda certainly belong in this category. None of them can be considered outstanding nationally.

Obviously, most anyone may call himself "Doctor" and confusion frequently results. Thus, one must be careful when accepting the word of a "Dr." on medical matters unless you know that he is actually qualified to give an opinion. The only way for the layman to determine a bona fide Doctor of Medicine is, therefore, his membership in the American Medical Association or in the case of a Dentist, the A.D.A. In the final analysis the question of whether or not fluoridation is dangerous must be left to the men who devote their lives to protecting our health. When they can make an unqualified endorsement such as the statement above, we KNOW that it is safe.

We trust the plumber to fix the faucet, the carpenter to build a house and the mechanic to fix our car — let's trust the doctors and dentists when they say the fluoridation is safe. They are far more qualified than any other members of the community, no matter how sincere their motives, to advise on the effects of fluoridation to health. If you believe your doctor knows what he is doing when you are sick, you certainly should believe him when he assures you that fluoridation is harmless. That's his business!!!

Is That So!

By Miss Clara Waldron

In itself, the house was no different from the others in the "development." Its picture window was not as large as some and its TV aerial was of the most simple variety. And yet it caught and held the eye that found little of interest in the others. All because of its little, white fence. It was not elaborate, just a fence, and the sand pile in a far corner said it had a practical purpose—the corraling of one or more toddlers. Yet it gave that commonplace, little house a sheltered, cherished look that brought regret for the passing of the day when a man's yard as well as his house was his castle.

That day, when practically every house, country or town in this community had its fence was really not so long ago. Our very first houses were fenced as a matter of course. They were of rails or logs, high and stout to protect the livestock from prowling bears and wolves. In a letter he wrote at the end of his first two weeks in the settlement, Musgrove Evans mentions fence building as part of his activity, so we know that first log home was protected. The second town meeting "resolved" to pay a bounty of $2 for all wolf scalps taken "inside the town" and even a few years later there is record that a hunter, by the name of Muddgett, was killed by a bear. Those fences were not for ornament.

Neither were most of those of later years. They, however, were for protection against rather than for livestock. Nearly every household then provided its own milk and pork supply and the family cow and frequently the growing shoats were turned loose to graze, at first in the surrounding woods and later on the village "commons." Early householders had an "ear mark," registered with the local pound master, by which they could identify their stock.

Even as late as the 1860's cows were still a menace to lawns and gardens. The herd, led by a wiley old red mulley, who could spot an open gate half a mile away, carried their depredations far afield. Farmers in a wide radius trained their dogs to watch for the "town cows" and send them home.

When public indignation had finally ended the bovine invasion, fences were still considered necessary and desirable. Minutes of the village council record the building of fences around the school grounds, the public parks and the cemetery and the Herald speaks approvingly of citizens who have "improved their property by the erection of a new fence."

It must have been during the Civil War that the owner of the Adams-Curtiss house, in a burst of patriotism, painted the pickets of his fence in groups of three—red, white and blue—with a green base board. Fortunately most people were satisfied with plainly painted pickets or horizontal boards with an entrance through a wooden gate or a stile.

Wrought iron lent distinction to some of the larger homes, especially on Chicago street. One or two of the stone posts still remain that held the iron fence about the Mulvaney house when it was the home of Dr. Fisher.

The one that lingers most pleasantly however in the memories of the older citizens enclosed that most charming of all Tecumseh houses, the Bidwell house which was razed to make way for the Ford garage. With its porches, upper gallery and balconies all of lacy ironwork, its curving flagstone walks and fountain, it lacked only tropic vegetation to have all the atmosphere of old New Orleans.

Fashions and opinions have a way of changing and in a few years we find the Herald again commending a progressive citizen this time for "improving his property by removing the fence." Now a fence is rare indeed. But as long as there are flowers and shrubbery, dogs and children, there is truth in the old country saying that "good fences make good neighbors."

WESTMINSTER LEAGUE

Mrs. James Barton with the assistance of Mrs. Byron Goodman and Mrs. L. S. Fogelsong entertained the Westminster League of the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. Guests present in addition to twenty-five members, were Mrs. Robert King and Mrs. Richard Garter. Plans were completed for the League's Valentine Tea, an annual event which will be held in Fellowship Center Feb. 11. Mrs. Roger Linger and Mrs. Ben Gillis are co-chairmen for this year's tea. The hostesses served refreshments in keeping with the Valentine season.

Library

Miss Elizabeth Fargo, a student at the high school, is assisting the librarian since the departure of Miss Patricia O'Brien for the University.

Before she left "Pat" expressed herself in this fashion about the institution she was leaving—

No ivy entwines its stately brick wall;
No head of Minerva over its door;
No cornice, no spirals, no towers tall;
But learning and knowledge, all that and more.
For here there is laughter, friendship and joy;
A helping hand given to all who ask,
A silencing hand to the boisterous boy
And often a girl is taken to task;
But silence is not the major rule,
Just "respect the rights of your fellow men";
The quiet of church, the bustle of school;
But it helps fashion adults in the end;
What could this contradictory place be?
Believe me — it's the public library!

MRS. FRANK BATES BURIED MONDAY

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Collins Funeral Home for Winnifred Wilson Bates, widow of Frank Bates, whose death occurred Friday morning at Herrick Memorial hospital. She had been a patient there since Jan. 1.

Mrs. Bates was born in Franklin township, March 17, 1879, the daughter of the late Andrew and Harriott Kimball Wilson. She graduated from Tecumseh high school in 1898 and taught school for several years before her marriage to Mr. Bates. They made their home in Montana for fifteen years moving later to Ramsay and Bessemer in northern Michigan, where Mr. Bates was superintendent of schools.

After her husband's death, she returned to Tecumseh to make her home with her sister, Miss Vesta Wilson and assist in the care of their mother.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church, the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Order of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Bates is survived by one daughter, Betty, wife of Lt. Col. Byrd Sergent of Fort Leavenworth, Kan.; one son, William and two grandchildren, Lorna and Charles Bates all of Grass Valley, Calif.; three brothers, Sidney Wilson of Tecumseh, Orton of Trenton and Howard of Ridgeway and two sisters, Mrs. Anna Camburn, Saline and Miss Vesta Wilson, Tecumseh.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, a son, Eugene; a brother, Thurman, and a sister, Mrs. Helen Hill.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. George Walworth and burial was in the family lot in Brookside cemetery.

Longer Days In February May Mean Cold

February's longer days may mean colder ones, at least for those who believe in the old prediction, "as the days lengthen the cold strengthens."

And, according to Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate professor of astronomy, February's days will be steadily increasing in length but warmer temperatures will not necessarily result.

She points out that "for several weeks after the winter solstice more heat is lost at night than can be replaced by the low altitude sun during the shorter-than-average days."

Among the planets, Professor Losh explains, Jupiter will be bright in the southern sky in early evening, setting about three hours after midnight. It will appear about twice as bright as Sirius, brightest star in the whole sky and to which a line through the three belt stars of Orion points. She adds that "on the night of February 11 the moon will pass about three degrees above Jupiter."

On February 24, just after midnight in the south of east, Professor Losh states, Saturn will rise below Spica and about an hour later Mars will be seen, passing about five degrees north of the red star Antares, in Scorpius. The astronomer explains that Mercury most difficult of all naked-eye planets to observe, should be visible during the second week of February, located just after sunset above the western horizon.

Another attraction around sunset will be the constellation Leo which will climb over the horizon just a little north of east. It will be easily recognized by the "Sickle," a group of six stars shaped like a harvest sickle or question mark.

Professor Losh explains that a line through the Big Dipper bowl stars, next to the handle, will lead to Regulus, Leo's brightest star. It is named "King Star" because in early times it was thought to rule affairs of heaven. Seventy light years from Earth, Regulus is about one hundred times as bright as our sun.

According to the professor, "the stars in the Sickle form the head and forequarters of the Lion while a right triangle to the East forms the hindquarters." The triangle's brightest star, Denebola, is located at the tip of the Lion's tail.

The constellation's name dates back to the early Egyptians who feared the vicious lions roaming the Nile's bank at flood time. Because the sun moved through the constellation at this time, the stellar group was given the name it still carries, Professor Losh states.

MOVIE HAS SPECIAL INTEREST FOR MISS DERBY

When Esther Williams swandives across the silver screen at the local movie house there will be at least one rapt watcher in the audience. But it will be the setting and background of the dive that will be of interest to Miss Letha Derby of Tecumseh. For the picture has for its locale beautiful Cypress Gardens in Florida and Cypress Gardens are situated near the Derby home in Winter Haven.

The Derbys feel a personal interest in the gardens for two of the talented girls who flash about its lagoons and canals on water skis or pose gracefully against tropical foliage in ruffled hoop skirts, lived with their mother in the other half of the Derby duplex.

They were Nancy and "Butch" Stilley and any one who saw the wonders of Cypress Gardens on Cinorama would recognize them at once.

The Derbys have not been in Winter Haven for several years but their home and their interest is still there.

Boy Scouts Hold Court Of Honor

Boy Scout Troop 73 and their parents met last Wednesday evening at the scout cabin for a Court of Honor. After the opening ceremonies conducted by the scouts, Francis Packard, Explorer advisor of the troop, inducted new scout Richard V. Smith into the troop in a candle-lighted ceremony. He then introduced Richard Smith Sr. as the new Scoutmaster to begin his duties March 1, and announced the following new committeemen: Charles Stephenson, Claire Rozelle, Aden Mead, David Dick and Chester Beach and institutional representative, Robert Tam.

Office and Patrol badges were then presented as follows: Assistant Scoutmaster, Bruce Packard; Junior assistant Scoutmaster, Barry Packard; Serior Patrol Leader, Eddie Rozelle; Beaver Patrol leader, James Lambes; assistant, Richard Stephenson; Hawk Patrol leader, Jerry Irelan; assistant, James Beach; Rattlesnake Patrol leader, Robert Dick; assistant, James Hoat; Explorer senior crew leader, Barry Packard; leader of crew 1, Bruce Packard; assistant, Leonard Weaver; leader crew 2, Anthony Kasik; assistant, Ivan Halberstadt.

Service Stars were presented to Teddy Kempf, one year scout star; Harold Underwood, two year scout star; Bruce Packard two year service star; three year scout stars, Raymond Sluyter and Donald Martin; one year Explorer star, Leonard Weaver; two year adult leader star, Francis Packard. Attendance awards, one year pin, Eddie Rozelle; pin and two and three year bars Barry Packard; two year bars, Francis Packard.

Tenderfoot badges, second class were then presented to Richard Smith Jr., Robert Dick, Arlen Fletcher, Anthony Kasik, James Lambes, Roger Meads, Richard Stephenson, and Tommy Tressler; first class to James Lambes; Exp. apt., Barry Packard; merit badges, home repairs, Tommy Tressler; firemanship and safety, Leonard Weaver; first aid and stamp collecting, Eddie Rozle; citizenship in the home and in the community and nature, Barry Packard; star rank to Eddie Rozelle and life rank to Barry Packard.

The court of honor closed with a prayer by Leonard Weaver and the Scoutmaster benediction.

Monday evening the Green Bar, made up of Junior leaders, met at Jerry Irelan's home for a training course for junior leaders conducted by Bruce Packard. It is hoped to train more leaders and so enlarge the Scout progrem.

The troop has completed its fire extinguisher sale project and wish to thank all who made it a success. Half the profits will be used for troop equipment and expenses and the rest will be used for a camp fund, each scout being pro-rated for his participation.

SERVICES FRIDAY FOR MRS. DEYO TALLMAN

Lola Wolfe Tallman, wife of Deyo Tallman, died Tuesday evening at Herrick Memorial hospital after several years of failing health.

Mrs. Tallman was born in Elkhart County, Ind., June 1, 1885, moving in 1914 to Hudson, Mich. where she married Mr. Tallman. They lived in Hudson and in the Detroit vicinity until April 1942, when they moved to Tecumseh, where they have since made their home.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church, of the Women's Association and of the Florence Weld Mission Guild.

Mrs. Tallman is survived by her husband, several brothers and sisters, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Funeral services for Mrs. Tallman will be held at the Collins Funeral Home Friday afternoon at 2:30, and will be conducted by the Rev. George Walworth, with burial in Brookside cemetery.

SCOUT TROOPS ATTEND CHURCH SERVICES

Scout Sunday was fully observed in Tecumseh. Two groups, Boy Scout Troop No. 4 recently organized and led by Raymond Shelton and Cub Pack No. 73, with Joseph Naugle as Cub Master, attended morning service in a body at the Presbyterian church where the Rev. George Walworth signified the occasion with a sermon for youth.

Boy Scout Troop 73, led by Francis Packard. and Cub Pack 4, whose Cub Master is R. P. Radant were guests at the Baptist church where they read the Scripture in unison and Barry Packard followed with the Scouter's Prayer Service. Forty-two scouts participated and as part of the service the Rev. B. O. Bashore presented Barry Packard with the God and Country Scout Award.

At the close of the sermon, Eli Dickerson of Adrian, a member of the Wolverine Council, spoke on the need of adult leaders in the scouting movement and the satisfying rewards such service brought.

JoAnn Oliver And George Ruhl Wed

Miss JoAnn Oliver and George Arthur Ruhl were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony by the Rev. B. O. Bashore, Sunday afternoon, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ruhl, 214 Bidwell St.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oliver of Elizabethton, Tenn., chose Miss Betty Carpenter of Detroit for her maid of honor. Miss Oliver wore a powder blue suit with a purple orchid corsage and Miss Carpenter's suit was also powder blue while her corsage was of pink camelias.

Douglas Aylesworth of Tecumseh assisted Mr. Ruhl as best man.

Miss Joan Conlin of Tipton registered the one hundred guests at the reception which followed the ceremony in the Ruhl home and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, Mrs. Harold L. Ruhl, Miss Virginia Gregory, Mrs. Harold Easton and Mrs. Pauline Little of Elizabethton assisted with the serving. A three-tiered wedding cake was a feature of the refreshment table.

Mrs. Albert Oliver wore a blue suit with a corsage of white carnations for her daughter's wedding while Mrs. Ruhl's dress was of aqua lace over taffeta, with which she wore pink carnations.

The bride was educated in Elizabethton, while the groom is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and is employed at Easton's Friendly Service. Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl left for a week's trip through the southern states, returning the bride's mother and aunt to Elizabethton. On their return they will live in Tecumseh.

School Board Authorizes Vote On Waring District Annexation

Election Set For April 5; Adjust Teachers' Salaries

Members of the board of education of the Tecumseh Public Schools have authorized a vote by the qualified school electors of Tecumseh District No. 7 to decide whether Tecumseh District No. 9, Fractional, called the Waring District, shall be annexed. The election is set for April 5.

Supt. James McDowell reported that permission has been granted by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the local board of a unanimous decision by their school electors to annex to the Tecumseh Public Schools.

Before this annexation can be consummated, there must be a majority vote in its favor by the school electors of the local school district.

Further detailed information, he said, will be presented from time to time before the election is held.

Members of the board of education also adjusted the teachers' salary schedule.

The board voted to adjust the salary schedule which was adopted three years ago so that the minimums would be close to the median minimums throughout the state as reported by the Michigan Education Association. The state median minimums for elementary and secondary teachers are about $3,000 per year. Because it is becoming increasingly difficult to obtain additional teachers as Tecumseh continues to grow in population and because living costs are high in Tecumseh, the board decided to adjust the present schedule upward to the following minimums and maximums.

Teachers with at least four years of college training and holding an A.B. or B.S. degree will begin at $3300 and reach a maximum of $4750 in 11 years. Teachers with at least five years of college training and holding at least a master's degree will begin at $3500 and reach a maximum of $4950 in 11 years. The board of education considers this policy of a uniform single salary schedule significant in obtaining and holding fine teachers for Tecumseh children.

The principals together with the superintendent presented the staff for 1954-1955 for consideration and discussion following this discussion with their unanimous approval. Neville Hart again will be secondary school principal, Earl Greene, elementary principal and supervisor, Wayne Kaiser Patterson school principal, and James McDowell will remain as superintendent of schools.

The board discussed a letter from the State Superintendent of Schools concerning the annexation of Tecumseh District No. 1 Fr. to Tecumseh Public Schools and voted unanimously to postpone proceedings until the Catholic School in Tecumseh is completed, the matter of new subdivisions in Tecumseh is investigated, enrollments and the necessary rooms to house the children are known and Tecumseh District No. 1 Fr. has endeavored to solve its own problem at least, temporarily with the understanding that the local board may consider annexation at some future date.

Tecumseh Public Schools are already overcrowded Supt. McDowell said, and the Culbertson district children are not now attending Tecumseh Public Schools as are the Waring District children whose district is closed. There would be approximately fifty children from the Culbertson District who should be housed in Tecumseh if the district is annexed.

The leasehold agreements as presented by the city to the board for signatures were approved. These involved the "Military Square" or "High School Playground" and the land upon which the swimming pool is located. The board also voted to deed the extension of VanBuren street leading to the Patterson School, which was purchased by the board from the Nasers, to the city.

Paul Clauda and Wallace Whiting visited the board to request transportation to the Catholic School by local public school busses for Catholic children living in Tecumseh District No. 7.

Following discussion, the board voted to permit such transportation provided the Catholic School paid the per capita cost for 1953-1954 of approximately $25 per child per year. The state law says this provision may be made since Tecumseh school bus receipts from state funds would be reduced by this amount.

Since there have already been requests to rent the gym at the new Patterson School and the new high school gym even though it as yet has not been completed, the board decided upon the fol-

An event of the open house will be the dedication of flags given by the VFW and Auxiliary for all the rooms.

Polio Drive Nets $4786

Contributions to the polio drive which officially ended Monday total $4786.47. Of this total $4340.58 came from Tecumseh and Tecumseh township and $445.89 came from Raisin township.

Although the drive officially has closed, contributions still may be made to the Lenawee County Chapter headquarters in Adrian. Contributions may be taken or sent to Paul Ahleman.

A slim book of poems was published last Saturday by Arlene Hunt Handy entitled "Inspiring Poems." Dedicated to her little six year old daughter, Diane, who has been a victim of polio since early in 1953, many of the verses it contains were animated by her love for the child and she plans to donate all the profits from the sale of the book to the polio fund.

Mrs. Handy is the wife of Clare Handy of Comfort Road in Raisin, a graduate of Adrian high school and attended Siena Heights College. She is now employed by the navy department. The book, which is Mrs. Handy's first, will be on sale at Hanna's Insurance office and at other points in the county.

Mrs. Rolland Reister, director of the Lenawee Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, reports that contributions have been received from the following organizations in Tecumseh and Tecumseh township:

Fifteen Year Club of Tecumseh Products, $45; Tecumseh Conservation League, $15; Veterans of Foreign Wars, $20; Tecumseh Study Club, $15; O.E.S. Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, $10; Ladies Auxiliary, Fraternal Order of Eagles, $5; Lanning School District, $41.20; Waring School District, $30; donations from Tecumseh Products, $13.72; Exchange Club of Tecumseh, $100.

Tecumseh Garden Club, $25; Reliable Circle, Methodist Woman's Society, $22; Guild Circle, Methodist Woman's Society, $10; Westminster League, Presbyterian church, $50; Presbyterian League, $10; Daughters of St. Peter's church, $15; Lyster League, Episcopal church, $10; Friends Sunday School Offering, $120.07; Tecumseh PTA, $50; Baptist Women's Society, $25.

Tecumseh high school and elementary grades, $434.70; V.F.W. Auxiliary, $50; American Legion Auxiliary, $50; Odd Fellows and Rebeccas, $30; Tecumseh Lodge No. 69, $50; Royal Neighbors, $12.50; Josephine H. Hall No. 49, Pythian Sisters, $12.52; Cannisters, $439.94; Tecumseh Monday Club, $57.43; Tecumseh Music Club, $5; Girl Scout Troop No. 7, $13.01.

Girl Scout Troop No. 17, $5; Coins sold at Tecumseh Products, $790; by Eagles, $100; by Tecumseh Club, $67; by American Legion Auxiliary, $37; by V.F.W., $16; extra sales, $7; coffee day, $74.23; gasoline sales, $72.55; wheel chair, $26.96; Mothers March, $1357.75.

Total of the funds in Raisin township under the direction of Mrs. Earl Bennington and Mrs. Rollin Fairbanks was $400. Additional contributions in Raisin township are as follows: Holloway Ladies Aid $27; Holloway PTA, $14.77; Raisin township, $2.12; and miscellaneous, $2.

CHIMNEY BURNS OUT

Firemen were called out Monday about 2 p.m. when the chimney on the Newburg School in Clinton township burned out. There was no damage.

School was in session at the time.

Indians Edged By Morenci, 34 to 32

Tecumseh's Indians dropped a non-league basketball game Tuesday night to Morenci, 34-32. The Junior Indians won their ball game, 58-47.

Morenci was off to a lead in the first quarter, 9-8, increasing it to 20-15 at the half and the Indians almost closed the gap in the third and fourth quarters but couldn't quite master enough points to pull the game out of the fire.

Morenci grabbed a 9-7 edge in the third period but the Indians outscored the visitors 10-5 in the final quarter.

Bill Benham was the big gun for the Indians with 16 points. Van Hazel led Morenci with 10.

Dickinson, Spangler and Larned led the well-balanced junior varsity attack in the preliminary.

Friday night Tecumseh plays Clinton here in a non-league game. The first game gets underway at 7 p.m.

POST OFFICE POSITION REMAINS UNFILLED

According to J. A. Connor, director of the seventh U. S. Civil Service region, his office has received insufficient applications for the position of substitute clerk-carrier for duty at Tecumseh. Residence restrictions are therefore being lifted. Applications will be accepted from persons regardless of their residence, who indicate willingness to accept appointment. The job pays $1.61½ per hour.

A written test is required of all applicants.

Application blanks and full information may be obtained at the local post office.

Interested persons should complete card Form 5000-AB and mail it to the Director, Seventh U. S. Civil Service Region, New Post Office Building, Chicago 7, Ill. Applications will be accepted in that office until the close of business April 15.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

Mrs. Helen Miller and Miss Myrtie Kempf of the Herrick Memorial hospital staff attended the state conference on nursing held in the Kellog Center in East Lansing last Thursday and Friday.

O. W. LUEDEKE, Muskegon District Manager for the General Telephone Company of Michigan, has been transferred to Tecumseh as Tecumseh District Manager.

He succeeds Ernest G. Greene, who has been transferred to Muskegon as local manager there.

Mr. Leudeke began his career with the company in Oct. 1939, as a plantman at Elkton. Two years later he was transferred to Imlay City, and in 1942 went to Grand Ledge, where he later became assistant district manager.

In July, 1946, he became manager of the company's Western District, with offices in Muskegon, and in Nov., 1951, he was named Muskegon District Manager.

As soon as he finds living accommodations, he will be joined by his wife and two children.

Products Plant On Coast Burns

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Emeryville, California, service plant of the Tecumseh Products Co. Monday night.

The plant employs 25 persons who repair refrigeration units for west coast customers.

Damages to the equipment and inventory owned by the Tecumseh Products Co. were estimated at $150,000 which are covered by insurance.

Register For Adult Education

Registration will be held Monday evening, Feb. 22, from 7 to 9 in Room 5 of the high school for the Tecumseh Public Schools adult evening classes.

Oil Painting classes start on Thursday, Feb. 25, for an eight weeks period providing the minimum enrollment of 15 is reached.

All Monday and Thursday classes start on March 1 for a period of six weeks.

The round and square dancing class starts March 2 for a period of eight weeks.

The recreation classes are for a period of eight weeks and will start as follows: Monday, March 15 — Men's recreation; Wednesday, March 17 — women's recreation; Thursday, March 18 — men and women's recreation.

See the schedule of classes and enrollment fee on Page 10.

GIRL SCOUT CADETS PLAN THINKING DAY

Girl Scout Cadets of Troop 11, under the leadership of Mrs. Wallace Rutherford will be hostesses to the junior-hi and intermediate Girl Scouts on Thinking Day, Monday, Feb. 22, in the social room of the Methodist church after school. Leaders, assistant leaders and committee women of these troops are invited also.

During the program, the cadets will hold an informal discussion on the work of the Girl Scouts around the world stressing the value of foreign pen pals and international music. Guests will participate in the program by contributing to the Juliette Low fund which is for the purpose of promoting world friendship. Appropriate refreshments will be served.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN WASHINGTON

A former resident of the Tecumseh area who had attained a position of authority in the field of botany and seed production, died recently in Washington, D. C., at the age of ninety.

He was Fred H. Hillman whose family at one time lived west of town on a farm where they specialized in small fruits and peaches. Mr. Hillman received his M. S. degree at Michigan Agricultural College in 1890 and from 1901 until his retirement in 1933 worked wtih the seed laboratory of the Dept. of Agriculture in Washington.

A sister of Mr. Hillman's, Grace Hillman lived in Tecumseh for several years after the rest of the family had gone elsewhere. He is survived by his widow, Marion Miller Hillman, one son and three daughters.

Wording Is Changed On Fluoridation Ballot

"Shall the fluoridation of the City of Tecumseh water supply be continued?"

This will be the wording on the ballots for the special election set for Monday, March 8, when city electors will decide the fluoridation question.

In a resolution unanimously passed by the council Monday night, the original resolution was revised leaving out the words "in accordance with State Health Department recommendations."

Councilmen revised the wording of the ballot upon the advise of city attorney J. C. Beardsley.

Councilmen in their resolution also stated "the election to be held on March 8 should not contain any statement on the ballot which is in any way biased."

The remainder of the resolution, offered by Harold Kelso and seconded by H. H. Hanna, revised by the council Monday night follows:

"In revising the question on the ballot, which is to be presented to the voters, the City Council would like the citizens of Tecumseh to know that on August 13, 1952, permit number 10043 was issued by the Michigan Department of Health, Division of Engineering, approving the installation of fluoride equipment in accordance with information contained in a proposal submitted on August 7, 1952.

"Also, in a statement of policy on the fluoridation of public water supply issued by the Michigan Department of Health in July, 1950, the following excerpt is taken:

"'From the evidence available to date, the Michigan Department of Health is now in a position to recommend the application of fluoride to public water supplies which are deficient in this element. Many water supplies in Michigan naturally contain some fluoride but few contain it in sufficient amount to reduce dental decay. Before a public water supply is treated with fluoride, it is necessary that the Michigan Department of Health be informed, and approval by a medical and dental profession is desirable'.

"With the above information on file in the City Clerk's office, the voters of the City of Tecumseh are hereby informed that the fluoridation of the City water supply was made with the full knowledge and approval of the Michigan Department of Health."

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Since 1887 the first Friday of Lent has been designated as World Day of Prayer.

Tecumseh's observance of this day, which has been dedicated this year to the cause of world peace, will take place in the Baptist church sanctuary Friday, March 5, beginning at 2 p.m.

Those of all Christian faiths who attend this meeting will be joining with 20,000 other communities in the United States and more than 100 countries of the world.

This year's service was written by a woman of India, Miss Sarah Chakko, one of the Christian leaders of that country. It has been translated and adapted to use in every area and in addition to prayers for peace it contains the theme of hope for the end of racial tensions.

Police Had Busy Month

Tecumseh policemen answered 17 accident reports and received 22 complaints during the month of January.

The monthly report of Chief George Kilbourn which was submitted to the council Monday night also showed 65 traffic summonses, 21 meter violations, eight arrests and six liquor inspections.

The report also showed this revenue collected: traffic fines and costs, $175.80; meter violations, $6; and meter collections, $452.90.

MRS. STAULTER APPOINTED SECRETARY FOR C OF C

Mrs. Edna Staulter is the new secretary for the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce.

She succeeds Miss Shirley Van Hook who resigned last week.

Plans were discussed and formed last Saturday night for the coming St. Elizabeth's School building fund campaign. This third organizational meeting was held in St. Elizabeth's Parish Hall, Tecumseh.

A meeting will be held Saturday at the Parish Hall to kick off the special gift drive to be held the weeks of Feb. 21 and 28.

Present plans call for a modern building with rooms that will accommodate students through the sixth or the eighth grades. The building will have an auditorium and cafeteria.

Education and instruction of the students will be handled by the order of the Sisters of St. Dominic of Adrian. In order to house the Sisters, plans are underway to construct a convent adjacent to the school.

These Catholic Nuns who give tirelessly of their time in guidance and instructions will need suitable housing facilities and it is this part of the building fund campaign that St. Elizabeth's Pastor, Father Thomas J. Collins enlists the aid of all professional men and business firms in the community in the special gifts fund campaign.

Father Collins is confident that they will be eager to encourage the building of a school and convent in this fast growing community which needs such additional facilities so badly.

Initial response has been spontaneous and gratifying but Wallace B. Whiting, chairman of the campaign points out that the success of the drive is dependent on the usual fine cooperation and assistance from the entire community.

"This means those whose children will use this school as well as those whose interests will be better served by the influx of the many new families that will be attracted to this community because of the additional value that will be reflected in all property as soon as the $150,000 grade school and convent have been erected will benefit.

"This opportunity, therefore, is being erected to all who may want to assist St. Elizabeth in this worthy campaign.

The building fund committee, captains and alternates are being instructed by the able Mr. G. F. Lenzi of Utica, Michigan, who is a close friend of Father Thomas J. Collins.

The general committee of the St. Elizabeth building fund has adopted a very attractive window display for business firms who donate to this fund.

The general drive among the parishioners will be officially opened Saturday night, March 6, at 7:30 p.m. when all solicitors, officers, their families and friends will assemble in St. Elizabeth's church for special prayers for the success of this campaign. Following these services, the solicitors will assemble in St. Elizabeth's Parish Hall where they will make their own pledges and literature for the drive.

Cub Scouts Hold Blue-Gold Banquets

PACK NO. 4

Cub Scout pack 4 held its annual Blue and Gold banquet Monday evening at the Baptist Youth House. There were 150 cubs and parents present and the theme of their program was in keeping with the Valentine season.

Invocation was spoken by the Rev. B. O. Bashore and Den 9 had charge of the opening ceremonies.

David Grigg told the story of Valentine's Day and Den 4 danced a minuet. Announcement was made of the committee meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rutherford on March 8 and the committee named for that month is Mrs. Max Smith, Mrs. Maynard Lucas and Mrs. George McCombs. The Scout Jamboree at the Adrian Armory Feb. 27 was also mentioned.

The February awards made at this time, with David Rutherford in charge were: Bobcat pin, Billy Parheu; Wolf badges, David Blanden, David Crosby, Ronnie Baxter and Kent Lucas; Lion badges, Robert Fisher, Kenneth Beevers and Billy LaPrad; two year service stars, Ronnie Dixon, John Britton and David Grigg; gold and silver arrow under wolf, Allen Hizer, Michael Deaner, Jack Rutherford, Craig Rosacrans and Gary Honeycutt; Wolf badge with one gold and three silver arrows, Larry Eaton; one gold and three silver arrows under wolf, Robert Wilbar; Bear badge with one gold and three silver arrows, John Britton.

Billy LaPrad has finished his Cubbing and was recognized as a Scout by the assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 73.

Den 9 won "Cubby" for the month by an attendance of 100%.

Streamers and candles decorated the tables, two being decorated in blue and gold and two in red and white.

PACK NO. 73

Cub Scout Pack No. 73 held its annual Blue and Gold banquet Monday night in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church with 150 persons attending.

John Saling showed the Cubs, parents and friends cartoon films.

Before dinner a snake dance was held so table decorations of each den could be seen. Den 1 had a Valentine theme; Den 3 had "Forward on Liberty's Team" as its theme; Den 8 had Washington's birthday as its theme; and Den 11, in recognition of the 44th anniversary of Scouting, had a blue and gold birthday cake as its theme.

Ry Schlegel gave the invocation before the potluck dinner was served.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Lyle Grigg.

Cubmaster Joe Naugle introduced Mr. and Mrs. W. Helma of Adrian. Mr. Helma is a representative of the Wolverine Council.

A SALUTE — For 112 years the Friends church has had an outstanding career ministering to the spiritual needs of Tecumseh. Founded in 1842, it has grown with the town and its pastors and members of the congregation have taken an active part in community affairs.

Its present church building was constructed in 1890 and in 1947 this building was expanded. Now the church again has kept pace with the growth of Tecumseh and the needs of its congregation with a $9,000 expansion program which will provide much needed space and a tower for bells and chimes or perhaps both.

(To digress for a moment, have you ever heard a more beautiful sound than church bells or chimes pealing of a clear Sunday morning?)

For the most part the funds needed for this fine expansion were obtained from special offerings at Sunday School with some help from outside friends of the church.

The pastor, the building committee and the congregation are justifiably proud of this expansion which will add even more to the spiritual growth of Tecumseh.

The HERALD salutes the Friends Church and its members for this fine expansion. Congratulations.

NAME FUSSING — See where the Michigan State University ruckus has flared up again with the University of Michigan hierarchy protesting vehemently that the proud maize and the blue has the constitutional right, and the only right, to be known as a University of Michigan.

The U-M folks also say it would be confusing to have two large state schools with "look alike" names.

Now, honestly, have you ever heard of such silly shenanigans? We had the good fortune to attend the Ann Arbor school but we never get a big alligator tear in the eye when the "Yellow and Blue" is played, although it is one of the finest songs we ever have heard.

The argument is quite naive and seems to be based on which of these fine schools is the finest. We always have said that the State of Michigan was twice blessed to have two fine institutions as the University of Michigan and Michigan State College and we are not talking about football teams, either!

It is certainly strange to hear grown and well educated men on both sides arguing this silly name business. All they would have to do to see that the East Lansing folk are absolutely right is to open a dictionary. The school is a university since it is a collection of colleges.

There has, however, been a lot of gnashing of teeth on both sides and a lot of silly talk which has caused a lot of comment but, as yet, no action.

The most telling comment we have heard over this fuss came from our Miss Clara Waldron who said: "It seems to me they would forget about this silly football point and get on with more important things such as education!"

BROTHERHOOD — Getting together is an old American custom. It's natural for us to want to hear what the other fellow has on his mind.

Time was when the town meeting brought forth the folks to talk together and many a vital issue was solved around the country store cracker barrel and pot-bellied stove. And who can tell how many valuable contributions to public welfare came from a quilting bee?

Well, time passes and settings change. How can we today in our society get together to build brotherhood and good will? Let's start in the home.

The National Conference of Christians and Jews suggests good will home gatherings to start during Brotherhood Week — Feb. 21 to 28 — with friends and neighbors coming togther to share a social experience that will advance human understanding. Here are a few ways that people of different backgrounds can get together to make for happier living in the same apartment building, block or neighborhood.

1. Brotherhood through food — have a "Taste What's Cooking in Your Neighbor's Kitchen" party where the food customs of nationalities other than your own can be introduced. Each guest can be asked to prepare a family dish that has its origin in a country other than America.
2. Brotherhood through books — invite friends to hear an interesting book review on a subject of concern to the group.
3. Brotherhood through music — present a program of recordings of distinctive music of various groups.
4. Brotherhood through talk — share common problems and planning projects in the community for the benefit of all groups.

MORE IMPELLING THAN EVER

The greatness of America is in the rich variety of its people. Sometimes we forget that our very differences have developed the American genius.

During Brotherhood Week we take time to reassert our belief in the values of our common humanity, and our uncommon individuality.

One of the best ways we can each contribute to this renewal of faith in the American way is by getting together with our friends and neighbors, fellow workers and strangers, and enjoy a fellowship possible where people are free, a fellowship that transcends race, creed or national origin.

By the way, wouldn't this be a fine program for the year and every succeeding year and not for just one week out of the year?

GOOD CITIZENS FETED BY D.A.R. CHAPTER

The annual Good Citizens tea of the Abi Evans chapter D.A.R. was held last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leon Rosacrans. The topic for the afternoon was Abraham Lincoln and the speaker, Miss Edith Ingersoll, approached the subject from an unusual angle by telling her hearers of the life story of Lucy Hanks, Lincoln's grandmother, to whom she credited many of his more worthwhile traits.

The Chapter's Good Citizens and their mothers were introduced to the group by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, who presented the girls with their Good Citizenship pins on which their names had been engraved, and each of their mothers with a red rose. Lenora Jordon, representing Clinton high school and her mother, Mrs. Truman Jordan, Patsy Purcell of Tecumseh high and her mother, Mrs. Frank Purcell and Mrs. Harley Kimerer of Britton were present but Good Citizen Margaret Kimerer was in Grand Rapids that day as a contestant in the state cherry pie baking contest.

The girls will go to Battle Creek March 26, as guests of the chapter at the state Convention of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Tea was served at a table beautifully decorated by a Valentine arrangement of flowers with Miss Ethelyn Garlinghouse presiding at the tea service.

SCOUTS SELL COOKIES

Mrs. Lyle Grigg, chairman of the Girl Scout cookie sale project expresses the appreciation of the troops for the continued support given the scouts by the citizens of the town. Sales last Saturday at United Savings Bank were 378 boxes. Troop 4 conducted this sale assisted by their leaders Mrs. Frank Robinette and Mrs. Kenneth McEnroe.

Realty Views

Are you putting off the purchase of a home or the selection of another one more daptable to your needs? Then read this statement, recently released, by the national President of the Realtors:

"Now and the next few months will be a favorable time to buy a house, particularly an existing structure."

His statement was based on the results of the 56th semi-annual survey of the real estate market.

Used houses are "currently bringing in what they are worth in relation to the value of the present dollar."

Premium prices for older homes are a thing of the past. The housing shortage that accumulated during World War II has been offset by the giant production of new homes. "This trend, plus the recent signs of a loosening up mortgage market, creates an advantageous situation for the home-seeker."

In other words, you can buy a good used house at a price worth the money. Look over our selection today. They include homes of all sizes, shapes, locations and prices.

Grade School News

Grade 6
Miss Hopkins

We are anxiously waiting the moment to begin our Valentine Party. It is not only the last party of the school year but also the last one that we can expect to have in the grade school.

Dave Weakly has appointed his committees. Sharon Mitzner, Jim Curth, and Jim Beach have charge of the food. Sally Hunt, Janet Harris, and Jim Lambes are looking after the Valentines and the games. Each desk-table for two is provided with its own Valentine box. These boxes display delightful artistic orginality besides contributing to the air of festivity in the room. Harriett Blanden, Jim Hoot, and Jim Creger are the committee for decorations. Ths week they have brought in branches that have blossomed out in bright red paper hearts. Other hearts decorate the door and the molding above the blackboard. On the blackboard is depicted a boy who is full of the spirit of St. Valentine. He carries behind him a huge loving heart which is much too large to be concealed by one boy. Another mural shows love's message sent forth in a submarine.

When Sally Hunt looks especially busy at her table we have reason to suppose that our games will be ready when the time comes.

We are all losing our heads over the party. When Janet gave Miss Hopkins her excuse for absence from school, can you imagine her astonishment when she saw Miss Hopkins put the excuse into her Valentine box?

The notice last month that reported the winner in the spelling contest was in error. The real winner was Lavonne Lister.

The sixth grade boys are very happy in their new gym at Patterson school. Today they had their frist experience in the Patterson showers. They found them such a pleasure that their drying-off time was cut short. Terry reported that his hair froze on the way back! He is nicely thawed out in time for the party.

Grade 4
Mrs. Colson

This is the first time we have written to you from our new room at Patterson. We have been here long enough to feel quite at home, and we like it better every day. One of the things we enjoy most is having a place to keep all of the things we use every day. We also like the bulletin boards and shelves where we can display our work. It is very convenient having a fountain and sink in our room, too.

Very few of us have been absent in the last three weeks. Arthur Collingsworth was out for several days with mumps, but is back agian. Nancy Beland fell on the ice and is at home with a broken leg. We hope she will be back with us soon.

Several people have brought plants to make our room even more cheerful. We think they will grow well in our big windows.

We are happy to have Ronald O'Neill with us for the second semester. We now have 32 children in our room.

On Friday we are having a Valentine party. Everyone already has several Valentines in the pretty boxes we made for them.

Grade 5
Mrs. Osburn

At last we are at Patterson! What a beautiful place! We are trying very hard to keep it that way. Can you imagine us taking off our boots and carrying them up the halls to keep the floor clean? Well we do. When you visit at our Open House you will see why we are so proud. We are certainly thankful to our town for this school.

Almost everyone in the room made a Valentine box. Abraham Evans won a prize for his box. It looks like a big steamboat.

Tuesday we had our pictures taken. This year we had the whole room taken together.

Several of our boys are wearing their Cub Scout uniforms this week. Wednesday they told us what the different badges meant.

Tom Barton had a birthday party last Thursday. He was celebrating his ten and one-half birthday. It was the first time he has been able to celebrate his birthday at school as it usually comes at the wrong time of the year.

We are happy to have our band lessons start again.

Gym classes started a week late but we like them very much. Our new gym is especially nice. Every Friday we are going to take a shower.

We have planted an apple core to see if we can start a tree like "Johnny Appleseed" did. Also we are sending for garden seeds.

In our room is a sink and drinking fountain. Now we can get a drink anytime we feel like it.

Mike and Jay Osburn brought two alligators to school. The "Gators" visited us for half-a-day. Their parents brought them when they returned from their recent trip to Florida.

William Shavalier is a new pupil in our room.

Grade 6
Mr. Kaiser

We are now having our physical education program in the Patterson gymnasium. The girls and boys have separate classes. While one group is having physical education, the other group works on projects in the room.

All of us are trying very hard to keep the new building clean and quiet.

For our Valentine party we had cup cakes and orange drink.

We have a display case in the room which we are using to display objects from Europe.

Mary Seagers' father was a guest of our room last week. He told us many interesting things about England. We hope he will visit us again soon.

The children who are not on patrol or service squad have room duties.

CRAIG-ERNST

The Zion Lutheran church in Ann Arbor was the scene of the wedding Saturday evening, Feb. 6, of Miss Shirley M. Ernest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Ernst of Ann Arbor and Oliver J. Craig, son of Harold S. Craig of Britton and the late Mrs. Craig.

The Rev. Ralph B. Piper performed the double ring ceremony at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Wilma Philica of Ann Arbor was the organist and Arthur Jahnkie of Ann Arbor sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was lovely in her gown of white satin fashioned with an Elizabeth collar. The skirt and peplum were trimmed with Chantilly lace and her train was chapel length. A silk illusion veil fell from a white satin headband and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and white hyacinths.

Mrs. Donald Ticknor Jr. of Ann Arbor, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and wore an aqua silk shanting gown with a matching headband. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow daffodils and pink hyacinths. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Carl S. Ernst Jr. and Miss Gertude Larmer, both of Ann Arbor. Their gowns were of pink silk shantung and they carried cascade bouquets of aqua pom poms and pink hyacinths.

Miss Phyllis J. Craig of Britton, a sister of the bridegroom, was the junior bridesmaid and her dress was of yellow silk shantung. She carried a cascade bouquet of aqua pom poms and yellow daffodils. Linda Porterfield, a niece of the bridegroom, acted as flower girl and her dress was of white satin and net with a yellow sash. She carried a basket of spring flowers in pastel shades. Timmy Ticknor, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Mrs. Carl R. Ernst Sr., mother of the bride, wore navy blue with navy blue accessories.

Melvin Clark of Milan, attended Mr. Craig as best man and the guests were seated by John Keran of Britton, LeRoy Porterfield of Ypsilanti, Carl S. Ernst Jr. and Walter Gutekunst, both of Ann Arbor.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the V.F.W. hall in Dundee. The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Carl S. Ernst Jr., sister-in-law of the bride and was cut by Mrs. John Keran of Britton and Mrs. LeRoy Porterfield of Ypsilanti, sisters of the bridegroom. Mrs. Charles Freschorn of Tecumseh another sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. Dorothy Hranica of Dundee cut the grooms cake.

Mrs. Milton Wells of Adrian and Mrs. Lee Walden of Clinton, both sisters of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Walter Gutekunst and Miss Jane Koch, both of Ann Arbor, presided at the coffee service. Mrs. Hazen Montry of Deerfield, also a sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book. Four hundred guests were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig left for a two weeks wedding trip to Florida and upon their return will be at home at 12751 Welch Rd. near Britton. For her going away costure Mrs. Craig wore a blue suit trimmed with black. She wore black accessories and a corsage of white roses from her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. Craig graduated from Ann Arbor high school and is employed at the Detroit Edison Company in Ann Arbor. Mr. Craig attended Milan high school and is employed by General Motors Corporation in Ypsilanti. He spent two years in the army and returned in November from a year and a-half in Korea.

CHARLES LAWHEAD SERVICES SATURDAY

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. at the Ridgeway Nazarene church for Charles A. Lawhead, 79, who died Wednesday at the home of his son Merle, 2½ miles west of Deerfield after several months of failing health.

Mr and Mrs. Lawhead were farmers but in recent years had made their home with their sons near Deerfield and Tecumseh. Mr. Lawhead was a member of the Ridgeway Nazarene church

Besides his widow, Jessie, Mr. Lawhead is survived by three sons, Merle of Deerfield; Ralph of Adrian and Russell of Tecumseh; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Nell of Cocoa, Fla.; a brother Robert E. Lawhead of Des Moines, Iowa; 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The Rev. C. A. Bearinger officiated. Hymns were sung by a trio, Loyd Willett Sr., Harold Willett and Floyd Dickerson accompanied by Mrs. Dickerson. Bearers were Foster Hardesty, George Baker, Alva Myers, Glenn Snedecor, Herbert Smith and Ernest Spohr. Burial was in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

MARCH OF DIMES REPORT

Elmer W. Eberhardt, chairman of Ridgeway and Macon Township March of Dimes committee, reports a total of $1,174.16 collected to date in the 1954 March of Dimes drive.

Mrs. G. E. Rodgers assisted by Mrs. Veril Lidster, Mrs. Neal Judkins, Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant, Mrs. Minnie Gittus, Mrs. Edward Kanous, Mrs. Virgil Linn and Mrs. Chester Godzina collected $208.00. Mr. Lester Edelbrock and Mrs. Frederick Bryan reported $215.65 from the Mothers March.

The following acted as mothers for the evening, Mrs. Willard Exelby, Mrs. Norris Dartt, Mrs. Lee Keeling, Mrs. Martin Keasal, Mrs. Henry Brown, Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks. Mrs. Paul Rowlands, Mrs. Clarence Larson, Mrs. Bernard Waterbury, Mrs. Fred Bryan, Mrs. Gail Hall and Mrs. Robert Reese.

The benefit party made $170.50; the Woman's Club, $44.15 and the schools gave $121.98; Rebekah Lodge $5.00; L & M Extension Club, $3.00; Ridgeway Extension Club, $5.00; Legion Auxiliary, $2.00; Camp Fire Girls, $11.00; Youth Fellowship, $8.25; Cub Scouts sold $67.00 worth of dimes; the churches $64.63; canisters, $34.97 and miscellaneous $23.03.

BLUE-GOLD BANQUET

Cub Scouts of the Britton-Macon area held their annual Blue and Gold Banquet Wednesday evening in the school cafeteria. Members of the Kiwanis club were honorary guests as they sponsor the club.

Verne Neidlinger, toastmaster, introduced Rev. Haybert Woodall, pastor of the Methodist church who gave an inspiring talk and offered a prayer before the potluck supper. Other speakers were Lester Edelbrock, president of the Kiwanis club, Gerald Richards, Cub-master and Lester Ruhl, assistant Cubmaster.

Each den decorated its own table with centerpieces, place cards and fancy party hats for everyone. After the meal each den put on a short skit for entertainment.

A door prize was awarded to Den Chief Gerald Benedict.

The large three tiered ceremony cake bearing forty-four candles to represent the forty-fourth anniversary of Scouting was made by a Den mother, Mrs. Lester Ruhl.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

The Youth Fellowship group met at the Congregational Christian church Sunday evening for their semi-monthly meeting. The following officers were elected: president, Kay Spohr; vice president, Sharon Rodgers; secretary and treasurer, Connie Kahle. Connie had charge of the devotions. Sharon took care of the games. They reported having made $10.60 at there candy sale. The group will meet at the church Saturday morning at 9:30 to go ice skating at the rink in Ann Arbor.

Dr. W. T. Claxton is a patient at the University hospital in Ann Arbor, entering Sunday. His room number is 5440.

Mrs. Martha Brady returned to her home in Ann Arbor Sunday after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. John Gittus. Friday they with Mrs. Harry Coleman of Dundee and Mrs. Edward Kanous spent the day with their sister, Mrs. Eugene Meyers of Toledo.

With her infant son, Charles LeRoy, Mrs. Robert Irwin returned home Friday from Herrick Memorial hospital.

Russell Spalding, Agriculture teacher at Britton-Macon high school underwent an appendectomy Saturday night in Herrick Memorial hospital.

ALTAR SOCIETY

Mrs. Paul Lauer presided over the business session of St. Elizabeth Altar Society at the Parish Hall Wednesday evening. Twenty-eight members were present and a new constitution for the organization was presented and adopted. Copies of this document are being prepared and will be sent to all women of the church.

It was reported that $25 was realized from the bake sale held for the benefit of the polio fund and the amount was turned over to that cause.

Announcement was made of plans for a card party to be held Tuesday evening, March 2, at the rectory for members of the parish. The February committee was named as, Mrs. A. J. Murray, chairman, Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. May Miller and Mrs. Ford Mudgett. A prayer by Fr. Thomas Collins closed the meeting after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Richard Jennings and her committee.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

Julie Crawford, secretary of the Future Nurses Club reports that they were fortunate to have as guest speakers at their Feb. 2 meeting, Mrs. Donald Geringer and Mrs. Jeane O'Neil.

Mrs. Geringer told the group of her experiences as an overseas army nurse and Mrs. O'Neil of her training at Great Lakes Naval Base. The girls thoroughly enjoyed both speakers. At a previous meeting Miss Nancy Keinitz, of the University of Michigan had explained to the club members the four year nursing plan at that college.

Refreshments were served to the members, all of whom were present, at the close of the meeting and plans were made for the next meeting scheduled for Feb. 17.

ROTARIANS HEAR "DUSTY" MILLER

"Everything we do depends on people," said Thurman ("Dusty") Miller who spoke to Rotarians Tuesday night in the Tecumseh Country Club.

"Dusty," publisher of the Wilmington, Ohio, daily newspaper, said "we always get more than we give in our relationship with others."

"In this pursuit of happiness," he added, "we must keep open minds and open hearts and remember to make a friend is to be a friend."

7,991 Boy Scouts have won awards for high standards of religious service.

OVER FIFTY CLUB

The Over Fifty Club met in the social room of the Methodist church last Thursday for a potluck luncheon and informal program on "Unique Characters."

While discussing these characters the group agreed that such people were an asset to the community despite the fact that they dared to dress differently or had manners which were different from others. For instance, Gus Vallenburg was recognized for his good influence on the neighborhood children and will be remembered for taking care of the target at the railroad crossing.

For this occasion, the guests found the tables decorated with handmade Valentine favors which were gifts of the Brownies in Troop 2, under the leadership of Mrs. Junior Fouts.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Honoring the eleventh birthday of her daughter, Jean Ann, Mrs. Herbert Hoag entertained Saturday afternoon at a party in the Valentine theme. The house was appropriately decorated and refreshments which included a decorated cake were served from a table in Valentine colors. Camilla Grigg, Jane Hodges and Jackie Dunn were prize winners in the games that entertained the young guests, who also included Kay McCann, Mary Ann Hunter, Nancy Smith, Marjorie Van Valkenburg, Linda Wilson and Diane Fuller. The place cards were the work of the little hostess.

THETA RHO CLUB

Eleven members of Theta Rho enjoyed a Valentine party at the Odd Fellow hall Monday evening. They planned a roller skating party for this evening at Hilltop Rink near Adrian, beginning at 6 p.m.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

There must be many an hour when the Lord God Almighty is driven to the conclusion that myriads of his people on earth have lost their minds and are possessed by evil spirits. Look at our wars and listen to our rumors of war. Gaze at the greed and lust which drive us to cruelties more terrible than those of the mere animals. Keep your eyes on our discriminations and our segregations which stab continuously our fellow mortals. And don't overlook the paltry pettiness and the shallow superficiality of the manner in which we spend holy hours of God's time.

Think about our self-deceptions in waging wars and calling them peace, in imposing tyrannies and calling them freedom, in centering our thoughts upon our own selfish ambitions and calling them prayers.

Cry to God for mercy, in the language of Herman Hagedorn:

We are such little men when the stars come out,
So small under the open maw of the night,
That we must shout and pound the table and drive wild,
And gather dollars and madly dance and drink deep,
And send the great bird flying, and drop death.
When the stars come out we are such little men
That we must arm ourselves in glare and thunder,
Or cave in on our own dry littleness.
We are such little men when the stars come out!
Ah, God behind the stars, touch with your finger
This mite of meaningless dust and give it substance.
I am so little, under the frown of the night!
Be you my body, you my eyes,
My hands, my feet, my heartbeat and my hunger,
That I may face the infinite spaces, and live:
And stand in quietness, when the stars come out.

Use Lots Of Eggs

You can get some delicious results by using eggs in your menus. And now is the time to use lots of them—they're plentiful and they're wearing attractive price tags these days.

Eggs are an especially good buy nutrition-wise, points out Dr. Pauline Paul of Michigan State College's foods and nutrition department.

They are rich in high-quality protein and make an excellent replacement for meat in the diet. The yolks are high in iron, one of the minerals that is apt to be low in our diet.

Eggs are one of the most versatile foods we have, says Dr. Paul. Even prepared "as eggs," you have a choice of fried, boiled, scrambled, poached or baked.

Used as a thickening agent, they appear in sauces, soups, puddings and custards.

Beaten fluffy for a leavening agent, you'll use them in cakes, souffles, angel foods, sponge cakes and omelets.

As meat extenders or substitutes, you can serve them as curried eggs, creamed eggs on toast, baked eggs in tomato sauce or eggs Benedict, to name only a few possibilities.

And homemakers use them often as the emulsifying agent in mayonnaise and cream puffs, as the binder for meat loaf and croquette mixtures, as the protective coating for fried foods and as a clarifying agent for soups and coffee.

When storing eggs, keep them cold since they spoil easily. Store them in the refrigerator, advises Dr. Paul.

However, when you plan to make something which calls for beaten eggs, such as angel food cake, you'll want to take the eggs out of the refrigerator an hour early. They'll beat up more easily if not too cold.

In cooking eggs, the main thing to remember is to cook them slowly at a low temperature. High temperatures will make the egg whites tough and rubbery.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

From The Bible

For He is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto Him.—(St. Luke 20. 38.)

God is the very air we breathe, the food we eat; the birds that sing, the flowers that bloom, the sun, the moon and the stars. All that there is of love and compassion, of intelligence and strength, is the ever-present, the ever-living God; if we live not unto Him we live not at all, but merely exist.

JEANENE HEFLIN BRIDE OF WAYNE PATTON JR.

Jeanene Ann Heflin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Heflin and Wayne Patton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Patton Sr. were united in marriage Saturday at 4 p.m. in the First Methodist church, Angola, Ind.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lloyd Satt, pastor of the church, in the presence of the immediate families.

The couple was attended by Miss Dulcie Bowen and John Sisson.

For her wedding, the bride chose a light blue suit with white accessories and wore a pink rosebud corsage. Miss Bowen wore a navy blue crepe suit with white accessories and had a red rose corsage.

The mothers of both the bride and groom wore blue dresses, Mrs. Heflin choosing white accessories and Mrs. Patton navy blue.

A dinner for the wedding party followed the ceremony at Barrett's in Angola.

Mrs. Patton attended Tecumseh high school and Mr. Patton graduated from the same school in 1953. He is employed at Blanks Gas service in Tecumseh.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in an apartment at 773 College Ave., Adrian.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. W. Donald VanHook announce the engagement of their daughter Shirley Jeane to James P. Breitenwischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Breitenwischer. The wedding date has been set for Feb. 27.

This Is True of Many Diseases . . .

"Cleanliness of body and habits . . . a room where fresh air and sunlight enter freely . . . . physical and mental rest." Thus Dr. Rene Dubos, greatest living scientific student of tuberculosis describes the "way of life" that is just as important as medicine in its treatment.

After centuries of study, this common sense care is known to be the best antidote for tuberculosis — and many other diseases.

Is That So!

By Miss Clara Waldron

Busy young matrons of the future who have nearly forgotten what it was like to be carefree brides in lovely wedding gowns may refresh their memories by turning the pages of the album of brides belonging to Maude Saul Bell who made those gowns. In those "memory books" are enshrined the creations that were her work—and pleasure—during the last decade.

Ever since her return to her native town in 1927, following the death of her husband, Maude Bell has been Tecumseh's combined Dior and Schaprelli. But of late you have to get married to get her attention.

All together she has probably made dresses for 150 weddings and during the past four years since she has made that her specialty, she has designed and made the gowns for fifty bridal parties, making as many as eight gowns for a single event. In addition she makes the bridal veil and head dress, the bridesmaid's hats, mitts, scarves and any other items called for by the costume and always her gifts to the bride —the ring cushion and a blue garter with a coin for luck.

She assists in the purchase of the dress materials, cuts them, without benefit of pattern, from a picture or just from inspiration, acts as mentor at the rehearsal and when the all important moment arrives, she makes sure that every fold and flounce is perfect for the journey down the aisle. Her house is often the repository of dozens of gowns, which no outsider ever sees until the proper time, and her calendar is filled a year in advance

Wedding customs and wedding gowns have varied over the years. Tecumseh has seen some very beautiful weddings in the past but most of them were home weddings and the majority had just two attendants who "stood up" with the bridal pair. Earlier the wedding dress was frequently of a durable silk in a color that would permit thrifty remodeling. Now, with the element of pagentry and its many attendants, even a modest affair may require as many as 150 yards of material. Traditional satin is frequently only the foundation of a misty swirl of net, tulle or lace and for the last few years that mist has usually been nylon.

They still require much hand needle-work, those gowns, much embroidery and applique. Only the basic seams are machine done and those on an old fashioned foot-treadle machine "that will stop when I want it to."

Maude Bell did not learn to sew, she just always sewed. After high school she worked with a local dressmaker, Mrs. Briegel, whom many will remember in the day when you bought yards of material, thread and "findings" and had a season's wardrobe made. She remembers also with admiration a Mrs. Duel, who really rated the title of modiste, and others of those vanished artists of the needle, Mrs. Lamkin, Mrs. Eccles, Nettie Southworth and Mrs. Bills.

Ready-mades have replaced the seamstress but not for many of Tecumseh's brides. They prefer a gown designed just for them by "Maude." A few ordinary mortals now and then are admitted between weddings and some of her gowns have gone to far-a-way places.

She made eleven evening gowns —the "working clothes" of a diplomat's wife — for Mrs. Joseph Satterthwaite to take to Ceylon, and one, an unusual and very individual creation made from an oriental sari, when worn at a state dinner was much admired by no less a personage than the Duchess of Kent.

There must be some magic in a "model by Maude" for there has never been a divorce for a bride who wore one. Perhaps it is because from the first detail of planning to the last arranging of the bridal train, she "loves every minute of it."

New Nylon Yarn Marks Progress

Nylon has made progress in a lot of different directions since it was first developed in 1938 in the form of toothbrush bristles.

In one of its newest forms, nylon has been specially-processed into yarn which has the ability to stretch and conform to almost any shape which it surrounds, reports Geitel Winaker of Michigan State College's textiles and clothing department.

In some cases, you'll hear this new yarn referred to as "Helanca."

The new yarn makes possible knitwear which fits many different sizes.

For instance, the yarn has been used for men's, women's and children's socks sized only as small, medium and large. The socks stretch to fit smoothly without wrinkles or binding. They've been on the market about a year and have worn well, it is reported.

Women's full-fashioned nylons have been manufactured in "doll-size" from the new yarn. Off the leg, they measure about 15 inches in length. On the leg, they stretch to make a dull-finish sheer hose of full length. Because of the twist in the yarn, they tend to resist runs, too. These hose have become available in larger cities.

At least one company is marketing women's briefs and panty girdles of "Helanca."

Two-way stretch gloves, swimsuits and other ideas are being tried out in this stretchy nylon yarn. Many people consider it softer and more comfortable than ordinary nylon yarn.

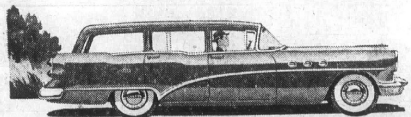
MISSIONARY CIRCLE

Mrs. Ernest Hammack entertained 25 members of the Friends church Missionary Society at a potluck dinner Thursday noon. Mrs. Walter Wiemer presided over the business meeting and devotions were conducted by Mrs. Raynor VanValkenburg. The program was in charge of Mrs. George Meads. The next meeting will be an all day program at the church March 18 with potluck dinner at noon. Hostesses will be Mrs. Emma Day and Mrs. Claudia Harwood. Mrs. Melvin Muhn will donduct devotions.

The Look of Tomorrow is in every '54 BUICK Today
With completely new "years-away" styling—keynoted by the dream-car design of the panoramic sweep-back windshield.

The stunning new 1954 Buick CENTURY Riviera.

(horsepower)
200 HP makes BUICK's CENTURY the power buy of the year!



The sensational Buick CENTURY is available for 1954 in a full line of models, including the completely new all-steel 4-door, 6-passenger Estate Wagon shown here.

BUICK the beautiful buy

It has sports-car smartness and sports-car snap.

It combines sports-car compactness with Buick roominess—six-passenger big.

And for sports-car performance, this spectacular CENTURY rolls off the assembly line with a 200-hp V8 engine and a trim 3852 pounds—highest power-to-weight ratio in Buick history.

But what does all that horsepower get you?

It gets you brilliant performance. It gets you more economy. It gets you added safety.

At the wheel of a Buick CENTURY, you find getaway more responsive, cruising more pleasant, hill-climbing so nimble you feel you're on the level. Your engine is normally working at just a fraction of its capacity. You have a tremendous power reserve to call on in sudden emergencies.

And beyond this, you have the lowest-cost automotive horsepower in the land. For in the popular-priced Buick CENTURY, you are buying more horsepower per dollar than you get in any other car in America.

Come in and try this glamorous new Buick beauty soon. It is, by all odds, the power buy of the year.

Make The Best Use Of Your Machine

The leader training meeting, "Making the Best Use of Your Sewing Machine," will take place Feb. 11, 12, 19, 23, 24, and 26, at the Michigan Producers Dairy Company Auditorium, 1336 E. Maumee street in Adrian beginning at 10 a.m.

This meeting will be of special interest to all women who like to sew. Besides making clothing for yourself and family, there is always much interest in consumer buying.

This season—and in the season ahead—you will find elaborately embroidered decorative trim on suits, coats and dresses. This will be true whether the dresses are for daytime, afternoon or evening wear. Usually the more elaborate the design, the more expensive the garment.

When you buy a garment of this type you are buying a luxury item, says Marjorie Eastman, clothing specialist with the Michigan State College Extension Service. Because it is a luxury item, it is not practical for the retailer to give you any promise of serviceability in wear or in cleaning.

Decorative embroideries include beads of every description — bugle, jet, satin, glass, pearl, and radium beads. The color on the inside may tarnish with wear and cleaning. Designs of raffia, a palm-type fiber, will appear on cotton dresses — and on linen dresses, too, this year. Yarns, gilt, cords and guimpe will be used in the embroidery trims.

Jule Walmer Weds Conrad Fosbender

A wedding of interest to his many Tecumseh friends took place in Kalamazoo last Friday evening when Conrad Russell Fosbender, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fosbender of Herrick Park, married Jule Joann Walmer of 1424 Gull Road, Kalamazoo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walmer.

The double ring ceremony was performed by an uncle of the bride, the Rev. C. W. Walmer of Defiance, Ohio, and took place in the Bethel Baptist church.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Gerald E. Dickinson as matron of honor with Joann Hartz of Flint, Mrs. John Pike and Janet Abbott of Kalamazoo as bridesmaids while Richard Zeedyke of Kalamazoo was Mr. Fosbender's best man and the bride's brother-in-law, Gerald Dickinson, Duane DeVries and Jerry James all of Kalamazoo and William Hessell of Utrecht, the Netherlands were ushers. Gerrie Lynn and Jacqueline Dickinson, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Baskets of calla lilies and white snapdragons, with palms and candelabra banked the altar and the pews were marked by a single calla tied with white satin bows. "God Gave Me You," "Through the Years" and the "Lord's Prayer" were sung by Helen Lincoln accompanied by Mrs. Robert Roskam at the organ.

Graduated shades of blue from the ice blue of the bridal gown to the royal blue of the last bridesmaid, marked the bridal party. Miss Walmer's gown had a bodice of imported Chantilly lace, with a wide scalloped neckline bordered with irridescent sequins, long sleeves and a skirt of tulle with net over taffeta spreading into a full train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion held by a sequined tiara was also ice blue and her cascade bouquet of red roses was centered by a white orchid.

The dresses of her attendants were all of taffeta in strapless, princess style with bolero jackets and they wore taffeta mitts and half hats of velvet and carried colonial bouquets of red roses and white pompoms.

Mrs. Walmer wore French blue faille for her daughter's wedding while Mrs. Fosbender's dress was navy wool. Both wore navy and white accessories and corsages of white roses.

A reception for 350 guests followed the ceremony in the church parlors with Mrs. Richard Zeedyke, Mrs. Carl DeVail and the Misses Linda Howard, Mickey Hop, Goldie Fooy, Beverly Allen, Patricia Munro and Kathleen Piket were hostesses.

When Mr. and Mrs. Fosbender left for a two week's honeymoon in Florida and New Orleans, the bride was wearing a light blue wool jersey dress with navy and white accessories and her bridal orchid as a corsage.

They will make their home in Tecumseh where Mrs. Fosbender, a graduate of Kalamazoo high school and Western Michigan College, will be librarian at both the school and public libraries. Mr. Fosbender, who is employed at Tecumseh Products Co., is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and served four years with the U. S. Marine Corps.

Thursday evening, Feb. 11, a rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at the Hotel Harris in Kalamazoo for the wedding party of eighteen.

Ford's New Ball-Joint Suspension gives you the Newest Ride on the Road!

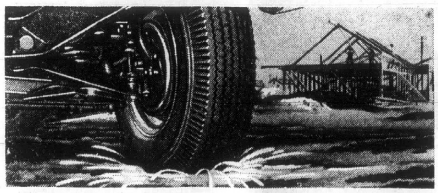
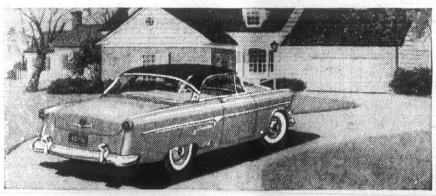
This revolutionary new Ford front suspension soaks up road shock before it reaches you! Makes all riding and handling easier!



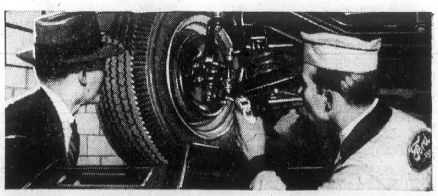
Seals out dirt. You can forget road splash because dirt and water can't get into the ball joints in Ford's new front suspension. Each of the four joints is effectively sealed by a unique rubber-and-metal shield. This means that contact surfaces of each ball and socket remain clean—wear is kept to a minimum.



Keeps that new-car feel. You'll enjoy Ford's new-car feel much longer because ball joints are spring-loaded to compensate automatically for any wear. Front wheels hold alignment far longer than with conventional systems. Ball joints can't stick or bind. Steering remains consistently easy.

THE "OLD" ROADS won't seem the same with Ford's new Ball-Joint Suspension "paving" the way for you. You'll enjoy a softer, more level ride because Ford's new system allows greater shock absorbing movement of the front wheels. Handling is far better, too, not only on turns but on the straightaways as well. That's because conventional kingpins have been replaced by simple, sealed ball joints that won't stick or bind. No other car in Ford's field can equal this modern ride—because no other has Ball-Joint Suspension.

Agile new performance, too, is yours in a '54 Ford. Whether you choose Ford's new 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 or 115-h.p. I-block Six you get the quick response and smooth, quiet operation of a modern overhead valve, low-friction deep-block engine. And no matter which of Ford's 28 new models you choose you enjoy recognized style leadership—with clean, modern lines . . . sparkling new colors . . . and harmonizing upholstery fabrics and trim.



Eliminates 12 wear points. Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension eliminates 12 of 16 points of wear found in conventional systems. Rubber-bushed supports at inner ends of suspension control arms not only reduce the number of wear points but also insulate chassis from road noises.

We cordially invite you to Test Drive a '54 Ford

When preparing meat to be braised, brown the meat BEFORE salting, advised Miss Reba Staggs, home economics director of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, Chicago. This bit of advice was included in her hour-long lecture demonstration on meat cookery given earlier this month before a Farmers' Week audience at Michigan State College.

TURN TO THE CLASSIFIED

- POISON -

FACT or FANCY?

For some time now the opponents of fluoridation have contended that fluoride is a deadly poison, that it is used in insecticides and it could kill the entire population of Tecumseh. This is of course only a few of the many half-truths used to mislead the voters on this important issue. Let's examine the chemical called sodium fluoride (this is what we add to Tecumseh's water) in a manner that all of us can understand.

In the first place, there is no chemical difference whatsoever between natural fluoride contained in the water of certain localities and artificial fluoride added to the water by a community. Competent chemical associations have analyzed both and proven this beyond any doubt. The American Medical Association has approved these findings.

When groups report that fluoride is dangerous because it is a poison they are only presenting a small part of the picture. They are saying that because highly concentrated quantities of fluoride are poisonous (450 ppm causes vomiting) that minute quantities (1 ppm) are also. This is not true. To compare 500-1000 ppm of fluoride as used in rat poison to 1 ppm as used in the water is silly. It would take approximately 4 TONS of sodium fluoride per million gallons of water to get this much fluoride. The 4 TONS of sodium fluoride needed is a little less than Tecumseh's requirements for a full year. Even assuming that this quantity were on hand, it would be extremely difficult if not impossible to put it all in the water at one time.

To understand sodium fluoride better we can look at a very common, ordinary ingredient with which we are all familiar, sodium chloride. Sodium chloride is made up of two elements (sodium and chloride) in the same manner as sodium and fluoride make sodium fluoride. Sodium is a very unstable metal which is extremely poisonous in even small quantities. This element is contained in both. Chloride is the salt of chlorine and fluoride is the salt of fluorine. Both chlorine and fluorine are deadly gases developed during World War I. They were never used afterwards because both sides were afraid of them. However, by combining sodium and chloride, we form a relatively harmless compound familiar to all of us — sodium chloride or common TABLE SALT. Likewise, sodium plus fluoride-sodium fluoride — even though both elements separately are extremely harmful, reacts on a human in a similar manner as sodium chloride (salt). In moderate quantities, both are harmless. We don't condemn salt because it contains dangerous elements since we know from experience that the combination actually is beneficial to us. In fact, we could not live without it. In a like manner we cannot condemn fluoridation of the water merely because the basic chemical in large concentrated doses is harmful. As with salt, the compound is actually beneficial to us in that sodium fluoride reduces tooth decay.

Other arguments state that Communist saboteurs might use a fluoridation system to poison the community and that argument is even more far-fetched. Why try to dump 4 tons of sodium fluoride in the water (this is the minimum amount likely to make one sick) when a few drops of any one of many other biologicals available would do a more complete job? By no stretch of the imagination can we conceive of a "slip of a valve" or breakdown of any kind that could put a years supply (4 tons) of sodium fluoride in the water at one time.

To thinking people, therefore, statements that fluoridation is poisonous are actually idiotic and can be proven false by any high school chemistry student. We all fear the unknown but we certainly are not afraid to put salt on our meat at dinner time; we should have no more fear of fluoride in our water! Actually we use a much smaller amount of sodium fluoride (about 1/2 gram per year) than sodium chloride (salt) (several pounds) per year. As always, we must look to our doctors for guidance in the matter of health. They know the poison argument is a farce; now you too can prove it!

Don't be afraid of fluoridation, it is proven safe; use it for the better health of your family. Not only now, but all through life!

Vote YES to continue fluoridation.

The Summons Of Lent

The Lenten Season comes with a peculiar significance and offers us the opportunity to fortify our souls and find new strength for our spirits through the power and love of the cross.

We should approach this hallowed period with a deep humility, for in the shadow of the cross all humanity stands exposed to the Christian challenge! As men falter and cry in anxiety, hatred, and fear there comes the triumphant love that pardons and redeems. Therefore, the Lenten Season summons the world to the love that answers all need.

Ash Wednesday is March 3, and this day marks the beginning of Lent. On behalf of all the churches in the community every citizen is invited to make this period a time of preparation.

The hour in which we live brings to focus the pressing necessity of being found by God! Our concern regarding our Church and our Christian obligations should bring us to a more regular and consistent exercise of private meditation and public worship.

The Summons of Lent is that every man shall witness and know the love of God in the cross. Here we must acknowledge the ultimate challenge of the day and our need of the pardon, peace, and life that can only be found in God's life of love.

Begin today the chain reaction which leads men the world over to the realization of God! Receive this day the Summons of Lent — an invitation to eternity! Respond to the magnetic power which would transform the world. Take the Summons of Lent, in the shadow of the cross, and reply to God's love!!

Mayor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, there are conditions of tension and uncertainty in the world today, and it is recognized that the many problems confronting us can be solved only with the help of Almighty God; and

WHEREAS, March 5, the First Friday of the Lenten season has been declared a world-wide day of prayer in one hundred and four countries;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Charles H. Mensing, Mayor of the City of Tecumseh, do hereby proclaim March 5th, 1954 as a

DAY OF PRAYER

for a better world for all people to remember the needs of our nation, and all other nations, as we bow our heads in reverent acknowledgement of our dependence and reliance upon Almighty God, and I urge everyone to pause in their work for one minute, to ask that God give us that hope that is in Christ Jesus, light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us.

Given under my hand and the Executive Seal this fifth day of March, A.D. 1954.

Patterson School Open House Scheduled Sunday

Parents and friends of students attending the new Patterson Elementary School are cordially invited to the open house at the school next Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

The school will be dedicated at 2 p.m. with the Rev. George E. Walworth, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, as the speaker.

SEE IS THAT SO!, PAGE 4

The remainder of the short program is as follows:

The flag for the flag pole on the school grounds will be presented by the VFW Post with Supt. James McDowell accepting the flag on behalf of the school.

Room flags for each of the class rooms will be presented by the VFW Auxiliary with Mrs. Bert Warren and seven members making the presentation to the teachers.

Plants in the foyer of the school will be presented by the American Legion Auxiliary with Wayne Kaiser, principal of the school, accepting the plants from Mrs. Vern Manwaring, president of the auxiliary.

The open house will close with conducted tours by mother and father members of the PTA as hostesses and hosts.

A Patterson Elementary School Open House has been planned by the PTA.

The planning committee comprised Mrs. Wellington Wotring, PTA president, chairman, and Mrs. Mahlon Sebring and Mrs. Fred Dickinson.

Right Battery But Wrong Car

When you see Don Martin of Gamble's ask him how he likes to put new batteries in cars.

This is the story:

Tuesday afternoon Don was putting a new battery in a car parked behind the HERALD office. So far o.k. but he had the wrong car.

This case of mistaken identity developed when a customer bought a new battery and told Don his car was out in back.

So Don put the battery in. He had it almost in when the real owner of the car showed up and began to wonder what Don was doing.

The car belonged to the editor of the HERALD who thought the incident extremely funny and remarked that maybe he could get a set of new tires, too.

But Don, soaking wet from a pouring rain and standing in a mud puddle while he worked, did not see the humor in the situation.

At least he didn't see the humor at the time.

March Of Dimes Givers Thanked

Mrs. Rolland Reister, director of the Lenawee Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and Mrs. Ted Golat, president of the Tecumseh-Raisin Township Council express their sincere thanks to all individuals and organizations who helped to make the March of Dimes a success in this area although the quota in the county was not reached.

Individuals who were out of town during the drive may make their checks read "March of Dimes" and mail them to David Dick, 413 W. Chicago Blvd., Tecumseh.

Contributions may be made throughout the year to this fund.

JOIN ASSOCIATION

Recently elected into membership in the Toledo chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants are Kenneth Hall, Virgil Tucker, Frank G. Rheinhardt, G. Maxwell Smith, Max W. Skinner, Elmer C. Lang and Russell H. Langham, representatives of the Tecumseh Products Co. The Toledo chapter has a membership of 375 accountants representing business firms in the Toledo area.

Indians Split In Four Court Games

Tecumseh's Indians split four basketball games during the past week with the varsity dropping a 45-32 game to Clinton last Friday night and a 53-48 game to Monroe Catholic Central Tuesday night; but the junior varsity continued its winning way by grabbing two games, 53-29 against Monroe and 45-32 against Clinton.

The two wins for the junior varsity stretched the jv winning streak to 12 straight games.

Bill Benham led the local scoring in the Clinton game with 14 points while Newton topped the Clinton scorers with 18.

Al Hart grabbed scoring honors in the Monroe game with 15 and Ahrendt of Monroe equalled this out put with 15.

The varsity scores by quarters:

Tecumseh	7	8	4	13
Clinton	10	11	10	14
Tecumseh	7	9	19	13
Monroe	4	17	19	13

Friday night the Indians play two home games with Bedford Rural. The first game begins at 7 p.m.

Jr. Class Selects "Life With Father"

"Life With Father" has been selected by Tecumseh High School juniors for their annual play.

Bob Francoeur will have the role of the blustery family head whose exasperations with his wife and his children provide the humor of this three-act comedy which will be given April 8 and 9.

Others in the cast of this comedy classic adapted from Clarence Day's sketches by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse are Brenda Porter as Mother Vinnie; Dale Daniels as Clarence, the oldest of the Day sons; Gary Hizer as 10-year-old John Day; Tom Neitling and John Naser as Whitney and Harlan, the youngest boys; and Beth McKenzie as cousin Cora.

Others in the cast include Dulcie Bowen, Chuck O'Neil, Phil Surrat, Glenn Haviland, Anita Dickinson, Diane Woodward and Connie Clark.

Papa and Mama Day and their four red-haired sons provide the story and action for this popular comedy.

Campaign

DR. LEWIS

A Christ for Everyone campaign begins next Sunday night at the Tecumseh Friends church and will continue through March 14. Meetings are scheduled for 7:45 p.m. nightly except Saturday.

Dr. Clifford Lewis will be campaign leader. A native of Alabama and a graduate of Bob Jones College, Dr. Lewis has traveled throughout the 48 states and every province in Canada. He also has made evangelistic and missionary tours around the world.

While he was in Wales in 1938 he adopted the motto TRUE TO CHRIST as the official motto for all campaigns.

Dr. Lewis also is widely known as a youth leader and he edits a monthly magazine called "Living Faith."

He is director of the Living Faith Fellowship with headquarters in Loveland, Colo.

HERMAN SCHWEIGER BURIED IN BROOKSIDE

Herman A. Schweiger, who had made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Robinson, 507 N. Union St., for the past 13 years died at that address last Thursday morning, Feb. 18.

Mr. Schweiger was born in Germany, Feb. 9, 1890, coming to America when a small child and had spent most of his life in Michigan. He came to Tecumseh from Dundee and had been employed at Brookside Cemetery for 13 years.

He is survived by a son, Howard Schweiger; two grandchildren, Toledo; his father, August Schweiger, Dundee; two brothers, Lewis and William, Toledo and several nephews and nieces.

Funeral services for Mr. Schweiger were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Collins Funeral Home and were conducted by the Rev. B. O. Bashore. Burial was in Brookside Cemetery and bearers were members of the Eagles Lodge, Ervie Raymond, Harvey Robinson, Verdi Skinner, Russell Hall, George Milosh and Martin Bushnell.

Services Held For Accident Victim

Funeral services were held Saturday from the Proctor Funeral Home in Clinton for Emery Patten, 27, of Clinton who was killed when his dump truck was struck by a train Wednesday, Feb. 17, on Occidental Highway at the DT&I tracks.

He was employed by the A. H. Cook Materials Co. of Adrian.

The Rev. Vaughn Whited officiated at the services and burial was in Riverside Cemetery in Clinton.

Mr. Patten was born Aug. 7, 1926, a son of the late Rev. and Mrs. John Patten of Kentucky.

Besides his wife Joyce he is survived by six sisters, Mrs. Ben Creech of Adrian; Mrs. Mary Patrick of Grass Lake; Mrs. Doris Horn of Stockbridge; Mrs. Tracy Festcher, Arlington, O.; Mrs. John Salyer of McGuffey, O.; Mrs. Lester Joseph, Royalton, Ky.; three brothers, Willie of Royalton, Ky.; Burton, of Ada, O.; Minisee, of Arlington, O.; and several nieces and nephews.

He was a member of the Underwood-Orr Legion Post of Tecumseh and the Moose Lodge of Adrian.

Mr. Patten was a veteran of both World War II and the Korean campaign.

Art Of Rug Making Told to B and PW

A Washington's birthday meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club was held Monday evening at Fellowship Center with Mrs. Marvin Watkins, Mrs. Hilda Will and Mrs. James Hartsell as hostesses.

Forty-four were present including six guests, Mrs. Zorah McWilliams, Mrs. A. W. Merz, Mrs. Clara Alderdyce, Mrs. Edna Smith, Mrs. Marjorie Moon and Miss Mabel Hamblin.

During the business meeting the question of financial responsibility for dinner reservations was discussed and it was emphasized that anyone making reservation must pay whether she attendes or not.

A report of the proceedings of the mid-winter meeting of the County Federation of Women's clubs was then given by Mrs. W. J. Waldron and included the announcement that the State Library is celebrating its 25th anniversary this year, the World Day of Prayer is March 5, that club members are urged to subscribe to "Inside Michigan" for the benefit of Girl's Town and that there is to be a showing of the World Famous Paintings at the Toledo Museum of Art from March 7 to April 30. Music for the Federation meeting was furnished by the music department of Adrian high school.

Good wishes of the club were sent to the two members who are surgical patients at Herrick Memorial hospital, Mrs. Earl Baldwin and Mrs. Ogland Lay and congratulations were in order for Mrs. Edna Staulter for her new position as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

The program, in charge of Mrs. George French and Mrs. Howard Truesdale opened by group singing of "When You're Smiling" and "Love's Old, Sweet Song" after which Mrs. Merz sang "Without a Song" and "Look for the Silver Lining," accompanied by Mrs. W. G. Waldron.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Clara Alderdyce of Milan was introduced by Mrs. French and her topic "Home Handicraft" was devoted to a discussion of her special hobby, the hooking of rugs. She displayed beautiful samples of her work and that of her fellow club members, all wool rugs, each individually named and made of materials dyed by the makers. She gave a history of this type of rug making which she says is being revived after a lapse of many years, now as a hobby instead of an economic necessity as it originated.

March 22 will be the date of the next meeting of the club.

C of C Committees Named; 1954 Projects Discussed

Projects for 1954 were discussed Tuesday night at the regular meeting of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and committees to work on these projects were named by George Green, president of the chamber.

Projects discussed included brochure promotion telling the public what Tecumseh has to offer; new signs for parking lots, chamber of commerce office, swimming pool and road signs on major highways leading to Tecumseh; and the investigation of the possibility of a license bureau office for Tecumseh.

The following committees were named by President Green:

Special events—July 4, Glenn Kohler and Harold Easton, co-chairmen; band festival, Clare Camburn, chairman, the Rev. B. O. Bashore and Miss Marjorie Wickwire; Hallowe'en and Christmas parties, Elmer Eberhardt; swimming pool dedication, Virgil Tucker; "get out the vote," Miss Marjorie Wickwire; annual banquet, Harold Easton and Glenn Kohler.

Membership, George Green, chairman; retail merchants committee, Harold Green, chairman; new signs, J. R. Garno, chairman; professional, J. C. Beardsley, chairman; budget, George Green, Glenn Kohler and Virgil Tucker. All appointments were approved by the board. Chairmen will name members of their committees at a later date.

All members of the board will be a committee of the whole to work out details for the brochure promotion and the license bureau possibility.

In other business the board made local ministers honorary members of the chamber of commerce and agreed to accept payments for dues on a quarterly, semi-annually and annual basis.

President Green also said he expects to have a membership drive going in about two weeks.

Board members also heard Wallace Whiting discuss the St. Elizabeth's School building fund raising campaign.

School Robbery Nets $400 - $500

A thief or thieves broke into Tecumseh High School some time last Friday night, broke open the safe and stole between $400 and $500.

Amiel Teske, school janitor, discovered the theft Saturday morning when he reported to work.

The safe, in the assistant secretary's office, was pryed open with tools that were left at the scene. Desk drawers also were rifled.

Some loose change was left on the floor and a $700 check was either overlooked or discarded.

Boxes of records were not disturbed.

Chief George Kilbourn is continuing an investigation.

Tecumseh Library To Be Third Class

March 1 Tecumseh Public Library will assume its correct status as a third class library according to state regulations, with a full quota of required personnel.

Mrs. Conrad Fosbender, who in January completed a course in librarianship at Western Michigan College in Kalamazoo, and received her degree, will become librarian with Miss Ruth Harding as assistant.

Since Tecumseh attained a population of five thousand, automatically placing the library in class three, the state law requires that a degree in library science is mandatory for the librarian, and while Miss Harding has a M.S. degree it is not in librarianship.

Mrs. Fosbender, a bride of Feb. 12, also will be in charge of the library at the high school, being on duty in the morning and spending her afternoons and evenings at the Public Library.

CULBERTSON SCHOOL OKAYS JOINING WITH TECUMSEH

At an election held in the Culbertson schoolhouse last Friday eighty-two eligible voters cast ballots on the question "Shall Culbertson District No. 1 fractional annex with Tecumseh school district No. 7."

Results of the voting were 58 yes votes and 24 no votes.

Adult Education Classes Enrollment Ends Monday

Monday night a record-breaking number of persons enrolled in square dancing at Tecumseh High School. This class in adult education is closed with 24 couples taking part.

The first meeting will be held Tuesday, March 2, at 8:30 p.m. in the new Patterson Elementary school on north Van Buren street.

Further enrollments will be accepted for the following classes which will start on March 1:

BEGINNING TYPEWRITING to meet in Room 3 at 7-8:30 has a present enrollment of 12; maximum is 30.

BEGINNING BOOKKEEPING to meet in Room 5 at 7-8:30 has a present enrollment of 7; maximum is 15.

DRESSMAKING to meet in Room 7 at 7-8:30 has a present enrollment of 9; maximum is 12.

The following classes WILL NOT meet unless the minimum enrollment is met on the last registration date—March 1.

SLIPCOVERING AND DRAPERYMAKING — two people have enrolled and there is a need for six more.

OIL PAINTING—this will not start on Feb. 25 because of the lack of enrollment. Only six people have enrolled. Nine more must enroll by next Monday night in order to have the class start on March 4.

GENERAL SHOP — this class has two enrollees. Six more must enroll before this class will start.

MEN'S RECREATION, WOMEN'S RECREATION, AND MEN AND WOMEN'S RECREATION classes have had very little response. It is hoped that a greater number of people will take advantage of the new gymnasium which will be opened for classes on March 15.

DON'T FORGET! Your last chance to enroll is MONDAY AT 6:45 p.m. in ROOM 4.

GREMLINS — As most amateurs and some professional photographers know there can be many a slip between the time the film goes into a camera and the finished product — the picture.

Believe it or not, this picture of the new Patterson Elementary School was an accident. In fact, the photographer did not even focus on this part of the new school. The planned picture, for some reason known only to gremlins, did not come out. And by some trick this picture which was shot accidentally did come out.

Other pictures were taken of Harold Warren, director of maintenance, Hank Young, school custodian, and Wayne Kaiser, school principal. Hank believes he broke the camera, but this is not true. The gremlins in charge of picture taking and picture making processes just saw fit not to develop these interior shots and then when the photographer's back was turned they sneaked up and snapped this view that doesn't begin to do justice to the new school.

And by further trickery on the little men's part they developed the side shot of the school that wasn't even snapped in the first place.

PAST COMMANDERS DINNER SCHEDULED MARCH 4

The Rev. George Walworth will be the speaker at a dinner for Past Commanders and Past Presidents of V.F.W. Hall-Slater Post and its auxiliary to be held March 4 in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church. Supper will be at 6:30 and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Bert Warren, 274-W, no later than March 1. All post and auxiliary members and their wives and husbands are invited.

TTF — Look at a world globe and you will see, among other things, Tecumseh, Michigan. Tecumseh really is on the map, you know, and it has been on the map for 130 years or 13 years before Michigan became a state.

Tecumseh is "on the map" for many good reasons. One of these reasons is that Tecumseh is a good business town.

The HERALD hopes Leo Lohrman of Palman's will excuse our zeal in discussing this idea Leo is using in his advertising. You no doubt noticed it in last week's HERALD and you will be seeing it again and again. The illustration referred to is a world globe with a triangle which reads "TRY TECUMSEH FIRST."

Leo, you will notice, did not say "Try Palman's First." He said "TRY TECUMSEH FIRST." And after chatting with him on this excellent slogan we realize there is not a more sincere promoter of Tecumseh in this town.

Too often the words promotion and promoter are misunderstood. Too often one sees a fat, cigar-smoking, fast-talking glib type of individual who is here today and gone tomorrow. THE HERALD is not discussing this type of promotion and promoter.

This definition of promotion is the one Leo is talking about: "To contribute to the growth and prosperity of the community" and the promoter, of course, is the person who fosters this type of community activity. THE HERALD supports this definition and agrees with Leo that this type of promotion must be continuous with the new blood of fresh ideas constantly pumped into it.

Everybody can contribute to this type of promotion that will serve us all. Everybody can contribute first by doing exactly what Leo advises in his slogan: "TRY TECUMSEH FIRST."

Regardless of what the average family needs, whether it is a new car, new stove, a television, a new suit, new shoes, groceries — or a hundred other miscellaneous items a family needs in its course of living — Tecumseh stores have these items. They have all the national brands. Try local stores first, and you will see what we are talking about.

This also applies to services and the products used in these services. You can buy the same goods here that you might buy elsewhere and you can save time, gas and the wear and tear on your car by trying Tecumseh stores first.

Another important point that too many persons often fail to remember is this: many items bought also have to be serviced. It seems to us that it is only common sense to have this service as near as possible. Tecumseh provides the answer to this problem.

Still another point which to some folks might be called an intangible is the service provided by the owners and clerks of Tecumseh stores. This intangible of courtesy, friendliness and sincere helpfulness is a real thing when we shop. In fact, all other things being equal, we would personally place this as the number one point on the list of why we shop in the home town.

Think it over. Tecumseh stores offer all the brand names; they have the services right here; and their clerks want to help you make intelligent decisions in buying.

TRY TECUMSEH FIRST. You will be glad you did.

SEPTIC TANKS — Tecumseh suburban dwellers who wonder why their septic tanks fail to operate may find the answers in an Ingham county study reported at Michigan State College by the county sanitarian, Philip V. Shirley.

He lists eight reasons for troubles: more persons per house than when units were set up, more water use per person with automatic appliances, more homes being built on low, wet sites with poor drainage and more seasonal high levels of ground water.

Heavy subsoils good for foundations are poor for drainage and Shirley believes many sites might better have remained in agricultural use.

More runoff comes from larger homes with larger roof areas and more paved drives, walks and yard areas. Laws have changed drainage via county drains to a great extent and sanitary sewer have not kept pace. Detergents have an upsetting affect on septic systems.

Letters To The Editor

Editor
The Tecumseh Herald
Tecumseh, Michigan
Dear Sir:

I have just received a letter from Mrs. Vera Driscoll in which she enclosed some clippings; one of which contained a quote from me, reportedly made to Dr. A. L. Miller of Nebraska, stating that our city had a 25% increase in heart disease deaths since fluoridation was started, and asked that I express an opinion to you as to how we felt about fluoridation in Grand Rapids.

As a local public health administrator, I do not want to have any part in political matters of another area. I am interested in that I am not misquoted or that inaccurate statistical information be disseminated about my health jurisdiction.

The quote was in an ad published by the Anti-Fluoridation Committee and copied from the Lansing State Journal of December, 1953. I wish to state that the quote made was only a portion of a statement showing that the increase in death rates for Grand Rapids was more or less parallel with that for the nation, and that there was no evidence of any abnormal increase since fluoridation was started. This related to statistics now over four years old, and a better evaluation can be made if a trend of 10 years were taken; therefore, I am enclosing a mimeographed report of the fluoridation project, including the death rates from heart disease, for your own interpretation.

Needless to say, we are very pleased with the result of the fluoridation program in that it has resulted in a marked decrease in dental caries and that there has been no evidence of harmful effects as a result of its use.

Sincerely yours,
W. B. Prothro, M. D.
Public Health Director
Grand Rapids, Mich.

Editor, The Herald:

"What is the matter with the people in this town? I'll if we had a severe epidemic of polio start here, people, especially parents, would be crying to the doctors for prevention. On the other hand, here is a safe, effective preventative for better dental health offered to Tecumseh people and what happens? People become afraid."

This is a statement made by one of our prominent medical doctors last week.

I believe this fluoridation program is a fight for we mothers and the grandmothers. I wonder how many realize that practically this same opposition occurred in Tecumseh back in 1922 when Dr. Hammel and Dr. Marsh tried to encourage pasteurization of milk in Tecumseh. What happened — in 1930 it was finally enforced!

Just think, the children and citizens of this community were denied the benefits of pasteurization of milk for eight years.

Are we going to sit back and let this happen to fluoridation? If we give in and let them defeat us on this prevention, what will the next defeat be? Gamma globulin or something equally important?

The women of this country have risen up to fight for their beliefs many times. Here is one time we mothers of Tecumseh must fight for the rights of our children.

Recently a young couple came in the office. The man spoke, "We're tired of having our neighbors in our hip pocket. And the kids need more room to run. We want to leave a city lot and find an oversized lot on the edge of town or an acre or two outside."

Remarks such as this illustrate one important fact: Peoples' tastes and needs change in property as well as in other ways.

Fortunately, we don't all want the same type of home. While we are all trying to "better our positions," for some this means moving further out, but for others, closer in.

Through the years we have handled many changes in homes or setting for local families. In lots of cases, we have handled both ends of the transaction — whether they bought first, or sold first.

So remember, if you want to change your housing picture, talk with us. Just drop by the office, or call 36 and we'll visit you.

Grade School News

Kindergarten—Patterson School
Mrs. Updike

We are very much interested in trains, trucks, busses and cars. Many of us are making fire engines from oatmeal boxes.

Emily Manwaring brought a nail-keg to school and she had Dexter Baily are making a big engine.

One of our new story books is called "Clear the Tracks." We have found many poems and songs about all these things that "go."

Janice Sinkey brought us two big gold fish. We named them Mike and Ike. Eddie Brazee's turtle takes a walk out of his pan once in a while and we have fun hunting for him.

Joe-Jo our big snail is fun to watch too. He climbs over the little house and bridge and doesn't seem to mind when he falls.

There are fifty-six children in our kindergarten now. Mary Jane Hester and Larry Coats are our new children.

We are enjoying telling stories of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. When we march we like to carry our little flags and salute the big flag as we march by. We are happy to be good Americans.

Kindergarten—West Branch
Miss Bugbee

Our room is gaily decorated for the month of February. We cut out some red paper hearts and pasted them on white paper doilies for our blackboards. Instead of having our weather calendar this month, we are marking off the days with red hearts.

Our birthday list shows Cupid shooting hearts. On each heart is written the names of the children who have birthdays this month. They are Gwendolyn Tingley, Alonzo Sanchez, Ricky Brighton, Barbara Wood, and Lois Nichols. Each one brought refreshments which their mothers had fixed for us.

We had a lovely Valentine party in our room. That day we took our mailboxes home which were just filled with Valentines from all our friends. We had just lots of fun looking at them. We made a Valentine for our mothers and fathers too.

We are the proud owners of a new workbook called "Kindograph." We are learning to do many things in it.

There were many special days to think about this month. For Ground Hog Day we heard a story about the little ground hog who slept through Christmas and New Years and still wanted to sleep longer but his mother wouldn't let him. Dental Health Week we learned the proper way of brushing our teeth, and a little rhyme called "Shiny Teeth." We talked about Lincoln and Washington, their lives, and why they were so great. Some of us saw stories on television about them and shared these with our friends. We also made pictures of them, as well as log cabins and hatchets.

We have been working on a postoffice activity We are learning what work is done in the postoffice, as well as the work of our mailman. We each made our own mailbox for the Valentine party, and we heard a story about the "Little Man of Bayberry Lane."

Patricia Schwede of the second grade came into our room to sing for us. She sang several songs which we enjoyed very much.

Most of us know our numbers at least to 10. We have fun counting to see how much milk we need, or how many crayons. We are learning to write our names in manuscrip, and find that it is real easy. Before we were writing them all in capital letters.

We collected $21 for the March of Dimes. We were happy to be able to do our part to help someone else.

James Miller has moved to Wichita Falls, Texas. We were sorry to have him leave us. John Moody has joined our afternoon group. He moved here from Onsted, and we are happy to have him with us.

We had our pictures taken in a group. We are anxious to see what they look like.

Our visitors this month were Mrs. June Green, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Belote, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Ostrander, Brenda Bugbee, Mrs. Bush, Miss Gloria Reed, Mrs. George Green and Mrs. Barton.

Jeffrey Robison has been absent several days, because he had his tonsils out. We miss him, and hope he'll soon be back with us.

We'll have more news for you next month.

West Branch—First Grade
Miss Steinhoff

Our teacher is reading us a book called "The Adventures of Christopher Bunny." We like the stories very much.

This semester instead of science we are studying Health and Personal Development. We use a very interesting little book called "Happy Times With Our Friends." We have learned that it isn't safe to leave our toys in or near driveways and alleys. We also learned how to play safely on the sidewalk.

We had a fine Valentine project. Each of us decorated our own Valentine envelope and put a number on it. With the help of our teacher we matched names with numbers and sorted our Valentines. By party time each of us had an envelope filled with Valentines.

During our party each of us blindfolded tried to put a dart on the center of a large heart. How hard it is to go straight when you can't see!

We enjoyed ice cream and prettily decorated cookies. We wish to thank our Room Mothers very much for their help at all of our parties this year.

On Feb. 15 we welcomed a new pupil to our room—John Davis from Clinton.

Kindergarten
Mrs. Heimerdinger

We have our work books and are finding the work very interesting. We coordinate our work books with the Kindergraph Kit.

Billy Hadley returned from California and Mexico. He brought a straw-braided cowboy for the room from Mexico City.

This week we made Holiday Hats to celebrate the February birthdays. We have discussed our two famous men and the teacher has read many stories about them.

We are concentrating on the concept of the first five numbers.

We are learning a number of fingerplays using the first five numbers.

Grade I
Mrs. Sclater

We would all like to thank our room mothers: Mrs. Carson House, Mrs. Clarence Gabler, Mrs. Kenneth McEnroe, and Mrs. Donald Morley for helping at each one of our parties.

Some of us have a new book. This book is called "Fun With Dick and Jane." We have all started the book "Happy Days." This is our health book.

We want to thank Mrs. Crawford who was our teacher while Mrs. Sclater was sick.

We had a nice Valentine party and all of us got so many Valentines that we had a hard time going home.

We like our new room. It is a large room with enough space so that we can play different games.

Grade I
Miss Warner

Hi! Here we are again.

Today is certainly a nice day but we are not sure how the weather will be tomorrow. We are interested in the weather because we are learning about it in science. We are making a weather chart. We will keep track of the weather each day and mark it on our chart.

We have a new girl in our room. She is Shirley Kemp. She came to our school from Florida.

We all enjoyed our Valentine party very much. We would like to thank our room mothers for helping us with it.

Grade I
Mrs. McFerran

No longer are we rubbing backs. For almost a month we have been in our new Room 208.

We certainly have been enjoying it. We have our own library at the back of the room. Sue Rutherford is our librarian. A piano has been moved into the room. Dianne Bartenslager keeps it dusted. In health we have been talking about keeping ourselves clean and helping to clean at home. We want our room to be just as tidy.

We had a very nice Valentine party. We decorated our own Valentine box, and made place mats, party hats and Valentines. Ice cream and cup cakes were served by our room mothers.

We are reading stories about Dick, Jane and Sally's pets. On our black board we are making an exhibit of our toys and pets. Tom Cobb, Joel Rutherford, Ruth Neidermier, Doug Wilcox, Mike Sharpe, Mary Peck, Dianne Bartenslager, and Keye Luke have pictures on display.

Grade I
Mrs. Faling

My but we are the happiest little folk in Tecumseh! Our room is so pretty and we think it is so much fun to have other friends to see and play with. Do you know that we each have our very own locker? We don't lose our boots and mittens so easily now. We also have our own drinking fountain in the room. During the first few days, we were quite thirsty!

We think the gym is about the nicest thing of all. We get to play in it every Friday afternoon. Of course we have to have gym shoes or else we play in our stocking feet. We are very proud of our new school and we want you all to come and see it soon. We're sure you will agree with us when you see it.

Our Valentine party was nice and each of us received a great many valentines from the "postman." We enjoyed the nice cupcakes and ice cream, too.

We are becoming very good readers: The "Ships" and "Jets" have finished their pre-primers and are ready to begin their "Fun With Dick and Jane" books. The "Indians" and "Pilots" are reading right along, too.

In arithmetic we are learning the position of the numbers 1 to 10. We use markers with the numbers on them to help us locate the right place. We put our chairs in rows and then try and tell which row and which chair we are sitting in. Someday when we go to a theater we will know how to read the tickets and find our very own seat.

In science we are learning how wheels help us. We are going to make some charts showing the different things that use wheels.

We are learning about the little words "I" and "me" in our writing books. We can write them and use them in sentences. Our spelling list grows each day.

We have had two birthdays this month. Keith Kilbourn and Marie Kohler are seven years old. They had nice parties for us.

There have been many little empty seats in our room the past week. The measles have kept quite a few of our friends home. We hope they will be back with us soon.

Please come and see our new room; we are so proud of it. Until next month, bye.

First Grade
Mrs. Neitling

Many of us have finished reading "Fun With Dick and Jane." We have learned so many words that we can now read several books without any help.

Mrs. Finnegan, Mrs. Miller, and Mrs. Cook visited us during the last week. We are very proud and happy when our mothers come to visit. We like to introduce them to the boys and girls in our room.

We had a very nice Valentine party. We each made our own Valentine box. This was almost as much fun as the party.

We now have an activity table. We may go here to read, draw, color, work puzzles or to do something else we want to do when we have finished our regular work. We must be quiet and take good care of materials while at the activity table or we cannot sit there again.

Our new books, "Happy Days" teach us many of the health and safety rules. We want to be like Jane, Dick and Sally. We want to keep clean, healthy, and safe.

We wrote letters of our very own this week. We all liked Frank Choske's letter the best of all.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Handy and Easy "Sign Up"

Last month's safety drive was a big success—almost. Every one helped—the schools ran movies on safe driving, Rotary put up posters, and Handy and Easy Peters went out on their own.

The boys put up a big sign by the side of the highway. It said, "Slow down—the life you save may be your own." It was a good idea—after the police moved the sign back twelve feet.

In their enthusiasm Handy and Easy put it too close to the road—in fact, right on the sharpest curve on the highway. They made driving unsafe by cutting off the view around the curve.

From where I sit, lots of people—even though they mean well—suffer from short-sightedness now and again. For instance, some can never see any further than their own preferences. They even go so far as to object to my choice of a glass of beer with supper. Shouldn't we always take the "long view"... and respect our neighbors' rights?

It's Chevrolet's

with the year's brightest new idea in interiors!

This Delray Club Coupe combines all the colorful smartness of a sport model with an interior that's designed for everyday family use. Seats, sidewalls, even the headlining, are all of soft, lustrous vinyl in color treatments that harmonize with the exterior color of your choice.

And this new interior is just as durable and practical as it is beautiful. The vinyl is easily washable and amazingly resistant to scuffing and wear. You don't have to worry about little feet on the seats or the things that little hands might spill. And for grown-ups, here at last is a coupe that provides all the between-seat knee-room of a 2-door sedan!

The Delray Club Coupe is only one of the wonderful new Chevrolet models that make up the lowest-priced line in the low-price field. Come in and look them over.

GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH HAS FAMILY NIGHT

Family Night of Grace Lutheran church last week was a successful event. It had been planned by the Ladies' Aid.

After a potluck supper the minister projected slides marking the progress of the building program and showing various church activities.

A play in which most of the young people took part, was enjoyed by all. A delightful and entertaining harmonica selection was played by Wynn Matteson.

A trio was rendered by Loah Nichols, Lee Britton, and Fred Jeschke. Selections were sung by Nancy Dinse and Janice Wagner, by Patricia Schwede and by the Saturday School children.

Mr. Jeschke played accordion selections from Wagner and Von Suppe and introduced his new ballad, "The Ferris Wheel," which was sung by the children. One hundred nine persons were present.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

Gulliver in the land of the Lilliputians is perhaps a slightly exaggerated analogy for the feeling of an adult visiting the new Patterson school. Yet there are areas where only a grown up is out of place. Graduating from the tot-size furnishings of the kindergarten to the almost full grown equipment of the sixth grade, everything is planned, drawn and built for those who are to use it — the children.

And, of those children, the visitor feels the luckiest of all are the Least Ones. He never quite grew up, that architect, a Peter Pan of the drafting board who had never forgotten what it was like to be little. He gave the lion's share of the sunshine to the kindergarteners, he gave them their own door, just life size for a five year old, which opens into their own hall with just the right size places for coats and boots.

Nowhere in this Never-Never Land do they have to adjust themselves to an adult world. Chairs, tables, their own individual cupboards, toilets, drinking fountain and lavatory, all are built to their size. The floor, inlaid with Mother Goose characters, smooth resilient and warmed is an invitation to be sat upon and the theme of it all might well be—sunshine and space.

No wonder one little girl spent most of her first day skipping about on tip-toe "because it made her feel just like a bird." That room is a dream come true to teacher, Dorothy Updike and those who know how long and how well she has created that needed sunshine and light from her own personality are as happy as she.

But all the good things are not confined to the kindergarten. The over all atmosphere of light and space, the soft, happy colors of walls and furniture make the more work-a-day grade rooms inviting spots. The boy, who took one, first look into the pleasant lobby and sat down and took off his boots before he entered, set a practice of appreciation for all. The kindergarten has the sunshine but the grade rooms on the north have the creek, which would seem to be an even exchange.

Among those who will visit the new school Sunday will be "alumni" of the little red school house, of the old East, West and North Branch schools of the town, even of the N.Y.C. depot and—Heaven rest its memory!—of the Vendoma hotel. No matter what fond memories they may have for those edifices, there will be some who will find it in their hearts to regret that they were born so many years—or decades—or generations—too soon.

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES Library

Among the many books on the Library shelves that are of especial interest to those who live in Michigan are two that deserve more readers. They are "Lewis Cass, the Last Jeffersonian" by Frank B. Woodford and "Stephen Thomson Mason, Misunderstood Patriot" by Kent Sagendorph.

The two form a painless method of learning of Michigan's early history for they read like fiction with the added zest of truth. Cass in particular seems almost a part of our own local story for we knew he was closely associated with the men who were the founders of Tecumseh. Austin E. Wing, "Tecumseh's god-father" was a close friend and his secretary at one time and their association smoothed the way of the town's organization.

Steven T. Mason's part in the Toledo war brings him into close touch also with our early days for it was he who gave the orders to Tecumseh's General Joseph Brown, who led the Michigan forces. While most of the Michigan life of both men was centered in Detroit, both traveled into the interior and reading of their adventures is like reading of our own.

The tragedy of Mason's political and personal life makes poignant reading as does the wider career of Cass. History of the state and nation is bound up in the lives of both men. The two books are well worth taking down from the library shelves.

Perhaps You've Wondered what ADRIAN FEDERAL does with its Savers' Money

- To begin with, every savers account opened with us is automatically insured to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.
- The money that savers bring to Adrian Federal is lent to qualified families in this community to help them own their homes debt free on a monthly repayable basis.
- The moderate interest charged on these loans provides the income from which earnings are paid to savers. Thus is begun a chain of events that circulates the home loan money throughout the community. It goes to the contractor and the skilled tradesmen who build the home.
- Then it goes into the pockets of the merchants and others in the community who provide needed goods and services.
- Finally, these folks bring a part of these dollars back in the form of savings to our association and to the banks and other financial institutions.

That's American Free Enterprise at Work! And the Cycle Is Repeated Daily . . . Year in and Year out Making Our Community a Better Place to Live!

Talk of the Town

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hoag and son Paul of Saginaw were week-end guests of their parents, Mrs. Bertha Hoag and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon. The occasion of their visit was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bertha Hoag on Sunday, when she was pleasantly surprised by her sons and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Dale and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoag.

Mrs. Frank Nyland, who was a guest of her niece, Mrs. Earl Pennington for several weeks and who visited various Tecumseh friends returned to her home in Kalamazoo, Thursday.

Thomas Hamilton, who has been a patient at Herrick Memorial hospital following an emergency appendectomy last Wednesday evening has returned to his home and is making a satisfactory recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hayden, Mrs. Perry Hayden and son Joe and Perry Satterthwaite were in Toledo last evening, attending a concert of the Toledo orchestra at the Peristyle, auditorium of the Art Museum. Guest soloist with the orchestra was Camilla Deborah Heller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heller, nee Camilla Hayden, of Appleton, Wisc. Miss Heller, a student of the violincello at the University of Michigan school of music, played Boccherini's Violin-cello Concerto in B-flat. Mrs. Heller, who has been visiting her daughter in Ann Arfor this week, returned to Tecumseh last night for a visit of several days with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hayden.

A group from Tecumseh, all friends of William Schnerlia and his sister, Miss Pauline Schnerlia of Clinton surprised them Feb. 14, in observance of Mr. Schnerlia's birthday. They took him a decorated birthday cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hunt, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Philips of Holloway were in Blissfield Sunday for the celebration of the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Procknow.

Mrs. Robert Lowry and son Reed, of Boston, Mass., are spending this week at the home of Mrs. Lowry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn VanDenburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Max VanCamp and Mrs. VanCamp's mother, Mrs. Lape of Hillsdale visited Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sturtevant, Sunday.

Mrs. George W. Barney of Grand Rapids spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Leonore West and her mother, Mrs. Kitty Finch. Mrs. Finch, who has been seriously ill for some weeks is slightly improved in health.

Mrs. Raynor Ross was taken to University hospital in Ann Arbor last week for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zimmerman and sons of Sylvania and Margaret Service and son Gary spent Saturday evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Creger. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Creger and refreshments, including a birthday cake, were served. Mrs. Creger received many nice gifts. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Creger and granddaughters spent the day in Brooklyn as guests of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Creger.

Miss Margaret Lowry spent last weekend in Bloomfield Village visiting her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lowry.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Ousterhout, Mrs. Kenneth Ringman and Mrs. Robert Ferguson were in Detroit the first three days of this week attending a school of design, sponsored by the Michigan Florists' Association.

Mrs. Edwin Williamson of Kalamazoo is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Anderson. Miss Edith Goyette of Detroit is an additional guest in the Anderson home.

Later Mrs. Williamson will go to Monroe to be a guest of Mrs. E. R. Childs and family.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Calhoun were Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Zaffina of Chicago. Mrs. Zaffina and Mrs. Calhoun were girlhood friends in Mexico City. On Sunday, Mr. Zaffina, a commercial artist whose specialty is cartoons, entertained the Sunday school of the Holloway church with a demonstration of the development of that form of illustration. He was immediately recognized by the children present as a cartoonist they had seen on television and in response to requests for autographs, each child received a personal drawing.

Edward DeGroot of Holloway, who has been a patient for some time at the University of Michigan hospital, has been transferred to the Veteran's hospital, also in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Yeagle of Rt. 3, Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Mason, have returned from a 1,000 mile trip along the Guf of Mexico. They returned by way of Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and Illinois.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

If you are looking for a sharp contrast to flabby and superficial living, fix your gaze upon Susan B. Anthony. Here was a soul possessed by a single idea, women should have equal rights with men.

For half a century she was the organizer and director of the woman suffrage campaign. She laid siege to Congress and for forty years appeared annually before its committees. She spoke incessantly throughout the land. She wrote numerous articles for the press and carried on a voluminous correspondence with her pen, never owning a typewriter or employing a secrtary until near the end of her career.

The righteousness of her cause is now universally recognized and it is difficult for us to put ourselves in the frame of mind of her opponents. Yet Miss Anthony and her fellow suffragists were subjected to an almost unparalled degree of abuse and vilification. Year after year insulting epithets of the most extreme nature were hurled at them from coast to coast.

In 1871 a Seattle editor wrote concerning Miss Anthony: "She is a revolutionist, aiming at nothing less than the breaking up of the very foundation of society, and the overthrow of every social institution organized for the protection of the sancity of the altar, the family circle and the legitimacy of our off-spring . . . The whole plans is coarse, sensual and agrarian, the worst phase of French infidelity and communism." The worst phase of communism!

The truth is that Susan B. Anthony was a gentle and devout little Quaker lady with a passion for justice for women. Nothing could swerve her, not fatigue and weariness, not opposition and abuse, not defeat piled upon defeat. Her personality was unified in a great cause.

Joy Lickfelt Is Bride Of John Dew

A pretty home wedding took place Saturday afternoon near Tipton when Joy Lucille Lickfelt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lickfelt of Rt. 1, Tipton was married to Johnny Dew, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Dew of Rt. 1, Clinton.

The Rev. George Brown officiated at the single ring ceremony. Vaughn Lickfelt, brother of the bride played "Because" and then the wedding march as the bride entered on the arm of her father, attended by a sister, Charlotte, as maid of honor, two other sisters, Patricia and Margaret and Ellen Sherrard and Annette Ruttkofsky as bridesmaids.

The bridal gown was of white satin with a round neckline, and the lace trimmed veil was held by a jewelled tiara. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

The maid of honor and the bridemaids wore blue, yellow and pink and carried similiar bouquets of pink carnations.

The reception, which was held at 4 p. m., was attended by guests from Detroit, Britton, Tecumseh, Clinton and Holloway.

The bride has been employed for the past eight years at the Quaker Oats Company and the groom is an employee of the Tecumseh Products Co.

They are making their home in the Hoag apartment at 207 Logan St.

MISSION GUILD

A memorial service for the late Mrs. Frank Bates and Mrs. Deyo Tallman, both of whom had been members of the Florence Weld Mission Guild, was conducted by Miss Edith Ingersoll at the February meeting of the organization held at the home of Miss Mary Whitelock Tuesday evening.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held Feb. 26 and 27 and the lesson of the evening was given by Mrs. E. E. Davis, "The Story of the Mustard Seed."

Hostesses for the March meeting are Mrs. Fred Marsh and Mrs. Albert Jahn.

GIRL SCOUTS OBSERVED THINKING DAY MONDAY

Intermediate and Junior Hi Girl Scouts were guests of the Girl Scout Cadets, Troop No. 11, Monday in the social room of the Methodist church when they observed Thinking Day. About eighty-five girls and leaders attended.

Upon arrival the girls were served punch and cookies made from recipes of foreign countries from a table attractively decorated in patriotic colors. The guests then became a part of the assembly at a Girl Scout meeting over which Jane Colgrove presided. Troop members answered roll call by giving interesting facts about Girl Scouts and Girl Guides in other countries. Then letters from pen pals living in Germany, England and Africa were read and postcard pictures were shown.

Tributes were paid to Lord and Lady Baden-Powell and Juliette Low for organizing the Girl Scout movement. After singing Scout songs together, all of the Scouts participated in making contributions to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund by placing the money in a Swiss chalet which is a symbol of international friendship while Troop No. 17 sang "Our Chalet Song".

The girls then formed a good night circle and in conclusion sang "Taps." The offering to the friendship fund was $8.93. The Cadets planned the party under the leadership of Mrs. Wallace Rutherford. Members are Jane Colgrove, Barbara Crowell, Norma Jewell, Joan Kemp, Lois Kiser, Janice Kreps, Martha Owen, Joyce Partridge, Judy Ann Ripley, Jackie Rucker, Carol Sue Rutherford, Kathy Tomorsky, Mary Jo Tressler and Joyce Wilbar.

MRS. DICKINSON REVIEWS BOOK FOR MONDAY CLUB

The February meeting of the Monday Club was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Wickwire with the program under the leadership of Mrs. Wesley Mast.

Mrs. Mast introduced Mrs. F. C. Dickinson as the speaker of the afternoon, who reviewed Alan Paton's "Too Late the Phalarope." With the premise that the book had been found by many too difficult and abstract for enjoyment, Mrs. Dickinson proceded to make it interesting and enjoyable for her listeners.

Announcement was made of a spring trip to be made by the club to the Toledo Museum of Art sometime after April 5 for the special showing of Van Gogh paintings which are to be on display in only three of the nation's art museums. Miss Lillian Cannon is to be general chairman of arrangements.

There was a discussion of the possibility of obtaining a permanent meeting place for the club and a committee, consisting of Mrs. Ted LaBounty, Mrs. Fred Marsh, Mrs. Floyd Bryan and Mrs. Edna Codling was appointed to look into the matter.

Mrs. Ena Whaley was reinstated into membership and the religious thought of the day was given by Mrs. Marsh.

Mrs. Guy Pocklington and Mrs. Joe Rice presided at the tea table which was decorated with flowers in the red, white and blue motif of the day.

Dollars and Sense

Some strange figures and contentions have been put forward regarding the cost of fluoridation of the city water supply. To set the record straight, we feel that it is important that the actual cost of fluoridation be examined.

First, the cost of equipment and installation for treating our water supply was not charged to the taxpayers. NO PART of this expense was paid for by the city, it was a donation toward better health for all. The only expense borne by the taxpayers now or in the future is the cost of purchasing the sodium fluoride. Let us examine this cost in its proper light.

On the basis of 10 months' experience in adding fluoride (April 1953 - March 1954) Tecumseh will use about 5 tons of sodium fluoride per year. The cost of the raw material is about $12 per 100 pounds. This supplies our present population of approximately 5600 at a cost of $1200 per year. We expect this price to decrease when we begin buying the materials in bulk quantities. However, even on the basis of $1200, fluoridation costs each person in Tecumseh about 20c PER YEAR.

Fluoridation is beneficial to all people in the community. Actually we all have cavities, usually several per year. While fluoridation gives maximum protection to children who have used it since birth, all persons will gain to a certain degree. Children from ages 1 - 6 have experienced up to a 72% reduction in tooth decay, from ages 7 - 12 they have had up to 35% reduction, and proportionate reduction continues in all age groups. These facts have been proven by studies over a period of 25 years in areas with both natural and added fluoride.

Since all of us have cavities and fluoride has proven its value in preventing them, the 20c (or lower) cost per year is a small price to pay for this protection. When you consider that your dentist charges $4 for filling just one minor cavity, then this is money wisely spent. By stopping just ONE CAVITY, the savings in dentist bills will pay your share of the cost of adding fluoride to the water for 20 YEARS.

Consider in this light, the cost to the community is certainly negligible. What difference does it make that only a small part of the fluoridated water is actually taken into the body through drinking. It's easier and much less expensive to fluoridate the entire water supply than to consume fluoride any other way. The 20c a year expense is about the same amount needed to provide electricity to your house for ONE DAY, or to heat it for 8 - 10 hours. Surely we can all afford 20c to protect ourselves from the expense and inconvenience of the dentist's chair. Fluoridation offers us a desirable benefit — freedom from tooth decay, for 20c A YEAR. This is certainly cheap insurance.

Cost, therefore, cannot be a logical argument against fluoridation. Thinking people, using common horse sense, should be able to see through the misconceptions sold to the voters of Tecumseh as reasons why fluoride should be eliminated from the water. Fluoridation is here for our use to protect our children from tooth decay. In the final analysis you will only vote on one question. DO YOU OR DO YOU NOT WISH TO GIVE OUR CHILDREN BETTER TEETH??

Think about it!

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

As a dental hygienist in the city of Tecumseh, I am in a position to observe the teeth of preschool and school children. As a registered hygienist, I am licensed for the topical application of fluorine to benefit these children. Many people do not realize that this will give only half the protection that fluoridated water does, at many, many times the cost.

It is the duty of every citizen of this city to see that the youth of this community get the maximum protection against the disease of tooth decay. The majority of families cannot afford to have fluoride topically applied. Is there anyone who cannot afford 10¢ a year?

Mrs. George Anderton, R.D.H.

Editor, The Herald:

What has made Tecumseh known the world over as the "Biggest little town on earth?" After being a resident of Tecumseh for sixteen years, I feel this is the smallest thinking little town on earth. Have prosperity, succers, and progress destroyed all the culture Tecumseh has been noted for?

Why so much mud throwing and back slapping on every issue that comes before the public? Why not hold up our name in word, thought, and deed?

Are we going to throw away millions of dollars in research for better health at a cost of $1,000 a year for Tecumseh?

One thousand cities have fluoridated water. Nine cities have rejected fluoridation.

Are we going to be the only city ever to have such a program and then refuse its benefits?

Mrs. Donald Nixon

Editor, The Herald:

Our water supply in Tecumseh has been fluoridated for almost one year. You, the press, have had adequate time to investigate the caliber of organizations endorsing or opposing this program.

Some of us who have not been as close to this situation may still be in doubt on this matter of public health. What should we believe?

What is the position of this paper on the question of fluoridation in Tecumseh?

Mrs. Adah Bushart,
315 N. Pearl Street

Editor, The Herald:

Boy, was I surprised when Dr. Murray told me that fluoride is not shoveled into our water supply, it is regulated by a delicate machine, set at one part per million.

Also, that a test is made daily of this concentration and weekly a sample is sent to Lansing. These daily reports must coincide with these from Lansing, assuring us that in Tecumseh, we do not have more than one part per million.

Mrs. Irene Rogers
100 Parkway Court,
Tecumseh

Editor, The Herald:

I wonder if everyone realizes just how important the success of our fluoridation program in Tecumseh really is.

Many people are not aware that the attack made against it is not a local thing but a nationwide organized resistance to progress. The ones who are fighting fluoridation elsewhere have fought every other major health measure that has been brought about in the last 30 years. I've always felt that America and progress are synonymous and an attack on progress is an attack on America.

The fact that Tecumseh has been, in the past, a little slow in accepting some of the health measures (such as pasteurization of milk) sets us up like clay pigeons for a campaign of this sort.

The eyes of the health department are once more focused on Tecumseh. I sincerely hope that this time we will come through with flying colors. With a new polio season coming up and vaccines to be handed out, I don't believe this is any time to quibble over "tastes and odors" that have been around for years. (I'm certain that by now everyone considers the poison angle ridiculous, even the antis' have switched to "You—The Taxpayer").

It seems reasonable to assume that the Health Department want waste precious vaccines on a community that just isn't interested in health, but if we show that we're NOT Rip Van Winkles and Simple Simons, maybe we'll at least have a 50-50 chance.

Very sincerely,
Mrs. D. E. Reed
Tecumseh

Editor, The Herald:

The major portion of beer consumed here in Tecumseh is made with fluoridated water.

Are we not being selfish in drinking fluoridated beer and yet depriving our children of the benefits of drinking fluoridated water?

William Britton, D.V.M.

Editor, The Herald:

FIVE REASONS WHY I AM VOTING YES ON FLUORIDATION—

(1) Because, any plan that will save Tecumseh children the toothache, dental-chair-anguish, and too early loss of too many teeth, that I experienced deserves a YES vote.

(2) Because, the American Dental Association says, "No evidence has ever been submitted that water containing one part per million fluorine will produce a toxic (harmful or poisonous) effect. More than four million people in the United States for many years have used a water supply in which fluorine concentration is from seven-tenths to three parts per million with no detrimental effect. In 1953, 918 United States communities were fluorinating their water and over 200 more have approved the program."

(3) Because, a high school student can prove that any odor, discoloration of sinks, damage to plumbing, etc., attributed to fluoridation are caused by iron, sulphur, flushing of pipes and other causes than fluorides.

(4) Because, I know that my son, Robert Laidlaw, D.D.S., was only interested in better health for all Tecumseh children when he recommended to the Council the fluoridation program. Also that he made an extensive study of fluoridation and was convinced by the best medical and dental authorities that fluoridation would not be harmful to anyone in Tecumseh.

(5) Because, I have no right to deprive the boys and girls of the proved benefits of fluoridation, I am voting YES!

Sincerely,
O. W. Laidlaw

Editor, The Herald:

Is it possible that Tecumseh's physicians and dentists are attempting to poison Tecumseh's citizens?

The answer, of course, is no, for fluoridation is a preventive public health measure, with great benefit to all future generations.

If the answer is yes, then we dentists and physicians are very inefficient, as one ounce of botulinus toxin would do the job much more quickly than tons upon tons of sodium fluoride.

Sincerely,
T. R. Cage, D.D.S.,
515 W. Chicago Blvd.

Editor, The Herald:

I am in receipt of a letter from Dr. Wertheimer, chief, Michigan State Department of Public Health, Dental Division.

I am amazed to learn that 1,000 cities have approved fluoridation of their water supplies. Only 9 cities have ever delayed such a measure.

Will Tecumseh stand out as being Number 1001, or Number 10.

Miss Lois Lawson,
Assistant to R. J. Murray, D.D.S.

Editor, The Herald:

You have published in different issues of your weekly paper the list of members on the "Fluoridation Facts Committee."

Why can't your readers have the same information on members of "Tecumseh Anti-Fluoridation Committee"?

It is true, you have mentioned a chairman and another member of the committee. Is that the extent of their membership?

Sincerely,
Jean W. Colgrove
(Mrs. P. G. Colgrove)

Editor, The Herald:

Tecumseh is proud of its one half million dollar hospital, built to care for those who are so unfortunate as to become sick. Everyone has put a shoulder to the wheel to get it going.

Why quibble over a thousand dollars per year to be spent to give our children better teeth? True, we, as voters, did not have this benefit in our youth, but our parents made every effort to give us all the benefits known to them at that time. As we all know, good teeth are necessary to insure good health. Why not give our children this benefit.

An interested citizen,
Mrs. Hoyt E. Whelan

Editor, The Herald:

I am an interested mother on this fluoridation program.

We have spent a lot of money to give our children the best of dental care.

The fluorine treatments cost $40 per child when given by the dentist, starting at the age of three.

I feel sorry for the people with large families.

How much cheaper to pay 10 or 15 cents per person a year and have the same benefits as compared with the $10 per year treatments by the dentist.

I do hope the voters will vote to continue the fluoridation. Our children all deserve the best.

Shirley Smith
(Mrs. G. Maxwell Smith)

Editor, The Herald:

Fluoridation has become a political football in Tecumseh and our childrens' health the stake.

Let's look back a few years; due to the efforts of our parents, the elimination or reduction of plague, influenza, rabies, smallpox, undulant fever, typhoid fever, goiter and tuberculosis have prolonged our life expectancy by prevention rather than cure. Let us prolong the life expectancy of our children's teeth by prevention rather than cure, thus reducing the discomfort and cost of dental care.

We are asked:

(1) To continue fluoridation along with 1,000 other U. S. cities in decreasing the world's most prevalent disease, tooth decay.

OR:

(2) Taking another step backward and delaying this public health measure the same way pasteurization was delayed here in Tecumseh from 1922 to 1930.

The voters of Tecumseh should know that since fluoridation was begun here, over five million more people in the United States decided to undertake such a program. We have taken a step forward for better health and at 10¢ per year our investment will return one-hundred fold.

Robert Murray, D.D.S.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

In observance of the sixth birthday anniversary of her daughter Barbara, Mrs. Robert Wood entertained a group of boys and girls Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4. The little guests were Duane, Dale and David Wood of Adrian, Michael, Rebecca, Brenda and Jonnie Yager, Cathie Haskins, Linda Bush, Sharon and Debbie Yager of Hudson, Gillis Turner, David Radant, Stanley Wise, Rae Lyne Crosby, Georgia Meads and Beverly and Buster Wood.

Refreshments were served from a table gay with pink, yellow and green decorations and centered by a lighted birthday cake. Barbara received many lovely gifts. Mrs. Wood was assisted by Mrs. Wayne and Mrs. Eugene Yager.

SPECIAL MEETING

Mrs. Owen Partridge, Worthy Matron of the Order of Eastern Star, reminds members of the order that there will be a special meeting this week Thursday evening for the purpose of initiation. It will call at 8 p. m.

- - Local Happenings - -

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hadley returned Saturday from a two week's trip to Florida. Enroute they visited their son, Robert, a student at Duke University, who, contrary to a recent incorrect news item, is still a bachelor.

Sgt. Ernest Fish and Sgt. Gale Myer, both of the Instructor Corps of the Marine Reserves in Hamilton, Ohio, were weekend guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fish.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Herrick returned Monday from a three week's stay at Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Before leaving they met Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Rathbun who had driven down arriving Friday. The Rathbuns also expect to stay for three weeks.

The condition of Louis Schneider Sr., who has been a patient in University hospital, Ann Arbor for the past two weeks, is reported as showing very slight improvement but is still critical. Mrs. Schneider is remaining in Ann Arbor to be with her husband.

The Worthy Matron and Patron of the local chapter of O.E.S., Mr. and Mrs. Owen Partridge were in Detroit, Monday evening to attend a reception given for Mrs. Blanch Camburn by her chapter, "Loa." Mrs. Camburn was a recent guest of the local chapter. Grand Officers were present and exemplified the degree work.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sauer and daughters Linda and Jean of Sturgis came Saturday for an over Sunday visit with Mrs. Sauer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn VanDenbergh.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rhein and son Peter were weekend guests of Mrs. Rhein's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Forney of Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Robison and family spent Sunday in Bay City with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Boussum.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curtiss spent the weekend in Traverse City as the guests of Trooper and Mrs. Morris Tubbs. The Tubbs are the parents of a new daughter, Ruth Ann, born Jan. 16. Mrs. Tubbs is the former Pat Nyland of Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ward had as guests last week Mrs. Ward's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lee of Paducah, Ky. Mrs. Ward is recovering from a recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanna and son Gary have just returned from two weeks in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Little Lee Hannibal, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hanibal is confined to his home with measles.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Snook and daughter were weekend guests of Mrs. Snook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nichols in Lima, Ohio.

Mrs. Carson House Jr. entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pearson and daughter Jackie and Richard, Linda and Nancy Shephard.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lask and daughters Linda and Kathy visited Mrs. Lask's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Allstradt in Detroit, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Valendra and family were in Ottawa Lake Sunday with the David Valendra family.

Dr. and Mrs. T. Rentschler will leave Saturday on a fifteen day trip to Gulfport, Miss., and will visit New Orleans. At Natchez, Miss., they will make the pilgrimage through the antebellum homes and gardens.

Mrs. Edward Pfalz is spending two weeks with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. John DeFoe in Memphis, Tenn. Both are daughters of Mrs. Henrietta Lindsley.

For we walk by faith, not by sight.—(II Corinthians 5, 7.)

Unless we walk by faith and are steadfast and strong in it, our prayers can avail us little. Faith means an unquestioning and glad acceptance of God's will, in the firm understanding that it is for the best—for He knows the end as well as the beginning of all things.

MACON
Mrs. Hamilton Moore
Correspondent

The Macon Community Club entertained last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas. Eighteen members and friends enjoyed a potluck supper and Mrs. Hamilton Moore conducted the business meeting. It was decided that election of officers will be held at the March meeting. Mr. and Mrs. O. Evans were in charge of the program. Melvin Travis read several interesting selections about George Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harmon have gone to Florida to spend a few weeks on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Miss Ann Riccia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riccia, underwent an appendectomy in Herrick Memorial hospital last week.

Mrs. Clarence Schroeder spent Thursday in Adrian attending a recreation program given for Extension Club and 4-H workers.

Mrs. Lawrence Ditmore of Ottawa Lake, Mrs. Robert Leidel of Maybee, Mrs. Richard Upell and children, Mrs. Alfred Schwede and Mrs. Forest Abner and daughter spent Thursday in the Russell and Richard Vershum home.

Mrs. Clarence Schroeder was hostess to the Macon Homemakers Extension Club Friday afternoon. A dessert luncheon was served at one o'clock to nine members. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Herbert Morden gave the lesson on sewing machine attachments. Mrs. Schroeder reported on the recreation meeting she had attended in Adrian recently. Several games were played and songs were sung. Roll call was answered by giving an original Valentine verse. Mrs. Verl Sanch received the surprise gift.

Mrs. Herbert Gilmore and daughter Mrs. Stewart Niblack have returned from Camp LeJeune, N. C.

Mrs. LaMoine Fetterman of Garden City and Newman White of Detroit were Saturday afternoon and evening callers in the Hamilton Moore home.

The Macon Women's Society of Christian Service has been invited to Clinton, Friday, March 5 for World Day of Prayer to be held in St. John's Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Moore and sons were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bruder and family of Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Neil and family of Adrian spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheward.

The Macon Choir and several members of the Macon church congregation were in Palmyra Sunday evening attending the County Singspiration.

MUSIC CLUB

Mrs. Ralph Westgate, vice president and hostess of the Music Club, which met at her home Feb. 16, presided at the business meeting in the absence of the president.

The meeting was then turned over to the program leader of the evening, Mrs. Duaine Service. The topic was "Light Opera" and Mrs. Service spoke briefly of its development and then gave sketches of the lives of the composers most popular and best known in this field, Reginald DeKoyen, Victor Herbert, Rudolph Friml and Sir Arthur Sullivan.

Selections from their operas made up the musical part of the program. Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney sang "Buttercup" from Sullivan's "Pinafore" and "Day Dream" from the "Spring Maid" by Rheinhardt accompanied by Mrs. W. G. Waldron. A duet from DeKoven's "Robin Hood," "Though It Was Within This Hour We Met" was sung by Mrs. Service and F. C. Dickinson with Mrs. Dickinson at the piano.

Mrs. Wilbur Boyce also accompanied by Mrs. Dickinson then sang "The Gypsy Love Song" from Victor Herbert's "Fortune Teller" and Mr. Dickinson sang "Rose Marie," as a solo, from Friml's opera of the same name. The last number of the evening was the "March of the Musketeers" from "The Three Musketeers" by Friml sung by Mrs. Murray Day with Mrs. Arthur Schwartz as accompanist.

Valentine refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Nina Heath and Mrs. Thomas Gallant.

GARDEN CLUB

The lowly earthworm and the equally disregarded friend of the gardener, the toad, came into their own at the February meeting of the Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Leon Rosacrans, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Neil Pearson read two very interesting and informative papers describing the service they render in soil fertility and insect control and Mrs. Glenn Driscoll told of her project of raising hybrid earthworms.

During the business meeting conducted by the vice president, Mrs. Victor Voorhees, the new year books were distributed and it was announced that the boxes of gift enclosure cards which are to be sold by the club had been received. Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw will have charge of this sale.

The hostess served tea from a table decorated with spring flowers, Mrs. Voorhees pouring. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Lyman Curtiss, Mrs. George Wright and Mrs. Kennard Wise. There were 21 members present and guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Driscoll and Mrs. Hoyt Whelan.

Tickets for the annual Flower Show to be held March 26 to April 4 at the State Fair Grounds in Detroit are now on sale by the club and may be obtained at the Rosacrans store. Advance tickets are sold at a discount.

Enrolled in Boy Scout movements of 54 nations recognized by the International Boy Scout Bureau in London are 5,561,993 boys and leaders.

Styled like years from now—the stunningly beautiful, sensationally powered 1954 Buick CENTURY Riviera.

Try the POWER of the CENTURY

It's the buy of the year for folks who want high performance at a low price

AT the wheel of Buick's 200-hp CENTURY, something tremendously exciting is waiting to happen to you.

It's the wondrous thrill of commanding a phenomenal performer that's yours for hundreds of dollars less than the middle-price cars.

We can give you here just a quick summary of the sensational facts about this spectacular automobile:

It has the highest horsepower ever placed in a standard-production Buick—and the highest compression ratio, 8.5 to 1.

It has the highest power-to-weight ratio of any Buick ever built—with a cyclonic 200-hp V8 engine driving with unbelievable ease the nimble weight of this sizable car—3852 pounds, for the CENTURY shown here, as it comes off the assembly line.

It carries a price that puts it substantially below the highly popular Buick SUPER—a price that buys more horsepower per dollar in a CENTURY than you get in any other automobile in America.

If it's true high performance you want, at a truly modest price, come in and meet the CENTURY close up—behind its wheel. You'll find it the buy of the year, hands down.

. . Council Proceedings . .

CITY OF TECUMSEH COUNCIL BUILDING February 15, 1954

Present: Mayor Mensing, Councilmen Bashore, Hanna, Kelso, Moore, Smith, Titley.

Absent: None.

Minutes of the meeting held February 1, 1954 read and approved.

Motion by Moore and seconded Kelso the bills amounting to $9,624.45 be allowed and orders drawn up for their several amounts. Motion carried unanimously.

Hospital report was read and approved and ordered placed on file.

Communication from the Jones Hauling Service was read and referred to the City Manager to see that contract and ordinance is complied with.

Motion Smith and seconded Kelso the City Manager be authorized to purchase 400 feet on Newburg road of Mr. Tonneberger for a new well as recommended in his report. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Bashore seconded Hanna to accept City Managers report. Motion carried unanimously.

City Attorneys report was read and accepted and ordered placed on file.

Motion Kelso and seconded Hanna the resolution on ballot for election March 8, 1954, be revised to read "Shall the fluoridation of the City of Tecumseh water supply be continued." Motion carried unanimously.

Moved and supported the resolution presented be a part of the official minutes.

Motion carried unanimously.

RESOLUTION:

The Council of the City of Tecumseh, upon advice of the City Attorney, and recognizing that the election to be held on March 8, 1954, should not contain any statement on the ballot which is in any way biased, offers the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE QUESTION ON THE BALLOT:

"Shall fluoridation of the City of Tecumseh water supply be continued in accordance with State Health Department recommendations."

be revised as follows:

"Shall the fluoridation of the City of Tecumseh water supply be continued?"

In revising the question on the ballot, which is to be presented to the voters, the City Council would like the citizens of Tecumseh to know that on August 13, 1952, permit number 10043 was issued by the Michigan Department of Health, Division of Engineering, approving the installation of fluoride equipment in accordance with information contained in a proposal submitted on August 7, 1952. Also, in a statement of policy on the fluoridation of public water supply issued by the Michigan Department of Health in July, 1950, the following excerpt is taken: "From the evidence available to date, the Michigan Department of Health is now in a position to recommend the application of fluoride to public water supplies which are deficient in this element. Many water supplies in Michigan naturally contain some fluoride but few contain it in sufficient amount to reduce dental decay. Before a public water supply is treated with fluoride, it is necessary that the Michigan Department of Health be informed, and approval by a medical and dental profession is desirable."

With the above information on file in the City Clerk's office, the voters of the City of Tecumseh are hereby informed that the fluoridation of the City water supply was made with the full knowledge and approval of the Michigan Department of Health.

Moved and supported recommended revised ordinance regarding water billing be published. Motion carried unanimously.

REVISED ORDINANCE:

The following preamble and Ordinance was offered by Councilman Kelso and supported by Councilman Hanna.

WHEREAS a variation in the billing times by the City to water consumers would be beneficial to such consumers in that the two larger billings of each year would fall at periods when taxes are not due; and would be beneficial to the City personnel in that the administrative details attendant upon the larger billings would fall at such periods when said personnel are not occupied with tax collections.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED THAT:

Section 2.103 be amended to read as follows:

"2.103 WATER RATES. The rates to be paid by all consumers of water from the water system of the Village shall be as follows:

$2.50 plus 25c for each 1000 gallons used in excess of 20,000 gallons up to 100,000 gallons payable April 1, of each year.

$2.50 payable July 1, of each year.

$2.50 plus 25c ofr each 1000 gallons used in excess of 20,000 gallons up to 100,000 gallons, payable October 1, of each year.

$2.50 payable January 1, of each year.

The following rates are for users in excess of 100,000 gallons:

100,001 to 20,000—15c per 1000 gallons.

200,001 to 300,000—12c per 1000 gallons.

300,001 to 400,000—10c per 1000 gallons.

400,001 to 500,00—9c per 1000 gallons.

500,001 to 600,000—8c per 1000 gallons.

600,000 to 700,000—7c per 1000 gallons.

700,000 to 800,000—6c per 1000 gallons.

800,000 to 900,000—5c per 1000 gallons per 6 month period.

10MM and 1 to 25 MM—4½c per 1000 gallons per 6 month period.

25 MM and 1 to 50 MM—3½c per 1000 gallons per 6 month period.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

A potluck supper at the Episcopal Parish house preceded the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's church Feb. 11. For the enjoyment of the group a trio composed of Mrs. Glenn Driscoll, Mrs. Herbert Gilmore and Mrs. Gibbs Barber sang several songs to the accompaniment of Dr. James Spencer of Adrian.

Mrs. L. W. Larsen presided at the business meeting during which it was announced that during the Lenten season the Thursday Holy Communion hour will be held at noon, beginning March 4, and will be followed by luncheon in the Parish house under the supervision of the women of the Auxiliary. A most interesting report of the Diocesan Conference recently held in Detroit was made by Mrs. C. O. Butler and the meeting was closed by a prayer by Rev. F. C. Diekin.

V.F.W. TO PRESENT FLAGS TO PATTERSON SCHOOL

Mrs. Harold Ousterhout and Mrs. Richard Johnson were initiated as new members of the V.F.W. auxiliary at the regular meeting Wednesday evening. During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Bert Warren, it was voted to send $10.00 to Crusade for Freedom campaign and it was announced that the flags given to the Patterson school will be formally presented during the open house at the school Sunday, Feb. 28.

Plans were also made for the March 4 dinner to be given for the past commanders and presidents of the post and auxiliary at the Fellowship Center, 6:30 p. m. All husbands and wives of members are invited. A committee for decorations was appointed to consist of Mrs. Carl Kempf and Mrs. Nina Heesen.

The next meeting will be on March 2 rather than the regular date of March 3 to avoid a conflict with Ash Wednesday. There will be nomination and election of new officers.

Food Facts Of Research In Bulletin

Do you choose your meals by fad, or from the facts proved by scientific research?

Following food fads may be dangerous, cautions Roberta Hershey, extension foods and nutrition specialist at Michigan State College.

This is especially true, she points out, if peculiar diets and special remedies take the place of proper medical treatment.

If you are puzzled by the constant stream of new or revived notions about food, a few basic facts may help. Miss Hershey passes on these scientifically-proved facts which answer a few of the questions most often asked by homemakers:

Q—Are there combinations of foods that are better used by the body than other combinations?

A—There are no "magic combinations." Meals furnishing a good variety of the vitamins, minerals and proteins needed for body growth repair and functioning make for efficient use. They are not so likely to be wasted as when too much of one vitamin and not enough of some mineral are eaten at the same time. This is the reason that nutritionists urge homemakers to plan meals around the "basic 7" food groups. Such good-planning provides the "balance" or variety needed.

Q—Does pasteurizing milk destroy its nutritive value?

A—Scientific research has proved that pasteurization of milk causes no loss of nutritive value except a slight loss of vitamin C. Milk is not high source of this vitamin, anyway.

Good sources of vitamin C include citrus fruits, citrus juices and tomatoes. Milk is especially valuable for calcium and protein. A good thing to remember is that "you never outgrow your need for milk." It should be included in adult diets as well as in the diets of children.

Q—Should iodized salt be used in canning?

A—Definitely, YES. Otherwise, many families would find their iodine intake greatly reduced during the months in which many canned foods appear on the table. Research has proved that iodized salt does not cause food spoilage.

Q—Does cooking in a pressure saucepan save vitamins?

A—It may and it may not, tests have proved. It depends upon the vitamin in question and the food being cooked. Pressure cooking results in losses similar to those from modern top-of-stove cooking in a small amount of water.

Q—May foods be allowed to stand in opened tin cans?

A—Yes. There is no dangerous chemical action between the metal and foods—even sour ones. However, foods will spoil in a few hours or days after opening whether stored in the can or in some utensil—if not properly refrigerated.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN FLORIDA

Walter C. Haviland, a former resident of the Tecumseh area, died Saturday morning in Bradenton, Fla., where he had spent the last several winters.

He was born in Raisin township May 24, 1885, and attended the Raisin Valley Seminary. In 1909 he married Emma Berry of Adrian and for many years was engaged in farming in the Culbertson district and near Ridgeway. He attended the Ridgeway Methodist church and was a member of Tecumseh Grange. Later he moved to Adrian where, until four years ago, he was employed at the Kewaunee Manufacturing Co. Because of failing health, he had since divided his time between a cabin at Harrison, Mich., and Florida.

Mr. Haviland is survived by his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Ernest Beaubien, Adrian; a son, Guy B. Haviland, Tecumseh; four grandchildren; one brother, Perley E. Haviland and a sister, Mrs. Millie Carson both of Adrian. He was preceded in death by two brothers, Carlton and Emery.

Funeral services for Mr. Haviland were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Everiss Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. G. Arthur Valentine. Burial was in Amboy cemetery at Metamora, Ohio.

QUESTIONS:

1. Why Did Voters In Lansing, Michigan, the Seat of the State Department of Health, TURN DOWN FLUORIDATION of the City Water Supply by Almost 2 to 1?

2. Why Does the State Board of Health Suggest that Fluoride Be Put Into Municipal Water Supplies WITHOUT A VOTE of the People?

City voters Tuesday voted 7839 to 4276 or nearly a 2 to 1 majority against fluoridating the city water supply . . . . it failed to carry in any of the 42 precincts . . . . City fathers were not convinced by claims of either side and ordered it put to a vote of the people.

New Patterson School Visited By 700 During Open House Sunday

About 700 persons visited the new Patterson Elementary School during the open house and dedication held last Sunday.

Guests were present from Tecumseh, Toledo, Clinton, Wayne, Lansing, Manitou Beach, Adrian, East Lansing, Britton, Manchester, Jackson, Tipton, Hillsdale, Morenci, Reading, Blissfield, Roy-Morenci, Reading, Blissfield, Royal Oak, Kalamazoo and Dundee.

Sponsored by the PTA, the program was held in the new gym. Guided tours of the building were held after the program.

The Rev. George E. Walworth, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, gave the dedication address.

A school flag, presented by Hunter Heesen, patriotic instructor, was given by the Hall-Slater Post of the VFW. The flag was accepted by Supt. James McDowell. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw gave a flag pole.

Room flags were presented by the VFW Auxiliary with Mrs. Bert Warren, president, in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. Gaza Kish, Mrs. George Downer, Mrs. Robert Starkey, Mrs. Glenn Kohler, Mrs. Ted Golat, Mrs. Caron House and Mrs. Harlan Boyce.

Teachers accepting the flags were Mrs. Dorothy Updike, Mrs. Louise Faling, Mrs. Marguerite Garlick, Miss Francis Baker, Mrs. Lela Colson, Mrs. Purnell Osburn and Wayne Kaiser, school principal.

Mrs. Warren led the audience in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Plants in the foyer were given by the American Legion Auxiliary with Mrs. Vern Manwaring, president, making the presentation. Mr. Kaiser accepted for the school.

Mrs. R. H. Moore gave the school a set of dishes which also may be used by the community. They were accepted by Earl Greene, elementary principal and supervisor.

The singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," led by Mrs. Murray Day, accompanied by Mrs. Betty Day, concluded the program.

Conducted tours of the school were led by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Reister, Mr. and Mrs. George Heeman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gartees and Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Sebring.

Patterson Elementary School was named for Charles F. Patterson (1863-1949) who for 31 years served as secretary of the board of education.

Features of the school include a large informal kindergarten, foyer with planter and show cases, bubble sky lighting, radiant floor heat for the early grades, self contained toilet units for the first three grades with all rooms equipped with fountains and lavaratories, clerestory lighting in most of the rooms, multi-purpose gym and auditorium, clinic, teachers' lounge and library, safety plate glass, acoustic ceilings, green chalk and cork boards and plastic desk, table and counter tops.

The school was built on 11.6 acres. The site cost $13,600. And land for the extension of the road to the school cost $1,000. Total cost of the school to date is $350,795 and equipment to date cost $10,047.

There are 17,240 square feet in the school.

The pupil capacity with kindergarten on half days is 280.

The building was financed through the sale of bonds, to be redeemed through the establishment of a 13-mill bond debt fund established in 1952.

Architect was the Warren S. Holmes Company. General contractor was the Miller-Davis Company. The furniture was supplied by the Michigan School Service.

Indians Win Last Game; Tourney Play Begins

Tecumseh's Indians won their final game of the basketball season last Friday night downing Bedford Rural in a league game, 39-36.

The win gave the Indians a 2-4 Southeastern League record. They tied with Bedford for third place, with Hillsdale copping the title with a 5-1 record.

Tecumseh's win Friday was the fifth in 15 starts.

The junior varsity dropped its game, 43-37. The junior Indians had won 12 straight games before the loss to Bedford.

Tecumseh led all the way in the varsity game, taking a 21-10 half time lead that Bedford never was able to overcome. The Mules, however, did come close as they tallied for 19 points in the final period while holding the Indians to 4.

John Rollman of Bedford took individual scoring honors with 16 points. He scored 12 of his points in the final period after Bill Benham, Indian defensive ace, had fouled out.

Al Hart and Benham were high for Tecumseh with 9 points each.

The score by quarters:

Tecumseh	8	13	14	4
Bedford	5	5	7	19

The Indians begin tournament play at Adrian College tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. in a game with Monroe Catholic Central.

W. L. Becker Buried Saturday

Funeral services were held in the Baptist church Saturday afternoon for William Leslie (Red) Becker whose death occurred Thursday morning at University hospital, Ann Arbor. Mr. Becker had been taken to Ann Arbor the day before after two weeks in Herrick Memorial hospital where he had undergone surgery.

Mr. Becker was born in Riga township, June 21, 1903, the son of William and Gertrude Hunt Becker, and had spent all his life in Lenawee county, the last sixteen years on Dinius road in Raisin township. Until recently he had been an employee of the Tecumseh Products Co.

A member of the Tecumseh Baptist church, he had served on the board of trustees, was secretary of the church school and church usher. He was also a member of the Happy Home Builders class and was a member of the Tecumseh Rotary club, had served as Noble Grand of the Odd Fellows, was a member of the Rebekah Lodge and was past captain of the Canton and a past patriarch of the Lenawee County Encampment of Odd Fellows. He also belonged to the Tecumseh-Raisin Farm Bureau and to North Adrian Grange.

Mr. Becker is survived by his widow, the former Arlie Dinius; two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth Hendrickson of Adrian and Mrs. Duncan Dunkelbower of Baltimore, Md.; three brothers, Claude of Adrian, Harold of Detroit and Elman, Charlotte, N. C. He was preceded in death by an infant son, William Jr., his parents and two sisters.

Friends called at the Green Funeral Home until Saturday noon when the body was removed to the church where the Rev. B. O. Bashore conducted services at 2 p.m. The local order of Odd Fellows attended in a body and the Patriarchs Militant formed a guard of honor. The service at the grave in Brookside cemetery was conducted by the Odd Fellows with George Brady as Noble Grand and R. C. Stauffer as chaplain. Members of Rotary were bearers, Harold Kelso, Mel Partridge, Al Merz, Faye Whelan, Harold Easton and Perry Satterthwaite.

WATER METERS TO BE READ

It is time for city water meters to be read again. Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, asks residents not to mistake meter readers for salesmen. She asks that householders cooperate by letting the men in to read the meters.

If residents are away from home when the meter man comes, they are asked to call the city offices, 558, to let the meter man know when the meters can be read.

Polio Drive Nets $5,638

A final report of the March of Dimes drive to fight polio shows that $5,638 was contributed in Tecumseh and Tecumseh and Raisin Townships. This is a gain of $552 over last year.

Contributions not previously published include the following:

Veterans of Foreign Wars, $50; American Legion Auxiliary, $50; Christian Builders of the Presbyterian Church, $15; D.A.R., $10; Birdsall PTA, $5; Raisin-Palmyra Farm Bureau, $2.50; Holloway Presbyterian Church Winners Sunday School class, $10; Raisin School No. 10, $8.70; Sutton School, $1.50; Raisin School No. 6, $9.80; Raisin Valley Friends Church, $21.60; Valley Home Makers, $1; Kelly Raisin, $4.24; Holloway School, $16; Oak Grove Raisin No. 6 Fr., $6.70.

Lanning School No. 4, $10.80; Raisin School No. 5, $17.50; Sutton School Raisin, $9.50; Oak Grove, $.60; Raisin School No. 2, $32; Book of poems by Mrs. Arlene Handy, $107.60; Tecumseh School No. 1, $12.32; Ottawa Machine Co., $50; Hayden Milling Co., $25.

The total is broken down into these units: clubs and churches, $1,446; schools, $655; Mothers March, $1,581; special days, $172; canvisters, $716; fighting dimes, $1,052; Products employees, $13.

Mrs. Rolland Reister, director of the Lenawee Chatper of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and Mrs. Ted Golat, president of the Tecumseh-Raisin Township Council again thank the public for the generous contributions.

Planning Board Set By Council

A nine-member city planning commission was appointed by the council Monday night.

Members of the new commission are the Rev. Edward Escolme, Perry Satterthwaite, Hugh DesErmia, Russell Cooper, Arthur Schwartz, Mrs. Cornelia Walker, Mrs. Imogene Fisher, William Powell and Robert W. Bonner.

City manager Ed Nelson will serve with the commission.

Councilman Hal Kelso, chairman of the appointment committee that suggested the persons appointed, pointed out that they were named because they represented various areas in the city and that they had the civic interest necessary for performing the duties of the planning commission.

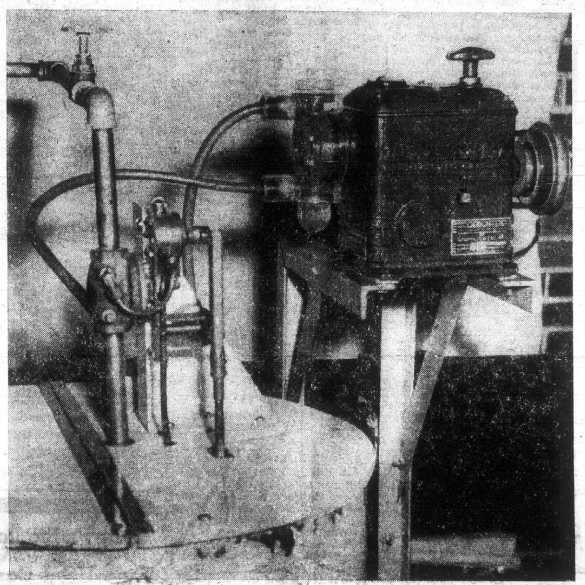
Councilman Robert Moore was appointed by Mayor Mensing to draw up some of the duties of the new commission.

Council Names 3 More Supervisors

Tecumseh now will be represented by four local men on the Lenawee County Board of Supervisors as provided for in the city charter.

The three additional men appointed by the council Monday night are the Rev. B. O. Bashore and H. H. Hanna, city councilmen, and John Saling, city assessor.

Councilman LeRoy Titley is the other member of the board of supervisors representing Tecumseh.



A PUBLIC OPEN HOUSE will be held Friday night, March 5, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the city's number three pump house south of Union street off Patterson street so persons interested in the fluoridation of the city water supply may see the fluoridation process in action.

Ed Nelson, city manager, will be on hand to describe the process and to answer questions.

The picture shows a DaLee proportioner and saturator. The city manager explains that the motor on the proportioner is connected to a water pump circuit so the fluoride unit does not operate when the water pumps are off.

Fluoride, he said, is dissolved in the saturator with water. A float in the tank keeps the water up to a given height. The solution only will get so strong whether there is one or 50 pounds of fluoride in the tank and speeds can be adjusted to pump the right amounts in according to tests.

Churches Plan World Day Of Prayer

Six local churches will unite Friday for a world day of prayer. The services will be held in the Baptist church at 2 p.m.

The observance which dates to 1887 is dedicated to world peace. Since this time the first Friday of Lent has been designated as the World Day of Prayer. It is sponsored by the United Church Women of the World but everybody is cordially invited to take part.

Those who attend the local observance will be joining with Christians from 20,000 other American communities and 100 countries arouid the world.

Peoples speaking a hundred languages will unite to pray that churches speak the word of healing to this troubled world; that the United Nations may be given the grace to work together; and that the leaders of the nations of the world may be given the wisdom to work for peace. They also will be praying for the end of racial tensions.

This year's service was written by a woman of India, Miss Sarah Chakke.

Mayor Charles Mensing has proclaimed the observance as the World Day of Prayer and he asks that all persons join in the observance.

Mrs. E. H. McConnell is chairman of the program.

JUNIOR INDIANS — If the record of the Tecumseh High School junior varsity is an indication of things to come, the basketball future may be bright at the local school. The junior varsity compiled a 12 won, four lost record during the season that ended last week.

Record Number Expected To Vote On Fluoridation

A record-breaking number of voters are expected to turn out for the special election next Monday when voters will decide if they want to continue fluoridation of the city water supply.

Interest has been great in the fluoridation issue for almost a year when fluoride was first put into the village water. Both the pro-fluoridation and the anti-fluoridation committees expect that this great interest shown in the question will bring a record number of voters out.

Some of the spokesmen feel the number of persons going to the polls next Monday will exceed 1,200 by a large margin.

Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, reports the city has 2,809 registered voters. She points out again that all persons who voted in the city charter election or in other recent city or township elections are automatically registered for voting on the fluoridation question.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8. p.m.

Any voter wishing transportation to and from the polls may call the chamber of commerce office. The number is 259.

Heavy Snow Is Blinger

It's a blinger.

The heavy snow storm following a warm rain that hit Tecumseh early Wednesday morning created the worst conditions of the winter. (Or had you noticed?)

Every school in the county closed with Tecumseh Public Schools closing at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Many roads leading to town were impassable but some motorists got to work. Others living in the outskirts were absent from stores and shops.

It was rumored that stores were to close at noon but Mrs. Edna Staulter secretary of the chamber of commerce, said this was not true.

Garages did a land office business answering service calls of motorists stuck in drifts. And several on the main street stalled as they attempted to pull away from packed curbs.

As far as could be determined, there was no interruption of power but several homes were without electric current momentarily. Lights blinked off for a matter of seconds but immediately came back on.

Traffic at the local office of the General Telephone Co. was twice its normal peak as folks flooded operators with calls.

O. W. Luedeke, manager, said his staff had a problem in answering the unusual number of calls that flooded the exchange. He also said there was about a half hour delay in placing some long distance calls.

The office later Wednesday morning had a full complement of operators who expected to work longer than usual to meet the unusual demand.

A baby boy rode in on the wings of the storm at Herrick Memorial hospital. The little fellow who came with the snow was a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lewis of Clinton.

DIXON'S STUDIO JOINS AUNT MARY PICTURE CLUB

Dixon's Studio is now a member of the national Aunt Mary Birthday Clubs of America, Inc.

Commended by Parents' Magazine, the organization has more than one-half million members from coast to coast.

As a member of the club, Dixon's Studio will offer a plan through which parents may have their babies' life story in pictures from infancy to kindergarten.

SIXTH GRADE WILL GIVE TALENT SHOW MONDAY

Pupils of Miss Alice Hopkins' sixth grade will have a talent show at Central school auditorium next Monday night at 8 p.m.

The program will include songs, plays, dancing, band numbers, stunts, scientific experiments, silhouettes and safety rules.

The boys and girls invite the general public as well as all parents and friends to their show.

There will be a small fee to cover expenses.

COMMUNITY CALENDAR STARTED BY C OF C

A Community Calendar has been started by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and all local organizations are requested to list their activities at the Chamber office in the Sage building.

The calendar will be open to the public at all times and it is hoped listings will be made as soon as it is decided, to avoid future confliction of dates.

Red Cross Won't Campaign Locally

The American Red Cross annual Fund Drive opened March 1 throughout the nation but this year Tecumseh will have no local drive as money was raised through the Community Chest drive last fall.

This is the first year the Tecumseh Red Cross has united with the Community Chest, reports Mrs. L. W. Larsen, chairman.

It is not the policy of the National Red Cross to join with any other fund raising drives, she said, so this year will be an experiment and does not necessarily mean that there will be no separate drive for funds in the future.

There probably are many persons in Tecumseh who always have held membership in the American Red Cross who did not contribute through the Community Fund.

In such cases Mrs. Larsen will be glad to receive contributions and to issue membership cards. However, she said it should be understood that there will be no house to house canvas and no representative at the United Savings Bank.

Friends Church Campaign Opens

Dr. Clifford Lewis opened a "Christ for Everyone Campaign" in the Friends church last Sunday. Bill Hayden leads the singing with Mrs. Faith Hayden at the piano and Mrs. Amos Wilson at the organ.

One or more special musical numbers are enjoyed each evening at the 7:45 service. The Booster Band for boys and girls, 15 years and under, meet Tuesday through Friday at 4 p.m. They have prizes, surprises, object lessons, magic, songs and stories.

Dr. Lewis has traveled in every state in the union, every province in Canada except one, and has visited 36 foreign countries. A few years ago he made a flying trip across Alaska and on Thursday night he will show beautiful colored movies of this trip. On Friday night the second reel of Alaska will be shown.

The evangelistic message will follow the short films on Thursday and Friday nights and there also will be a service on Saturday night when another film will be shown. These are pictures that Dr. Lewis has made on his travels across America.

There will be a mass meeting on Sunday at 3 p.m. The topic will be "Christ or Communism for America?" Services will continue nightly at 7:45 through March 14. The pastor, Rev. Edward Escolme extends to everyone a cordial invitation to attend these special services.

VOTE MONDAY — Next Monday Tecumseh voters will decide if they want to continue the fluoridation of the city's water supply. Most citizens should be well aware of this basic fact by now but some of them no doubt are still in the dark as to how they should vote.

It is true that both the pro-fluoridation and the anti-fluoridation committees have run a series of advertisements trying to point out whether it would be best to continue or to discontinue fluoridation of the city water supply. And there have been any number of letters to the editor supporting both sides.

Some adherents of both sides have asked THE HERALD which it favors. This is our frank answer:

We have found it extremely difficult to sort the wheat from the chaff. Although we have been briefed by both sides on whether the program should be continued or stopped, we feel we have been here too short a time to grasp fully the complexities of the background that preceded the decision to vote on the question. We feel this is not entirely a black and white case. There are too many grays in the picture.

Besides, we have not been a resident long enough to be a registered voter and we believe that a citizen who is not a registered voter has no right to tell others who are eligible and who are expecting to vote how they should cast their ballots.

We also feel that no newspaper should tell a citizen how to vote. THE HERALD through its news columns has tried honestly to present both sides of this issue. How a person votes is a private matter — one of the most private and sacred activities that we as Americans enjoy.

But as a newspaper and as individuals who have a sincere interest in the future of Tecumseh and its people, we make these comments:

Regardless of how you feel about fluoridation VOTE MONDAY. No matter which decision is reached at the polls it should be a MAJORITY decision. There are 2,809 registered voters. At least 1,500 of these registered voters should VOTE MONDAY. Don't be one of those who stay home and then complain about the decision after the election. This is your town. You should take enough interest in it to help to decide a major issue. It is your right to vote; it is your duty to vote!

It has been mentioned that we personally still are confused since we do not have a complete background on what preceded the election. But we hope you can sort out the facts and try to remember that you are voting only on whether fluoridation of the city water supply should be continued. Remember this is the only question on the ballot. You will not be voting on past issues and you will not be voting on personalities. Try to examine the facts intelligently if you can and leave your emotions and prejudices at home.

And no matter which decision is made remember the MAJORITY RULES. This is an old American custom and no country in the world has even been able to improve on it.

Both sides feel sincerely that their side is the right side. Adherents of both sides naturally feel this is a vital issue. But we feel even more important questions will be raised in the future. As most of us know, Tecumseh is and has been for some time in a transition period of changing from a rural to an industrial community, or, to use the vernacular, it has "growing pains."

We do not mean to treat this lightly because it is a very serious problem that touches every aspect of community living. It touches particularly the economy, the government, the schools, the recreation and the housing situation. And all problems of the city are interwoven.

Such a transition, coupled with fast growth, also bring sociological changes and problems of community adjustments develop. These problems transcend the fluoridation issue and they affect us all.

Regardless of the decision at the polls next Monday, let us accept the MAJORITY RULE and present a united front in solving the more complex problems which are sure to come. This united effort is vital to the future goals of Tecumseh and its people.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

There is more than one angle to fluorine treatment of our water supply.

In the first place, no one knows just what effects of sodium fluoride are to humans, horses and dogs. Even some doctors and dentists object to a proposal like we have in Tecumseh.

We are going against the idea of people being free. Fluoridation is classed as medical or dental experimentation. Voluntary consent of the individual is absolutely necessary and under our proposal this is impossible.

If any individual wants treatment it can be obtained very cheaply by using it in pill form.

One pound of sodium fluorine will make 453,592 pills of one milligram (metric weight). The usual dosage is one milligram or enough for 1,000 children for 454 days at a total cost of 12 cents. In this way only the people who want fluorine will have it and those that don't want a deadly poison forced down their necks won't have to.

How will we know how much fluorine we are getting? Have we a competent man that can do the job? How would you like to have a quack doctor give your children shots or injections of any kind?

Dispensing of sodium fluorine by a registered druggist as is common with other drugs might be alright, but our method of shoveling it in like rat poison doesn't look good to the majority of people.

Vote next week and let your conscience be your guide.

Robert M. Gillespie
22 W. Brown St.

Editor, The Herald:

Do you want to trade your car in for a horse and buggy? That is exactly what you will do if you vote to discontinue fluoridation in Tecumseh. When I came to Michigan in 1924, there was a severe epidemic of small pox raging in Detroit, evidenced by the pox marked people one meets in Tecumseh. Due to compulsory vaccination, you and I never think of small pox today because there isn't any.

Only two people out of every hundred have their own teeth at the age of sixty. We know how to keep our children from such a fate. Shall we deprive them of the opportunity of keeping their own teeth?

We don't question our doctors when they keep us from dying, why question when they want to help us live?

Hilda E. Will, R.N.

Editor, The Herald:

It seems a waste when we read that 99-9/10% of the water goes down the drain. But! Is it really a waste when a little can do so very much and at a cost of only 10c per person for one year?

Please vote yes to help our children.

Sincerely,
Jane Andrews
(Mrs. W. Andrews)

Editor, The Herald:

Today the biggest question in Tecumseh is, "Will we continue to have fluoridated water after March 8?" We surely will if the people with young children will get out and vote to protect their children's teeth.

Did you know that there has never been a city that voted to have fluorine taken out of its water? Surely, Tecumseh doesn't want to be the first. There have only been nine cities that rejected fluoridation compared to 1,000 that have approved it. In the nine cities that rejected it, the people did not vote on the issue.

I think fluoridated water is the best insurance we can buy for our children's teeth. What cheaper protection could you get for your dental health?

Mrs. Harold Harper
Herrick Park

To the Editor:

Are people in this community supposed to be so ignorant that when the village council sneaked this chemical into our water last May 4 we are supposed to pat them on the back? Or should they have put this program to a vote of the people? Are they public servants or are the people servants to them, which?

C. C. Richard

Editor, The Herald:

Time and again I have relied on our family physician to take care of our children when they are sick. Like many other conscientious men in his profession, he is eager to use preventative measures whenever possible to maintain good health.

My doctor tells me he is voting "yes" to continue fluoridation. What he feels is good enough for his own family, is certainly good enough for mine! I'm voting "yes."

Sincerely,
Carolyn Russell
(Mrs. Allen S. Russell)

Editor, The Herald:

A reward of $1,000 has been offered to any person who can prove that one part per million fluoride added to the water supply will be poisonous.

Why hasn't someone of the "POISON"—shouters stepped forward with proof and claimed his reward? Obviously, no such proof is obtainable and therfore we can only believe that the cries of the anti-group are unfounded. That's just one of the reasons why, on March 8, I'm voting YES for fluoridation.

Mrs. William E. Macbeth

Realty Views

Even though Betty and Frank were a young couple, they had spent several months, perhaps years, searching for a "bargain" home. But the complaint was always the same—"We can't find what we want."

After a day with these likable "chronic lookers" it was easy to spot the reason they had never found a suitable house. They refused to face the facts. The money they had to invest simply wouldn't buy the "dream house" they wanted.

Finally, I said, "It might be time to examine your tastes — not the market. Perhaps you've set up an impossible ideal which can't be achieved within your price limit."

"You should consider the advantages of the homes available within your reach. Don't you think you should buy a good home now, and quit searching for a dream house?"

Frank nodded. "You're right," he said. "We've been looking for something we'll never find. It is time to settle down with a comfortable place we can afford. The dream house may come later."

Shortly afterward, as they were enjoying a home of their own, Betty said, "This is better than a dream—it's reality."

Let us help you find home enjoyment too!

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

(First of a series of articles regarding the Musgrove Evans house).

When in 1824, Musgrove Evans directed the building of the log cabin in Brownville, the "company house" that was intended for the use of all who needed shelter that first year in the new settlement, he knew he was building the first white man's dwelling in central southern Michigan.

Two years later when he built a home for his own family on what he always considered the main street of the infant village, Chicago street, he probably had no idea that it would still be standing one hundred and twenty-eight years later. Certainly he would have been surprised to know that in 1954 it could lay claim to the distinction of being the oldest dwelling house in the state of Michigan.

"Lay claim" is used advisedly because, in spite of long and rather exhaustive research and consultation with historical authorities, any person or place so brash as to claim the superlative of any thing may expect someone, somewhere to rise up and say "not so." If or when it is possible to definitely establish the date of the Ketcham-Branigin house, Tecumseh may claim two "firsts" but, while it no longer stands on its original site, there is no shadow of a doubt as to the 1826 date of the Evans house.

After two years of "roughing it" in the log house, Abi and Musgrove Evans built a home on the northeast corner of Chicago and Otttawa streets (now a Standard Oil station) which was probably comparable to the one they had left in Jefferson county, N. Y. Much like the original Ketcham house, it is a New England "salt-box" with the rear wing and shed leanto which were typical of that style.

A well authenticated event establishes its date. The construction had been sufficiently completed by the Fourth of July 1826, so the "exercises" climaxing the day's celebration were held in "Evans new house."

That was no ordinary Fourth. It was marked by the grinding of the first flour in the new mill and was the first civic celebration of the new town. A parade, led by the marshall of the day on a bald faced pony, marched the two blocks of the village main street to the martial strains of a French fiddler from Monroe, the 1826 equivalent of a brass band and ended at the new house for the speaking of the day.

For six years, until the untimely death of Mrs. Evans in 1832, it served not only for a home for their family but as an inn for newcomers to the town. It seems to have been conducted mainly by Mrs. Evans, as Musgrove was absent much of the time on surveying contracts, and the biographies of many of those who lived there tell of her gracious hospitality. J. J. Adam says of her death, "the town mourned like children who had lost a dearly loved mother."

Apparently the town was then not bearable to her husband for he stayed only long enough to finish the survey of the La Plaisance Bay Road (M-50) before taking his children to the farthest frontier he could find—Texas and the house was sold.

SCOUTS TAKE HONORS AT LENAWEE SHOW

Tecumseh Cub and Boy Scouts are receiving congratulations on their showing at the Lenawee Area Scout show at the Armory in Adrian Saturday evening. In competition with scouts from all over the county, they took three first places.

Both Cub Scout Packs No. 4 and No. 73 had display tables of their handiwork and both won blue ribbons on their exhibits.

Boy Scout Troop 73 also finished first in the display they put on. They had made a booth of poles and lashings and in it gave a realistic demonstration of first aid. Those taking part in this activity were Barry Packard, Anthony Kasik, Leonard Weaver, James Lambes, Eddie Rozelle, Richard Stevenson, Robert Dick, Roger Mead, Ivan Halberstadt, George Milosh, Larry Weaver, Eugene Morley and Richard Smith.

Scout leaders Packard and Wyse and Bruce Packard planned and helped with the Boy Scout entry while the Cub exhibits were set up by Mrs. Charles O'Neill and Rheinhart Radent.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES LISTED

That permanent peace and harmony are within the reach of mankind through the spiritual growth that reaveals the true, spiritual nature of man in God's likeness will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" which will be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

Selections from the King James Version of the Bible include this citation from Romans: "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (8:28).

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual, — they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite, — in order that sin and mortality may be put off.

"This scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption into Deity and the loss of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expansive love, a higher and more permanent peace" (265:5-15).

The Golden Text is from Psalms: "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace" (37:37).

HAPPY HOME BUILDERS

It was family night at the February meeting of the Happy Home Builders last Monday evening at the Baptist Youth House. The hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Kirkland and Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens served a delicious chicken pie supper to the adults and children present. After the business meeting games were enjoyed which had been planned by the host committee.

The March meeting will have Mr. and Mrs. John Surratt and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cook as hosts.

Mary Drake Weds Lowell R. Smith

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett was the scene of a pretty wedding Friday evening when their daughter, Mary Hewlett Drake became the bride of Lowell R. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith of Britton.

The Rev. George Walworth pronounced the double ring ceremony before the fireplace which was decorated with candelabra and arrangements of pink and white flowers. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Margaret Hardy of Tipton, while the best man was Lee Taylor of Britton and ushers were John Hawlett, Earl Baldwin, Otto Meiers and Melvin Keibler.

Records furnished music before and during the ceremony and the rings were carried by Anne and Tom Drake on pillows trimmed in lace and flowers.

Natural colored shantung was chosen for the bridal gown, which was made with a cowl neckline and full skirt. With it the bride carried a nosegay of violets.

The maid of honor wore blue green velvet and her flowers were pink rose buds.

At the reception, which followed the ceremony, Mrs. Otto Meiers and Mrs. John Hewlett poured coffee and tea from a table centered by a flower decorated wedding cake, which was served by Mrs. Robert Goetz. Mrs. Earl Baldwin registered the guests and the gifts were cared for by Mrs. Miles Runk and Mrs. Melvin Keibler.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a two week's trip to Florida, the bride wearing gravy with red and white accessories. They will reside near Ridgeway where the groom is engaged in farming.

QUAKER FELLOWSHIP

Quaker Fellowship, an adult group of the Friends church, met for their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the home of its president and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comfort. Twenty-four members and eight guests were present. Mr. Comfort presided over the short business meeting and devotions were spoken by the Rev. Edward Escolme.

The program of the evening was a visual one. Interesting colored slides showing the setting and activities of the United Brethren Mission at Pine Buff, Ky., were shown by George Kilbourn and Mr. Escolme then ran three short movies. The hosts and their committee served refreshments at the close of the program.

Next meeting of the Fellowship will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Kotts, March 29, with the program in charge of Mrs. George Watson and Mrs. Leon Johnston.

Floral Tributes Are Always In Good Taste . .

There have been occasional requests from families to have friends "please omit flowers." We appreciate the motives and in complying request that an alternate offering be suggested.

In reality, the sending of flowers is an outpouring of regard, and must be accepted as the wish of the giver. Whatever our desires or thoughts—flowers are always in good taste.

Jim Breitenwischer, Shirley VanHook Are Wedded By Father Collins

At an impressive high noon service Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic church, Shirley Jeane VanHook and James Breitenwischer were married by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins. The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with white snapdragons and carnations and the bride was given in marriage by her father, W. Donald Van Hook.

The couple was attended by the groom's sister, Joan Breitenwischer, as maid of honor and by James Westerman of Calgary, Canada, a college friend of the groom, as the best man. James Wilson and Wayne Patterson Jr. were ushers. The soloist for the service was Wallace Whiting and Mrs. Ben Hammack played the organ.

Miss Van Hook chose a two piece, street length dress of navy faille for her wedding, which had deep collars and cuffs of white and she wore with it a white flower hat. Two white orchids decorated the lace covered white prayer book which she carried. Miss Breitenwischer's dress was of navy blue sheer wool trimmed in white and her flower hat and satin covered prayer book were light blue. Her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer, mother of the groom, wore a dress of black silk shantung with light blue accessories and a corsage of ping camelias, while Mrs. Van Hook's suit was of rose beige wool with brown accessories and her corsage was Eucharist lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast for the families and wedding party was held at Tamerlane Terrace, Clinton and a reception for 60 guests took place in the Breitenwischer home from 2 to 5 p. m. Miss Grace Moore registered the guests who were received by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fosbender and wedding cake was served by Mrs. Gerald Filter and Dulcie Bowen with Mrs. Wayne Patton pouring coffee. Joy and Marilyn Breitenwischer, cousins of the groom, presided at the punch bowl and Joan Breitenwischer and Nancy Keinitz had charge of the gifts.

After a short wedding trip to Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Breitenwischer will be at home at 1018 Colfax Ave., South Bend, where the groom is a student at Notre Dame University. Mrs. Breitenwischer, a 1953 graduate of Tecumseh high school, was until recently secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

I challenge the dental and medical group to read this letter!

Open Letter to a Proponent of Fluoridation

First of all, may I say sincerely that I believe you and all the other proponents of fluoridation have every right in the world to take fluorides in any way that they can be personally administered. I also believe that no city ordinance should ever be enacted to deny or forbid you this privilege of taking fluorides, as an individual, in any of the various forms now on the market.

But I do challenge your right to force this medication, through fluoridation, on those who are unwilling to take it for their personal dental health problems. To me and many others, this is the crux of the fluoridation battle. The important issue is not whether or not fluorides will reduce tooth decay or whether or not fluorides will eventually harm those who take them for a lifetime, but whether or not a city council can order fluorides to be put into the drinking water of those who do not wish to take this medication.

Fluoridation is compulsory medication without parallel in the history of medicine. As one dentist wrote me recently — "If I prescribe this drug for a patient and he goes to a pharmacist and has my prescription filled with NaF, he thinks he is taking medicine — and so do I. If the government puts an inferior quality of the same drug not fit for human consumption in the water, suddenly it is not medication." To continue to argue that fluoridation is not mass medication is rather silly in view of the facts.

Incidentally, the fluoride tablets which this dentist is prescribing for patients who think they need fluorides, are chemically pure fluoride and must be bought under prescription which he gives free to those who wish it. I would like to ask you and all the other proponents of fluoridation, one question — Which do you think is the more scientific way of solving the fluorine question: to dump impure, raw fluorides into the drinking water of everyone in a community or to give fluorides in a chemically pure form to those who think they need them?

No dentist or doctor would think of prescribing such fluoride tablets to adults over the age of eight or 10; thus, you eliminate the potential harm that might come from ingesting raw fluorides for a lifetime. Also, no dentist or doctor would think of prescribing them for the chronic sick or the aged with impaired body functions; thus, you eliminate the possibility of harm to the sick and aged. Where, then, is the argument for dumping these fluorides into everyone's drinking water?

The opposers to fluoridation, while not wishing to take fluorides personally, do not seek to deprive their fellowmen of their right to take fluorides. There are many other ways to take this medication than by fluoridation. But the proponents of fluoridation only only wish to take fluorides, but wish to force them on their unwilling fellow citizens. There is a big difference involved in the two groups.

I would defend your right to take any medication you see fit, but I also expect you to show equal justice to me by defending my right to reject any medication I see fit. This is the real issue involved in fluoridation. It is a test to see just how well our Constitution guarantees the right of the individual to 'physical integrity' or the right to care for his own body and health, without the State ordering him to do it in a certain way.

Sincerely, Earl Bryan

An Opponent of Fluoridation

Editor, The Herald:

Considerable has been said about the exorbitant cost to the taxpayer due to the addition of Fluoride to the City water supply.

The equipment was donated to the City by a progressive, public spirited, generous citizen, who many times has shown his interest in public health measures, and his money has made it possible for Tecumseh to have health and educational facilities far in excess of other cities much larger in population. His progressive expansion programs have benefited Tecumseh citizens and Tecumseh business far beyond anything that could have been forseen only a few years ago.

Industry in Tecumseh pays 70% of Tecumseh's water bill, and hence pays 70% of the cost of the fluoride used for the prevention of tooth decay in our children. The cost is less than 10c per person per year to receive the benefits derived from fluoride.

Tecumseh business, and Mr. Private Citizen in Tecumseh, would be a sad plight without the financial and moral support of so many fine public spirited citizens.

THINK IT OVER, MR. TAXPAYER.

Mrs. Gale H. Fisher

Editor, The Herald:

In answer to the Anti Fluoridation Committee's assertion, or maybe, I should say the assertion of the Health Freedom League of Lansing, that "Fluoridation of Public Water Supplies is violating the Bill of Rights." I wish to state that the following is a quotation from our Michigan Department of Health.

"After a thorough review of the legal aspects, The National Institute of Municipal Law Officers state:

"The conclusion is that fluoridation is a constitutionally permissable public health measure and that it does not infringe on religious liberty. The fact that some persons are opposed on religious grounds to consumption of fluoridated water is not sufficient to preclude a municipality from instituting and carrying out this program in the interest of the general welfare."

Tecumseh is voting on this health measure, Monday, March 8. Lansing had their chance and lost, because people did not go to the polls. Today, they are crying! Let's not let this happen in Tecumseh.

Sincerely,
Mary Smith Britton
(Mrs. W. S. Britton)

Editor, The Herald:

Are we being used as guinea pigs in Tecumseh? If we are, so are 30 million other Americans, who are now drinking fluoridated water. Including such neighboring towns as Ann Arbor, Monroe, Jackson and Hillsdale.

Mrs. Clyde A. Mitchell

STRENGTH FOR TIRED DAYS

from The Bible

O Lord my God, I cried unto Thee, and Thou hast healed me. —(Psalm 30, 2.)

Because He is a God of mercy and of compassion; because He is ever present and can hear the smallest cry from a truly repentant anguished heart, the Lord our God will heal His children who stumble and fall—not just once, but a million times. The way to Him is always open.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

Well, as we are taxpayers of Tecumseh and read some of the letters in last week's Herald about this fluoridation of our city water, here is what we think about it.

I have had for about ten years, three or four hundred baby guppies and as soon as they started to put this in our city water the guppies died by the dozens until all had died. Even the healthy plants which one has to have for them to hide their young and also to eat, died also. If that is what it does to fish, we hate to think what it is doing to the people of Tecumseh.

We have lived in and around Tecumseh all our lives and no place has better water than Tecumseh. So why put such dope in it now? We never had fish die until at that time. So think it over before voting March 8. If it is so wonderful, why are so many people putting in their own wells or going out in the country for water?

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Creger

Editor, The Herald:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said as they crucified Him to the Cross, "Forgive them Father for they know not what they do." But those who are back of this fluoridation scheme know what they are doing to their fellow man and insist on it being done.

Charles E. Morris

Editor, The Herald:

Many people seem to think this controversy over fluoridating the water is a political issue. It isn't that at all, it is a question whether you like the water or not, and what good it does.

If we got our water from the river or an open reservoir where all the surface water and drainage ran into it, we would no doubt have it purified by chlorine, which is a poison also, but purifies the water, while fluorine decomposes the water, that is why it smells so bad, and you do not have to have an education to taste or smell, and it surely must not mix properly as it is much worse at times. I am not the only one in town that cannot drink it.

I have had Tecumseh as my address for over 38 years now, and the water has never been like it before. I am a mother of seven children, grandmother to eleven and in reading all the Facts Committee's claimed facts and encyclopedias on the subject, I still think it will do more harm to the majority of people than it will do good for children's teeth.

So if you do not like the water, get out on March 8 and vote NO, then we can have good pure well water to drink once again in Tecumseh.

Ethel Richard

Editor, The Herald:

Sometimes I wonder why there is so much disagreement here in Tecumseh about whether we should put a little fluorine in our city water or not, and I am wondering if it isn't just because we do not quite understand what it is about.

Our medical doctors and dentists recommend that this be done because the quantity is so small that it cannot possibly harm anybody, and the cost is negligible, but it does do this — it helps build a perfect and strong enamel protecting children's teeth so they will not be suffering from decayed teeth when they are older. Wouldn't it be more logical for all of us, instead of listening to unfounded rumors, to believe what our medical doctors say on the subject; the doctors in whom we gladly place our trust when we are in need of perhaps a serious operation; who set our bones when they are broken, and prescribe the necessary remedies for our pains and aches? Their whole life is spent trying to make us well and feeling good. Is it reasonable to expect that they should turn right around and recommend that we do something which would be harmful to us?

Our medical doctors and dentists have spent untold hours studying this question. They have collectively, done much more on the subject than anyone of us ever could expect to do alone, so if they say, "We recommend that you add a little fluorine to the water," it seems to me it should be easy to make up our minds that they do not intend to do us any harm, but only help us.

The fact is that 400 p.p.m.* fluorine in the water is not harmful to our well-being. 25 p.p.m. we can neither taste nor smell in the water, and here we are only talking about putting 1 p.p.m. fluorine in the water.

In the city of Climax, Colorado, the fluorine content in the water pumped out of the ground, and with which the city is supplied, is 25 p.p.m.

There are nineteen communities in Texas where the content varies between 3.1 to 5 p.p.m., and Bartlett, Texas has 8 p.p.m.

In all of the above quoted cases, the fluorine is already in the water as it is pumped out of the ground.

As far as my own family is concerned, the question is of no importance because my children have reached the age where no amount of fluorine in the water will improve their teeth, but I am thinking of the many young children in our city of Tecumseh who would derive a tremendous benefit which would last throughout their lives, if only we would agree to adding 1 p.p.m. of fluorine in our city water. I wish that I, when a child, could have had the benefit of fluorine in the water because it would have saved me untold hours of agony later on.

Even if the question got off to a wrong start due to a little thoughtlessness on the part of a few people who really meant well — I strongly recommend that we bury the hatchet and give the kids a break by voting "YES" on Monday.

* Parts per million

Jens Touborg

Editor, The Herald:

Also to the American citizens of Tecumseh.

I have lived in Tecumseh since 1918, and never had a complaint about the water. This village was noted for its good water.

Last spring an odor came into our water. It smelt like a stinking pond. It got so bad we could not drink it. I asked Mr. Nelson what they were putting in the water. His reply was nothing. At about that time we received a pamphlet on fluoridation through the mail.

I then asked one of the employees of the water works what was going into the water. He said sodium fluoride. I showed this pamphlet to the village president, Mr. Campbell. His reply was propaganda.

I took the matter up with Mr. Beach, chairman of the water board. His reply was if we have made a mistake, it will be rectified. Nothing was done. We circulated a petition which we presented to the council with 280 some names which was ignored. There was a picture taken as Mr. Bryan presented this petition to the council. What became of it?

I heard complaints from school children. They did not like the water in our public schools. I asked some of our most prominent citizens to go to the schools and see for themselves. Did they?

I refused to pay my water bill. Mr. Nelson and Mr. Kopka came up to shut my water off. I asked them in. They smelt the odor from my cold tap. Their reply was I don't blame you one bit.

I have carried my drinking and cooking water all summer and winter, also got water for friends and neighbors, as many people in this city are doing today.

After several months of advertising with our doctors names signed to it, a fact finding committee was formed. What were they talking about before?

Where do their facts come from? They have mentioned the State Health Department, University of Michigan and Wayne University. If you have read the papers, you know what is going on at the U. of M., also Wayne University.

I wish to inform the citizens of Tecumseh that our information comes from the Department of Justice, Civil Defense, Washington, D. C., University of Wisconsin, Arizona, New Mexico, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Louisiana and the Brusch Medical Center, Cambridge, Mass.

Also the Congressional Record No. 2500. We have also corresponded with several U. S. Congressmen who are fighting this program in Washington to protect your Constitutional rights.

It is my opinion that we have doctors who should be able to prescribe sodium fluoride in controlled dosage to those who desire it instead of forcing it down everybody's throat, whether they want it or not.

Where is our religion, left on the church steps? "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." A NO vote on fluoridation is a vote for your constitutional rights and America.

M. H. Thielan

Editor, The Herald:

On any public issue it is hard to have complete harmony of feeling. This is a healthy condition — the American way. From the barrage of advertising that has appeared in The Herald it seems that the question of fluoride in the water is no exception.

How can the average taxpayers and voters like ourselves vote intelligently on such a highly technical question? It would seem that if a person would vote along with the American Dental Association and the American Medical Association, he would be voting along with the most reliable information on the subject today.

We believe that children deserve the best benefits for healthy teeth, so upon the extensive studies made by the dental and medical authorities on the subject, we are voting to continue fluoridation.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. Ted O. Pihl

Editor, The Herald:

If the dentists who advocate fluoride in our public water will tell me why if he can make $4 for filling a cavity and that he wants us people to drink this water so we can save a cavity, why is he trying to run himself out of business?

Peter Socks

Editor, The Herald:

Fluoridation is not just a preventive medical measure, but also a factor in nutrition. Did you hear any loud objections when Vitamin B was added to bread to promote better health?

In like manner fluoride added to the water is a supplement to the diet. How do the so-called "purists" answer that in their arguments against fluoridation?

Eating a well balanced diet is still important in the prevention of tooth decay, but why reject a supplement that will further this prevention cheaply and safely? Mottling of the teeth is caused only when an excess of three parts per million is present in water. The proposed concentration of one part per million is carefully regulated and checked daily by the Health Department.

Sincerely,

Ruth B. Duffin, Dietician
(Mrs. Richard G. Duffin)

Editor, The Herald:

We have had fluoridated water for some time in Tecumseh. If fluoridation is in any way harmful, where are the claimants for the thousand dollars offered a few weeks ago? As yet no claims have been received by the Fluoridation Facts Committee.

Mrs. S. A. Maples

Editor, The Herald:

It seems to me that those who just love to drink fluoridated water and want their children to have it and are so enthused over this so called dental fad, should be made to understand that this is an experiment on a 10 to 20 year period ending 1965, with a deadly poison.

No one knows the results that will follow. What is the rush to try it? Let's wait until that period is over, then if it proves so good as they say, we can still have it and won't be harmed but — if it proves to be a mistake after this lapse of time, there will be no chance to redeem these human lives, it will have been too late.

So let's not rush into this program. Let others who desire it be the "guinea pigs" and add it to their own drinking water. A few pennies will pay the bill for them. Let's not take the stand that because you love it, everyone else has to have it too. This is just common sense.

Mrs. Marjorie A. Bryan
(Mrs. Earl Bryan)

Pressures and worry apparently contribute to the development of coronary heart troubles. Learning to relax will help to prevent these conditions. It may be better for the executive who worries to take several short vacations a year rather than one long one, and a short nap after lunch might also help. Those persons who are fortunate enough to be able to take a 15-minute nap after lunch each day seldom develop coronary heart disease.

The Ministry Of Silence

(Beginning this week and each week during the Lenten season. The Herald will publish sermonettes written by members of the Tecumseh Ministerial Association).

By The Rev. E. C. Dickin,
Rector, St. Peter's Episcopal Church

We live in a world of noise. Our city streets are canyons of clangour, — the honking of motor horns, the screetching of brakes. In the offices, there is the clatter of typewriters; in the factories the roar of whirling wheels. It literally "gets on our nerves."

There is a great need today for the Ministry of Silence. May this Lenten Season breathe its message of pentitence, pardon and peace, both to the shepherd and his sheep, in the still, small voice of silence. It is an attitude of mind; it is an atmosphere of the soul.

Far from the madding crowd's ignoble strife, man has time to repossess his soul and to discover the inner self, for we are so much companions of the crowd that we are strangers to ourselves. We all need seasons of solitude of soul, for is it not true that in all the great crises of life, we are really alone, even "at mine end and at my departing"?

In the matchless tapestry of the life of Jesus, this spirit forms the warp and woof. He constantly withdrew to the hills. Before each crises in His life and after each great crises, He is found alone in prayer. When they planned to make Him King, when the messenger came with the news of the death of John the Baptist, at the Transfiguration, He is found alone-yet not alone. After spending a whole night in prayer He chose the Twelve that they might be with Him; from a mountaintop, He returned to the Father who sent Him. Judas knew where to find Him, for "as His custom was", He retired to the Garden by the mountain side.

May our churches bring to us the Ministry of Silence! Use them this Lenten Season to recapture the Peace of Soul.

Their very structure, the architecture and design, the windows, the furnishings, all blend in creating an atmosphere of beauty and symmetry, of reverence and devotion, of meditation and contemplation. A Japanese student, a Buddhist, after a visit to Westminister Abbey, wrote on a postcard,—"I feel like worship God here."

In recent issue of a church paper a housewife complained of the noise from radios, televisions, cars and children. She stated it was so bad that "we have been forced to go to church in an attempt to find peace and quietness for an hour or two." Not a bad idea! Such an atmosphere comes not only from the architecture of the building, not from wood and stone but from the human spirit which ministers with a divine touch. Yes, it must come from God, for in all true religion there must be the element of mysticism. We can learn much from the Mysytics through the ages; we too need "The Inner Light."

SERVICES HELD FOR LOUIS E. DOWNING

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Niblack Funeral Home, Britton, for Louis E. Downing, 58 years old, who died suddenly at his home in Britton Thursday morning. Mr. Downing had returned to his home Wednesday from Herrick Memorial hospital where he had been a patient for two weeks.

Mr. Downing had been employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. for the last seven years. Prior to that he worked for the Ford agencies at Macon for 13 years. He was a member of the Brooklyn Odd Fellow lodge.

Besides the widow, he is survived by two sons, Russell and Roland both at home, two daughters, Mrs. Anna Spreeman of Deerfield and Katherine at home, five brothers, Charles, Ervin, Emery, Harry and Leland all of Britton vicinity, and two sisters, Mrs. Nora Squires and Mrs. Marian Barrett also near Britton, and a number of other relatives.

The Rev. C. A. Bearinger officiated at funeral services. Richard Lower sang two hymns accompanied by Mrs. Lillian Miller.

Burial was in the Ridgeway cemetery. Bearers were Carl Auten, W. R. Kuster, Pirl Robison, Glen Furgeson, Fenton Barrett and Ransom Squires.

COUPLE HONORED AT WEDDING SHOWER

A wedding shower was held recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duckworth honoring their son Warren L. Duckworth and his wife, who were married Feb. 5, in Cumberland, Md. The new Mrs. Duckworth is the former Evelyn Boden of Knobsville, Pa.

Guests attending the shower from Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. Ogland Lay, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hildebrand Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Klingensmith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lauer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford and son Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stanifer, Mrs. Glen Work and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, Lorene Mack, Janis Boltz and Louise Duckworth. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Forest Barrett, Carol and Allan of Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith and son Joel of Deerfield, William Bale of Tipton, Jerry Wyble of East Lansing and Bill Smith of Britton.

Lunch was served after the couple opened many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mr. Duckworth was discharged from the Army Jan. 12 at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., after serving three years. Two and one-half years were spent in Germany. He is now employed at Watson Bros. Roofing Co., and the couple resides at Paul's Trailer Court.

LEGION AUXILIARY

At the March meeting of the Legion Auxiliary held at the Legion Home Monday evening, it was announced that initiation of new members will take place at the next meeting with the local Ritual Team officiating. Five dollars was voted for the Crusade for Freedom and plans were made for the annual birthday party of the Legion and its Auxiliary to be held March 17. Mrs. Harold Easten was appointed general chairman of this event and members are requested to bring their own table service and a dish to pass. Rolls, coffee and dessert will be furnished by the committee. One guest, Mrs. James Rohrer, was present and hostesses for the evening were Mrs. David Higgins, Mrs. Glenn Driscoll and Mrs. William Sisson.

Birthdays in our room recently have been Phyllis Brooks, Sally Smock, Tim Lauer, and Peggy Morris. Peggy was in Denver on her birthday and missed the birthday treats which the others shared with us.

Doris Jean Hagadorn has moved to a farm near Clinton. We wish she could have stayed with us. Now we have 30 in our second grade.

One reading group has just started a new book, "More Friends and Neighbors." The rest of us are working real hard to finish our books so we may use the new one, too.

Kathy Butler, Gene Manwaring, Barry Seidel, Paul Snyder, and Sally Smock have had the measles. We expect Kathy, Paul and Sally back in school this week.

We have a new mirror in our room. This is a big help in keeping our hair combed and faces clean.

Our library is ready for us to use and we take books back to our room with us once each week. Many of us have trouble making up our minds as to which one to take out! They're all so pretty and look so interesting!

In science class, we are studying about "Getting Work Done." We hope to have a display showing how work is done—both by machine and people.

Tuesday is our day in the gym. We are very pleased to have a day there.

We have been learning to measure the length of things and the amount of water contained in many sized jars. This has been fun.

We have a felt board which we are using with our number work most of the time.

Animal visitors recently have been alligators, a snail, and goldfish. We didn't know much about the alligators so we found some interesting things in the reference books in the library.

We were very interested in watching one of the workmen remove some tiles from our floor and put new ones in their place.

Our Valentine party was a lot of fun. We made our own Valentine boxes and each one of us was a postman when we brought the Valentines to school.

We are going to watch for signs of spring now. We would like to make some pictures of what we see in the next few weeks.

We are such clean boys and girls since you last heard from us. Last Tuesday we started an Inspection Patrol. Every morning our hands, nails, ears, faces, teeth and shoes are checked. If we pass inspection, we are given a special sticker to paste after our names on a large chart which is on the bulletin board in our room. If we pass inspection successfully four mornings out of five, we receive a special merit award to take home and paste on our individual charts. You should see the shining faces every morning.

Last week one day we had our pictures taken. We can hardly wait to see them.

We had a wonderful Valentine party. This year we had individual Valentine boxes. It was fun delivering our own letters.

Yolanda Gomez brought us an unusual treat this week. It was guava candy from Mexico. Some of us enjoyed the different taste, some of us did not.

Since February is a patriotic month, we constructed a very large flag on our bulletin board.

Three children celebrated their birthdays this month. They were Linda Weakley, John Cunningham, and Bradley McCombs. We enjoyed the treats they brought for us.

Grade 2
Miss LaPointe

We have finished our basic readers, "Friends and Neighbors." Most of the class made high scores on the test.

One of the cocoons that was brought in last fall hatched, and it proved to be a beautiful moth. We were sorry to have it die in such a short time.

Stephen Freckelton brought a book on the life of Abraham Lincoln that helped us to learn many interesting things about him.

We have many pictures in our room illustrating various episodes in the life of George and Martha Washington. We have learned a song entitled, "Little George Washington" which tells of his boyhood life.

Mary Louise Dinse celebrated her eighth birthday February 2. She is the only member of the class who has a February birthday.

We are learning to tell time and to read the thermometer.

After Michael Higgins brought a cocoanut to school, that was in its outer shell, we decided we would like to open a cocoanut to see the inside, so we bought one and ate all of it.

We are enjoying doing our cursive writing after having done manuscript writing during the first semester.

Grade 3
Miss Baker

We would like to thank our room mothers for the nice parties they had for us this year. Our last party was for Valentines Day. We decorated our own boxes. Mary Ann Mead won a prize for the best box. She made it look like herself with pigtails.

Michael Osburn brought two real baby alligators for us to watch. His parents brought them back from Florida. They died however when the top of the acquarium was shut too tight and they could get no air.

Michael Rice is in Florida with his parents. We received a card from him. He is having a good time.

Roy Caldwell left us to finish the school year in Alabama.

Jimmy Johnson entered our group from the Central building.

Zaiga Freimanis and Eugene White had birthdays this month.

In science we are finishing the section on birds and animals. We made small charts for our science notebooks on birds and animals that stay with us all year.

In language we are learning to write stories. Many of us have told some very interesting stories.

See you next month.

Grade 2
Mrs. VanValkenburg

Another boy has joined our group. He is Tom Matteson from Springville.

In science we are studying about how we can tell time by the sun and by shadows. We have made a panarama, showing the length of the shadow of a tree at different times of day. Two boys brought us shadow sticks which they made.

One class took the Basic Reading Test in our reading book, The New Friends and Neighbors. About half of our class was rated average, and the rest high or very high. We are enjoying our new book, The new "More Friends and Neighbors. We have made some rules about the vowels in words. That helps us to know new words.

The other class is finishing our book, the new "Our New Friends." We expect to take the basic test about the first of March.

Grade 2
Mrs. Puffer

March is here at last! We have decorated our bulletin boards with gay kites. We also have some pictures of baby animals pinned upon the board. John Oberlin brought a big bouquet of pussy willows, so we think our room looks spring-like.

We like to play with tinkertoys, Lincoln logs, puzzles, clay and to read library books before the bell rings. Often, too, the girls bring their dolls to play with.

One sunny day we decided we needed a jumping rope. Mr. Greene said we might go down to the hardware at recess time to buy one. We measured the length we wanted before we started. At the store we found we had enough money to buy two ropes. We learned many interesting things about rope; how it is weighed, its various sizes, and how it is cut.

Garry Bowers has mumps. We wrote him a card and during another recess walked over to the postoffice and mailed it to him.

Grade 3
Mrs. Vallie

Since the last time we talked with you there are four less of us. Jim Johnson went to Patterson School, Doris Renner moved to Blissfield, and Kenneth and Ladeana Southwell are in Tipton. There are a lot of empty chairs now since there are only thirty-three of us.

We are very anxious to see the pictures we had taken some time ago. Some of us have forgotten whether or not we smiled for the birdie.

Some boys from Mrs. Illeck's room and from our room had a baseball game over a period of two recesses and seven innings. The rumor is that our room won 11-5.

You should see the pussy-willows Larrie Eaton brought in. They really make our room look nice.

We had a contest to see which people could remember to brush their teeth twice a day. It lasted two weeks. People at the winning table were Sharon Martin, Shelia O'Neil, Donald Sniffen, Craig Rosacrans, and Dick Golat.

One cold morning we walked to Patterson for a spell down with Miss Baker's room. Although we lost, we enjoyed visiting Miss Baker's children and seeing the new school.

Grade 2
Mrs. VanWinkle

We have a big vase full of beautiful, big, fat, cuddley, pink pussy willows. Larrie Eaton one of last year's Second Graders brought them to us.

We are going to the fire station today. Next time we visit you, we will tell you all about our trip. We have been reading about firemen and how they help protect us.

We have all been a Betsy Ross this month. We made a large flag out of red, white and blue paper chains. Each morning we salute our new flag.

We have been playing Arithmetic games with a big ring toss game. We throw the rings and measure to see who throws the farthest and nearest to the pegs. We also throw bean bags through holes and add up the score to see which side wins. It's lots of fun playing these games.

OVER 900,000 DRINK FLUORIDATED WATER

Fluorides are being added to 30 municipal water supplies in the state for the prevention of tooth decay. These supplies furnish the drinking water for 42 communities with a combined population of 905,950 persons.

MASONIC LODGE

One hundred members and guests were present at the Masonic Temple Friday evening for a special meeting of Tecumseh Lodge No. 69. After enjoying a ham supper served by ladies of the O.E.S., with Mrs. Clair Rozelle and Mrs. Jack Morehouse as chairmen, members and guests gathered for the opening by the Worshipful Master, Howard Wilson Sr. Guests were introduced from Onsted, Clinton, Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Iowa City and Solomon, Kansas.

The Fellowcraft team from Onsted Lodge No. 407 exemplified the Master Mason degree. Those receiving degrees were Richard and John Colson, Marion L. Beaty, Robert Holcomb and Harold A. Harris. Assisting in the work were Howard Wilson Sr., Worshipful Master, William Butler, Edward Leighton, and Ralph Westgate, all Past Masters of Tecumseh Lodge.

EXTENSION CLUB

The Northeast Extension group met fourteen strong Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Stone on Ford road. Mrs. Stone was assisted by Mrs. Frank Csokasy and Mrs. Ellsworth Robison.

"Making the best use of your sewing machine" was the project topic for the month and the leader, Mrs. Lester Ruhl made it a very interesting and profitable one. She demonstrated on her own machine the use of all attachments, illustrated various types of seams and labor saving short-cuts. The care of the machine was also discussed as were various trimming devises using the attachments. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The group will meet in March with Mrs. Ruhl, with Mrs. Kenneth Bumerick and Mrs. Edward Bailey as co-hostesses.

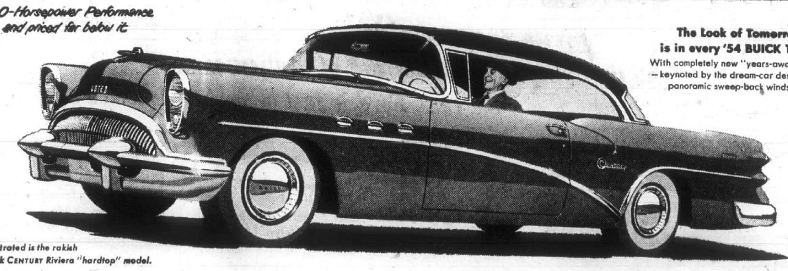
200-Horsepower Performance and priced far below it.



Illustrated is the rakish Buick CENTURY Riviera "hardtop" model.

The Look of Tomorrow is in every '54 BUICK Today
With completely new "years-away" styling — keynoted by the dream-car design of the panoramic sweep-back windshield.

Come drive the CENTURY biggest horsepower bargain of 1954!

THE invitation you see headlined here calls for action — and comparison.

For you have to see and drive the 200-horsepower CENTURY — and check its local delivered price — to know how it puts other automobiles in this Buick's dollar class on the spot.

Look for yourself — and you'll see what we mean.

Look at styling, new-day features, visibility, interior modernity, ride comfort, handling ease—we believe you will find nothing on the automotive horizon to equal the CENTURY on all counts.

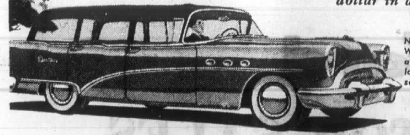
But what will prove to be the most eye-opening news of all is the power buy you make in this spectacular Buick.

When you compare — when you check the facts — you find that you are buying more horsepower per dollar in a CENTURY than you get in any other standard-production American automobile, bar none.

And it is horsepower that gives you brilliant performance, greater economy, new safety—for here you get the highest power-to-weight ratio in all Buick history.

Why not come in and see the whole story come alive when you take the wheel of a Buick CENTURY?

We know of no better way to prove to you that this gorgeous, glamorous sweep of automobile is the power buy of the year — by far.



Now you can buy the famed Buick Estate Wagon at new low prices—for this all-new, all-steel beauty is now available in Buick's lowest-priced SPECIAL Series, and in the sensationally powered CENTURY Series.

CHRISTIAN BUILDERS

Miss Anne Thompson and Mrs. David Faling were co-hostesses to the Christian Builders in the Thompson home last Wednesday evening. A round table discussion was led by the Rev. George E. Walworth and the program leader was Mrs. Richard Fielder. Miss Joyce Warner conducted devotions. It was announced that the group's project for March will be the serving of the Business and Professional Women's Club dinner and Mrs. Harold Hammel and Mrs. Don Purkey will be co-chairmen. Proceeds from a traveling basket sponsored by members recently were given to the March of Dimes. The March meeting of the group will be at the home of Mrs. Harlan Dicks with Mrs. Fielder as co-hostess. Mrs. Carlton Cook will have charge of devotions.

MISS ALMA LUCE, 80, BURIED IN BROOKSIDE

Miss Alma Jane Luce, who had lived most of her 80 years in Tipton and vicinity, died Friday afternoon at Bixby hospital, Adrian. She had been a patient there for two weeks after spending the last year in a nursing home in Morenci.

Miss Luce was born in Jackson county, Oct. 13, 1873, the daughter of Chester and Kate EnEarl Luce. She was a member of the Tipton Community church and its Ladies Aid and was a former leader of the choir. She is survived by two brothers, Roy and Howard, several nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews. Three brothers, Irving, Henry and Earl preceded her in death.

The body was taken Monday noon from the Green Funeral Home to Tipton Community church where at 2 p.m. services were conducted by the Rev. Gordon Blossom. Mrs. Clifford Hardy, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Every sang "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me" and "Today."

Burial was in Brookside cemetery, Tecumseh, the bearers all being nephews; Ralph Bruce, Grass Lake; Harold Brown, Napoleon; Faye LaMonte, William and Claude Luce, Tipton.

CONSERVATION CLUB PLANS WILDLIFE WEEK PROGRAM MARCH 21-27

Darwin Creger, president of the Tecumseh Conservation Club, announces that local plans are being made for participation in National Wildlike Week to be observed March 21-27.

National Wildlife Week is a nationwide educational campaign, he said, sponsored annually by the National Wildlife Federation and its state and local affiliates. Purpose is to focus public attention on problems of natural resource management and the pressing need for better conservation practices. The special theme for 1954 will be water pollution control.

The National Federation has announced these six goals, or objectives, in water pollution control:

1. Promotion of adequate water pollution laws in every state. Some states have them, many do not.
2. Adequate appropriations for state pollution-control agencies. It is estimated that about five cents per person per year (based on total state population) is sufficient.
3. Adequate sewage treatment facilities in every community.
4. Adequate waste prevention or waste treatment by every industry. Additional research where industrial waste problems have not been solved.
5. Prevention of silt pollution through soil conservation practices.
6. Adequate appropriations for the research and cooperative programs of the Water Pollution Control Division of the U. S. Public Health Service, as authorized by the Taft-Barkley Act of 1948.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

One of the greatest of God's blessings is pure, unadulterated water. Tecumseh at one time was blessed with it.

Today do you have skin eruptions? Do you have boils, sores on the face and body? Do your children complain of pains in the stomach and much tooth decay among children two to three years old?

Will the people who pay taxes be forced to drive wells so that they may have decent water? Does the man who places the miserable stuff in our drinking water have skin eruptions of any kind?

It might pay the people to meet the gentleman and find out if he has any such trouble. If so, does he think it is somethinng else?

I am unable to drink the water at all. When I do drink it, I have much pain and breaking out and now I do not drink any and the skin eruptions have left. One glass brings them back.

Go to St. Joseph hospital, Ann Arbor and have your blood tested by experts and find out for yourself.

Fluoride is poison. Vote no. This is not political; it is safety.

THE WISE WAY—
THE DEMOCRATIC WAY

FOR YOU TO DECIDE THE FLUORIDATION QUESTION IS TO:

1. Read carefully all of the information-
2. Make up your own mind --- and

VOTE MARCH 8

The democratic way to decide any issue is to have an election and both sides abide by the outcome. This method has always proven most beneficial to the people as a whole. For almost a year now we have witnessed a major controversy here in Tecumseh which will be decided on March 8, 1954. At that time the voters will have the opportunity to decide whether or not they want to continue to have fluoride added to the city water.

As in any election, it is necessary for both sides to provide the voters with their arguments for and against the proposal to be decided. In the last 6 weeks the Fluoridation Facts Committee, made up of most of the Physicians and Dentists in Tecumseh, have presented to the voters the reasons why we strongly favor the continuation of fluoride in the city water supply. We feel that the people should go to the polls with ALL of the facts of the case in order to settle this controversy intelligently.

The proposal to be voted on is shown below exactly as it will appear on the ballot. Your city council has requested this election so that all of you may make your wishes known on this subject. On the following pages the Committee has tried to present a summary of the points presented in favor of fluoridation. We hope you will take the time to read the facts as presented here in order to decide this question by reason and common sense rather than fear.

Voting is your privilege and better teeth for you and your children are possible. Think it over, make up your mind, and VOTE March 8, 1954!

Shall the Fluoridation of the City of Tecumseh Water Supply Be Continued ?

HERE ARE THE FACTS!

COMMON SENSE

As with any new advancement of science, there are sincere people who arrive at conclusions without having all the facts at hand. The present matter of fluoride in the water is a good example of this thinking. It has been stated that fluoride is poisonous, it is a tool of saboteurs, it is dangerous to health, and many other broad statements. These proposals are backed up by individual, so-called "authorities" or unheard-of associations. These people have two main things in common — 1. They are not now associated with widely known organizations and 2. They are passionately against fluoride in the water.

When we investigate medical history, however, we find similar instances in many advancements now accepted as commonplace. We might cite smallpox vaccination, pasteurization of milk, cleanliness in operating rooms (particularly at childbirth) and polio vaccine as only a very few cases where this fight was carried on. To be charitable, we must assume that the majority of the opposition to these advances were people who were either uninformed or misinformed on the facts of the case.

Now, as in the past, the only way to arrive at an intelligent answer is to place our confidence in men and organizations who are qualified to make these decisions. Impressive titles for an organization are easy to put together. The real test is how long has it been functioning, how well known are its members, and, are they qualified to give expert opinion. When we call a doctor we only know we are sick, we don't know why. But we have enough confidence in his knowledge and ability to follow his instructions and get well.

Why is it then, when an organization such as the American Medical Association, made up of the top medical men in the country, endorses fluoride in the water, their actions are supect. They would never endorse it if there were any doubts that it cannot be the cause of cancer, heart failure, backache, or any other disease. Their reputations and livelihood are at stake.

The same argument will hold for all the other well-known, national organizations who support fluoridation of the water. The American Dental Association, The U. S. Public Health Service, and leading magazines all over the country have endorsed it 100%. These organizations have thousands of members and can speak with authority on a scientific proposal such as this.

Add to this the fact that 771 communities in 43 states with a population of 14,346,157 persons are now adding controlled amounts of fluoride to the drinking water and 3,570,021 persons in 1152 communities have natural fluoride in the water. More and more communities are taking this progressive step for child dental health.

It would seem that the weight of evidence is all in favor of fluoride. Competent authorities assure us that there are no ill effects. The only question remaining, therefore, is whether or not we want to go forward with medical progress or deny ourselves these benefits on the word of unqualified criers of destruction. Fluoride is here for our use, it's up to you to make the most of it.

POISON — Fact or Fancy?

For some time now the opponents of fluoridation have contended that fluoride is a deadly poison, that it is used in insecticides and it could kill the entire population of Tecumseh. This is of course only a few of the many half-truths used to mislead the voters on this important issue. Let's examine the chemical called sodium fluoride (this is what we add to Tecumseh's water) in a manner that all of us can understand.

In the first place, there is no chemical difference whatsoever between natural fluoride contained in the water of certain localities and artificial fluoride added to the water by a community. Competent chemical associations have analyzed both and proven this beyond any doubt.

When groups report that fluoride is dangerous because it is a poison they are only presenting a small part of the picture. They are saying that because highly concentrated quantities of fluoride are poisonous (450 ppm causes vomiting) that minute quantities (1 ppm) are also. This is not true. To compare 500 - 1000 ppm of fluoride as used in rat poison to 1 ppm in the water is silly. It would take approximately 4 TONS of sodium fluoride per million gallons of water to get this much fluoride. The 4 TONS of sodium fluoride needed is a little less than Tecumseh's requirements for a FULL YEAR. Even assuming that this quantity were on hand, it would be extremely difficult if not impossible to put it all in the water at one time.

To understand sodium fluoride better we can look at a very common, ordinary ingredient with which we are all familiar, sodium chloride. Sodium chloride is made up of two elements (sodium and chloride) in the same manner as sodium and fluoride make sodium fluoride. Sodium is a very unstable metal which is extremely poisonous in even small quantities. This element is contained in both. Chloride is the salt of chlorine and fluoride is the salt of fluorine. Both chlorine and fluorine are deadly gases developed during World War I. However, by combining sodium and chloride, we form a relatively harmless compound familiar to all of us — sodium chloride or common TABLE SALT. Likewise, sodium plus fluoride — sodium fluoride — even though both elements separately are extremely harmful, reacts on a human in a similar manner as sodium chloride (salt). In moderate quantities, both are harmless. We don't condemn salt because it contains dangerous elements since we know from experience that the combination actually is beneficial to us. In fact, we could not live without it. In a like manner we cannot condemn fluoridation of the water merely because the basic chemical in large concentrated doses is harmful. As with salt, the compound is actually beneficial to us.

Other arguments state that communist saboteurs might use a fluoridation system to poison the community and that argument is even more far-fetched. Why try to dump 4 tons of sodium fluoride in the water (this is the minimum amount likely to make one sick) when a few drops of any one of many other biologicals available would do a more complete job? By no stretch of the imagination can we conceive of a "slip of a valve" or breakdown of any kind that could put a years supply (4 tons) of sodium fluoride in the water at one time.

To thinking people, therefore, statements that fluoridation is poisonous are actually idiotic and can be proven false by any high school chemistry student. DOCTORS KNOW THE POISON ARGUMENT IS A FARCE, NOW YOU CAN PROVE IT!

WHICH DOCTOR?

We have stated several times that fluoridation has been endorsed 100% by the American Medical Association. This association includes over 200,000 physicians throughout the country. All of our local physicians are members of this association and it is recognized as the most authoritative source of information on medical matters in the country. These are the men in which we place our confidence when we are sick.

Unfortunately for the layman, many professions use the title of Doctor within their groups. Some legitimate and sincere people, the members of the clergy for instance, are often referred to as Doctors of Divinity or Dr. for short. In fact, colleges and universities grant Doctors degrees in economics, teaching, mathematics or any other field of advanced study. The fact that a great many "Doctors" have little or no knowledge of medicine is usually overlooked by most people. Unfortunately some quacks and nostrum peddlers also like to refer to themselves as "Dr." even though they may never have completed the sixth grade. Further, some medical doctors or dentists also have been denied membership in the Association for a variety of reasons. The last two groups plus a very few of the others are most likely to use the term with the intent of deceiving. The "authorities" quoted in backing up most of the anti-fluoridation committee's propaganda certainly belong in this category. None of them can be considered outstanding nationally.

Obviously, most anyone may call himself "Doctor" and confusion frequently results. Thus, one must be careful when accepting the word of a Dr. on medical matters until you know that he is actually qualified to give an opinion. The only way for the layman to determine a bona fide Doctor of Medicine is, therefore, his membership in the American Medical Association or, in the case of a dentist, the American Dental Association. In the final analysis the question of whether or not fluoridation is dangerous must be left to the men who devote their lives to protecting our health. When they can make an unqualified endorsement of it, as they have, we KNOW that it is safe.

We trust the plumber to fix the faucet, the carpenter to build a house and the mechanic to fix our car — let's trust the doctors and dentists when they say that fluoridation is safe. They are far more qualified than any other members of the community, no matter how sincere their motives, to advise on the effects of fluoridation to health. If you believe your doctor knows what he is doing when you are sick, you certainly should believe him when he assures you that fluoridation is harmless. That's his business! ! !

DOLLARS AND SENSE

Some strange figures and contentions have been put forward regarding the cost of fluoridation of the city water supply. To set the record straight, we feel that it is important that the actual cost of fluoridation be examined.

First, the cost of equipment and installation for treating our water supply was not charged to the taxpayers. NO PART of this expense was paid for by the city. It was a donation toward better health for all. The only expense borne by the taxpayers now or in the future is the cost of purchasing the sodium fluoride. Let us examine this cost in its proper light.

On the basis of 10 months' experience in adding fluoride (April 1953 - March 1954) Tecumseh will use about 5 tons of sodium fluoride per year. The cost of the raw material is about $12 per 100 pounds. This supplies our present population of approximately 5600 at a cost of $1200 per year. We expect this price to decrease when we begin buying the materials in bulk quantities. However, even on the basis of $1200, fluoridation costs each person in Tecumseh about 20c PER YEAR.

Fluoridation is beneficial to all people in the community. Actually we all have cavities, usually several per year. While fluoridation gives maximum protection to children who have used it since birth, all persons will gain to a certain degree. Children from ages 1 - 6 have experienced up to a 72% reduction in tooth decay, from ages 7 - 12 they have had up to 35% reduction, and proportionate reduction continues in all age groups. These facts have been proven by studies over a period of 25 years in areas with both natural and added fluoride.

Since all of us have cavities and fluoride has proven its value in preventing them the 20c (or lower) cost per year is a small price to pay for this protection. When you consider that your dentist charges $4 for filling just one minor cavity, then this is money wisely spent. By stopping just ONE CAVITY, the saving in dentist bills will pay your share of the cost of adding fluoride to the water for 20 YEARS!

Considered in this light the cost to the community is certainly negligible. What difference does it make that only a small part of the fluoridated water is actually taken into the body through drinking. It's easier and much less expensive to fluoridate the entire water supply than to consume fluoride in any other way. The 20c a year expense is about the same amount needed to provide electricity to your house for ONE DAY, or to heat it for 8 - 10 hours. Surely we can all afford 20c to protect ourselves from the expense and inconvenience of the dentist's chair. Fluoridation offers us a desirable benefit — freedom from tooth decay, FOR 20c A YEAR! CERTAINLY CHEAP INSURANCE!

Cost, therefore, cannot be a logical argument against fluoridation. Thinking people, using common horse sense, should be able to see through the misconceptions sold to the voters of Tecumseh, as reasons why fluoride should be eliminated from the water.

The above statements are facts, not unsupported assertations. Each and every statement shown can be proved beyond any doubt. They are not wild claims but an appeal to reason, an appeal to thinking people to think for themselves. A fear campaign such as we have witnessed on fluoridation gathers many unsuspecting sheep into the fold. These people either are uninformed or are unable to accept authoritative reason as a guide to deciding for themselves. It is difficult to imagine thinking people who will deny themselves an obvious benefit because they are afraid. We feel that the facts as presented above are sound in that competent physicians, dentists and public health officers all back up these statements. Why deprive yourselves of a major scientific advancement? More important, why go on paying for cavities when most of them can be eliminated by water fluoridation? The voters must decide and also must take the consequences.

HERE ARE BOTH SIDES

In a controversy such as fluoridation, we must all look to experts in the field for answers to certain questions. Most of us have neither the training nor the time to analyze certain parts of the question thoroughly. To find out whether or not it is poison, if it is completely safe, if it will cause any ill effects to the organs, or if there is any danger whatsoever, we must depend upon qualified experts in the field.

Naturally on any subject we can find some difference of opinion, even between experts. However, seldom has there been such unanimous opinion of all recognized organizations as in the case of fluoridation. So that you will know the reputation and background of the men in whom you will place your trust, we have listed below a few of the organizations and people who have been quoted on both sides of this issue:

What Fluoridation Authorities Are Quoted?

FOR

NATIONAL

American Medical Association

An organization of over 200,000 doctors of medicine all over the country. The AMA maintains laboratories to test ideas such as fluoridation. This competent group endorses it 100%.

American Dental Association

An organization of over 92,000 dentists all over the country. These men are naturally most interested in the effects of fluoridation on teeth. Their unqualified approval is based on their training and experience in treating teeth every day.

American Public Health Association

This organization is composed of members of the state public health departments of all 48 states and the District of Columbia. It is their duty to guard the public health of the communities under their jurisdiction. Members are qualified physicians and dentists.

U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare

This is the Federal department charged with protecting the health of the country as a whole. All of the facilities of the Federal Government were available to this group to carry on experiments on fluoridation.

Reader's Digest

This well known national magazine with a circulation of over 25,000,000 people came out in favor of fluoridation in December 1953. Naturally they would investigate a proposal very carefully before printing an endorsement.

Saturday Evening Post

Another National magazine with over 4,000,000 circulation endorsed fluoridation in August 1953.

STATE

Albert E. Heustis, M.D.

Dr. Heustis is the Commissioner of the Michigan Department of Health. As such, it is his responsibility to do everything in his power to ensure the highest health standards for the entire State of Michigan.

W. D. Prothro, M.D.

Dr. Prothro is Public Health Director for the City of Grand Rapids. In this capacity it is his responsibility to protect the health of all of the citizens of Grand Rapids. Since Grand Rapids has had fluorine added to their water for the past ten years, Dr. Prothro is in an ideal position to express his views on the advantages of this project.

Fred Wertheimer, D.D.S.

Dr. Wertheimer is Chief of the Public Health Dentistry Section in the Michigan Department of Health. In this capacity he has been closely associated with all of the fluoridation programs now in progress in the state of Michigan. He has reported that 885,000 persons in 29 communities in Michigan are now benefited by the addition of fluorine to their water.

Philip Jay, D.D.S.

Dr. Jay is a Professor of Dentistry at the University of Michigan. In this capacity he has engaged in research on the reduction of dental cavities through fluoridation since 1937. His published works relating to this research have been reprinted by the Public Health Service of the United States Government, and are available to anyone who is interested.

LOCAL

The Fluoridation Facts Committee

This committee is composed of all of the doctors and most of the dentists serving the Tecumseh area. They are assisted by a group of citizens interested in gaining the advantages of fluoridation for Tecumseh. The committee is registered as a legal committee for this purpose in Adrian. The following doctors and dentists make up the Fluoridation Facts Committee:

M. R. Blanden, M.D.
T. R. Cage, D.D.S.
W. T. Claxton, M.D.
C. L. Cook, M.D.
R. E. Dustin, M.D.
R. T. Hammel, M.D.
R. F. Helzerman, M.D.
R. G. B. Marsh, M.D.
R. J. Murray, D.D.S.

AGAINST

Dr. Alfred Taylor

Dr. Taylor is quoted as engaged in cancer research at the University of Texas. His assumptions in his mouse cancer experiment were proven wrong on three counts. He admitted under oath to the Delaney Committee that he personally had carried out NO experiments which would disprove the beliefs of those who had performed the fluoridation research.

Prof. E. B. Hart

Professor Hart was associated with the Biochemistry Department of the University of Wisconsin. Professor Hart is now dead. An extensive search indicates that he had done no research on water fluoridation.

Dr. V. O. Hurme

Dr. Hurme is listed as being associated with the Forsyth Dental Infirmary of Children, Boston, Mass. Dr. Hurme admitted under oath to the Delaney Committee that he had carried out no experiments which could disprove the beliefs of those who had performed the fluoridation research. In fact, he has done no research of any kind on fluoride.

Dr. Robert S. Harris

Dr. Harris is shown as Nutritional Biochemist at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. When asked for reprints of his published work on fluoridation of water he sent none. A survey of the most complete bibliography on fluoride indicates he has done none. He admitted this to the Delaney Committee. In a letter dated January 20, 1953, Dr. Harris states that he neither supports nor opposes fluoridation.

Prof. Howard Smith and Margaret Smith

Professor Smith is shown as Agricultural Chemist at the University of Arizona. TWENTY YEARS ago, working with his wife, Margaret Smith, they did some excellent work which helped to prove that EXCESSIVE amounts of fluoride in water caused mottled enamel. Since that time no work has been published by them or him in the field of water fluoridation which would remotely qualify them as authorities.

"Dr." E. H. Bronner

Bronner is listed as a research chemist of established standing. He says he is "Einstein's nephew." He is presently engaged in promoting the sale of "organic-mineral-salts."

"Dr." W. D. Herrstrom

Mr. Herrstrom is not a scientist but a minister. He, together with his wife, published various booklets, among which is the "Americanism Bulletins." He is not capable of conducting scientific research and has done none.

LOCAL

Anti-fluoridation Committee

This group is headed by Earl Bryan who is the local sign painter in Tecumseh. His chief assistant is Pete Thielan, local contractor. Neither Thielan nor Bryan have had any training in medicine, dentistry, or chemistry. The committee is not registered as a legal group.

"Dr." Charles T. Betz

"Dr." Betz from Toledo, Ohio recently spoke in Tecumseh. Betz has done no research work on water fluoridation. He never attended Dental College nor has he had any formal training in dentistry and was granted a license to practice before the days of examinations. He has never been eligible for membership in the local dental society.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

WHO DO YOU BELIEVE

IS BEST QUALIFIED TO ADVISE ON CHILD HEALTH?

VOTE YES TO CONTINUE FLUORIDATION!

(Paid Adv.)

THE DECISION IS NOW UP TO YOU!

Now that you have read the facts of the fluoridation question, you should be prepared to go on record as to whether or not fluoridation is important to you. Basically you will be voting on this one major issue:

DO YOU OR DO YOU NOT WANT TO PROVIDE BETTER DENTAL HEALTH FOR YOUR CHILDREN?

To summarize briefly:

1. Fluoridation will not harm general health in any way!
   All qualified organizations of doctors and dentists assure us that fluoride will not harm lungs, heart, kidneys or any other organ of the body.
2. The cost is negligible!
   Twenty cents per year per person is cheap insurance against cavities, particularly when the cost of filling just one is $4 or $5.
3. It is preventive only!
   Fluoridation is a preventive measure, not a treatment or socialized medicine. It prevents cavities by building up the teeth so that they can fight decay themselves.
4. Fluoridation is safe!
   Remember common table salt — similar acting elements are present; yet, no one has ever claimed to be poisoned by salt. Our $1,000 offer for proof of poison is still open!
5. It has proven itself in the reduction of tooth decay.
   Fluoride reduces cavities in children of all ages. The greatest benefits naturally occur if administered while teeth are forming.
6. It is odorless and tasteless.
   Fluoride cannot affect the taste or smell of Tecumseh's water.
7. It has been in use for years!
   Studies have been in continuous progress for 25 years examining the advantages of fluoride. Fluoridation is a long way beyond the experiment stage — its benefits are a matter of medical record!
8. It is a progressive step!
   By advancing with medicine, Tecumseh may share the benefits of this progress toward better dental and overall health.

THINK! THEN VOTE!

YOUR YES VOTE IS IMPORTANT!

Your vote for the continuation of fluoridation in the Tecumseh water supply is necessary if we are to continue this beneficial program. By voting YES to this proposal you can secure for yourself and your children the following important gains:

- Fewer cavities
- Less dental expense
- Better general health
- A share in community progress

With all of these positive advantages, it is to your best interest to continue this program. With common sense and careful thought it is not hard to see through the fear campaign conducted by those who would deny you this important health aid.

Think carefully and - VOTE YES TO CONTINUE FLUORIDATION

Fluoridation Turned Down

Babies Born In Herrick Hospital Since 1938 Equal City Population

Did you know that the number of births in Herrick Memorial hospital during the past 15 years almost equalled the present population of Tecumseh?

This is one of many facts in a report issued by Miss Gertrude Spaulding, hospital superintendent, who said nearly 5,000 babies have been born in the local hospital since 1938.

The report shows that Herrick Memorial hospital grew from an 18-bed hospital when it opened in 1938 to 60 beds today. And the local hospital soon will have 66 beds when present plans are completed.

Other aspects of this growth show that during the first year the hospital was opened it cared for 511 patients. In 1953 it cared for 6,719. Cash services rendered during the first year totaled $21,598.32. Last year cash services rendered totaled $187,580.10.

Comparisons of four of the 15 years the hospital has been in existence show these phases of growth:

Patients cared for at the hospital: 1938-39, 511; 1941, 1021; 1947, 3031; 1953, 8719.

Births—1938-39, 88; 1941, 206; 1947, 394; 1953, 475.

Days of nursing care given — 1938-39, 5689; 1941, 11090; 1947, 14713; 1953, 15172.

Cash services rendered—1938-39, $21,598.32; 1941, $47,968.71; 1947, $98,836.92; 1953, $187,580.10.

Another growth pattern is shown in a record of visits (not occupying a bed) during the past three years:

Emergency room — 1951, 915; 1952, 894; 1953, 1109.

X-Rays—1951, 898; 1952, 1062; 1953, 1297.

Laboratory tests — 1951, 2365; 1952, 3251; 1953, 4040.

During 1953 the hospital admitted 1803 bed patients for care: 1109 patients were given emergency treatment but not admitted to a bed for care; 1310 operations were performed; 15172 days of actual nursing care were given to in-patients occupying a bed; 1297 out-patients (not occupying a hospital bed) had X-rays performed; 4040 laboratory tests were performed on out-patients (not occupying a hospital bed).

Four hundred and seventy-five babies were born during the past year. Of these, 237 were girls and 238 were boys. Six sets of twins were included. Thirty-two of the babies were born pre-maturely and required special care.

Knights of Pythias Launches Contest On Traffic Safety

The fraternal order Knights of Pythias, which more than a year ago launched a continent-wide Highway Courtesy Campaign, will now conduct a continent-wide contest seeking the best suggestion for solving the traffic safety problem on the local community level.

Announcement was made here by Luther Wood, secretary of Tecumseh Lodge No. 190 of the Knights of Pythias, following word of the contest received from Judge Sheldon M. Roper, Lincolnton, N. C., supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias.

First prize is a unique one. Winner of first place in the contest will receive an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C. and Ottawa, Canada. While in the capitals of the two countries, the winner will be presented with flags that have flown over both capitols. They will be the flags which were flying over the capitols at the time of a recent continent-wide radio broadcast celebrating the 90th anniversary of the founding of the Knights of Pythias which now has nearly 3,000 lodges through Canada and the United States, including the territories of Alaska and Hawaii.

The contest is open to individuals or organiaztions. If an organization wins first prize, it may designate the individual who will make the trip.

In announcing the contest, Supreme Chancellor Roper pointed out that the Knights of Pythias Highway Courtesy Campaign has been successful everywhere that it has been undertaken. Roper said that the fraternal order is now requesting other organizations and all individuals to join in this effort to bring courtesy to the highways and streets of North America to replace highway slaughter.

Suggestions for plans for community action in solving the traffic safety problem should be sent to Dale Stump, Columbus 15, Ohio. Mr. Stump is directing the Knights of Pythias continent-wide Highway Courtesy Campaign.

New Plan Offers Free Capitol Trip

The national IGHUGS (I'm Gonna Howl 'Bout Unnecessary Government Spending") campaign is underway at the Quaker Oats Company here. The campaign began March 1 and will continue through March 15.

Quaker Oats employees are getting their friends and neighbors pledged to stop unnecessary spending in state and local government.

The employee who gets the most pledges earns a free, three-day trip to Washington, D. C. Employees of the Tecumseh plant are eligible for the prize.

All expenses of the trip will be paid for by the company.

In addition to a sight-seeing tour, the winner will have a chance to talk over IGHUGS with senators and representatives.

A display highlighting IGHUGS which shows how much is paid out in direct and indirect taxes is being shown at the Tecumseh Grange Hall. The display will be up until March 15.

Present Friday at a short program launching the campaign locally were Donald T. Nixon, general manager of the Tecumseh plant of the Quaker Oats Co., grange members and community leaders.

Displayed are 10 household articles with a retail value of $1,132, an amount figured by Quaker Oats to be the average tax bill paid last year by its employees.

Company employees in plants throughout the country and other citizens are being urged to write their Congressmen to demand that federal spending be reduced and the savings passed on to taxpayers.

Intangibles Tax Expert To Help At United Savings Bank

On Monday, March 15, Douglas Kraner, representing the Michigan Department of Revenue will be at United Savings Bank between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their intangibles tax returns due not later than March 31.

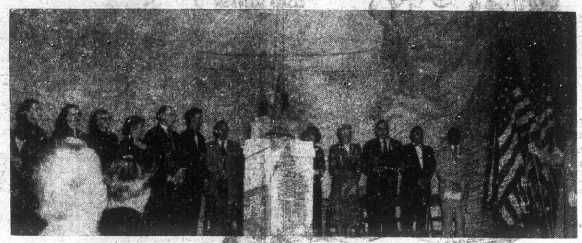
Intangible personal property subject to the tax includes all mortgages, land contracts, bank accounts, cash, postal savings accounts, accounts and notes receivable, corporate stocks, corporate bonds and other similar types of property. However, all United States bonds, are exempt from the tax, and the tax on deposits in Michigan banks and building and loan associations, as well as stocks in Michigan banks, will be paid to the Department of Revenue directly by the banks or building and loan associations.

Under the present law as amended by the Legislature in 1945, all corporate stocks are 100 per cent taxable including Michigan corporations.

The department has issued a warning to all owners of property, such as is outlined above, to file the necessary return forms prior to March 31. The Revenue Department is constantly engaged in checking stockholders' lists, mortgage records, income tax returns and other data for the purpose of discovering evasions of the Intangibles Tax Act. Failure to file a return when a tax is due subjects the taxpayer to severe penalties.

In addition to assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their returns, Mr. Kraner will also be glad to advise any person concerning his liability, if any, under the Intangibles Tax Act.

Those desiring this advice or assistance are requested to bring with them full information concerning their holdings, including the face or par value, and income received therefrom during the year, and copy of the previous year's return filed with the Department.



PATTERSON SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE — About 700 persons visited Patterson Elementary School at the recent open house and dedication of the new school. Identified in the picture are Mrs. Marguerite Garlick, Miss Francis Baker, Mrs. Lela Colson, Mrs. Purnell Osburn, teachers; Wayne Kaiser, teacher and principal; Hunter Heesen, patriotic instructor of the VFW; Harlan Boyes, commander of the VFW; Mrs. Bert Warren, immediate past president of the VFW Auxiliary; Mrs. Vern Manwaring, president of the American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. R. H. Moore; Supt. James McDowell; Principal and Elementary Supervisor, Earl Greene; the Rev. George E. Walworth, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church who gave the dedication address; and the VFW Auxiliary color guard.

Tecumseh 5 Goes To Tourney Final; Blissfield Takes District Title

Tecumseh's Indians have put their basketball togs away for another year after losing in the finals at the class B district tournament in Adrian Saturday night.

The Indians lost the title game to Blissfield, 43-34, after gaining the finals Thursday night with a 62-35 win over Monroe Catholic central.

Blissfield's Sugar Boys led all the way in the championship game, taking a 13-10 lead at the first quarter and a 23-18 halftime lead. In the third and fourth periods they outscored Tecumseh 7-0 and 13-12.

Al Hart was the only Indian to hit double figures in scoring. He led the team with four field goals and 10 free throws for a total of 18 points. Lee Keller was high for Blissfield with 13 points.

Tecumseh scored its points on 10 field goals and 14 free throws. Blissfield scored 13 field goals and 15 free throws.

The score by quarters:

Blissfield	13	10	7	13
Tecumseh	7	10	6	12

Tecumseh had an easy time in beating Monroe Catholic Central, 62-35, Thursday night.

Playing without two of their star players the Falcons scored only 8 points in the first half. Falcons Geirman and Ahrendt missed the game because the former had a blood clot and the latter had a death in his family.

Tecumseh had it easy from the start, leading 14-8 at the end of the first period, 26-8 at the end of the half and 43-17 at the end of the third period.

Coach Vic Lawson used 15 players and 13 of them scored. Al Hart led the scorers with 15 and Merv Yoakum bagged 12.

Vigliotti and Heller tied for Falcon scoring honors with nine each.

Tecumseh had 26 field goals and 10 free throws while Monroe had 12 field goals and 11 free throws.

The score by quarters!

60 Attend World Day Of Prayer

Representatives of five local churches took part in the World Day of Prayer services Friday, in the Baptist church.

Chairman of the services, Mrs. E. C. McConnell of the host church, opened the program with a brief explanation and conducted a memorial service for the late Mrs. H. H. Loveland, who had been active in the program in past years, and for the author of this year's service, Sarah Chakko, of India whose death occurred after it was written.

Participants in the program were Mrs. L. W. Larsen, representing St. Peter's Episopal church; Mrs. Carlos Jones of the First Methodist; Mrs. Edward Escolme from the Friends and Mrs. M. R. Blanden of the Presbyterian church.

In addition to reading part of the service, Mrs. Escolme also explained the projects undertaken by the organization of the World Day of Prayer and told of its history.

Mrs. Dorothy Grigg sang "The Day Thou Gavest Lord is Ended" as a solo and also led the singing for the congregation. Mrs. Gerald Osworth was at the organ.

In spite of the weather handicap more than 60 persons were present and the generous offering received will be divided equally between home and foreign missions.

PROBATE JUDGE KUNEY TO SPEAK AT P.T.A. ON JUVENILE PROBLEMS

A special invitation is being given to the general public to attend the March meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association. The evening's speaker is to be Lenawee County's Judge of the Probate Court, LaVon Kuney. His topic will be "Juvenile Problems" and the association president, Mrs. Wellington Wotring urges all parents and everyone else interested in young people of today to hear Mr. Kuney, whose long experience as "Friend of the Court" has qualified him to speak with authority on the subject. The meeting will be held in the cafeteria room of the high school beginning at 8 p.m., Thursday evening, March 18.

LEGION TO OBSERVE 35TH ANNIVERSARY

The thirty-fifth birthday anniversary of the American Legion will be celebrated locally by a dinner for members of Underwood-Orr Post and its Auxiliary, March 18 at the Legion Home.

This will be a potluck dinner at 6:30 and members are requested to bring table service and a dish to pass. Dessert, coffee and rolls will be furnished.

Eleven Members Are Added To Hospital Group

Eleven new members were added to the roll of Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Tuesday night at the March meeting in Fellowship Center.

They are Mesdames Owen Fisher, 210 S. Adrian St., Earl Beevers, 211 S. Maumee; Keith L. Luke, 505 Inner Drive; Paul Nobles, 618 N. Maumee; Marvin Rumpf, 501 Inner Drive; Carlton Cook, 740 N. Union; Reginald Dixon, 115 N. Pearl, Robert Murray, 515 W. Chicago; Rolland Reister, 410 W. Chicago Blvd.; Grover Swartz, Tipton, and Jack Douglas, 114 N. Pearl St.

It was voted that the Auxiliary would sponsor the Nancy Randall dance recital which is to be held April 29 and 30. Miss Gertrude Spaulding, expressed the gratitude and appreciation of the hospital board and of the public for the recently acquired oxygen tent, which had been presented through the efforts of the auxiliary and the doctors staff. Miss Spaulding told of the vital, life-saving role an oxygen tent plays in the work of a hospital and how long it had been needed.

Announcement and short report was made of the recent visit of Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw and Mrs. Harold Kelso to the meeting of the Detroit Area Council of Hospital Auxiliaries, held in that city.

Mrs. Robert Moore then introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. William Frederick and her assistant, Mrs. Charles Hadden both of Adrian. Mrs. Frederick is chairman of the Lenawee County Cancer Society and the ladies showed two films on the subject which were most graphic and enlightening.

After the lecture refreshments were served to the group by Mrs. Russell Carey's committee, Mrs. Richard Dustin, Mrs. George McCombs and Mrs. Glenn Driscoll.

EAST GATE CLUB

The East Gate Club of the Tecumseh Masonic Lodge will entertain the Initiation Team of the Masonic Lodge of Clinton at a pancake supper, Monday, March 15 at 6:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple.

VOTE APRIL 19

Supt. Explains Waring Annexation Election

BY JAMES McDOWELL
SUPT. OF SCHOOLS

There are 4400 school districts in Michigan of which 900 are closed districts. They elect school boards, levy taxes and collect state school aid, but their children are sent to other districts for their education. In general they own no school property, having sold their school houses and disposed of their equipment. This situation has caused some serious inequalities in school operation. Some closed districts find it unnecessary to levy local taxes. Many levy only token taxes. In general, they contribute little to the education of their children.

We have one closed district now sending their children to Tecumseh Public Schools. In the early 1940's the local Board of Education made a study of the situation and plans were formulated for annexing some of the districts surrounding Tecumseh. These plans were voted down by the surrounding districts chiefly because they found it cheaper to send their children to Tecumseh schools at Tecumseh taxpayers' expense.

Since 1951 attempts have been made from time to time to make these inequalities known to the taxpayers of Tecumseh. In 1952 Tecumseh District No. 5, one of the two closed districts sending pupils to Tecumseh Public Schools, was annexed and its residents now pay their fair share of the cost of educating their children. Their taxes also include a fair share of the cost of the buildings needed to house their children which is not now true of any of the other 22 districts sending children to our schools.

Now the Board of Education feels that Tecumseh District No. 9, the Waring School, should be annexed to Tecumseh Public Schools and help to lessen the burden of school taxes on the local residents. The Waring District has already voted to annex to Tecumseh and it remains only for the local district, Tecumseh Public Schools, to vote to annex the Waring District. The school electors will vote on this issue April 19.

These are facts which should assist Tecumseh Public School electors in making their decision:

1. Tecumseh Public Schools—assessed value $7,551,000 divided by 1388 census children equals $5,440 behind each child.

Waring district assesed value $144,370 divided by 21 census children equals $6,874 behind each child.

Conclusion: The' Waring District is better able to pay additional school taxes than Tecumseh taxpayers.

2. Waring District now pays $1,955.40 in tuition to Tecumseh Public Schools and would pay $3,103.95 if annexed.

Conclusion: Tecumseh Public Schools would receive an additional $1,148.55 to meet expenses and the Waring District would be paying a more equitable portion of its educational expenses.

3. Tecumseh pays 21.5 mills in property tax.

Voters Set New Record In Settling Question By 676 To 622 Count

By a majority of 54, voters Monday turned down 676 to 622 the proposal to continue fluoridation of the city water supply.

In a record-breaking vote, 1341 citizens turned out to help settle the issue that has waged for almost 10 months. This was 300 more than turned out last December 14 to vote on the city charter. A bright, sunny day probably contributed to the record-breaking vote.

However, only 1298 of the votes counted Monday. There were 43 "spoiled ballots." The reason for the large number of voided ballots is not wholly clear. Some of the voters might have been confused about how to vote. They thought they should pull the voting machine lever back up after it was pulled down.

Mrs. Naomi Sallows, chairman of the election board and city clerk, again points out that this procedure voids the ballot. The lever, she said, should be left down after the voting.

Interest in the election was high all day Monday and the pro-fluoride and anti-fluoride groups were busy transporting voters to the polls.

The pro-fluoride group campaigned actively to the last minute. Sunday night the group hung "Vote Yes" cards on doors throughout the city and business area and Monday they sent tooth-brushes home with school children. The card attached to the brush read "I want good teeth. Vote Yes Today."

The pro-fluoride group also had a sound car out all day Monday urging voters to vote yes.

This is a record of the voting by precincts:

PRECINCT 1

Yes—247
No—280

PRECINCT 2

Yes—375
No—416

Mrs. Sallows reported that the election ran fairly smoothly all day. Some voters had to stand in line during the rush hours. This was particularly true from 5 to 7 p.m. when voters got out of work.

The interest in the election was so high that citizens crowded the polls immediately after they were closed so they could find out the result.

Fluoridation was taken out of the city water supply Tuesday morning. City employees have been busy since the election with calls from persons asking when the fluoride will be out of the water.

The equipment is still in, however, and what will happen to it has not been determined.

Councilmen Wednesday night met to certify the results of the election.

Wallace Is New Leader At Britton

Robert Wallace is the new president of the village of Britton.

Running on the Peoples Party, he defeated Lee Keeling of the Citizens Party by a small majority, 68-61.

Other officers elected are Edmund J. Millyard, clerk; Opal Benedict, treasurer; Carl Luegge, Wilmer Lorenz and Douglas Fairbanks, trustees for the three-year erm; Ned Brown, trustee for the one-year term; and Garfield Gray, assessor.

This was the result of the voting:

CITIZENS PARTY

Pres., Lee Keeling, 61; Clerk, Edmund J. Millyard, 70; Treas., Helen Millyard, 53; Trustee, 3 years, Charles Anspach, 52; Trustee, 3 years, Fred Bryan, 59; Trustee, 3 years, Douglas Fairbanks, 67; Trustee, 1 year, Ned Brown, 78, and Assessor Helen Bryan, 59.

PEOPLES PARTY

Pres., Robert Wallace, 68; Clerk, L. Wayne Dunbar, 59; Treas., Opal Benedict, 75; Trustee, 3 years, Carl Luegge, 74; Trustee, 3 years, Wilmer Lorenz, 68; Trustee, 3 years, Andrew Crutchfield, 60; Trustee, 1 year, Fay Hindes, 50, and Assessor, Garfield Gray, 70.

One hundred and twenty-nine persons voted.

Put On Probation In Homicide Case

William Brown, 27, of Adrian has been put on probation for five years by Circuit Judge Rex Martin.

Brown, who pleaded guilty to a negligent homicide charge Jan. 18, was sentenced Monday. He was involved in an automobile accident here last September which resulted in the death of John Austin, 81, of Tecumseh.

A car driven by Brown collided with a car driven by Mr. Austin at the intersection of Logan and Evans streets.

ROTARY FETES FARMERS

The annual Rotary-Farmer night of the local organization was held Tuesday evening at the Grange Hall with dinner served by Grange members.

Rotary members were accompanied by farmer guests. George Parsons of the Dairy Department of Michigan state College was speaker of the evening. Mr. Parsons, a former Agricultural teacher of Tecumseh High School was well known to many of his audience and has been guest speaker on other occasions. He has had an interesting experience during the past few years as a dairy specialist under the Foreign Aid Program.

Mrs. Golat Heads VFW Auxiliary

Mrs. Ted Golat is the new president of the VFW Auxiliary. She succeeds Mrs. Bert Warren.

Mrs. Golat was elected at the March 2 meeting of the auxiliary. Other officers elected were Mrs. Warren Filter, senior vice-president; Mrs. Lloyd Stiles, junior vice-president; Mrs. Carson House, treasurer; Mrs. Carl Kemp, chaplain; Mrs. George Downard, conductress, Mrs. Lloyd Mann, guard; and Mrs. Waldo Mohr, trustee for a three-year term.

Past president Mrs. Warren presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Harlan Boyes gave a report on the rally held at Fowlerville.

The auxiliary voted to entertain the veterans at state hospital May 18; it voted to send $5 to the National Home at Eaton Rapids for the children's Easter party; and it voted to help renovate the kitchen at Camp Norcum at Chelsea.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Boyes, and Mrs. Mary Applegate.

The auxiliary will hold its next meeting next Wednesday night at the hall.

FIREMEN ANSWER TWO MINOR CALLS

Firemen were called out twice during the past week on minor fires.

Saturday morning a tractor at the Hoyt Whelan Equipment Company caught fire. Damages were estimated at $25.

Wednesday morning city employees were melting tar when it ignited. No damages resulted.

TALK POSITIVELY — There is a lot of loose talk concerning the over-all economy of this nation. You hear it in Tecumseh; you hear it everywhere you go. One of the craziest remarks heard to date is this: "I knew we would be in trouble as soon as the Republicans got in."

This remark is utterly assinine. And other remarks like it are almost as child-like in their approaches to a question as complicated as the economy.

Most of them are based on nothing but rumor and half truths. The best way to spike some of these panicky rumors is with facts and the logical place to start with these facts is with the Secretary of the U.S. Treasury Humphrey, who has the facts about the spotty unemployment in our land, and says it is a "rolling readjustment" in which the temporary effects of transition from defense to peacetime economy are being felt in first one industry or community, then in another.

"So long as the public keeps on buying and I think they will," Secretary Humphrey adds, "we will work out of this readjustment in a comparatively short time."

President Eisenhower calls for "a steady, unshakable attitude of public confidence." American industry promptly expresses its confidence by preparing to spend billions of dollars—General Motors alone more than a billion—in expansion programs.

In fact, a large segment of other Michigan industry defies the gloomy forecasts with multi-million dollar expansion projects.

Packard Motor Car Co. last month began its first major step of a manufacturing modernization program that will involve millions of dollars.

Over at Montague, Mich., plans were revealed recently by E. I. de Pont de Nemours and Company to build a $15,000,000 plant for the manufacture of neoprene synthetic rubber on a 1000-acre site. The site adjoins another $12,000,000 plant now under construction for Hooker Electrochemical Company, as well as a location upon which Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation also will build a plant. Reports place the total cost of this triple industrial expansion at Montague at $100,000,000.

Also in the million-dollar class are expansion programs announced recently by the Cross Company of Detroit, Carboloy Department of General Electric Company of Detroit and the Michigan Life Insurance Company at Royal Oak.

General Electric Company has a multi-million dollar plant under construction at Holland for the manufacture of hermetic motors.

Consumers Power Company recently announced a 1954 construction budget of more than $63,000,000 for the expansion of its gas and electric services in outstate Michigan and Detroit Edison will spend $73,000,000 for the same purpose this year in southeastern Michigan.

The Ford Motor Company plans a multi-million dollar expansion in Wayne County.

Construction is just getting underway after years of campaigning on the $100,000,000 Straits of Mackinac Bridge which will link Michigan's two great peninsulas.

Another uplift for industrial Michigan was the recent taking over of the operation of the U.S. Air Force aluminum extrusion and forging plant at Adrian by Bridgeport Brass Company, of Bridgeport, Conn. It is the plan of the new lessees of the Adrian plant to boost production to the rate of $50,000,000 to $60,000,000,000 annually from its former $12,000,000 yearly level. Employment may run as high as 1,000 persons when full scale operations get under way, Bridgeport officials said.

Instead of showing any tendency "to pull in its horns" as a result of the recent cutbacks in production and unemployment and the dire predictions of the "prophets of gloom," Michigan business and industry is countering with daily evidence of extreme confidence in the future as reflected by the continued announcements of plans for expenditures of millions of dollars for expansion and improvement of facilities.

The evidence is accumulating so rapidly that "recession talk" apparently has not even entered the minds of these men who direct these multi-million dollar programs.

Meanwhile, fearsome rumors, based on misinformation and untruth, are being fanned—by whom, and for what malevolent purpose? House Speaker Martin says "left-wing egg heads are trying to promote us into hard times—to lead us into Socialism."

Certainly those who, individually or in concert, blow rumors into fearful flame, do not have our country's best interests at heart.

Don't fall into this crowd that is fanning these rumors. Remember the old saying it takes a hundred muscles to frown but only one to smile. Talk positively. You will be doing yourself, your town and your nation a service with this positive approach to the nation's economy.

Monday Club Tours Patterson School

The new auditorium of the Patterson school was initiated as a group meeting place Monday afternoon when 40 members and guests of the Monday Club gathered there for the March meeting.

Announcements were made during the business session regarding continuing plans for a club sponsored trip to the Toledo Museum of Art sometime in April, and for participation of the club in the Adult Education Institute to be held in Ann Arbor in May. It was voted to send the club president to the State Convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Grand Rapids, March 21 and an invitation was read asking the club to attend the annual Drama Festival to be held April 2 at the Adrian Library at 8 p.m.

The committee that has been investigating possible locations for a permanent meeting place reported no definite decision had been reached. The next meeting will be held in the Pythian house which is one of the places under consideration.

Mrs. Earl Greene as program leader, then introduced Mrs. Vaughn Whited, high school speech teacher, who in turn presented four pupils of her debating class in a simplified debate on the subject "Resolved that the President of the United States should be elected by a direct vote of the people." The affirmative side of the question was argued by Gary Hizer and Carl Henkel and the negative by Judy Whiting and Dulcie Bowen. While they were able to give only short arguments and rebuttals and no attempt was made to judge their efforts, the audience gained an excellent idea of debating technic and found the demonstration most interesting. Mrs. James McDowell was chairman of the program committee.

Refreshments of tea and cake were served by a hostess committee composed of Mrs. Paul Mayes chairman, Mrs. Earl Wood, Mrs. E. C. Brandt, Mrs. Norris Morehouse, Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, Mrs. T. F. LaBounty, Mrs. Perry Hayden and Mrs. R. H. Moore.

CHILD STUDY CLUB

The Child Study Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Howard Truesdale with Mrs. Wilbur Andrews, Mrs. Virgil Tucker and Mrs. Garth Hall as assistant hostesses. The program topic, under the leadership of Mrs. David Dick, was "Let's Look at Our Faith" and the evening speaker was the Rev. Ronald Brunger, who spoke on "Religious Training for the Child." Favors for the children were provided by Mesdames Green, Barron and Cobb.

"May we see the 3-bedroom home you featured in the paper?", Ray Smith asked as he and his wife entered our office.

"It's too big," he said, after looking it over. "Although it has all the basic things we want."

Through questions I learned they had lived here two years and had been renting, although they were former home owners.

Two weeks later, the phone rang. "May we take another look at that house?" Ray said.

"We keep coming back to this home mentally," said Mrs. Smith. "It's in such a nice district and seems to be worth the money."

"Yes," Ray added, "We may decide to buy it. It isn't perfect, but then few things in life are. Perhaps in the future we may want to buy something else. But this house is well-built and attractive. And who can tell, we may grow into the extra room."

Later that day, they bought it. I know that they will enjoy owning a home again. Once a home owner, it is hard to pay rent even if you move to another city.

But the biggest factor in favor of the Smiths is their realistic attitude. Before long they'll make a real HOME of the house they bought.

Shall we find you a good home too?

Grade School News

Grade 5
Mrs. Runk

We have been discussing courtesy, and ways we could help our school be a more pleasant place to be in. After we had talked about what courtesy means, and how we could be courteous, we each wrote a paragraph about it. These were written by children in our fifth grade.

Courtesy
By Cynthia Poley

What courtesy means to me is to be polite and obedient, to have fun with other people when playing games, but not cheat. When people are courteous, others think they were brought up well, and their parents are well mannered.

An old Indian saying is, "Don't criticize a man until you have walked in his moccasins for two weeks." This saying means don't talk about how a man lives, acts, or dresses until you have walked in his shoes for two weeks.

Everyone should remember to be courteous.

Courtesy
By Susan Nichols

You should be courteous because you know, you'll have more friends wherever you go.

Don't speak out of turn and they won't think you're sassy.

Don't walk with your nose in the air and they won't think you're nasty.

Help older people across the street.

Be careful not to step on their feet. If you see Grandmother coming upstairs, don't bar the door with chairs. If you hear someone yelp, give then your help.

You were courteous because now you know.

You'll have more friends wherever you go.

Grade 4
Mrs. Baily

We have been thinking about spring—playing marbles, roller skating, and jumping rope, but we forgot these things when we had the big snowstorm. We like the snow but we like warmer weather better this time of year.

We are making pictures of pussywillows and birds for the decorations in our room for March. We will add a little "green" next week for St. Patrick's Day.

Only twelve of us braved the storm last Wednesday. Thursday there were twenty-one of us. The day before the storm we were all at school. We wish it could be that way every day.

We are planning to make a village that will look like Simba's, —a little boy who lives near the Congo River in Africa.

In social studies we are learning about some of our large cities. New York is the first one we are studying.

Grade 5
Mrs. Uckele

Mrs. Uckele was ill Friday, Feb. 26. Mrs. Callahan substituted for her.

Thelma Richardson had a tonsillectomy Feb. 24.

Due to the storm last week there were only eleven pupils in our room. Mrs. Uckele was absent too.

In social studies we are studying the Central States.

We are enjoying studying health and we think fractions are easy.

We are collecting Double Bubble gum wrappers to get some history pictures for our room.

Grade 4
Mrs. Whiting

Thirteen of us braved the blizzard on Wed., March 3rd. We stayed until 10:15 and then were dismissed because the weather was getting steadily worse.

We are making "Animals" in our spare time. John Britton has done the best one so far. It looks like a prehistoric monster. He has it all finished except shellacing. Robert Bonner made Superman, but the rest of us are sticking to animals.

Betty Bowers was out with the mumps but is back in school again. Many have been having bad colds, and we will be glad when Spring comes and we all feel better.

Grade 4—Patterson
Mrs Colson

We were very happy to have so many parents and friends visit our room on the day of Open House. We hope they enjoyed seeing some of the things we have done this year.

We are making good use of the library. Everyone has chosen a book that he likes, and a few of us are ready to give the class a review of the books we have read.

In geography we are going to visit some Chinese children to find out how they live, work, and play.

We are learning that though children in other lands live differently than we do, they all like to play games and do many of the same things that we enjoy doing.

In science class we are learning what magnets are and what they can do. Several children have brought different kinds of magnets to use in some experiments.

Grade 5—Patterson
Mrs. Osburn

The first day of the snowstorm, twenty-four in our room made their way to school.

We are studying South America. It is a very interesting continent.

We all want to thank the American Legion Auxiliary for the plants in the foyer. They are beautiful. Also, we thank the V.F.W. auxiliary for the lovely flag and standard. We never fail to give our flag pledge to our new flag.

There was a great deal of excitement in our room this week when we found our apple seeds had sprouted. At least something is growing in the jar.

Mrs. Westdyke brought us a lot more guppies to put in the acquarium last week. We enjoy watching them swim around.

Our group pictures came this week and most of the children are buying one.

A Challenge To Christian Growth

(Second of a series of Lenten sermonettes, written by members of the Tecumseh Ministerial Association).
By the Rev. R. A. Brunger
Minister, Tecumseh Methodist Church

Matt. 5:3 "Blessed are those who feel their spiritual need, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them." (Goodspeed)

Here we are dealing with one of Jesus' most original and characteristic ideas which He tried again and again to put across to His hearers. He declared that the humble seeking spirit is basic for rich living and for spiritual power. The big-shots, those who are full of pride and complacency, cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

Jesus for instance, told his familiar parable of the Pharisee and the publican.' The Pharisee prayed unctuously and with great complacency, standing in a prominent place in the temple: "O God I thank Thee that I am not like other men, greedy, dishonest, adulterous, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week: I pay tithe on everything I get." The publican in contrast, felt remorse for his sins and for the system in which he probably felt he was caught, and bowing in contrition, struck his breast and said, "O God, have mercy on a sinner like me."

Jesus expressed His approval of the pentitent publican, and His condemnation of the Pharisee. The Pharisee couldn't expect to get anything from his praying. For he felt that he had arrived, that he was perfectly good. He was congratulating God on having such a satisfactory worshipper. It is only the man who recognizes his need of God, his need of spiritual help, who can hope to get anything out of his religious devotions. "Blessed are those who feel their spiritual need, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them."

In the religious life it is easy for us to become complacent and self-satisfied. We need to remember that Jesus teaches that goodness is progressive. Goodness of character is not so many good deeds. Goodness is an ongoing process of the soul. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness." "Wouldst thou in vision see the man God meant, thou never more would be content."

The Lenten season challenges us to the "Imitation of Christ." In the Christian life we pass from grade to grade, through temptations, trials, and life's varied experiences. We break from little circles into larger. The Christian life is something like climbing a mountain. A difficult but gloriously satisfying task. The apostle Paul had this attitude. He was humble, not proud of his achievements, and spoke of himself as "not worthy to be called an apostle." He was eagerly pressing toward greater achievements in personal experience, and in service. "Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal."

Christianity challenges us to greatness of life. "Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness." "Blessed are those who feel their spiritual need, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them."

Talk of the Town

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Anderson of Oregon, Ill., and their daughter Donna, a student at Michigan State College, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Ousterhout.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell spent Sunday in Milan as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Campbell and son Jack Edward.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Partridge went Sunday to the home of Mrs. Partridge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Grandstaff near Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keeney of Tipton returned Tuesday evening from a three week's trip to the west coast, which included some time with friends and relatives in the San Francisco Bay area and a trip to Yuma, Ariz., in company with Mr. and Mrs. James Waldron.

Bill Hazard, who will be remembered by many in this area as a former choir director of the Baptist church, will lead the Toledo Civic Chorus in a program at Dundee high school March 16 at 8:15 p.m. The event is sponsored by the Couples Club of the Congregational church and the proceeds will be used to swell the building fund for a new church to replace the one destroyed by fire more than a year ago.

Little Sammie Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brooks of Merrick Park, is ill of measles. His sister, Pamela Kay is recovering from the same disease. Among other victims of the prevailing epidemic are the sons of the Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Brunger, who have been very sick for more than a week.

Mrs. Bert Gray, who had been a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital for two weeks, was brought to her home Saturday. Mr. Gray's sister, Mrs. Pearl Hayes of Detroit, is assisting in her care.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clough spent Sunday at Dundee with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheldon. Dean Sheldon was home for the weekend from Michigan State Normal College.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brooks had as dinner guests Sunday, his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Clawson and another sister Patsy Brooks, all of Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Murphy accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett returned recently from a month spent touring Florida and other southern states.

Andrew Woodward, who has spent the past two weeks in Bradenton, Florida with a group of friends from Clinton, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Badalucco and Miss Mary McWilliams were Sunday dinner guests of Miss Ruth Karl in Adrian.

Mrs. Charles Williamson, who has been spending the winter at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lepon of Wilmington, Calif., left Feb. 1 on a six week's cruise around the coast of South America. She is accompanied by Mrs. William Wehr, a former Tecumseh resident, whose home is in Long Beach. They are making the trip on a cargo ship which carries only twelve passengers.

William Morris, an instructor at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Chicago, is spending a two week leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morris.

Mrs. Walter Haviland, who has been with Tecumseh relatives and friends since Mr. Haviland's death, returned to Bradenton, Fla., Tuesday. She will probably remain there for several weeks.

Recent registrants at the Little White House at Warm Springs, Ga., include the names of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hadley.

Christian Science Services Listed

The healing power of that faith which is rooted in a spiritual understanding of God will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Substance" includes the following passage from the Bible:

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen . . . Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear" (Hebrews 11:1-3).

Among the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following:

"When we come to have more faith in the truth of being than we have in error, more faith in Spirit than in matter, more faith in living than in dying, more faith in God than in man, then no material suppositions can prevent us from healing the sick and destroying error" (368:14).

The Golden Text is from Psalms: "Thy name, O Lord, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations" (135:13).

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

What would this community be without the church? Reflect upon the sorry state of affairs which would prevail if no institution assembled the people for corporate worship of God, for instruction in the things of God, for challenge to seek first the Kingdom of God, for human fellowship in the common quest for life abundant and life eternal.

Refrect upon the words of a new hymn by Ralph Harlow, of Smith College.

O Church of God triumphant above this world's dark fears,
Wherein our souls seek refuge through all our earthly years;
While in these walls we gather, renew in us God's will,
With prayer and praise we worship, our hearts with purpose fill.
Before this holy altar we pledged our love in youth,
Within these sacred portals our children learn of God's truth;
In manhoood's sterner battle we gain fresh courage here.
While in the hour of sorrow we shed our parting tears.
Her task on earth unfinished till wars at last shall cease,
When greed and lust for power give way to paths of peace;
Then brotherhood shall free us from bonds of caste and race,
The Church must live the vision that shone in Jesus' face.
Though mists of doubt drift round us, faith's beacon lights our way,
Our pilgrim feet press onward, toward never-ending day;
Once more into the conflict, the Spirit's sword we raise,
Invisible and visible the Church unites in praise.
O Church of God triumphant, at last her warfare won,
When saints in glory harken to hear the King's, 'Well done;'
For then, O faithful servants, your Lord Himself you'll greet,
The Church shall lay her trophies at Jesus' pierced feet.

Jelly Roll Bars

A simple cutting trick will give you another glamorous way to serve those miniature dime jelly rolls from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department.

Chill jelly rolls and then slice each lengthwise into six thin slices. Keep the two rounded outside slices for family snacking. Cut the other four slices in half crosswise, making eight dainty jelly roll bars pretty enough for any entertainment occasion. Good, too, for these baby jelly rolls are made from a cook book recipe.

To serve, arrange on a plate around a small bowl of jelly or whipped cream cheese.

MARY-MARTHA CIRCLE

At the meeting of the Mary-Martha Circle Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lenore West, plans were made for their postponed rummage sale. Set originally for March 5-6, the project had to be abandoned because of the blizzard but another attempt will be made on March 20. It will be held in the church parlors, from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. with Mrs. Lenore West in charge.

The meeting was conducted by the vice president, Mrs. Andrew Woodward, with Mrs. West in charge of devotions and Mrs. Wenton Murphy of the program, the topic of which was "Wise Use of Assets."

The April meeting will be with Mrs. Clifford Adams rather than Mrs. Robert Bonner, as scheduled.

DAWN KRUSE MARKS SIXTH BIRTHDAY

Dawn Kruse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kruse of Center Drive, was six years old last Thursday and to mark the event she entertained at lunch her teacher, Mrs. Heimerdinger of Clinton who teaches kindergarten in the North Branch school.

On Saturday, Mrs. Kruse entertained 12 little guests at a birthday party for her daughter's pleasure. They were Garland Haviland, Vickie Brees, Freddie Kachur, Lee Hannibal, Cheryl Haughn, Douglas Gillies and Kay, Jeanette and Dennis Kruse of Blissfield.

The children enjoyed games and prizes were won by Lee Hannibal and Cheryl Haughn. Mrs. Kruse, who was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Kruse of Blissfield, served a decorated and lighted birthday cake accompanied by ice cream.

O.E.S. Reception, Dinner To Honor Grand Patron

The visit of the Lenawee-Monroe Association officers of the Order of the Eastern Star planned for last Thursday night had to be cancelled because of bad driving conditions, but local members were rewarded for attending by the hilarious entertainment provided by the program committee.

A style show, announced by Mrs. Owen Partridge and displaying ladies garments for every hour of the day including a formal wedding party, was staged by seven male models. The group included George Rinehart, Howard Wilson, Sr., Melvin Smith, Jack Morehouse, Ralph Westgate, Clair Rozelle and Owen Partridge, music being furnished by Mrs. Glenn Driscoll.

During the more formal part of the program, announcement was made of two special meetings, one March 25, for initiation and one April 15, as Friendship night. Invitations were read from the Hudson chapter for Mrs. Partridge and Mrs. Driscoll to be guest officers March 19 and from the Owosso chapter for all members to attend a reception and dinner April 10 honoring the Worthy Grand Patron, F. Lawrence Coy and Mrs. Coy who is Grand Marshall. The reception will be at the Central school at 5 p.m. with dinner at 6:30 and program at 8 p.m. followed by a snack party at the Temple. Reservations must be made by April 3 with Mrs. Partridge.

Worthy Patron Owen Partridge awarded eleven efficiency cards to members who had earned them and it was announced that a box of clothing will be shipped this week for members behind the Iron Curtain in Germany.

Commanders Are Honored By VFW

One hundred persons attended the past commanders' night of Hall-Slater Post VFW held in the First Presbyterian church last week.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

The Anti-Fluoridation committee wishes to state that we do not wish to take credit for the elimination of this fluoridation from our drinking water. Only a miracle has done this. We feel the hand of Almighty God was responsible and give Him our combined thanks.

We also wish to state that no group would have been able to surmount the tremendous obstacles in our path unless helped by something greater than common man. We ask all the people of Tecumseh to offer a prayer of thanks for the outcome of the election. His hand has given Tecumseh back the pure water we have always enjoyed here.

Now we hope the people of Tecumseh will combine and unite together for progress and hold no animosity against anyone and work for the benefit of making this a pattern of right not might.

For the answer to the results of this election, search your soul.

The Anti-Fluoridation Committee

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Steve Tips the Balance

Was just leaving home this morning when the Missus reminded me to stop at Steve and Al's Meat Market for a pound of hamburger. "Be sure to get it from Steve," she said.

"Why?" I wondered. So when I got to the market I asked Steve if he knew. "I'll tell you, Joe," he said. "Al and I sell the same meat, and a pound is a pound. Maybe it's just that we go at it differently.

"Al loads the scales and takes away 'til he has a pound. But I put too little on and start adding. To your wife — that probably looks like a better buy."

From where I sit, there's always more than one way to approach a thing and still come out fair and square to all. My wife likes a cup of tea with dinner; I prefer a temperate glass of beer. We get along fine. Gets me pretty mad though, when somebody starts "throwing his weight around" and demands that I see things exactly his way.

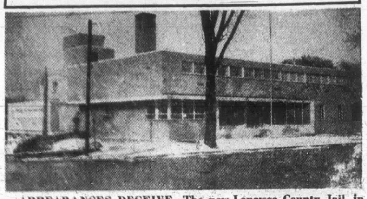
THE NEW LOOK IN JAILS



APPEARANCES DECEIVE—The new Lenawee County Jail, in Adrian, Mich., has no bars on the windows—all detention facilities are on the inside.

The three-level building was designed to overcome the usual jail appearance and to blend its "looks" with a nearby residential area. This design problem, and the fact that there was little architectural reference on jail construction, was solved by Britsch & Munger, Toledo, the architects.

The $470,000 jail is planned for one-man control of its facilities, visitors, bookings and police routine. The central point is the main desk on the first floor, linked with the lobby, garage and upper floors. The desk area contains the switchboard, emergency alarm system, communications within the building and with county patrol cars, and electric garage door control. The result is economy in personnel.

There can be no "changing the furniture" in the detention areas. All banks and tables are steel, imbedded three inches in concrete. Cell door controls are manual, continuing operation in event of a power failure.

Guard corridors separate the dormitory cells from exterior walls. Windows are small, clear glass panes set in hardened steel frames, not large enough to squeeze through. Prisoner areas are divided by heavy grilled partitions to provide maximum natural lighting and easy sight check of all sections.

The jail has a normal capacity of 75 prisoners with emergency housing of 100. The women's dorm for 16, over the eight-car-garage, has accommodations for juveniles if necessary. Four dorm areas for men can hold 44 plus eight more in solitary cells. Additional overnight cells are on the first floor.

The building hides its strength. Any inmate trying to escape must go through at least seven solid steel or grill doors to the "nearest exit".

Spring Due March 20

Spring and its accompanying astronomical attractions will enliven the heavens during the month of March, according to Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate professor of astronomy.

Arriving at 10:54 p.m. Saturday, March 20, spring will make its appearance six hours later than last year, she points out. This is because the season arrives when the sun crosses the equator on its way north in its apparent yearly path, the event taking place at 365.2422 day intervals.

The professor explains that the sun on this day "will rise and set exactly at the east and west points of the horizon, making day and night the same 12-hour length." In addition, the sun will shine more directly on the northern hemisphere after this date, warming up that half of the earth.

According to Miss Losh, "the time of the full moon this month, March 19, takes on special significance, because it helps to fix the date of Easter." This will be April 18, the first Sunday after the next full moon.

Brightest object in the sky other than the moon will be Jupiter. Almost overhead at sunset, the planet will pass about three degrees below the quarter moon on the night of March 10.

"At the beginning of the month," Professor Losh points out, "Saturn will rise in the southeast about 11 p.m., but it will come out earlier and earlier as the month advances, until at the month's end it comes over the horizon at about 9 p.m."

Mars will rise about five degrees northeast of the bright red star Antares and will steadily grow brighter and move eastward as the month progresses, Mars and Antares look like bright red double stars at the month's beginning, but as time goes on, they become widely separated.

Among the spring constellations will be Bootes, the giant "Bear Driver." Bootes is easily recognized by the kitelike outline of its principal stars and the presence of the bright orange star Arcturus, in its tail. Only three stars in the northern heavens are brighter than Arcturus, she says: Sirius, Vega and Capella.

Friends Church Campaign Lasts Until March 14

Dr. Clifford Lewis will speak Thursday night at the Friends church on the topic, "God's Photograph of Your Heart." Before the message he will show colored movies of Europe, including France, Italy, Sicily and Switzerland. These pictures also have some shots on the Queen Mary crossing the Atlantic and of the Olympic games in London. The audience will get a glimpse of missionary work in these countries, besides seeing beautiful scenery.

On Friday night the second reel of pictures will be shown. These take in parts of Europe and Great Britain. Some of the pictures are the mammoth parade in Rome; Mussolini's famous balcony and office; Vatican City, with a close-up of St. Peter's Cathedral; missionary activities in Marseille, France; large crowds attending churches in Spain where there are many restrictions; Waterloo monument where Napoleon was defeated in Belgium; scenes in Amsterdam and other sections of Holland, including the beautiful costumes and wooden shoes; churches and congregations in Wales and England; the House of Parliament; Westminister Abbey and Buckingham Palace in London; a close-up of the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, former Prime Minister Atlee, Viscount Montgomery, Hon. Sir Winston Churchill, the late King George and Queen Elizabeth riding in an old coach drawn by four white horses and shots of activities on board the Queen Elizabeth returning to New York.

There will be a mass meeting Sunday at 3 p.m. The audience will hear Billy Graham on the radio direct from London at 3:30 and Dr. Lewis will speak briefly at 4 o'clock on the theme, "Why I Believe That Christ May Come Soon." The closing message Sunday evening will be on the subject, "Life's Greatest Question."

Rev. Edward Escolme and his people of the Friends church give folks of all other churches a cordial invitation to attend these meetings. There is special music at each service.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

(Second of a series of articles regarding the Musgrove Evans house).

For nearly half of its 128 years, the house built by Abi and Musgrove Evans stood on the site they had chosen at Chicago and Ottawa streets. During those years it had three owners, the Evans, Stillman Blanchard and Peter R. Adams.

Blanchard, who bought from Evans when he left for Texas, was one of the many businessmen whose fortunes have waxed and waned during the life of the town. In 1832, he was promoting what was then an important development for the community, Globe Mill. Its elaborate system of dams and race proved costly and had only just been completed when the full effect of the panic of 1837 struck.

Although part of the capital invested had been eastern money, the result was disaster for the town and especially for Mr. Blanchard. A scrupulously honest person, he struggled for several years with one "reorganization" after another and in the end lost everything including his home. It was purchased by Peter R. Adam who moved his family there in 1861. This was a sort of second homecoming for Mr. and Mrs. Adams for, as paying guests, they had lived with the Evans thirty years before. It was the Adams family home until 1886, when a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shull built the house now used by the Helm Furniture Co. and the "old house" was moved to its present location at 409-11 East Logan street.

J. J. Adams in his "History of Lenawee County," speaking of some of Tecumseh's pioneers, says of William W. Tilton that—"in the spring of 1826 he was engaged in the erection of a house for Mr. Evans on the northeast corner of Ottawa and Chicago streets." Here in one sentence we have the builder, owner, date and location of our oldest house, which in view of the hazy, hearsay evidence of many of the others is quite remarkable. Mr. Tilton is known to have worked in partnership with a Curtis Page and there were probably other helpers. Certainly there must have been a "raisin' bee" when the frame was put up.

The house has the usual barn frame construction of the period, with hand hewn, hand mortised and hand pegged beams. They are of oak and walnut and most of the other lumber of the house is also walnut which over the years has hardened to the consistency of dried horn as can be testified to by electricians and plumbers who have worked there.

An early picture shows that it stood close to the street in the fashion of old New England towns, a reminder of the fact that Musgrove was born in Philadelphia and brought his traditions with him. It was enclosed by a fence of horizontal boards which like the house were of walnut. In its essential plan it is strikingly similar to the Ketcham house. There is a central hall with a straight staircase, a large room on either side in the upright and supplementary rooms in the ell and leanto. In fact the two are so much alike that it leads to the speculation that, once they had their "hand in," Tilton and Curtis built both.

There is one striking difference however. There were no fireplaces in the Evans house. In a period when many houses had one in every room, Musgrove apparently would have none of them. He had planned to have stoves even in the log cabin, much to the inconvenience of Abi when they were not forthcoming and this house probably had "Franklin" heaters which perhaps did not "roast your face while freezing your back."

BOOK SHELVES
Library

That frequently mentioned example of feverish activity, the one-armed paperhanger, is practically stationary compared with Tecumseh's new librarian. For a bride of a month, getting settled in a new apartment is usually a full-time job, but Mrs. Conrad Fosbender has two more for good measure.

Mornings as the new school librarian and afternoon and evening shifts of getting acquainted with the books and people at the public library make a day which, like woman's work, is never done. And with our next edition, she will take on one more duty and "Book Shelves" will have new interest and personality.

The Look of Tomorrow is in every '54 BUICK Today
With completely new "years-away" styling —keynoted by the dream-car design of the panoramic sweep-back windshield.

Take it Easy
you don't have to prove a thing!

LET'S be sensible about this subject of horsepower.

An all-American tackle doesn't go around tackling people in everyday life.

A world-record sprinter doesn't have to demonstrate his prowess on city sidewalks.

The better you are, the less you have to prove it.

And that's how it is with a Buick CENTURY.

Of course it's a spectacular performer—a car with instantly responsive action.

It has to be, for this one combines a high-compression 200-horsepower V8 engine with a nimble weight of only 3866 pounds as it comes off the assembly line.

That's a power-to-weight ratio that chalks up a new record—a ratio that no other Buick has ever reached before.

It can spin your wheels on a dry pavement if you give it the gun, but why waste rubber?

If some show-off wants to get the jump on you at a traffic light, why not let him have fun? He isn't kidding anyone but himself, when the name on your car is CENTURY.

The real pride of owning such a car is simply this: You know so well what it can do that you never have to prove it.

That lets you enjoy the tireless ease of its gait in ordinary driving, when only a fraction of its eager power is working. It gives you a quick reserve for breasting a hill—and the happy knowledge that there's still more to come in a sudden emergency.

Sure, this is more power than most people really have to have. But you can hardly call it extravagant, when you are buying more horsepower per dollar in a CENTURY than you get in any other car in America.

NOTICE OF LAST DAY OF REGISTRATION OF THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 7, TECUMSEH TOWNSHIP (TECUMSEH PUBLIC SCHOOLS) LENAWEE COUNTY, MICHIGAN

TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF SAID DISTRICT:

Please take notice that the Board of Education of School District No. 7, Tecumseh Township (Tecumseh Public Schools), Lenawee County, Michigan, has called a special election to be held in said School District on April 19, 1954.

Section 2 of Act 199, Public Acts of Michigan, 1951, effective September 28, 1951, provides as follows:

"The inspectors of election at any annual or special election shall not receive the vote of any person residing in a registration school district whose name is not registered as an elector in the city or township in which he resides . . . ."

THE LAST DAY ON WHICH PERSONS MAY REGISTER WITH THE TOWNSHIP CLERK IN ORDER TO BE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE AT THE SPECIAL ELECTION CALLED TO BE HELD ON APRIL 19, 1954, IS FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1954. PERSONS REGISTERING AFTER 5:00 O'CLOCK, P.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME, ON THE SAID FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1954, ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO VOTE AT SAID SPECIAL SCHOOL ELECTION.

Under the provisions of Act 199, Public Acts of Michigan, 1951, registration will not be taken by school officials and only persons who have registered as general electors with the township clerk of the township in which they reside are registered school electors. Persons planning to register with the township clerk must ascertain the days and hours on which the clerk's office is open for registration.

This notice is given by order of the Board of Education of School District No. 7, Tecumseh Township (Tecumseh Public Schools), Lenawee County, Michigan.

Wayne U. Professor Says Women Manage World's Biggest Business

Wayne University freshman, Barbara Fruitman of Flint, discusses budget problems with Dr. Raymond J. Murphy of Wayne's School of Business Administration who is moderator of a TV show on "Stretching Your Dollars."

American women are actively engaged in the biggest business in the world—the "big business" of home management.

Homemakers spent about 230 billion dollars last year on goods and services alone—three times the total federal budget of 1953.

Few people realize that women own or control approximately 40% of all corporate stock, 60% of all savings accounts, 70% of all wealth and 80% of all consumer buying, says Dr. Raymond J. Murphy, associate professor of business law in the Wayne University School of Business Administration.

Dr. Murphy, an experienced management counselor, moderates a series of programs designed to answer the average homemaker's practical questions about wise budgeting and investment over WJBK-TV, Detroit. Produced by the Wayne University television staff, the 15-minute shows are telecast Saturday mornings at 11 a.m.

Because we recognize that women in this country are responsible for spending huge portions of the family pay check in home management, we are glad to help them find new ways to stretch their dollars, Dr. Murphy said.

Many people dislike the word budget, but some type of financial system must operate in every household that hopes to pay its bills and still come out ahead.

No one can tell you exactly how you should spend your money, Dr. Murphy points out, since no two families have the same expenses, but all must pay for food, clothing and housing.

Dr. Murphy believes the first step in setting up a budget is to make an analysis of the family needs which should be agreed upon by the entire family. Next, the total anticipated income should be noted. Deduct from this the fixed expenses (housing, education, utilities, taxes, insurance, etc.); variable expenses (clothing, health, home furnishings, recreation, emergency funds, etc.); and day to day expenses (food, household supplies, entertainment, and transportation). The balance is the savings which should be incorporated in the plans for the future.

Careful planning and wise spending, Dr. Murphy stresses, should help lead to a happy home life.

Values, Goals Guide Life

Each of us in this world uses economic resources. In general, they are money, materials, time and energy. Dr. Irma Gross, head of the Michigan State College department of home management and child development, reminds you that the quality of your life is tied up closely with the way you use your own resources. After all, you do buy the quality of your life with your time, your energy and your money.

The field of home management does not offer you definite rules as to how to use your resources—But it does offer you guiding principles—among them, consideration of your values and your goals. What are your values? They represent what is important to you. Your goals are what you are definitely working toward.

Think about this term values for a moment. You may not even be conscious of your values—you do not discuss them often. Yet they have power! For example, your values help you decide what you buy when you go on a casual shopping trip with your neighbor.

She may be an impulse buyer—buys something she had not planned—a purple belt, for example. She knows it is not especially related to anything in her wardrobe. She may not even need a belt yet her underlying reason could be her unconscious pride in her trim waistline. Another friend joins you in a hardware store. Although she has several knives, she soon purchases a five-inch knife with a saw-tooth edge and a handle made of new material. Her goal is to have all necessary and modern tools. Her value of efficiency led her to buy the knife.

While the salesman wraps up the knife you go on to the next counter and look at the games. You value highly family cooperation and harmony. One of your goals is to have things that the family can do together. So you find yourself buying a game.

Recognize the importance of your values. They have power over you, Dr. Gross emphasizes. All important things in life start in people's heads.

Remove that question mark from your future! Even though the habit of spending money seems incredibly easy, the habit of saving money is easier. Far easier if you get into the habit of buying United States Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. Once you've signed up, your Savings Bonds come to you regularly—automatically. Your employer does everything for you—puts your money aside from your paychecks — buys your Savings Bonds for you—even hands them to you. Ask your employer about the Payroll Savings Plan. You'll feel more secure tomorrow, if you invest in United States Savings Bonds today.

Annexation

Waring District pays 16 mills in property tax.

Conclusion: Cost Waring District more but provides additional funds to Tecumseh Schools to pay off bonded debt and shorten period necessary to pay present bond issue.

4. Tecumseh Schools now have entire school population of the Waring District enrolled.

Waring School has no school.

Conclusion: No added burden would result on the local taxpayers since the Waring children already attend our schools and there would be no need for additional rooms for their children.

5. Tecumseh Schools are not now transporting Waring School pupils to Tecumseh.

Waring District owns a bus.

Conclusion: Since Waring School assets become those of Tecumseh Public Schools when annexed and since the State pays the entire cost of transportation there would be no additional burden on the local taxpayers.

6. Waring District at present has 23 children attending Tecumseh Public Schools. The distribution is as follows:

Kindergarten—3; 1st—5; 2nd—1; 3rd—2; 4th—2; 5th—0; 6th—5; 7th—1; 8th—1; 9th—2; and 12th—1.

Conclusion: It is obvious that by refusing the Waring District permission to send their pupils to our school, which is the Tecumseh Board of Educations' LEGAL right, that no rooms now needed for school enrollments could be closed since the distribution of the children is so wide. Therefore, no money could be saved the local district by a refusal to enroll these children.

7. Waring School children are now, and have been for a number of years, a fine group of neighbors' children who attend our schools. In the past they have not paid their fair share of the educational costs. However, the Waring District is now ready to assume that share and help to relieve the burden of school taxes on the local people.

Questions concerning this problem will receive careful consideration if brought to the superintendent of schools. Consider this matter carefully and VOTE on April 19.

The March plentiful foods list of the U.S. Department of Agriculture offers a good basis for budget-saving Lenten meals. There are plentiful supplies of potatoes, eggs, all types of cheese, and pinto and red kidney beans about which many main dishes can be built.

ONE HUNDRED THIRD YEAR — NUMBER 24 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 1954 | FIVE CENTS A COPY

One-Third Of Tecumseh High School Class Of 1954 Are Honor Students

One-third of the 81 seniors who will graduate from Tecumseh High School June 3 are honor students.

The list of the 27 students who maintained a "B" or better average for their four years at THS was released Tuesday by Neville Hart, high school principal.

Heading the list as valedictorian with a 3.827 average out of a possible 4 or "A" is Patsy Purcell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell, 316 W. Pottawatamie St.

Tieing for salutatorian honors are Grace Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Moore, 108 S. Maiden Lane, and Marie Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Boyce, Rt. 2, Tecumseh with 3.821 averages.

Patsy will enter nurses' training at Sparow Hospital in Lansing next fall. Grace will begin her college work at Denison (Ohio) University and Marie will enter Alma College

All three girls were active in extra-curricular activities during their high school careers. Patsy was selected the good citizen of the DAR and she was a member of the Presbyterian church choir. She worked on the annual, was active in the Future Nurses' Club and the Student Council. She also took part in both the junior and senior plays.

Grace was a cheerleader and was a member of the Girls' Athletic Association. She was president of the Future Nurses' Club and she was a member of the Student Council. She also sang in the Presbyterian church choir and worked on the annual. Grace also was in both the junior and senior plays.

Marie was in the Presbyterian church choir and she was on the annual staff.

In addition to the three girls named as valedictorian and salutatorians, these honor students with a "B" or better average were named by Mr. Hart: Mary Nixon, Ruth Titley, William Benham, Janet Carswell, Lynn Aluk, Nancy Randall, Janis Boltz, Douglas Hooten, Duane Oswald, Earl Kruger and Alroy Vanderpool.

The list concludes with Sylvia Golat, Charles Owens, Tom Baldwin, Dale Tingley, Joyce Schafer, Paul Graham, Ardyth Eaton, Evelyn Schebella, Doris Tressler, Erwin Pennington, James Nichols, Robert Butler and Sharon Townsend.

Board Of Education Reviews Culbertson Annexation Request

The Board of Education of District No. 7, Tecumseh Public Schools, at the regular March meeting reviewed the Culbertson District annexation request. The Board of the Culbertson District, Mr. Elsworth Robinson, Mr. Herbert Long, and Mr. Clarence Damon had previously requested a conference with the local board and were in attendance at the meeting. Mrs. Elmer House, Mrs. Wilbur Boyce, and Mrs. George Dinius residents of the Culbertson District and Mr. Milton C. Porter, County Superintendent of Schools, also were present.

Following a two-hour review of facts concerning the proposed annexation of the Culbertson School to Tecumseh Public Schools, the Board of Education of the Tecumseh Public Schools saw no reason to alter its decision as voted in the February regular meeting.

The following quotation, Supt. James McDowell said, is from the minutes of the February 10, 1954 Regular Meeting of the Board of Education of Tecumseh Public Schools:

"A letter from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction approving annexation proceedings for Tecumseh District No. 1 Fr. (Culbertson School District) was read and following some discussion, upon motion by Dr. Heiserman, seconded by Mr. Mead, the Board voted unanimously to oppose annexation proceedings at this time and authorized the Superintendent to inform Tecumseh District No. 1 Fr. that the local Board desired to postpone proceedings until the Catholic School in Tecumseh is completed, the matter of new subdivisions in Tecumseh is investigated, enrollments and necessary rooms to house the children are known, and Tecumseh District No. 1 Fr. has endeavored to solve its own problems temporarily at least with the understanding that the Local Board may consider annexation at some future date."

The superintendent also reported:

The school electors are asked to keep in mind that the Tecumseh District No. 9 Fr. (Waring District) and Tecumseh District No. 1 Fr. (Culbertson District) are two separate districts wishing to annex to Tecumseh. The Waring District is a closed district which has no school property and has been sending all of its children to Tecumseh Public Schools for years. The Culbertson District operates its own elementary school (kindergarten through eighth) and is now sending only its High School pupils to Tecumseh. They have approximately 45 elementary pupils at present. These pupils do not attend the Tecumseh Public Schools and are not a problem at present of the local Board of Education. The Waring children are the problem of the local Board of Education since their elementary children are in the Tecumseh Public Schools and since the Waring District should be paying their fair share of the educational costs for their pupils. With this point of view the local board of education decided to place the matter of annexation of the Waring District to the Tecumseh Public Schools before the electors of Tecumseh School District No. 7, Tecumseh Public Schools, on April 19.

In order that the electors may have an idea of the seriousness of the school housing situation in Tecumseh at present and some of the facts that caused the Board of Education of Tecumseh Public Schools to decide to put the matter of the Waring District to the vote of the electors and refuse to put the matter of the Culbertson District to a vote of the electors an article by the Superintendent of Schools was published last week in the Tecumseh Herald. Additional salient facts follow.

Next year the State Aid will be distributed on a current mem-

Jaycees

A group of young Tecumseh men met in the high school Wednesday night to form a local junior chamber of commerce.

The meeting Wednesday was the second meeting of the new organization. Members of the Monroe Junior Chamber of Commerce met with the local men last week at an introductory meeting.

Fifty men have been contracted locally to form a nucleus for the new club.

Jim Spooner is temporary chairman and Jack Colson is temporary secretary for the club.

Any young man of good character between the ages of 21 and 35 is eligible for membership in the Jaycees.

Richard Watkins To Intern In Dallas

Richard Watkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Watkins of Tecumseh, has decided to do his internship at Baylor university hospital at Dallas, Texas.

Richard, who graduates from the school of medicine at the University of Michigan in June, will begin his internship July 1.

His wife and daughters Linda Susan and Barbara Ann will move to Dallas with him.

Richard is a 1946 graduate of Tecumseh high school. He received his bachelor degree from Albion College and has done graduate work at Tulane University.

He has had practical hospital experience at Herrick Memorial hospital.

D.A.R. INSTALLS

The annual meeting of the Abi Evans Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution was held Friday at the home of Mrs. F. C. Dickinson. Annual reports were given by all officers and the new officers for the chapter year were installed by Mrs. Burtsel Claus. An impressive memorial to Mrs. H. H. Loveland and Mrs. Frank Bates was given by Mrs. Hoyt Whelan.

"My Lost Ancestor" was the program topic presented by Mrs. Charles Branigin and she gave an amusing but informative talk on the theme of tracing a family tree. Where to ask, what to ask and how to ask for information regarding your family background was the gist of her remarks and she illustrated it with the experiences of other members of the chapter.

The hostess served refreshments with the assistance of Miss Edith Ingersoll, Mrs. William Penman and Mrs. Howard Wilson.

Mrs. Bert Turnbull will entertain the chapter April 9.

COMMUNITY AUCTION

A new Tecumseh business is the community auction house located in the rear of Tecumseh Electric, 115 S. Evans.

Owner W. L. ("Bill") Shavalier is the auctioneer. He is now receiving goods for sale.

Bill expects to have his first auction Friday, April 2.

Police Get More Teeth

More teeth were put in the local police department Monday night when councilmen passed an ordinance to deal with assault and battery.

Previously persons involved in assault and battery cases could only be tried for disorderly conduct. Under the new ordinance they will be charged with assault and battery.

The ordinance was requested by Chief George Kilbourn.

The ordinance points out "the increasing size of this municipality has resulted in an increase in the commission of offenses against the peace and dignity of the municipality."

VFW Joins C of C

Hall-Slater Post Veterans of Foreign Wars has joined the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce as a member.

The post was asked by the chamber to join and it accepted the invitation.

The VFW also is buying two room flags for Central School and a six by eight foot flag for the gym in the new high school.

The post has a goal of providing a flag for every school room in the county.

The post has flags for sale. It has a variety of sizes.

Next Wednesday night the post will elect new officers at its regular meeting in the post rooms.

STUDENTS ARE HONORED

Two local students have earned high scholastic honors at college.

Dale J. Bowen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bowen, Sr., 2541 Occidental Rd., a senior in electrical engineering at Purdue University, received a distinguished rating for the first semester. He made an average of five for his work out of a possible six.

Thomas Rohweder, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rohweder of 607 E. Logan St., has been named to the dean's list of Adelbert College at Western Reserve University (Cleveland, Ohio) for the fall semester.

A 1951 graduate of Tecumseh High School, Thomas qualified for the dean's list by maintaining a "B" average for the semester's work.

He is a pre-medical student at Reserve.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN INDIANA

Miss Garnet Saum has been informed of the death of her aunt, Mrs. W. A. Kuespert, which occurred Sunday in South Bend, Ind. Mrs. Kuespert was the former Gladys Darling and her early life was spent in Tecumseh, where she attended school.

A sister, Mrs. Anna Hardenburgh of Tecumseh, has been with the family in South Bend for several weeks because of her sister's illness.

Besides her husband, sister and niece, Mrs. Kuespert is survived by three sons, Clement, Stanley and Arthur, and a nephew John Saum of Adrian. She was preceded in death by two daughters and three brothers, Leslie, Arthur and Stanley Darling and a sister, Mrs. John Saum.

The funeral and burial took place yesterday in South Bend.

R. W. Herrick Retires As President; Joseph Layton Named Successor

R. W. Herrick has retired as president of Tecumseh Products Company.

President of the company for 22 years, he will continue to be active as chairman of the board of directors.

Mr. Herrick will be succeeded as president by Joseph E. Layton, formerly of the International Harvester Co.

Changes in the organization were announced Wednesday at the company's annual stockholders' meeting.

Other changes announced at the meeting include these:

Paul Hohenstein is the new treasurer for the company.

Clyde Giltner and C. F. Sage, former vice-presidents and members of the board, have retired. With the company since it began, Mr. Giltner and Mr. Sage are credited by Mr. Herrick for much of the company's success. They will continue in roles of consultants to the board.

Mr. Herrick said the changes are in line with bringing up younger men to carry on the expansion and future growth of the company.

Mr. Layton, the new president, had been with International Harvester Co. for 18 years. He formerly was manager of the company's foreign relations in charge of 26 plants spotted all over the world.

A graduate of the University of Michigan with a degree in mechanical engineering, he has had wide experience in the tractor, refrigeration and combine divisions of the International Harvester Co.

The new president is married and he and Mrs. Layton have one child. They will build a new home in Tecumseh.

Mr. Hohenstein has been associated with the Hudson Motor Car Co. in Detroit and formerly was assistant treasurer of Copeo Steel Co. of Detroit.

He and Mrs. Hohenstein have four children. They also will move to Tecumseh.

Green Resigns As C of C Head

George Green has resigned as president of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce.

He offered his resignation at a special meeting of the board last Thursday night. The board regretfully accepted it.

He said that he could not continue to devote the necessary time to the job of being president of the chamber because of his own business demands.

He also resigned as a board member.

Glenn Kohler who would have been in line for the president's job resigned as vice president but he will continue as a member of the board.

Virgil Tucker also resigned from the board.

J. C. Beardsley is a new member of the board.

At the next regular meeting scheduled next Tuesday night, the board will elect a new president.

SHERRY LEE FIELDER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fielder of 217 N. Pearl St., Tecumseh, was a recent graduate of the Edward W. Sparrow hospital in Lansing.

She is currently on the staff of Herrick Memorial hospital and she will enter Michigan State College this fall to further her academic training.

Guest speaker at the school of nursing graduation was Dr. Norman Kenzie of Michigan State College.

Guests of honor were Gov. and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Fielder to the graduation exercises were James, Richard and Patricia Fielder. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Fay Whelan of Tecumseh, Mrs. Glenn Crittenden of Saline, Mrs. Betty Johnson of Manchester, Mrs. Todd Faulkner of Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. John Koss of Grand Rapids.

YPF TO SEE HOCKEY

Young people of St. Peter's Episcopal church will see a Detroit Red Wings hockey game next Sunday night in Detroit.

The YPF also will visit St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit.

Fluoride Equipment To Be Stored; Official Explains Odor Of Water

City Manager Ed Nelson Monday night was instructed by the council to dismantle the equipment used to fluoridate city water and to store the equipment in the old waterworks building.

Equipment on four pumps in three pumping stations will be dismantled and stored as soon as city employees have time to do the work.

The question of dismantling and storing the equipment was raised by Councilwoman Mrs. Edith Smith who told councilmen that some persons had asked her when the job would be done.

She said storing the equipment would put these pesons more at ease.

Maenwhile, the city manager received the following letter from T. L. Vander Velde, chief, section of water supply, division of engineering, Michigan Department of Health:

"It is my understanding that the question has been raised in Tecumseh as to whether the addition of fluorides to a municipal water supply for the reduction of dental decay results in objectionable tastes and odors. I should like to assure you that fluorides do not, in any way, alter the taste of a water supply. In other words, there is no taste or odor produced by fluorides, nor will they reduce or change an existing objectionable taste or odor.

"If the people in Tecumseh are experiencing an odor in the water which is described as being that of rotten eggs, I would say that it is no doubt caused by hydrogen sulphide. As you probably know, Tecumseh is located in that portion of the state where it is very common to find hydrogen sulphide dissolved in the ground water. As you know, the Village of Petersburg has such a large amount of this gas that they have an aeration and chlorination plant to treat the water to remove the gas. It is not uncommon in other parts of Michigan to find hydrogen sulphide and I would suggest that if it does get to the point where the people strenuously object to the odor, it is relative easy to remove by chlorination.

"I trust that the above answers your questions, however, if you should have any additional questions regarding the problem, please feel free to contact us."

MRS. LARSEN WILL ACCEPT RED CROSS CONTRIBUTIONS

Although Tecumseh is taking no active part in the nation-wide fund-raising campaign of the American Red Cross now in progress because the local quota was contributed during the United Fund Drive, Mrs. L. W. Larson, Tecumseh chariman, feels there are individuals who may wish to make additional contributions.

In view of the drain of funds for the many disaster relief operations following recurring tornados, large sums are needed, she said. Red Cross is a peace time as well as a war time organization and Mrs. Larsen will be glad to accept contributions any one wishes to make.

Winner

A 32-year-old package department employee at the Quaker Oats Chattanooga, Tenn. plant has won the company-wide IGHUGS pledge contest among Quaker Oats employees from coast to coast.

She collected 456 signed pledges from friends and acquaintances to write Senators Kefauver and Gore and Representative Frazer asking that unnecessary Government spending be halted so that personal taxes may be further reduced.

As winner of the Quaker Oats employee contest which is just a part of the national IGHUGS "I'm Gonna Howl 'Bout Unnecessary Government Spending" campaign supported by many other business concerns and farm, professional and women's groups, Mrs. Kennedy wins an all expense 3-day trip to Washington, D. C. She will visit with the two Tennessee Senators and Representative Frazer.

Speaking for her fellow hourly workers and other employees from coast to coast, she plans to tell Congressmen that unnecessary Government spending must be stopped.

FATHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET PLANNED

Thursday evening, March 25 there will be a Father-Daughter banquet at the Methodist church for members of the congregation.

Aden Mead will be toastmaster for the occasion and Harold Miller will give the traditional toast to the daughters with the response to the dads from Wilma Bumpus. The Rev. R. A. Brunger will lead round-the-table singing and the entertainment of the evening will feature pictures of the Island of Tobago, shown by John McColl.

The dinner will be prepared by the Reliable Circle and tickets are $1.50 and 75c for children not over ten. Reservations are to be made with Walter Hizer.

PERRY HAYDEN'S CONDITION IS SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

The condition of Perry Hayden, who is a patient in St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor, is reported to be slightly improved.

Mr. Hayden has been confined to his home for more than a year and became critically ill last week.

His daughters, Mrs. Ronald Wells of Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Kenyon Sprunger of Fort Wayne, Ind. and Martha Hayden, a student at Taylor University at Upland, Ind., have been called home and with Mrs. Hayden and their sons are spending part of their time in Ann Arbor.

Mohr Promoted By State Police

A former Tecumseh High School student and Tipton resident has been promoted by the Michigan State Police.

Lt. Raymond ("Bill") Mohr, assistant commander of the Jackson district, has been promoted to captain and given command of the second district at Detroit.

Bill attended Tecumseh High School in the early '20's. He has been with the state police 25 years.

He was one of 21 state policemen promoted or transferred Monday by State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

Red Feather Funds Fight A Crippler

March — multiple sclerosis month—is the time the general public throughout the United States is being asked to provide funds to fight this crippling paralysis, which attacks a quarter of a million adults.

Everyone is being asked to give except in Michigan where contributions already have been made through Community Fund Campaigns.

In Tecumseh the Multiple Sclerosis Society points out that dollars given last October are now providing diagnosis and treatment for victims throughout the state. These contributions are appreciated.

You will notice Multiple Sclerosis posters in public places this month. It is the Tecumseh Community Fund Board's way of keeping you informed of the way, "THE DOLLARS YOU GAVE," are working in the United Campaign Agencies.

MEETING CALLED TO DISCUSS POLIO VACCINE

The important question of local distribution of the new polio vaccine will be the subject discussed at a meeting called by chairman, Mrs. Rolland Reister for March 25 at Fellowship Center.

County chairman, Paul Ahleman, will be the speaker. Plans will be made and committees appointed. The public is urgently requested to attend this meeting, which will begin at 7:30.

RATE YOUR TOWN — Folks always are asking "How can we improve our town?" By using a questionnaire reprinted from "Town Journal" perhaps they can figure it out for themselves.

This is the questionnaire:

1 Most high school graduates stay in town	Yes	No
2. Getting a loan on a sound business venture is easy	Yes	No
3. The local paper constantly pushes civic improvements.	Yes	No
4. There's a Chamber of Commerce with a live-wire manager.	Yes	No
5. Local speeders pay the same fines as out-of-towners.	Yes	No
6. There's a place to swim within easy reach.	Yes	No
7. Young couples have little trouble finding a place to live.	Yes	No
8. The head of your government is a "get-things-done" man.	Yes	No
9. Town entrances are free from junk, shacks and billboards.	Yes	No
10. Teachers' salaries are better than the state average.	Yes	No
11. There's at least one doctor per 800 people in your county.	Yes	No
12. There's a library with a good collection of recent books.	Yes	No
13. Newcomers quickly feel they're part of the town	Yes	No
14. Schools have plenty of room for students.	Yes	No
15. Fire insurance rates are low for your type of town.	Yes	No
16. Service, veterans' and women's clubs team up on projects.	Yes	No
17. There is an active, well-organized Boy Scout troop.	Yes	No
18. A modern hospital is within your trading area.	Yes	No
19. All streets are paved and sidewalks are in good shape.	Yes	No
20. Well-stocked stores keep shoppers in the town.	Yes	No
21. There's a hotel or motel you'd enjoy if you were a visitor.	Yes	No
22. It's easy to find parking space in the business section.	Yes	No
23. At least one restaurant serves outstanding meals.	Yes	No
24. The sewer extension program keeps pace with new housing	Yes	No
25. It's easy to get volunteers for any worthwhile project.	Yes	No
26. Public toilets are provided for farm folk shopping in town.	Yes	No
27. Prompt, reasonably priced ambulance service is available.	Yes	No
28. Good zoning keeps factories away from residential areas.	Yes	No
29. There's an annual Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up week.	Yes	No
30. Streets throughout the community are well lighted.	Yes	No
31. More than half the church congregations are younger than 40.	Yes	No
32. Shade trees line nearly all the streets.	Yes	No
33. There's ample supply of good drinking water.	Yes	No
34. There's a recreation center where young people can dance.	Yes	No
35. The business section has a modern, prosperous look.	Yes	No
36. There's as much interest in local as national elections.	Yes	No
37. The tax rate it attractive to new industry.	Yes	No
38. There's a community council to guide town progress.	Yes	No
39. There's an active PTA.	Yes	No
40. Firemen must take regular training courses.	Yes	No

Use the questionnaire. See what you think of Tecumseh.

No questionnaire is foolproof. But if you can honestly circle "yes" on 30 or more of the virtues described, chances are you live in a town of which you can be proud.

Rate your town. We did and we found that Tecumseh, while not being a perfect community, rates high on the list.

SPECIAL SERVICE LISTED AT FRIENDS CHURCH

Church Extension Sunday will be observed at all services of the Friends church this week. The Rev. and Mrs. Earl Smith, Canton, Ohio, and the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Headland, Peninsula, Ohio, all of whom are active workers in this field will take part in the services. The object of the Church Extension movement is the establishment of new churches in parts of the United States not now reached. It is a Home Mission project and all offerings of the local church that day will be devoted to that purpose.

TEACHER'S HUSBAND DIES IN ADRIAN

John Westdyke, 421 Clinton street, Adrian, whose wife, Dorothy Westdyke, has been teacher of art in the Tecumseh public schools for several years, died Friday in Bixby hospital.

Mr. Westdyke, who was born in Kalamazoo, had been a linotype operator for many years, working for the Toledo Blade, the Toledo Times and the old Toledo News-Bee. Before that he had been in business in Detroit and Chicago. Mr. Westdyke was a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Toledo and was a 32nd degree Mason.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Everiss Funeral Home, Adrian and the interment was in Toledo Memorial Park, Sylvania, Ohio.

It is expected that Mrs. Westdyke will continue her teaching work in Tecumseh.

A middle-aged man stopped by. "My name is Charlton," he said, "we are moving here. Do you have some good 2-bedroom homes for sale?"

"We really do," I said, "and worth the money too."

However, he thought each one I showed him was "too high." Finally, he said, "I'll wait."

"Mr. Charlton," I said, "you need the home now and this is a good time to buy. Many people postpone buying through force of habit. To them, conditions are always unsettled and prices seem too high. Eventually they arrive at retirement age without a home of their own. Yet, during their active years, they've paid in full for 3 homes in rent!"

"Say," Mr. Charlton said, "you've just described my own life for the past 25 years. During that period we could never find just the right home to buy. We've waited, postponed, and looked, but we've found only excuses." "the time to buy is when you "the time of buy is when you need a home and can afford it. You qualify on both counts. Should we look at that last house again?"

"Yes," he said, "I've stalled too long."

And TODAY he is a home-owner in Tecumseh.

Grade School News

Grade 6
Miss Hopkins

Our big project this month was the talent show to earn money for our trip to Greenfield Village. Our chief difficulty was in finding a time to use the auditorium which is used for gym classes most of the day. Three of us couldn't be present. But the substitutes managed very well. We all worked hard Monday evening, and the responsive audience was a great help to us.

Judy Moynihan had charge of the quiz, Jim Beach led the choral reading and the flag salute. June Hartley dramatized and directed the story from our reading book, "Rhyming Ink." Lee Britton was the author of the historical play depicting the trial and execution of Charles I of England. Charles Baird and Terry Hendricks were responsible for the safety skit. Fred Jeschke was actor and producer in the silhouettes. Jan Kachur performed the cork-popping experiment. Patricia Gurtzweiler supervised and took part in the girls' gymnastic exhibition. Jim Nighswander assisted by Jim Beach, and Lee Britton, led the boys in their calisthenics demonstration. Dave Weakley shupervised the tap dancing. Our baton twirlers are Lavonne Lister and Sharon Mitzner. Sharon also had charge of the ticket selling. Fred Jeschke and his father made for us the tickets and the programs. Harriett Blanden and Judy Nichols arranged the programs for us and saw to it that every one had a part in it. Jim Creger entertained the audience between acts with his jokes and riddles. The casts and the helpers in each department were chosen by the student in charge, subject to the approval of the program committee. It was their duty to see to it that the work was properly distributed among the members of the class. Sally Hunt and Fred Jeschke provided instrumental music.

Jim Hoot handled the curtains for us, and Jim Neitling was our efficient stage manager.

Jim Beach had charge of the boys' singing and the band selections. Jim Curth and Charles Baird each directed the band in a musical selection from the work they have done in band class. Judy Moynihan, Sharon Mitzner and Lavonne Lister sang a humorous song. Charles Baird, Lee Britton, Dave Weakley and Jim Beach were our Barbershop quartet.

The audience was most appreciative of the work which demonstrated the achievements in classes taught by Mrs. Schippers, Mrs. Marx, Mr. Runk, and Mr. Peck. Mrs. Mitzner most kindly took charge of the make-up of faces for stage appearance of the entire cast. Janet Harris and Sally Hunt did an excellent job with the posters and other publicity work.

The enterprise was an exhilarating experience for us all. The kind words from our generous audience have kept us in a state of elation all week. Also, we are a long step nearer to financing our trip to Greenfield Village in May.

Shirlene Bozeman is still in the hospital recovering from her appendectomy. We missed you Monday evening, Shirlene. A welcome awaits you in room 308. Ronnie Smith has gone to Columbus, Georgia. That leaves a big empty place in our group even though Bobbie Deweese is here with us and is using the text books that Ronnie left. It is a pleasure to welcome Bobbie who is fitting in most readily and cooperatively.

Any lesser news will have to wait until next month. We fear that we already have too much for this time. But we want to say a heart-felt thank-you to all our generous friends for their help and encouragement during our entertainment project and especially to the Tecumseh Herald for its excellent article about it on the front page last week. You can have no idea how important we felt!

Next Saturday our room mothers are having a baked goods sale to provide the rest of the money for our trip. Please everybody remember the date,—March the twentieth!!

Grade 6
Mr. Kelty

The sixth grade has just completed the study of the Scandenavian country. They study the countries as a unit with each group contributing information about the culture, exports, imports, government, and industries, etc.

The class is making preparations for the sale of candy and comic books in the hall at Central after school. The money will be used for the children to go to Greenfield Village.

Grade 6
Mr. Kaiser

Robert Warren is the new boy in our room. He has replaced Paul Surratt on safety patrol. The other patrol members are Roger Mead, Ralph Helzerman, Ricky Holdridge, Johnny Cook, Steve Kruger, Robert Dick, Richard Stevenson, Todd Herrick, and Gary Hall. They are out on the corners in all kinds of weather to help the children.

The service squad members from our room are Kendra Ringman, Doris Oliphant, Karen Hall, Linda Baldwin, Alice Titley, Mary Colgrove, Sandra Howard, Mary Roberts, Mary Seager, Ann Cameron, and Carole Kilburn. These girls are doing a fine job in helping to keep the building safe, quiet, and orderly.

During boys gym class many of the girls are learning to knit while others read in the library. When the girls are in gym most of the boys read or work on models.

Special Room
Mrs. Buttolph

Last Friday afternoon we had fun making home made ice cream. We used a snow and salt mixture in the outside pail to freeze the cream in the inside can. Each took a turn cranking the freezer. We also took turns adding salt and snow and pounding them together with dole rods in the pail to lower the freezing temperature of the mixture. It was a happy time, when it was finally frozen and we could eat what we had made. We were glad to be able to give Mr. Greene the paddle to enjoy. Of course it had some of our frozen dessert still left on it.

In social studies we are studying about how bread is made. We have made scrap books and a large frieze to show the story of a loaf of bread. We hope to visit the bakery soon.

We each have finished four arithmetic books this year and are on our fifth.

In our shop we have been making toys. Our favorite ones are tumbling clowns, fighting chickens, boats that really travel in the water, and airplanes that go.

We are practicing an Irish jig. When we have learned it we hope to entertain some of our friends!

Drewyor-Cameron Vows Exchanged

The Iron Creek church near Manchester was the scene of a candlelighted ceremony last Friday evening when at 8 o'clock Shirley Marlene Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cameron of Manchester and Larry D. Drewyor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Drewyor of Tecumseh were married by the Rev. Alvin Brazee, pastor of the church.

An arch of greenery and hampers of white roses decorated the altar as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, preceded by her attendants, Mrs. Arnold Wilson of Clinton, matron of honor and Mrs. Glen Jones of Springville and Mrs. Wayne Beckley, Fenton, as bridesmaids. All are sisters of the bride and the flower girls were her two little nieces, Pamela Jo Beckley and Judy Dianne Wilson, while a nephew, Norman Jones acted as ring bearer.

Mrs. Amos Wilson was at the organ and Miss Marjorie Greenfield of Clinton sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mr. Drewyor asked Thomas Rohweder of Tecumseh to be his best man and the ushers were Howard Pennington and Arnold Wilson.

Miss Cameron chose for her bridal gown white lace over nylon net and satin, made with a fitted bodice, buttoned down the front with tiny satin buttons and featuring a high, pointed collar of the lace. The skirt was full with a chapel train and her fingertip length veil fell from a pearl trimmed head dress of lace and satin. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom and carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

The gowns of the four attendants differed only in color. Of taffeta with full over skirt of net and with net stoles, the matron of honor's was gold and those of Mrs. Beckley and Mrs. Jones were light blue and green respectively. Each carried a colonial bouquet in a holder of matching net. The gowns of the little flower girls were yellow marquisette over taffeta and they carried white baskets of vari-colored flowers.

A dark blue street length, dress with white accessories was the choice of the bride's mother and with it she wore a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Mary Holdway, her grandmother, wore powder blue with a pink corsage and the mother of the groom was in blue nylon and her flowers were pink.

Following the ceremony, 250 guests were received in the church parlors and refreshments were served from a table whose white lace cloth had been brought from the Philippines by the bride's aunt. It was decorated by white candles and flowers and a center pedestal held a four-tiered wedding cake. Those in charge of serving were Miss Ardis Drewyor, the groom's sister, Miss Janet Horton of Sand Lake and Miss Julianne Cullen of Wayne.

Guests were present from Detroit, Indianapolis, Flint, Wayne, Toledo, Tecumseh, Clinton and Manchester.

When Mr. and Mrs. Drewyor left on a week's trip to Colorado, the bride was wearing a gray suit with black accessories. They will stop over to visit a friend, Miss Aurelia Caristionos, in Kansas City, Mo. On their return they will reside in the Irish Hills. The bride is a graduate of Clinton high school and the groom of Tecumseh high and of General Motors Institute. He is presently employed at Fisher Pontiac, Tecumseh but will leave soon for military service.

New Chevrolet Trucks...

do more work per day... more work per dollar!

You save extra trips. That's because of the extra load space you get in the new Advance-Design bodies. New pick-up bodies are deeper, new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer. Also, they're set lower for easier loading.

You save hours on the road. Thanks to new high-compression power, you can maintain faster schedules without driving at higher maximum speeds. Increased acceleration and hill-climbing ability let you save time where it counts.

You save time on deliveries. With new truck Hydra-Matic transmission, you save time at every delivery stop. And you can forget about clutching and shifting for good! It's optional at extra cost on ½-, ¾- and 1-ton Chevrolet trucks.

You save on operating costs. New power saves you money every mile! The "Thriftmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235" and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost) deliver increased operating economy.

You save with lower upkeep, too. Extra chassis strength saves you money on maintenance. There are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models . . . bigger clutches in light- and heavy-duty models . . . stronger frames in all models.

And your savings start the day you buy. In fact, they start with the low price you pay and continue over the miles. Chevrolet is America's lowest-priced line of trucks. It's also the truck that has a traditionally higher trade-in value.

Come in and see all the wonderful new things you get in America's number one truck. We'll be glad to give you all the money-saving facts.

FREEDOM

By the Rev. Edward Escolme,
Minister of the Tecumseh Friends Church

John 8:32 "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

These words spoken by Christ our Lord could well be inscribed over the entrance to every church, school, court house, newspaper office, and legislative assembly. The hearty acceptance of truth in any and every department of human affairs has a liberating effect. Truth concerning God and man when embraced and acted upon has the profoundest of effects.

When Jesus uttered the words that stand at the heading of this article human slavery abounded. There were multitudes of slaves throughout the Roman Empire. Moreover, nations once independend and powerful were in the time of our Lord mere provinces of that empire. Palestine itself was one of those provinces. But more tragic still, men everywhere were in the most fearful bondage of all, the bondage of sin and sinful habits.

It is well for us to take notice of the manner in which the Lord Jesus deals with the problems of slavery, sin and servitude in any of its forms. Jesus does not deal with them on the economic or the political level. Neither do Peter, Paul nor John deal with human bondage on the political or economic level. Only in the epistle of James do we get a hint of protest on the economic level. Christ and the writers of the New Testament deal with these related problems on the moral and spiritual level.

We honor men like Washington, Lincoln, Cromwell and Garibaldi and others who used the sword as a liberating force. But Christ our Lord refused to adopt that method. When the Galilean patriots, after the feeding of the 5,000 would have taken him by force and made him their king Jesus withdrew "into a mountain himself alone." He sought fellowship with the Father in prayer.

We treasure such documents as the Magna Charta and our Federal Constitution with its Bill of Rights, but in the New Testament we do not find political documents but principles on which these documents rest. The one thing we would emphasize this morning is that freedom on the economic and political level rests on even more fundamental aspects of freedom. Such aspects of freedom are freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly and religious freedom. We make a great mistake if we think that democracy is the guardian of true religion. True religion is the guardian of democracy. Democracy owes more to Judiasm and Chrisitanity than to any other factor.

Christ calls us to love God supremely and to love our fellowmen unselfishly. In this atomic age it is well for all of us to realize that there is no adequate scientific defense against atomic warfare. We may be sure that atom bombs will be used again unless there is moral and spiritual understanding between nations. Unless the love of God prevails in human hearts and in human affairs, disaster on a world-wide scale will overwhelm us. As we journey toward Good Friday and Easter Day let us prayerfully read once again the four Gospels and seriously meditate upon the truths declared therein by Christ Jesus our Savior and our Lord, for we have His word of assurance "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

COUPLE CELEBRATE 40TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Payne, whose home is at 194 Pentecost Rd., Onsted, were pleasantly surprised Sunday, March 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Payne of Clayton. The occasion was the celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary which occurred March 4. A potluck dinner was served after which the day was spent socially.

Besides the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Payne and the honored couple, additional guests were Clifford Payne and family, Beaverton, Mich.; Leona Richard and family, Holloway; Harlan DeWitt and family, Lyons, Ohio; and Elmer Payne, Onsted.

Too many news stories are written by writers anchored to desk chairs.

MRS. JOHN S. MARSH SERVICES TUESDAY

Juliet Nina Marsh, widow of John S. Marsh, died suddenly Saturday evening, March 13 at Herrick Memorial hospital. Her home was at 28 E. Brown street.

Mrs. Marsh was born April 6, 1888, in Litchfield, Mich., the daughter of Jonas and Julia Snyder Austin and came to Tecumseh with her parents in 1890. March 18, 1907, she married John Marsh whose death occurred April 23, 1943. She attended Tecumseh schools and was a member of the Tecumseh Baptist church.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Andrew Clark, Hanover, Mich.; six sons, James, Frank, Harry and Chester, Tecumseh, Ronald, Ridgeway and the Rev. Charles Marsh, Detroit; nineteen grandchildren and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her husband; two daughters, Nina May and Crystal May; two sons, Casper and Frederick and two brothers, Wheeler and Fred Austin, Charlotte.

Funeral services for Mrs. Marsh were held Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. at the Collins Funeral Home and were conducted by the Rev. B. O. Bashore. Bearers were the six sons and burial was in Brookside.

BRIDE-ELECT FETED AT NUMEROUS SHOWERS

Miss Eileen Beach, who became Mrs. Albert Taylor Saturday evening, was honored by a number of pre-nuptial parties and showers during the two weeks before her marriage.

Her aunt, Mrs. Maurice Malady, entertained a group of relatives and friends the preceding Thursday evening when Miss Beach was the recipient of miscellaneous gifts and the following Saturday evening Mrs. Ernest Brandt and Mrs. Howard Truesdale entertained in the Brandt home with a shower of linens. Later her friends who are employed at the Products Company gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Joseph Bush in Clinton.

Other events have included a kitchen shower, given by Mrs. Merlyn Allshouse and one of personal gifts at the home of Mrs. Jerry O'Brien on the Tuesday evening preceding the wedding.

Following the rehearsal of the wedding Friday evening a dinner for twenty-four members of the wedding party was given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beach at their home on west Shawnee.

SIXTH GRADE RAISES FUNDS FOR TRIP

The pupils of the sixth grade room taught by Miss Alice Hopkins have a major project. They are planning a visit to Greenfield Village and are busy with ways and means of raising money for the trip. Monday evening of last week they staged a very successful talent show at the Central school auditorium, which was well attended and netted them nearly $30. All the production was the work of the boys and girls, who wrote the script and were their own stage managers.

On Saturday they will hold a bake sale, beginning at noon, at Hanna's, the proceeds from which will be added to the fund for the trip.

Christian Science Services Listed

Victory over human limitations comes as we learn that man's true selfhood is spiritual, not material, and that he lives in Spirit, God, not in matter — this is a leading point in the Lesson-Sermon to be heard at Christian Science services Sunday.

In the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Matter" the following Bible verses will be read from Isaiah:

"Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. (55:6-8).

The following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be read:

"The perfect Mind sends forth perfection, for God is Mind. Imperfect mortal mind sends forth its own resemblances, of which the wise man said, 'All is vanity'" (239:29).

ALTAR SOCIETY

Twenty-one members were present for the March meeting of St. Elizabeth Altar Society Wednesday evening at the Parish Hall. Announcement was made of the Southwestern Deanery Convention to be held April 8 at the Hotel Statler in Detroit and those interested in attending were directed to get in touch with Mrs. Paul Lauer, who has charge of arrangements.

Sometime during the next week a group of the members will meet at the home of Mrs. Richard Drouillard for the purpose of making new vestments for the church and those willing to assist in any way are asked to call Mrs. Drouillard.

The March committee includes Mrs. Zell McCarty, chairman, Mrs. Walter Mueller, Mrs. Vern Neidlinger and Mrs. Morgan Ford. After the meeting coffee was served by Mrs. Robert Murray and her committee. At the next meeting, April 7, Hawaiian pictures will be shown by Dr. R. J. Murray.

Wedding Vows Exchanged Saturday By Ileen Beach And Albert Taylor

White snapdragons, lilies, greenery and candlelight set the scene at the Methodist church, Saturday evening, when Miss Ileen Beach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beach, became the bride of Albert G. Taylor of Onsted.

The Rev. Ronald Brunger performed the double ring ceremony under a trellised arch of green decorated with white carnations and Easter lillies from which was hung a white, lace covered wedding bell. Candles, with satin bows and green, were placed in the windows and the pews were marked with calla lilies and white snapdragons tied with white satin.

Traditional organ music was played by Mrs. Kenton Hunt and just before the ceremony the Misses Marlys and Evelyn Arnold sang "Because You're Mine." As a part of the closing rites they also sang "With This Ring" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was lovely in her gown of rose point lace and tulle over bridal satin. The bodice was tightly fitted, with portrait neckline and long sleeves, while a lace peplum, extending into a full cathedral train, fell over the wide hooped skirt of lace-edged tulle ruffles. Her flowers were white orchids, pink roses and stephanotis in a crescent arrangement and sweetheart roses were caught in the knots of the shower ribbons.

A cousin of the bride, Mrs. James Campbell, as matron-of-honor was gowned in lace and nylon net in forget-me-not blue, fashioned with a strapless bodice and short lace jacket. Her flowers were a crescent of rubrum lillies, backed by varigated pink and green foliage, pink maline and ribbon.

Mrs. Merlin Allshouse of Tecumseh and Miss Coral Lu Fitzgerald of Coldwater were the bridesmaids and wore rose pink dresses made like that of the matron-of-honor. Their crescent bouquets were of pink Delight roses. All the attendants wore flowered tiaras matching their bouquets.

Tiny twin nieces of the bride, Barbara and Patricia Krzyzaniak in floor length dresses of yellow net and taffeta, were the flowergirls with baskets filled with pink roses, and five year old Gary Maynard, wearing a miniature tuxedo, carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow.

Frank P. Keeney of Tipton assisted Mr. Taylor as best man and the ushers were Kenneth Sherman of Onsted and Jack Cummings of Milan, the latter an uncle of the bride.

Mrs. Beach wore skipper-blue nylon in waltz length, with accessories of pink and navy for her daughter's wedding and her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Taylor's gown was a navy blue print with blue accessories and pink camelias formed her corsage.

At the reception, which was in charge of the Methodist Guild, more than 300 guests were registered by Mrs. Frank Keeney at the guest book. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brandt and Mr. and Mrs. George McCombs were assistant hosts; Mrs. Maurice Malady, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Kenneth Sherman and Mrs. James Hewitt of Detroit cut and served the five-tiered wedding cake; Mrs. Joseph Busch the groom's cake; Mrs. Jerry O'Brien the ice cream and Mrs. Howard Truesdale and Mrs. A. W. Porter poured coffee.

The bride's going away suit was of dusty pink, with navy and white accessories and she wore the white orchids from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left on a trip to Niagara Falls after which they will be at home in Boston, Mass., where the groom is stationed.

EDWARD DE GROOT DIES IN VETERANS HOSPITAL

Edwart DeGroot, 56, of Holloway Road, died at the Veterans Administraton hospital Monday at 4 p.m., where he had been a patient for five weeks. He had been in failing health for the last two years, a patient at University hospital since Jan. 4 and underwent surgery March 8 at the Veterans hospital.

Mr. De Groot was born in Rotterdam, Holland, June 6, 1897, and came to America when a young man. He enlisted in the Army in World War I, in the 32nd Division, 125th Infantry, and was critically wounded in France in 1917.

He had lived in Raisin township for the past 32 years, the last six years at the farm home and orchard west of Holloway. He was married in Adrian to Ruth Stradling August 9, 1922.

He was a memnber of the Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 20 of Adrian of which he was a past commander; V.F.W. of Adrian; Tecumseh American Legion Underwood-Orr Post No. 34; Holloway Presbyterian church and had been Raisin township clerk for a number of years.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth; two daughters, Mrs. Phyllis Palmer, Wichita, Kansas and Mrs. Barbara Lowery, Palmyra; one son, Robert of Holloway and three grandchildren, also his mother-in-law, Mrs. Laura Stradling of Holloway.

The funeral service will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Green Funeral Home with Dr. Thomas Rogers of the Holloway Presbyterian church officiating. The Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 20 of Adrian and the Tecumseh American Legion Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 will have the military service at the grave. Burial will be in the Holloway cemetery.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

The resurrection of Jesus from the grave was held to be an incontestable fact by the early Christians. The New Testament writers do not agree in details, but they are of one mind about the actuality of his victory over the grave. They remembered with fresh insight the words of the Lord himself about immortality.

They felt an abiding assurance of his presence in their midst. This experience deepened their trust in God, purified their lives, made stronger their courage, and gave them great powers of endurance. Ardent companionship with Jesus and warm fellowship with God removed fear from their lives. Once they conquered fear of death, they triumphed over fear of privation, fear of defeat, fear of enemies.

Without the realization of the resurrection of Jesus, the church would never have come into existence and the New Testament would never have been written. If there had been no breaking of the bonds of death, you and I would never have heard the name of Jesus mentioned.

True enough, our explanations are fragmentary because our knowledge of life itself and of death is limited. But we can be sure that it is right to trust the integrity of God and to maintain unbroken confidence in the love of our Father. There is a moral order of the universe, there is dependability in the law of the harvest. The continuing and ever-widening influence of Jesus has not come from fraud or an illusion; the supremely redemptive act of history was not a conspiracy of deception.

Death is not annihilation, it is simply the doorway from one room into another room of our Father's home. In a universe where the law of conservation of values prevails, we may be sure that God has preserved his most perfect gift to mankind. Confidently we may walk with our living Lord.

O. L. Rappteye of Blisfield was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Marks.

Howard Pennington was home from Michigan State College for the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pennington.

Mrs. Estella Hite spent part of last week with her sister in Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnson have moved to the Southard apartment north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Palmer returned Saturday from several weeks in Florida.

At the meeting of the W.S.C.S. held at the home of Mrs. Lester Edelbrock last week, announcement was made that the Tecumseh society has invited the Ridgeway W.S.C.S. to a breakfast Wednesday, March 31. The speaker will be Mrs. Lawrence Taylor of Toledo, who will present a family portrait program. The Ann Arbor district meeting will be held in Ypsilanti April 6. April 7, the society will entertain members of the Macon W.S.C.S. at a one o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Dan Dixon of Milan will be the speaker. It was voted to increase the yearly pledge. Miss Julia Gilmore, Mrs. Bird Southard and Mrs. Jane Bird were appointed as the nominating committee. A letter of thanks was read from the Church of the Valley at Twin Bridge, Montana, which the group had recently sent a donation. At the close of the meeting, the hostess served refreshments.

The United Workers class will meet March 18 at the home of Mrs. Edith Southard. Mrs. Gertrude Birdsall will have charge of devotions.

The Lenawee County Singspiration will be held at Britton Sunday.

A concert will be presented by the Adrian College choir at the Ridgeway Methodist church April 25 at 8 p. m. The group is sponsored jointly by the Britton Methodist church and the Ridgeway church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Ann Arbor were guests Sunday of Mrs. Gertrude Birdsall.

TECUMSEH INVITED TO BENEFIT BANQUET

The annual benefit banquet for the junior and senior bands and chorus of Clinton High School will be held at the high school Tuesday, March 23, at 7 p.m.

The bands and the chorus will provide the program.

Tecumseh folks are invited to attend.

You can make your own brown coloring for chop suey, for soups, gravies and sauces, says Mrs. Norma Kowitz, a Michigan State College home economist. Simply carmelize one-half cup sugar in a frying pan until it is almost burned (it will have lost its sweet carmel flavor at this point) then add a little hot water to dissolve the carmelized sugar. Save what you do not need for later use. It will keep indefinitely in a bottle in the refrigerator.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS from the Bible

A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up anger.—(Proverbs 15. 1.)

With so much of hate and unhappiness in the world today, and so much of grief in any man's life, the kind deed, the encouraging word that any one of us can give to another these days is so little but so precious. They cost us nothing—but of what great value!

Seven Steps Are Listed For Laundry

What makes a white, clean laundry?

Evelyn Zwemer, of the home management department at Michigan State College, names these seven steps to laundy success:

The first step is "preparation." You'll want to sort clothing according to fabric, color fastness, amount of soil, etc. If there are heavily soiled spots, rub these first with a soap, syndet (synthetic detergent) or soap jelly. Miss Zwemer advises limiting any soaking period to 30 minutes. Longer soaking only causes unnecessary weakening of the fabrics.

The second step is to work with "water at the correct temperature." For white cottons and linens, wash soaked pieces in water at 160 degeres F. If pieces were not soaked, use water at a temperature of 140 F. Temperatures for colored pieces will, of course, depend upon color fastness.

Don't ever soak silk or wool garments, warns Miss Zwemer. For best results, she advises a temperature of 100 to 110 degrees F. for washing silk. For wool, 90 to 100 degrees F. is right.

The third point concerns "water softness." Here in Michigan the water is moderately hard. So the homemaker may want to install a water softener. Or perhaps she'll add a softener powder to her laundry water. If so, she'll want to realize that there are two types of softeners — percipitating (gives cloudy mixture) and non-precipitating (gives clear mixture). The latter type is usually preferred, says Miss Zwemer.

Whichever type is used, it is important to wait 3 minutes after adding the softener before adding soap or syndet.

In point four, "choosing soap or syndet," the homemaker needs to consider which type is suited to her machine. Either a soap or a syndet can be used with a conventional machine. With an automatic, a syndet is preferred. (The washer manufacturer may have given specific directions as to which brand works best in his particular machine). I fa soap is used in an automatic, the pipes, drain and pumps of the machine will become clogged, warns Miss Zwemer.

Two very important DON'TS are: (1) do not mix soap and syndet, and (2) do not use soap one week and syndet the next week. If used alternately in this way, tiny brown spots may appear on garments, explains Miss Zwemer.

The fifth point concerns "washing time." It is determined by the amount of soil, kind of fabric and its construction, color fastness and the type of machine.

In general cotton and linen garments showing medium soil will wash clean in 6 to 8 minutes. Heavily soiled garments of cotton or linen should be washed longer —10 to 15 minutes. Silk and wool garments should be washed only for a short time, (2, 3 or 5 minutes). Too long a washing period merely redeposits the dirt.

The sixth point concerns "changing the wash water" when it becomes too soiled.

Women frequently make a mistake on point seven, says Miss Zwemer. They neglect to "soften hard rinse water." Thorough rinsings are "musts" for a successful laundry.

Spring Dessert Tray

You can make a handsome dessert tray for springtime entertaining with one orange, one apple, some doughnuts and jelly rolls. And it will be handsome in color as well as taste.

To make the tray pictured, use a round tray about 15 inches in diameter. Peel a large orange, and loosen the segments to form a center flower. Cut an unpeeled apple crosswise into slices. Cut slices in half. Place an apple slice, skin side up, between each two orange segments. Garnish center of the orange with a maraschino cherry.

Cut cake-like, powdered sugar dipped doughnuts into thin crosswise slices. Cut the large jelly roll lengthwise into slices. Cut each lengthwise slice in half or into thirds to make jelly roll bars. Alternate jelly roll bars and doughnut slices around the edge of the tray.

Both doughnuts and jelly roll come from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department, and both are made with home-like flavor from cook book recipes.

GOODWILL EMPLOYS HANDICAPPED

It is estimated by the government that there are one out of every six people in the United States who are handicapped. The organization that has the largest concrete program for hiring them is Goodwill Industries. In this area alone, they employ 425 handicapped each week and rehabilitate more than 300 others annually.

Why People Save with ADRIAN FEDERAL SAVINGS

*SAVINGS EARN ABOVE-AVERAGE RATE — Since Adrian Federal is mutual in character and specializes in the financing of homes, their primary investment is in monthly repayable first mortgage loans on selected owner-occupied homes. These loans are made to qualified borrowers in the community. The income from this investment is steady, ranging from 4 to 6 per cent. Thus there is a generous sum available to savers after the payment of operating costs.

*NON-FLUCTUATING VALUES — There is no worry about the management of funds placed with Adrian Federal, no concern about the upward or downward trend of the stock market, or the safety of principal. Here, with safety insured to $10,000, the principal invested is withdrawable at full value plus earnings credited.

*FLEXIBILITY OF USE — Because a person can add to or withdraw from his account without payment of a service charge or fee of any kind, Adrian Federal is an excellent place to build a reserve fund. Additions to accounts can be made in any amount, at any time, in person or by postage-paid mail. There is never a need to wait for the accumulation of a specific sum before starting money to work, as would be the case in purchasing securities. YOU'LL LIKE SAVING WITH ADRIAN FEDERAL SAVINGS.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

(Last of a series of articles regarding the Musgrove Evans house).

It was a Mr. William Gordon who, in 1886, bought the Evans house, walnut beams and all, for $75 and moved it to its East Logan street site. In spite of that moving and of more than a century and a quarter in years, it still stands four square and sturdy.

It has few architectural graces. Even its good proportions are somewhat spoiled by being placed on a too high foundation. There is a pleasant fanlight over the door, wooden fans to simulate windows in the gables and the evenly spaced windows hold most of the original small-paned window glass. Some time during the years it has lost the window blinds which are shown in early pictures and which were probably added by either Blanchard or Adams.

It has passed through several hands since it was moved and has evidently been rented most of the time. At least is has not been identified long with any one family. At present it is the property of the Palman family and has been converted by them into a two-family house.

Only other slightly daft individuals, who also ride hobbies, will appreciate what a pleasant and exciting adventure is has been to establish the place of this house in the architectural history of the state. At first it was a satisfaction to know it was the oldest in the county. Then the question arose of its relative age with the remaining homes in other early communities. The search of course was not completely state wide. In 1826, settlements in Michigan were still largely confined to the eastern coast line, and a comparatively narrow line at that. Woodruff's Grove, the predecessor to Ypsilanti, had a few houses at that date and "Ann's Arbor" the sylvan shelter that was to give a name to the university town had been built in 1824, the year of Tecumseh's beginning. There were a few "squatter" settlers who had come up from Ohio and Indiana to the unsurveyed land in the southwest part of the state and there had been a very early settlement at St. Joseph of the Catholic fathers who had made the perilous trip by way of Lake Michigan.

Monroe, which with its early background, had been Tecumseh's "mother town" was the first one visited and it was a thrilling surprise to learn that, while there was a building that "might" be an Indian trading post, there was no remaining dwelling as old as 1826. Letters to historical societies in other likely counties continued to return negative answers "and still the wonder grew." Then came the final check with the State Historical Society—a short cut which would have saved a lot of time and lost a lot of fun—and the summing up.

There is one house in Detroit the Trowbridge House, that was also built in 1826 and the Edward Biddle house on Mackinac Island which is probably older although its record is not clear. So, while the Evans house may not be able to claim clear title to being quite the oldest house in Michigan it brings interest and distinction to Tecumseh.

Oldest house in Michigan — a murmur from those modern, sensible individuals who do not ride hobbies seems to echo — "So What!"

NOTICE OF LAST DAY OF REGISTRATION OF THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 7, TECUMSEH TOWNSHIP (TECUMSEH PUBLIC SCHOOLS) LENAWEE COUNTY, MICHIGAN

TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF SAID DISTRICT:

Please take notice that the Board of Education of School District No. 7, Tecumseh Township (Tecumseh Public Schools), Lenawee County, Michigan, has called a special election to be held in said School District on April 19, 1954.

Section 2 of Act 199, Public Acts of Michigan, 1951, effective September 28, 1951, provides as follows:

"The inspectors of election at any annual or special election shall not receive the vote of any person residing in a registration school district whose name is not registered as an elector in the city or township in which he resides . . . ."

THE LAST DAY ON WHICH PERSONS MAY REGISTER WITH THE APPROPRIATE TOWNSHIP OR CITY CLERK IN ORDER TO BE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE AT THE SPECIAL ELECTION CALLED TO BE HELD ON APRIL 19, 1954, IS FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1954. PERSONS REGISTERING AFTER 5:00 O'CLOCK, P.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME, ON THE SAID FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1954, ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO VOTE AT SAID SPECIAL SCHOOL ELECTION.

Under the provisions of Act 199, Public Acts of Michigan, 1951, registration will not be taken by school officials and only persons who have registered as general electors with the township or city clerk of the township or city in which they reside are registered school electors. Persons planning to register with the township or city clerk must ascertain the days and hours on which the clerk's office is open for registration.

This notice is given by order of the Board of Education of School District No. 7, Tecumseh Township (Tecumseh Public Schools), Lenawee County, Michigan.

SCHOOL BOARD

bership basis as of the first of October. We will gain about 155 Kindergartners and lose 80 seniors making a net gain of 75 less perhaps 60 loss to the Catholic School. We would, therefore, gain about 15 over this years' enrollment of 1560 making, perhaps, 1575 in all. We were paid state aid this year on 1400 so next year we will receive additional revenue, a portion of which may be used for building and site purposes.

We will need one extra room next year, probably can use either the Central auditorium or a combination of two little rooms at Central, one for shop and one for class work for the opportunity group. It will also be necessary to return to the Library basement next year. This will make 29 rooms available for use in 1954-1955.

Elementary school rooms needed: 1954-1955—29; 1955-1956—31; 1956-1957—33; 1957-1958—35; 1958-1959—35; 1959-1960—34.

As it looks now the Catholic School will not enroll enough pupils to close any one room in our school as they are evenly divided over the eight grades.

The earliest date the Superintendent can estimate that the present bond issue can be paid off is during 1959-1960 school year or about 5½ years. We will need six additional class rooms by the 1957-1958 school year which is approximately two years before the bonds will be retired if everything goes well.

This estimate is borne out by the following: principal left to pay, $615,000; interest on principal, $92,900; total, $707,900; collections this year and balance on hand, $128,568.50; balance to pay, $579,331.50.

A 13-mill tax on assessed valuation of approximatley 8 million dollars equals $104,000.

$579,331.50 divided by $104,000 equals 5½ years.

Therefore, to serve only the pupils we now know will be here by 1957-1958 or four years hence, we should either have an additional six-room addition at Patterson or a complete new elementary building on our Adrian Street property. Cost of a complete school similar to Patterson is approximately $350,000. Cost of a six-room addition to Patterson is approximately $90,000.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Terry Haughn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haughn, was eight years old Saturday and entertained fourteen friends at a birthday party. Games were enjoyed in the recreation room, with prizes going to Glenn L. Green III, Rosmary Heistand, John Oberlin and Carson House Jr. Other guests were Paul Kruse, Jimmy Newell, Judy and Joslyn Snook, Mike and Tom Velandra, Doug and Chuck Gillies and Cheryl Haughn, Mrs. Haughn, assisted by Mrs. Green, Mrs. Snook and Mrs. Gillies served a birthday supper which featured a decorated candlelighted birthday cake.

Chairman — President

R. W. HERRICK

JOSEPH E. LAYTON

After 22 years as president of Tecumseh Products Co., R. W. Herrick has retired to become chairman of the board of directors. His successor as president is Joseph E. Layton, formerly with the International Harvester Co. for 18 years.

These changes were announced at the company's annual stockholders' meeting held at the Tecumseh Country Club last week.

In addition to Mr. Layton, other officers of the company are H. L. Spencer, executive vice president; J. P. Ammer, vice president; Paul G. Hohenstein, treasurer; P. J. Breitenwischer, secretary; K. D. Hall, assistant treasurer and V. C. Tucker, assistant secretary.

The new board of directors is comprised of Mr. Herrick, Kenneth G. Herrick, Mr. Ammer, Mr. Breitenwischer, Mr. Layton, Charles K. Borton, J. E. Keane, Emmett E. Eagan, A. E. Seemen, F. C. Greenhill, Walter B. Groves and Mr. Spencer.

Dynamic Miller Perry Hayden Dies

By CLARA WALDRON

Perry M. Hayden, president of Tecumseh's oldest enterprise, Hayden Flour Mills, died in the early morning of March 18 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor after several years of gradually failing health.

To a wide segment of the outside world he was known as the Tecumseh miller who had an idea which he called Dynamic Kernels. To Tecumseh, especially a somewhat earlier Tecumseh, he was "Perry", a blithe figure, swinging with long-legged stride down Main Street, with a gay greeting for all his friends — who were everyone he met. He knew them all, their interests, their families, even the birthdays of most of them; one of his minor hobbies. And always he could be counted on as a well spring of energy and enthusiasm for any movement for the community good. He carried that enthusiasm into many fields, religion, business, politics and the wider one of human relations.

Perry Hayden was born in Tecumseh, Feb. 9, 1901, the youngest of the three children of Levi and Blanch Mead Hayden. He attended the local schools, graduating from Tecumseh High with the class of 1919 and the University of Michigan in 1925, where he became a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

On leaving college he became associated with what was always one of his deepest interests, the family business. A Hayden institution for three generations, it had been an old concern when purchased by his grandfather, William Hayden, in 1858.

Founded in 1835, as the Globe Milling Co. by the Blanchard, Russell and Gardner Corp. it was three years in the building and had run into immediate financial difficulties because of the panic of 1837. Although always a vital outlet for the community's largest resource, wheat, it had reached its lowest ebb when taken over by Hayden. Through his business genius and the fortuitous markets of the Civil War it became a thriving institution and during the 1880's did a large export business, mainly to Ireland, one shipment in 1881 amounting to 13,000 barrels.

After the death of William Hayden in 1896, the business was conducted by his sons, William and Levi and when death again intervened by Levi alone and, in 1918, by his son-in-law, Perry Satterthwaite. After Perry Hayden graduated from college the mill was run by the "two Perrys" until a later re-organization permitted him to devote most of his time to his Dynamic Kernels project although he always retained his presidency of the company.

The original mill had burned in 1898 and when the business was transferred to its present site in 1927, the building which had replaced it was given to Henry Ford, who in turn replaced it by what was almost a replica of the early structure. The water rights of the location, however, have been retained by the Hayden company.

In June, 1925, Perry Hayden married Elizabeth Comfort of Tecumseh, a birthright Friend and although he had been reared an Episcopalian he turned his energies toward furthering the activities of the Tecumseh Friends Church.

He served the local church in many capacities, was a member of the board of the Cleveland Bible College and held office in the Ohio Yearly Meeting, acting as head of the committee on tithing.

It was his interest in this subject plus a sermon on the topic that gave him the inspiration for his wheat tithing program, which he called "Dynamic Kernels". Beginning in 1940 a cubic inch of seed wheat was given ceremonial planting on a plot of ground near the old Globe Mill. The yield, with one tenth deducted for the church, was replanted for six years in arithmetical progression until the final seeding covered 2,666 acres and yielded 72,150 bushels.

Each planting and harvest was more colorful than the one before and brought many notable people to the town, the best known be-

In Memory

A memorial fund in memory of Perry M. Hayden has been established by friends of his family.

The fund will be used to provide a set of bells or chimes in the tower of the Tecumseh Friends church.

The general public may make contributions to the fund through the Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the church, or Mrs. Naomi Sallows, treasurer of the church.

Board Seeks Permission To Sell East Branch School

Tecumseh District No. 7 electors will decide April 19 if they want the board of education to sell East Branch School. The board has set this date for the special election.

In November, 1951, Wilfred F. Clapp, Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction in charge of school organization and plants, visited Tecumseh to study the school building situation.

At that time he wrote to the Board of Education as follows:

"I would strongly recommend that any idea of building new school facilities on the East Branch school property be abandoned and that this property be sold. My reasons for this recommendation are: the present property is entirely inadequate in size and cannot readily be expanded; the property is located in the main east-and-west street of the town, an arterial state highway, this would bring about noise interference with the school and additional traffic hazards."

The board now wishes to dispose of the property since it has no value for school use.

The building has been concondemned for school purposes for years and is boarded up on the lower floor.

The lot has a frontage of 200 feet on Chicago Blvd. and 300 feet on N. Maumee and would make a fine location for a modern business, school officials feel.

Winner

Mrs. Mary L. Furgason, 212 S. Democrat St., office employee of the Tecumseh plant of Quaker Oats Co., won a $50 bond in a contest sponsored by the company which called attention to unnecessary government spending.

Eldon Pifer, Rt. 2, Adrian, was second prize which was a $25 bond.

Mrs. Furguson obtained 166 signatures of persons asked to write their Congressmen. It was part of the "I'm Gonna Howl about Unnecessary Government Spending. (IGHUGS)

Pifer obtained 56 signatures.

125 Hear Judge Kuney At PTA

One hundred and twenty-five parents and teachers attended their association meeting at the high school cafeteria last Thursday evening to hear a talk by Lenawee Probate Judge LaVon Kuney.

Judge Kuney told of the difficulties and satisfactions of his work and asked his audience for help so he might give better help to boys and girls who come under his charge.

One of his suggestions was that if Tecumseh could have an officer assigned to juvenile problems exclusively it would be of the greatest help to the youthful offenders.

He also said if supervisors could give him more than the two persons he now has for his work, resulting supervision would be of more value than later correction.

During the business meeting it was voted to send two delegates to the state convention in Saginaw April 27-28-29. None have as yet been appointed but president Mrs. Wotring would welcome offers from anyone eligible which includes all parents and teachers. Tecumseh is entitled to 21 votes.

It was announced that the spring leadership training meeting will be held at Milan April 7, also that the money making project for the year will be a combined card party and dance, tentative dates for which have been set for May 1 or 10. Proceeds will be used to start a fund for the purchase of playground equipment for Patterson School.

A nominating committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Max Smith, Mrs. Robert Bonner and Mrs. William Britton. Their report, the election of officers and their installation will take place at the next meeting as will all annual reports.

This will be held April 22 instead of the regular night of April 15 and the place will be the Patterson School.

Mrs. Frederick Dickinson and her committee of room mothers served refreshments.

Parish Nears Convent Goal

A business meeting of the St. Elizabeth building fund campaign workers was held in the Parish hall last Saturday and the Rev. Father Thomas Collins reported on the favorable response of business men and parishioners.

He reported $23,180 in cash and pledges toward the $30,000 goal needed for a convent. Of this total, $3,180 was realized from the special gifts fund drive.

This was the final week of the drive and 35 per cent of the parishioners were called on. The Rev. Father Collins said he feels certain the drive will be a success. The final meeting will be held in the Parish hall Saturday night, at 8 p.m. when all workers will turn in their final reports.

He commended the work of G. F. Lenzi, advisor and consultant; Wallace B. Whiting, chairman; Kenneth Connair, treasurer; and Joseph Dziachin, secretary for their efforts in helping St. Elizabeth's Parish achieve its goal.

LAD & LASSIE SHOP OPENS SATURDAY

Another new Tecumseh store will have its grand opening Saturday when the Lad & Lassie Shop, 140 Chicago Blvd. opens its doors to the public.

Owned by Mrs. Lucy Lawton, the store will sell wearing apparel for children from the infant stage to seven years.

The store will give free roses to all ladies visiting opening day.

Mrs. Lawton will be assisted in the store by Mrs. Grace Marsh and Mrs. Hugh Hanna.

Mrs. Lawton's granddaughter Nancy Ann Lawton will have charge of the guest book and distribution of the gift roses opening day.

Jack Osborn Elected President Of Jaycees

Jack Osborn is the first president of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce. He was elected at a meeting of the new group held in Tecumseh High school last Thursday night. Thirty Jaycees attended.

Other officers elected were: first vice-president, James Spooner; second vice-president, Edward Shank; secretary, Jack Colson; and treasurer, Merlyn Downing.

Members of the board elected were Karl Schneider, John Hamilton and William Powell to a two-year term; and Dick Eggleston, Donald Purkey and Jim Smith to a one-year term.

The following committees were appointed: membership, Harvey Wilson, chairman, and Garland Holmes and Donald Maves; publicity, Robert Williamson.

Guest Jaycees present were Patrick Finn, president of the Monroe Jaycees; George White, extension chairman; and Milton Knabusch, national director, both of Monroe.

Monthly meetings will be held at Don's Grill on the fourth Thursday of each month. Dinner will be served at 6:15 p.m.

All young men of good character between the ages of 21 and 35 are invited to join.

Reservations for the first dinner meeting which will be held tonight should be made to Merlyn Downing, Karl Schneider or Dick Colson.

Students Enroll For Kindergarten Week Of April 26

Parents of children who will be entering kindergarten in September are asked to enroll children during the week of April 26-30.

For convenience school officials have set the following schedule:

Monday, April 26, last names starting with letters A through F.

Tuesday, April 27, last names starting with letters G through L.

Wednesday, April 28, last name starting with letters M through Q.

Thursday, April 29, last names starting with letters N through V.

Friday, April 30, last names starting with letters W through Z and any who were unable to come before.

Parents may enroll their child by coming to the Central school office, N. Ottawa St., between the hours 1:30 and 4 p.m., bringing the birth certificate.

Laws of the State of Michigan provide, "Any child who first enters a public school must be five years old on or before Dec. 1."

"Your cooperation in enrolling your child at this time will aid us in our planning for next year," said Earl Greene, principal and elementary supervisor.

CHAIRMEN ARE NAMED FOR MICHIGAN WEEK

City Manager E. J. Nelson and Robert Wallace, president of the Village of Britton, have been named to conduct Michigan Week activities in the Tecumseh area.

Michigan Week will be observed throughout the state May 2 to 8 to promote Michigan's resources and activities.

Milton C. Porter of Adrian is county chairman.

Named to represent various organizations were M. H. Halley of Tecumseh, Lenawee County Farm Bureau; Mrs. Faun Platt of Tipton, Lenawee County Pomona Grange; Miss Josephine Brighenti of Adrian, Lenawee County Extension Clubs; James Coller of Adrian, Lenawee County CIO Council; and Fletcher Thornton, AFL.

Written Up

Tecumseh is the subject of an article in the April issue of "Inside Michigan" which comes out Friday.

The article, written by Kent Sagendorph, and highlighted by pictures, analyzes some of the transition problems confronting the new city.

ROTARY WILL SHOW ROSE BOWL PICTURES

Pictures of Michigan State College's football victory in the Rose Bowl last Jan. 1 will be shown by the Tecumseh Rotary Club at the Tecumseh Country Club next Tuesday night following the regular meeting of Rotary.

A member of the MSC coaching staff will describe the action.

The public is invited to attend.

BPW Club Hears Allan Seager

Allan Seager, author, was guest speaker at the March meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club Monday evening.

He was introduced by Miss Ruth Harding wto gave some of the highlights of his career, including the fact that he was a Rhodes Scholar, a successful novelist and short story writer, former editor of Vanity Fair magazine and at present is professor of English at the University of Michigan.

Mr. Seager's talk included the "do's" and "dont's" of short story writing as illustrated by incidents of his own experience. He read his first and probably his best known short story, "The Street," telling of the various plagiarisms through which it has passed and sketching the personal experiences that had formed its background.

He quoted statistics to prove that more than a third of his audience were would-be writers.

There were 62 members and guests present, the latter including Mrs. Conrad Fosbender, Tecumseh's new librarian. During the business meeting it was announced that two members were expected to attend the special polio meeting March 25, and a questionnaire from the County Federation to determine the club of the year was discussed.

President Mrs. George Hay appointed Mrs. George French, Mrs. Frank Laskey and Mrs. Nina Heath as a nominating committee to report at the next meeting.

Hostesses were Miss Harding, Miss Gertrude Spaulding and Mrs. Frank Laskey.

Tables were decorated with beautiful arrangements of pastel snapdragons and sweet peas.

COMMUNITY FUND BOARD TO MEET NEXT MONDAY

A regular meeting of the Tecumseh Community Fund Board will be held at United Savings Bank next Monday, March 29, at 8 p.m. These meetings are for the purpose of planning the use of money contributed by local citizens and should be of interest to all.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Uses Rest Rooms, Steals Sweater

A well-dressed woman about 20 stopped at five homes in the W. Pottawatamie area Sunday morning selling magazines to sponsor a trip to Hawaii.

In every home she asked to use the rest room and in the process she stole a valuabe sweater from the Keith Barron home, 216 W. Pottawatamie.

Tecumseh Police were alerted but she was not found.

Police are continuing their investigation.

Presbyterian Men Attend Conference

Bill Hanna, president of the local chapter, John Hamilton, vice president, Harold Hammel, treasurer, Otto Meiers, Al Merz and the Rev. George Walworth attended the sixth annual meeting of the National Council of Presbyterian Men held in Chicago last weekend.

"Thy kingdom come . . . on earth" was the theme of the meeting.

More than 2,500 delegates from the eastern and central states attended.

Outstanding leaders appearing on the program included Judge Luther W. Youngdahl, of the United States District Court, Washington, D. C., who addressed one of the largest religious luncheons ever held.

Disintegration of the American family with its resultant threats to a strong and free America was the theme of the former governor of Minnesota.

"Where the family disintegrates communism and demonic schemes become rampant. Ultimately the consequences are chaos and war," Youngdahl said.

On the other hand, the Washington jurist pointed to a "developing spiritual renaissance," with "the big event of our age a spiritual something that has been growing in the heart of men. Even secular organizations recognize the necessity of religion."

CLERK - CARRIER POSITION OPEN

Restrictions have been lifted to provide for acceptance of applications from persons regardless of their residence for the position of substitute clerk-carrier at the local post office, according to Postmaster Jack Metcalf.

Applications will be accepted until April 15 and full information regarding hours, wages and duties may be obtained from the postmaster.

C of C Plans For July 4th

At their regular meeting Tuesday night the board of directors of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce authorized the expenditure of $1,000 for a Fourth of July fireworks display and discussed reorganizational plans.

Because the 4th falls on Sunday this year, the display will be held on the recreation field the evening of July 5th.

The board also named Miss Marjorie Wickwire as the first chairman of the board under a new rotating plan.

Elmer Eberhardt was named treasurer and Dick Eggleston and Jim Beardsley were named to serve for three years each on the board.

Glenn Kohler was named chairman of the membership committee and Dick Eggleston was appointed to the budget committee.

In addition to those named the other members of the board are Harold Easton, Harold Green and Russ Garno. Mrs. Edna Staulter is secretary.

Knights of Pythias Dedicate New Hall

The new Castle Hall of Lodge No. 190 Knights of Pythias and of Josephine H. Hall Temple No. 49 of the Pythian Sisters was formally dedicated Friday evening.

Ceremonies were in charge of Grand Officers of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, who included the Grand Chancellor, Edmund Unger, of Ovid; the First Grand Chancellor Frank Henderson of Plymouth; Vice-Chancellor, Carl Huhn, Detroit; Master at Arms, Harry Pattison, Pontiac; Inner Guard, Clarence Smith, Pontiac; Outer Guard, Andrew Jackson, Ann Arbor and Grand Secretary, Charles Andress, Ypsilanti.

Mr. Anders, Mr. Henderson and Mr. Smith are all past grand officers.

Mr. Murray Wanty of Ann Arbor was a guest.

Mesdames Unger, Henderson, Pattison and Smith accompanied their husbands. Local officers of the Knights and Sisters were in the chairs and were introduced.

After the ceremonies, brief talks were given by several of the grand officers, by Mrs. Henry F. Kempf, Most Exalted Chief of Josephine H. Hall Temple Pythian Sisters and Arthur Bowser, Chancellor Commander of Knights of Pythias.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kempf, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kempf, Mr. and and Mrs. Robert Wood, Mrs. B. E. Brees and Arthur Bowser.

The Castle Hall is the former Palman home on the corner of Pearl and Pottawatamie, originally built by Webster Anderson.

CADDIES ARE NEEDED AT COUNTRY CLUB

Leo Bishop, golf pro, needs boys from 12 to 16 to serve as caddies at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Outlining advantages of caddying, he said caddies at the club are taught and encouraged to act like gentlemen, they have fine recreational facilities at their disposal, they make contacts with leading business and professional men, they learn to play golf through professional instruction and at special times they can play golf at the course.

Caddies at Tecumseh Country Club also may apply for college scholarships under the Evans Scholars Foundation.

Boys who wish to caddy may call 5-M or 510-M.

CAR CATCHES FIRE

PERRY HAYDEN — Widely known for his dynamic kernels, Perry Hayden was a dynamic personality.

His book and movie "God Is My Landlord" were read and shown throughout the country. Through his dynamic kernels project and his book and movie, he was the foremost promoter of his town — the place he loved so very much.

But few persons outside Tecumseh knew as well as did his many close friends that Perry Hayden was a dynamo working for the community good. In addition to his wheat his dynamic energy cut across many fields of community endeavor and he harvested a rich supply of personal satisfaction from these contributions.

His long and sincere interest in his town, his active support of his church, his insight into politics and his sensitive approach to human relations will be missed by those who are left to carry on.

CRITIQUE — Weeks after the March 8 voting one still hears comments such as "I wonder where they will strike next."

Persons making these statements refer to the so-called anti group that was against fluoridation of the city water.

The HERALD still thinks that all of us should forget the March 8 election and carry on in a united way to help in solving more pressing problems.

This is not to say that comment concerning vital issues should be driven underground. In a FAIR exchange of ideas we all stand to learn and to benefit.

Those in public office need not be afraid of this type of criticism. First, it is an occupational hazard that goes with the office.

Secondly, most of this criticism, it is hoped, will be of a constructive nature. Thirdly, those in public office who know sincerely that they are putting forth their best efforts for the good of ALL need have no fear.

Voltaire once wrote: "I may not agree with what you have to say, but I will defend until death your right to say it."

GOOD LUCK — The U. S. Navy has a two-word summary of praise for men who do an outstanding job. These words are "Well done."

We almost can use these words about R. W. Herrick stepping up to the chairman of the board's position at Tecumseh Products Company.

The words could be used without any reservation if Mr. Herrick were really retiring. But, as he says, "I'm not out to pasture yet. I'm good for 10 or 15 more years."

In 22 years as president of the company, he has done well and in his present capacity as chairman of the board he will continue to do well in bringing many years of valuable experience to his advisory role.

The HERALD welcomes Mr. Joseph Layton as president and Mr. Paul Hohenstein as treasurer and hopes they will enjoy many happy and full years here, both in their company and in the community.

And we sincerely wish that the Tecumseh Products Company will have a long and prosperous future.

Letter To The Editor

To the Editor:

I wish to commend you for the splendid way in which you presented the letters on the fluoridation controversy. My humble thanks to God for the deliverance from that atrocious water through the men and women who believe in American principles and Christian brotherhood. Unafraid and dignified, they fought a good clean fight for the democratic way of settling a question so vital to everyone.

Thank you Mr. and Mrs. Bryan and the Anti-Fluoridation committee. God bless you for a job well done. I do hope a lesson has been learned by those governing Tecumseh to weigh carefully the decisions they make when all of the citizens are concerned on matters of public interest.

But my heart really did go out to the mothers of unborn children for the misery they were caused by the water and my appreciation is untold for the fortunate ones with a good well of water which they shared with the sick and aged.

The real American people are ready to listen but cannot be driven. I guess they have inherited that from their forefathers. Using little children to distribute factional bills and cheap tooth brush advertising is hardly the way to settle an important question.

If I had not lived here as long as I have I would not write this letter, but I feel like an old timer with that privilege.

"It's hard to know what price to put on our place," Mrs. Eaton said. "Years ago we bought it for a song, but we had to sing it ourselves."

In other words, they acquired it in 1932, built up the property with many improvements, and kept on with the payments through "thick and thin."

She continued, "We want to price it so that it is worth the money. We have a total of about $11,000 in it."

"Of course," I said, "some of the improvements you've made may be of a maintenance nature which don't add value, but merely preserves the value that is already there."

"Yes," she replied, "and one or two changes were pleasing to us but I doubt if they added value. Chalk those off to personal whims.

"Also, we know a home depreciates over 20 years due to weathering, use and style changes. We are willing to charge off the depreciation as 'rent.' It doesn't amount to very much because general values increased over that time."

"How does $9,000 sound as a selling price?" she asked.

"The figure I had in mind," I said. "With your reasonable attitude, your place can't help but sell."

May we discuss selling your property too?

Christian Science Services Listed

The value of humility, patience, and obedience in learning the nature of spiritual reality and in experiencing the divine healing power will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Reality."

The challenging definition of worship given by the prophet Micah (6:6, 8) will be included in the readings from the Bible:

"Wherewith shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? . . . He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

Among the selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following:

"What we most need is the prayer of fervent desire for growth in grace, expressed in patience, meekness, love, and good deeds. To keep the commandments of our Master and follow his example, is our proper debt to him and the only worthy evidence of our gratitude for all that he has done. Outward worship is not of itself sufficient to express loyal and heartfelt gratitude, since he has said: 'If ye love me, keep my commandments'" (4:3).

MRS. W. R. TAYLOR TO PORTRAY HOLY FAMILY AT METHODIST W.S.C.S.

The W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church will present a special morning program, March 31, to which the public is invited. Breakfast will be served at 9:30 for fifty cents and at 10:30 Mrs. W. R. Taylor of Toledo will present living pictures portraying the Holy Family. Mrs. Taylor will be remembered as the guest speaker at a meeting of the Monday Club last year and her presentations are in the style of Cornelia Otis Skinner, with whom she has studied. Those who cannot attend the breakfast will be welcome at the later program.

HARMONY HOMEMAKERS

An all day work meeting, making cancer pads, was the activity of the Harmony Homemakers Club last Wednesday. They met at the home of Mrs. Kennard Wise in Tecumseh and enjoyed their usual potluck dinner at 12:30. Mrs. Thomas Murphy and Miss Edna Gamboe assisted Mrs. Wise. There were two guests in addition to 23 members, who welcomed back Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and Miss Alma Moray both of whom have been unable to attend for several months because of illness.

The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Claude Sebring on Pennington road.

OVER FIFTY GROUP

"Expressions Peculiar to Localities" was the topic of the discussion at the meeting of the Over Fifty Group, last Friday, which followed the usual noonday potluck luncheon. It proved unusually interesting as everyone present took part, telling of examples of folk-speech brought into this and other localities. Favorite Irish stories also provoked much merriment.

A feature of the meeting was the table favors in St. Patrick's theme which had been made especially for the occasion by the Brownie Scout Troop whose leaders are Mrs. M. H. Smith and Mrs. Richard Duffin.

Cub Scout Pack Forms New Den

Ninety members, leaders, parents and guests met Monday evening in the Presbyterian Fellowship Center for the March meeting of Cub Scout Pack 73.

Before the opening ceremony, Cubmaster James Naugle announced to the parents changes made in the dens and the organizing of a new den, made up of eight year olds who are just starting Cubbing. The new den will be Den 10 and is made up of Charles Saling, Steve Freckelton, Michael Rice, Charles Squires and Gregg Smith. These boys will be under the leadership of Mrs. Charles O'Neill, who will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Squires. They will meet each Wednesday at 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. O'Neill, 205 W. Bidwell street.

The boys being transferred are Wayne Davis, Michael Rohrer and Jimmy Ripley into Den 11, led by Mrs. R. C. Osburn, and they will meet at the Fellowship Center at 4 p.m. on Thursday.

Larry Titley, Terry Reister and Bruce King go to Den 3, led by Mrs. Charles Stevenson. They will meet in the cabin Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Mrs. Orville Bishop is taking Den 8, with Mrs. Luther Kemp assisting, and their meeting place will be the Methodist church at 4 p.m. on Thursday.

The regular opening ceremonies then followed with the American flag being presented by Tom Tressler, den chief and the pack flag by den chief, Barry Packard, the singing of America and the Pledge of Allegiance.

"The Mail Goes Through," the March theme, was then presented in a series of skits. "The Pony Express" by Den 11; "Stage Coach and Trains," Den 3; "Airplanes," Den 1 and "The Modern Postoffice," Den 8.

Gene and Jerry Creger were welcomed into the pack and presented with Bobcat pins.

Awards presented were Lion badges to Jerome Kemp, David Langham and Jimmy Ripley; Bear badges to Michael Rohrer with one gold and one silver arrow; Larry Titley with two silver arrows; Kent Naugle with one gold arrow; Larry Flowers with one silver arrow; Richard Meads with silver arrow; Wolf badges to Norman Grigg, Barry Hall, Larry Harper, Paul Limes, Larry McLain, Michael Osburn, Donald Sniffen and Charles Wilson.

A den-chief cord was presented to Tom Tressler and a one year service star to Den chief Jerry Robinette.

A graduating ceremony was held for Jerome Kemp and David Lapham who have completed their three years of Cubbing. The living circle was formed at closing and the benediction given by the den chiefs.

MUSIC CLUB PLANS MUSICAL TEA

The Music Club was delightfully entertained by its junior organization, the Fiddle Sticks Club, at the March meeting last week. Mrs. Herbert Dillon was hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. G. Waldron and Miss Edith Ingersoll and the business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Thomas Gallant.

Plans were made for a musical tea to be given during National Music week, May 2 to 9, and Mrs. Duane Service was appointed chairman of the event.

Officers for the coming year were presented by the nominating committee and were elected to take office in September. They are: President, Mrs. George Schippers; vice president, Mrs. Arthur Schwartz; secretary, Mrs. George Wittrup, treasurer, Mrs. Murray Day; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Perry Hayden; librarian, Miss Edith Ingersoll and directors, Mrs. R. S. Moore and Mrs. Thomas Gallant.

The program, planned and presented by the junior club, under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Schwartz and Mrs. Lester Runk, was in the form of a television show. It had all the formalities of announcer and sponsor, the latter being "Casey's Coffins" on station STIFF and the advertising was amusingly appropriate to the product.

Seen and heard through a television screen, the numbers included a clarinet solo by Gerald Kruse; selections on the cornet by Nancy Day; piano solos by Sylvia Bushe, Sally Hunt, Carol Finnegan and Betty Day; a clarinet duet by Loha Nichols and Jean Wagner; a vocal solo sung by Sharon Muhn and a vocal trio made up of Joan Crawford, Janet Harris and Carol Lynn Runk.

Mrs. Dillon and her assistant hostesses served refreshments at the end of the musical program.

Grade School News

Grade 1 — Patterson
Mrs. Faling

Hello again! Do you feel good like we do these nice sunny days? We have been talking about signs of Spring. Things are beginning to "pop" out all over and we have been watching them closely. Every day we talk a few minutes about the things we've seen that tell us Spring is on its way. We have a tree branch in water in our room that is beginning to open. Also we have some pussy willows; real ones and some we made ourselves from chalk.

This month was our month for the display in the show case. We enjoyed planning for it and making the things for it. We are happy to have a chance to show the other children at Patterson what we can do!

The "Jets," "Ships" and "Pilots" are reading in their "Fun With Dick and Jane" books now. They enjoy their new "Think and Do" books, too, and are trying very hard to do better in this one. Many of us are troubled with our "w" words but we hope to learn them soon. The "Indians" will soon be in their primers, too and then they will enjoy the same stories.

In arithmetic we are learning to count by twos. We find it much easier and faster this way. We enjoy using our markers for this and most of us can count quickly.

We have finished our first writing books and will soon begin our second one. We each wrote a story about our family and we are so happy to be able to spell so many words.

For St. Patrick's Day we each made a shamrock and wore it all day long. Also, we each colored and cut out a little Irish boy with his pony cart of shamrocks. We really helped the Irish celebrate their day.

Every Thursday afternoon we go to the school library to enjoy the books. Some of us can read parts of them.

We have a new girl in our room. Her name is April Warren and she came from Lapeer. Now we have thirty-six boys and girls. Her birthday was this month, too and she was seven years old.

Before we leave you again, we want to thank everyone for coming to our open house. We were so glad you came to see our beautiful new school. Now you know why we are such happy little folks! Also we wish to thank the American Legion Auxiliary for giving us the flag for our room. Bye for now; see you again next month.

Grade 1
Miss Warner

Hello everyone!

We got to put a display in the display case this month. We made a scene showing boys and girls flying kites. Each of us made a figure out of pipe cleaners and we used scraps of paper or cloth to make their clothes. We also made a kite for our boy or girl. Some of us made the houses and trees to put on the back of the case.

On St. Patrick's Day we all colored a shamrock and then we pinned it on our shoulder to wear all day.

Kindergarten—Brownville
Mrs. Heimerdinger

We are busy building a grocery store. Everyone is very anxious to complete it so that we can play in it. We are becoming acquainted with real money. We know the nickel, dime, quarter, penny, and half-dollar.

On our bulletin board is a display of signs of spring. We copied pussywillows from our bouquet and made butterflies with movable wings.

Each of us has made a number chart using the numbers one to five, with objects illustrating them.

We have celebrated quite a number of birthdays with treats. One treat was a cake made like a train, and we enjoyed it very much.

Recently, for a paper cutting project we cut pictures of Mrs. Heimerdinger's farm. Now we are planning a field trip there soon.

Grade 1
Mrs. Sclater

Spring is here—so our room looks. We all made kites for the room to show how the March winds are needed to make the kites move.

In Science we are studying about the different types of weather. We have a calendar that we are drawing with a sun, an umbrella, clouds, or snowflakes to show what each day this month is like.

We have started our new "Talk, Spell, and Write" books. This is Book Two. We hope that we enjoy this book as much as we did our first book.

On St. Patrick's Day we made finger puppets and then danced to an Irish jig. We invited all of the first grade rooms and Mr. Greene in to see our puppets dance.

We have made safety posters for our room. These show some of the safety rules that we keep going to and from school and on the playground.

Some of our children are out with the measles. We all hope that they will be back with us soon.

West Branch—Grade 1
Miss Steinhoff

With the turn of the season into spring many of us are ready to read the next reader "Our New Friends." We have turned our bulletin board into a spring scene. There are trees bursting into bloom with some colorful birdhouses placed on poles. Soaring above these we see blue birds and red birds. We first graders had a lot of fun making the birds. Also parts of the picture are labeled to help us learn the new words.

Each Tuesday, as you probably have learned, we have "Tell Day." Last Tuesday Bobby Meier brought a very interesting shell collection to school. We saw some real coral which came from the ocean.

St. Patrick's Day brought us two surprises. We learned that St. Patrick was born in Scotland on either March 8 or 9, but since nobody knew which the two numbers were added and we celebrate his birthday on March 17.

Raymond Schmidt hasn't been with us for a week because he broke his collar bone while playing at home.

Dennis Beemer, Russell Jennings, Faith Penrod and Roger Beal have had the measles.

Grade 1
Mrs. Neitling

St. Patrick's Day was a busy and exciting one for us. The children from Mrs. Buttolph's room visited us. They showed us how an Irish Jig is done. Mrs. Slater's room inivited us to see how their puppets could dance. We talked about St. Patrick and made shamrocks to wear on our jackets.

Many of us are reading the third unit in "Our New Friends." This is our most difficult book, but we are glad that we have worked hard because now we find that we can read many little books without any help.

We have played many games with our alphabet. Most of us know the sounds of all the consonants, and also know many rhyming words.

We have been drawing pictures and writing stories of our own about the pictures. This is fun. We read some of the stories we have written to the class.

Linda Ostrum is new in our room. She came from Adrian. We are happy to have her with us.

Many children have been absent this week. We hope they will soon be back with us.

Kindergarten—Patterson
Mrs. Updike

We have had twenty of our children ill with measles and we will be so glad when they are able to be back in school.

Our beautiful room is beginning to look like Spring time. We have made a white fence and now many pretty flowers are peeking over the top.

Hanky Howard brought us a bird house and Penny Parrott some pussy willows for our Spring corner.

Our reading readiness work keeps us busy. We like to find things that are alike and things that are different. Our first lesson was a toy shop with the toys on the shelves. The toy that was different on each shelf we encircled with a crayon.

We have a new pump for our acquarium and we like to watch the bubbles come up from the bottom. Our fish like it too, however, one of our beautiful blue tetrus fish died. We hope to have some Zebra fish that Mrs. Updike showed us pictures of. Many of us can tell when the thermometer in our acquarium says "75." Then we know that the water is just right for them and we can turn the heater off. During the month of March we have been interested in "things that go." The wind, trains, turtles, boats, airplanes and animals. We have made many of these things. Phillip Baker is a fine turtle maker. All he needs is a half of a grapefruit and his turtles really look like they could go.

We are planning on making our own Easter hats to wear in our Easter Parade.

Kindergarten—West Branch
Miss Bugbee

Spring is here! You'd really think so if you looked in our room. We have some pretty tulips and daffodils. For our color chart we have birds flying with the name of the color under it. We are marking the days on our calendar with pretty kites.

Among the songs which we have learned this month are "The Little Teapot" and the "Alphabet Song," which we enjoy very much. We are learning to recognize the letters of the alphabet.

We have been very much interested in the Dutch people, and have learned several songs and little rhymes about them. When we sing the song "The Windmill" we choose partners and pretend that we are windmills. We had some wooden shoes from Rotterdam, and each one of us had fun trying them on. We decided that we would rather wear our own shoes.

During the last month we have had several absent from our group with the measles. We are always happy to see our friends back with us.

We are enjoying our new game "Pretend Teacher" for conversation time. We count 10 name cards and that person is the "pre-

Barbara Schoeck Wed In Royal Oak

A wedding of interest to Tecumseh residents was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church, Royal Oak, Saturday, when Barbara Ellen Schoeck became the bride of Dr. John D. Lynch. Barbara is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Harris of Tecumseh and Dr. Lynch is the son of Mrs. Frances Lynch of Two Rivers, Wisc.

The Rev. R. Rieman, D.D., officiated at the double ring ceremony performed before an altar decorated with large vases of white gladioli. Mrs. Myron Platt, as soloist, sang "Because" and "Calm as the Night."

Given in marriage by her uncle, the bride chose a gown of white lace and nylon tulle, with lace bodice and long fitted sleeves. Wide bands of lace and nylon tulle fashioned the skirt, and a fingertip veil of net fell from a cap of lace and satin. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Mrs. David Platt of Royal Oak, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Mrs. Thomas Schoeck Jr., also of Royal Oak, was bridesmaid. The bride asked her sister, Miss Dianne Schoeck to be junior bridesmaid. Little Karen Schoeck, her niece, was flower girl.

Gowns of the attendants were all in pastel shades and ballerina length. Mrs. Platt wore pastel orchid and the bridesmaid's was green, while the junior bridesmaid and flower girl were gowned in yellow. All carried arm bouquets of yellow carnations except the flower girl, who had a basket of daisies.

Dr. Lynch was attended by David Platt as best man and ushers were Norman Lynch, brother of the groom and Terry Arndt, brother-in-law, both of Two Rivers, Wisc.

Mrs. Harris chose for her niece's wedding a dress of biege lace with pink accessories. Mrs. Lynch wore a blue dress with blue and white accessories. Their corsages were of roses and carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Platt in Royal Oak for 90 guests. A four-tiered wedding cake topped by the traditional miniature bride and groom was served by Mrs. Thomas Schoeck Jr. The coffee service was presided over by Mrs. Myron Platt and Myron Platt was at the punch bowl. Guests were present from Two Rivers and Milwaukee, Wisc., and from Tecumseh, Brooklyn, Climax, Lansing, Flint and Ann Arbor.

The newly-weds left by plane for a ten day trip to Miami, Fla., the bride wearing a gray suit and her orchid corsage.

The new Mrs. Lynch is a graduate of Tecumseh high school in 1949, making her home in Tecumseh since the death of her mother in 1936, and is now a senior in the University of Michigan School of Nursing. Dr. Lynch graduated from the medical school of Marquette University, Milwaukee. Wisc., and is now resident physician at University hospital, Ann Arbor, where the couple will reside.

THE RENT VAIL

BY THE REV. L. H. MAC PHERSON
PASTOR OF THE TECUMSEH ASSEMBLY OF GOD

And Jesus cried with a loud voice and gave up the Ghost, and the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

The vail was rent while hanging between Heaven and Earth. The Son of God hung between Heaven and Earth on a Roman cross. Jesus was referring to the cross when he said, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth will draw all men unto me."

The vail was rent from top to bottom. Such rending could not come from man. Since it came from above it was the act of God.

Jesus said, "I lay down my life that I might take it again, no man taketh it from me." It was God and not man who smote him. David prophesied of Jesus through the Spirit. Thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

The hand of God cut Jesus off. He weakened my strength in the way, He shortened my days. It pleased the Lord to bruise him; He hath put him to grief, Thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin.

The vail was rent at the hour of the evening sacrifice — which would be three o'clock in the afternoon. About the ninth hour Jesus cried, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

At the same hour the evening sacrificial lamb was on the altar in the temple, also the lamb of the passover was being sacrificed in the court of the temple. And here was Jesus the true passover, the Lamb of God, dying on the cross. Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. The vail was rent — the moment He cried, "It is finished."

As He hung on the cross He could see the smoke from the altar, and He knew He was Himself the true passover of God; He knew all things foretold of Him upon the cross were now fulfilled, and then it was, lifting up His voice with the accent of triumph, knowing he had met every condition agreed upon in the everlasting covenent, He cried as a conqueror cries. His voice ringing up to the very throne of God on high, It is finished.

The cry was full of authority and command, and the centurion responded to the command. And when the centurion, which stood over against Him saw that He so cried out, and gave up the Ghost, He said, "truly this man was the Son of God."

When the vail was rent it was changed from a barrier to an open way into the Holy of Holies When He arose from the dead and ascended to Heaven, He took His place as the second man — the last Adam; the eternal life giver, and has the right to impart His life and nature to all who would own that sacrifice.

Out of His death we have eternal life, but like the high priest we must come with the blood of atonement. The high priest on the day of atonement went within the vail, but must stand, showing that the sacrifice was not complete and must be repeated.

It could never make the comers thereunto perfect. But when Jesus as the true High Priest, entered Heaven with His own sacrificial blood — He sat down at the right hand of God. This was a witness that his sacrifice had been accepted, was perfect, finished, and was once for all, all sufficient. His sacrifice will not be in vain if we take the advice He gave to Nicodemus, "Ye must be born again."

tend teacher." He may call on just five people to tell good news. We really have to remember our numbers that way.

On our birthday bulletin board we have a pot of tulips. Each tulip has the name of a person who has a birthday this month. The names are Elvia and Lynn Gomez, Marsha Curth, Sharon Beemer, Linda Brazee and David Phillips. We liked the refreshments which their mothers sent us.

Our visitors have been Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Curth, and Mrs. Sisty.

We were sorry that the twins Gale and Dale Barnes have left us. They moved to Tipton. We are happy to have Linda Wheeler, who just moved here from Ohio, in our room. We now have 56.

Our Kindograph workbook keeps us pretty busy. We have finished three units in it. We have worked with likenesses and differences, nursery rhymes, stories, numbers, and nature study in it. It is fun to have a book of our very own.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Club Women Hear History Of Dolls

Dolls, new and old, local and foreign, home made and costly held the stage at the March meeting of the Monday Club. Mrs. Nellie Bender of Ann Arbor was guest speaker and entertained the fifty members present with the history of dolls over the years and interesting items regarding their manufacture and repair.

Mrs. Bender, who is an artist in many fields, including oils, water color, china painting, ceramics and wood carving, specializes in ceramic repairs for old dolls.

Members also brought in personal dolls for the display, which included a collection belonging to Mrs. Stephan Illeck, brought by Mrs. Ted LaBounty. These were fabric dolls made by a Euorpean displaced girl with whom Mrs. Illeck had worked in Germany and were cleverly fashioned in various native costumes out of discarded scraps of material.

The meeting was held in the recently remodeled Pythian Hall and during the business meeting it was voted to hold future meetings in the same place. The president, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara appointed Mrs. Howard Truesdale and Mrs. Leon Johnston as representatives of the club for the special polio meeting to be held March 25 at the Fellowship Center, and it was announced that the April 5 spring luncheon would be held in the Methodist church parlors.

Mrs. T. Rentschler, who has charge of the program for the luncheon, announced that local talent would replace that expected from the University of Michigan. Mrs. Earl Greene will have charge of table decorations and Mrs. Vevia Connor and Mrs. Claire Beland are the ticket committee.

The date of the trip to the Toledo Art Museum for the Van Gogh exhibit has been set for April 21, with Miss Lillian Cannon in charge of transportation arrangements. Non-club members may participate in this tour and a bus will be chartered if numbers warrant.

Mrs. Lynn Hubbard was appointed as head of the auditing committee.

The meeting was closed with a religious thought in the inimitable manner of Miss Edith Ingersoll and the hostesses, Mrs. Seaton Dove, Mrs. C. W. Allen, Mrs. Don Cleveland, Mrs. George Bunch, Mrs. Clarence Beach, Mrs. Clarence Aebersold, Mrs. Elmer Pocklington and Mrs. Ira Ashley served refreshments, with Mrs. Beach and Mrs. Bunch at the tea urns.

The Cars That Are Setting The Style Trend

PACKARD'S advanced contour styling means more car for your money now . . . more money for your car when you trade it in. It's styling that stays in style — a new concept of design pioneered and perfected by Packard. This advanced contour styling . . . with its bold, sweeping lines, high-level fenders and low hood . . . is setting the trend in automotive design today. It's a functional beauty that gives you greater visibility front and back, puts you in a position to drive more comfortably, more relaxed. It's so typically Packard . . . with a look of quality, dignity, character . . . an advanced style-setting look that is far more than skin deep . . . that Packard look.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Great music lifts us above the level of mere animal-like living and delivers us to the spell of exalted emotion. The human soul craves harmony, it responds to sound. While listening to good music, it is well to abandon other activities and to concentrate mind and feelings upon the creation of a master, because, in the lines of William James Price,

There lives more music in the universe
Than man has knowledge of.
To catch the notes
From choirs invisible, the ear must be
Attuned to finer sounds and syllables
Than bird or brook can utter.
Ear intent
To measure only mortal melodies
Will never hear divine . . .
There lives truth, beauty, love
And good in everything, could we but see
With perfect vision, lift our spirits far
Beyond the pale of blind mortality,
And see the dwellers of God's universe
As thoughts of God, eternal and divine.

The taste for great music can be cultivated, even by those whose sensitivities have been blunted by frequent exposure to the jangle and rattle of music so-called. There is music which makes its appeal to the physical senses, and there is music which releases high aspiration and undergirds high decision. When listening to great music on the radio and television, it is well to turn off the frantic appeals to buy this brand of toothpaste or that brand of soap. Recorded music enables one to become absorbed in the listening and to avoid the distractions of advertising.

To catch the notes from choirs invisible, tht ear must be attuned to finer sounds and syllables.

Britton F.F.A. Sells Garden Seed

The Britton-Deerfield Future Farmers are selling garden seeds which are acquired from the Farm Bureau.

This is an annual project. Half of their goal has been reached and the sales campaign closes March 31.

If anyone is interested in good quality seeds they may see any Britton-Deerfield Future Farmer member.

The Club also is raising beef steers for a group project. These steers are financed by the F.F.A. club treasury to give feeding and managing experience in livestock. The project also contributes to the financial support of the club.

The junior and senior agriculture classes have been repairing farm machinery and building farm equipment in their farm mechanics class.

The sophomore class is studying practices necessary for spring farm work. The work includes crop varieties, fitting a seed bed and the testing, germination, inoculation and treating of seed.

BRITTON VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE NEWS

The Adult Classes will close their meetings for the year with an annual Adult Class Banquet, Tuesday, March 31, 7 p.m. at the Britton-Macon school cafeteria. This banquet is the climax of the adult classes. A certificate will be received by those enrolled and best attendance.

The Adult Farmer Class has discussed soils, crops, marketing, harvesting and storing grain during the past 10 weeks.

The adult farm mechanics class ended March 23. The class has included welding lessons and wood working projects. The class has been composed of 10 farmers who learned how to weld with the arc welder and the oxyacetylene welder. Learning how to make different kinds of welds was stressed. The wood working projects were useful articles for the home.

The Look of Tomorrow

This low-lined glamor car is the stunning new 1954 Buick SPECIAL—now V8-powered to a record high—and priced just a few dollars above the "low-price three."

lets you see better today

NEVER before its introduction by Buick did you see a windshield like this on a standard-production automobile.

It comes from the experimental "dream cars" you may have seen pictured from time to time—but it's on every 1954 Buick today.

As you can see, this broadly arching sweep of glass adds new beauty and a definite look of tomorrow to the glamorous new Buick.

Even more, this stunning new windshield treatment gives you 19% more visibility—because it pulls back the corners, lets you see as a pilot sees.

But there's a lot more than "dream car" windshields to the new-day 1954 Buicks.

For these are really new cars—with new bodies, new interiors, new ride features, new handling ease—and, above all, new record-high V8 horsepowers.

Come in and look them over—sit in, sample and price one of these breath-taking new glamor Buicks. It's the only way to know what beautiful buys they are in every way.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

What purported to be a meeting of the nursing staff of Herrick Memorial hospital at the home of Mrs. James Spooner Monday evening, proved instead to be a birthday party which was a complete surprise to one of the members. Miss Beth Satterthwaite, whose birthday occurred on that day, was the honored guest and she was the recipient of a gift of luggage from the group. Thirty of the hospital nurses were present and there was a decorated birthday cake and all the traditional trimmings.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

Warning — if you take your amateur spring poetry seriously, if you like it "modern" and obscure — this is not for you.

But, if you like it to jingle, with rhyme and meter as obvious as its meaning, then — welcome reader.

After the recent March blizzard those drivers who dared look up from the road ahead long enough to glance across the fields along the creek, saw an odd and lovely picture. Hazy clouds of soft gold seemed to follow the hidden water with here and there a blur of dull crimson close to the snow-covered earth. Winter still had the harassed motorist in an icy grip but the willows knew that spring was on the way.

The willow waits, her golden mist
Tightly clutched, in slim brown fist.
She will loose her fingers and toss it free,
Her lovely treasure, so all may see,
When the first seductive, silver note
Swells from the first song sparrow's throat.
And, careless how the redbud spills
Over the slopes of the southern hills
Or where the drifting dog-wood falls,
Spring will come to us
When the willow calls.

Cub Pack Presents Parade Of Months

The March meeting of Cub Scout Pack 4 was held Monday evening at the Baptist Youth House. The theme for the evening was "The Parade of the Months" with Cubmaster Rinehardt Radant announcing the program.

The various dens presented appropriate skits of the months as follows—Den 2, with Mrs. Rutherford as leader, assisted by Mrs. Deaner and Mrs. McCombs; January — Father Time, Allen Hizer; The Clock, Kent Lucas; Baby New Year, Ronnie Baxter; February—Edison, Gary Honeycutt; Washington, Jack Rutherford; Lincoln, Bradley McCombs; March—Income Tax Report, Michael Deaner; Dead Line, Larry Easton; Aspirin, Craig Rosacrans.

Den 4, led by Mrs. Beevers, assisted by Mrs. Truesdale, April Showers, Phillip Head and Larry Meyers; mother, Robert Jedele, son, Brian Packard; June—bride, Billy Truesdale, groom, Kenneth Beevers, ringbearer, Michael Hannah.

Den 7, led by Mrs. Dixon, assisted by Mrs. Blanden, July—parade, David Blanden and David Crosby; August—baseball game, Ronnie Dixon, John Britton and Tom Smith; September—salute to labor and management—United Products Workers, John Hartley and Robert Wilbar.

Den 9, led by Mrs. Radant, assisted by Mrs. Miller; October—Halloween. Robert Peck and Roger Mikesell; November—Pilgrims, David Grigg, Grant Baughey and Elden Miller; Indians, Phillip Radant and Ricky Brunger; December — Santa Claus, Dennis Irelan.

Appropriate music for each scene was played by Mrs. Harry Crosby.

Awards for the month were Wolf Badge, Grant Baughey, Eldon Miller, Phillip Radant. Lion Badge with one gold and two silver arrows under Lion, David Grigg. Bear Badge, two silver arrows under Wolf, Tom Smith. Lion Badge Larry Meyers. Gold arrow under Wolf, Richard Golat, Bradley McCombs (one year service star) Ronnie Baxter, Tim Sisson and Dennis Irelan (one year service star). One year service star, Kent Lucas.

Three new cubs who joined were Paul Weaver, John Hartley and Michael Hannah. The film "Achievement Plan" was then shown with the reading parts taken by Walter Hizer and Act Easton.

Den 2 won Cubby for having the highest attendance.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

You Might Call it a "Gravy Train"

Was reading the other day about a Maharaja in India who has a miniature electric train all made of silver. Now, maybe that's not unusual for a prince, but this fellow had it running around on an enormous dining table in the royal palace.

The twelve cars on the train are loaded with different kinds of fruits, nuts, and beverages. And the train stops automatically in front of each plate so the person sitting there can choose what he wants.

From where I sit, the Maharaja is really going to extremes to impress his guests. Around this part of the world, hospitality certainly doesn't need all those fancy trimmings.

You don't have to spend a lot of money or go to a lot of work when folks drop in. Just offer them what you have—coffee, tea, a temperate glass of beer—and let them make their own choice. They'll feel they're getting a royal welcome!

Joe Marsh

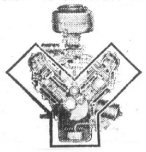
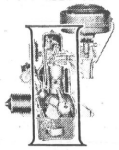
Two family cars are better than One!

Over 400,000 families own two Fords and enjoy all the practical advantages and conveniences of two quality cars at costs not too much different than those of one expensive car. Yet in feature after feature Ford duplicates these expensive cars . . . as thousands know who have already joined the 2-Ford family fold.



NEW 130-H.P. Y-BLOCK V-8

It has a new deep-block Y-design, a 5-bearing crankshaft and low-friction efficiency for longer life . . . smoother, quieter operation . . . greater economy.



NEW 115-H-P. I-BLOCK SIX

Like the new V-8, it's of overhead-valve, high-compression, low-friction design. And its deep-block design gives smooth, quiet power and long engine life!

Just think! . . . for the price you pay for just one car of some makes you can have two 1954 Fords. Whether you choose the new I-block Six or Y-block V-8, you get the last word in high-compression, low-friction power. And you get the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years—new Ball Joint Front Suspension. In Ford you get a new Astra-Dial control panel too, Center-Fill Fueling, suspended clutch and brake pedals and a hull-tight Crestmark body, all exclusive with Ford in the low-price field. With this host of fine car features and many more, Ford offers you a car that's worth more when you buy it . . . more when you sell it.

Now more than ever

Why People Save with ADRIAN FEDERAL SAVINGS

• SAFETY ASSURED FOR SAVINGS — Your funds placed with Adrian Federal are protected threefold: safeguarded by the sound policies of an experienced management that is thoroughly familiar with the community; secondly, protected by the inherent safety of having their savings invested in U. S. Government Bonds and monthly repayable first mortgage loans on homes — proved through the years to be one of the most stable securities known; and finally, the funds of each saver are insured for safety to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, a permanent government agency.

• EXISTENCE OF CENTRAL RESERVE BANK SYSTEM — The Federal Home Loan Bank System was created in 1932 to serve savings and loan associations with a reserve credit system similar in structure to the Federal Reserve System of the commercial banks. Associations may borrow from their reserve bank on both short and long term arrangements, have a source of liquidity ranging from 25% to 50% of the savings they safeguard.

• HELPFUL TO SOCIETY — Chartered and supervised under public laws, Adrian Federal's purpose is to help families of moderate circumstances achieve the security that stems from owning a home, and from having a safe method of making saved dollars produce income while serving as a financial cushion. In providing these services, Adrian Federal contributes to full employment, keeps money circulating; thereby adding to the stability of the local economy, helps build a community of home owners — making the city a better place to live, and finally functions to support and encourage the American free enterprise system — the backbone of our high standard of living.

ing the late Henry Ford, who furnished land for the project and took an enthusiastic part in several of the ceremonies. The project was climaxed in 1946 by a cavalcade of farmers bringing nearly 5,000 bushels of war relief wheat to the Lenawee County Fair Grounds for the final celebration.

Pictures and events through the six years furnished the material for a book "God is My Landlord" and for a film of the same name, which, with Mr. Hayden as narrator, has been shown over much of this country.

In his connection with the mill he developed the production and sale of packaged wheat germ, which is still operated as a separate project by his family, and for a few years he published a weekly paper "Hayden's Tecumseh Globe" as an advertizing medium.

He was president of the American Millers Association for two years.

Deeply interested in the religious training of youth, he was associated with state and national units of the Y.M.C.A. and in 1935 he formed a local organization, which, though its results were intangible and unrecorded, may well have been among the most important of his enthusiastic career. The "ROCKS"—Royal Order of Christian Knights—were a group of high school boys, of all types and creeds, who met for an hour each Sunday morning. That it lasted for nearly 10 years was a tribute to his energy and devotion.

Idealism also influenced his political activities. He was an unsuccessful candidate on the Prohibition ticket three different years for the State Board of Agriculture, Lieutenant Governor and in 1950 for Governor.

Mr. Hayden is survived by his widow; six children, Mrs. Ronald Wells, Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Kenyon Sprunger, Ft. Wayne, Ind., Miss Martha Ann Hayden, a student at Taylor University, Upland, Ind., William Hayden, Tecumseh and Joseph and John Hayden at home; three grandchildren, David and Deborah Wells and William P. Hayden; and a sister, Mrs. Harold Heller, Appleton, Wisc., and six nieces and nephews. A sister, Mrs. Perry Satterthwaite, preceded him in death.

Burial services for Mr. Hayden were held Saturday at the Tecumseh Friends church. More than 250 persons had visited the Collins Funeral Home that morning and the previous day and nearly 500 attended the service or came to the church during the preceding two hours while the body lay in state.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Edward Escolme and by the Rev. Clifton Robinson, of the Cleveland Friends church whose sermon on tithing had been the beginning of Dynamic Kernels.

They were assisted by the Rev. Alvin Brazee of the Iron Creek church, the Rev. Lawrence Cox, pastor of the Raisin Valley Friends church, the Rev. Lowell Shreve, pastor of the Raisin Center Friends church and the Rev. John Williams, a professor at Cleveland Bible College.

Burial was in Brookside Cemetery and bearers were five brothers-in-law, Ralph Russell and William Comfort, Perry Satterthwaite and Harold Heller and William Beardsley, manager of Hayden Flour Mills.

Persons attended the service from nearly all Michigan communities and from as far away as Mishawaka, Berne, Upland and Fort Wayne, Indiana; Fayette, Toledo and Cleveland, Ohio; Appleton, Wisc., Louisville, Ky.; Chicago, Ill., and Caldwell, New Jersey.

Teen-Age Safe Driver Program Underway

Contest Lasts 6 Months; Six Prizes Are Offered

A program that will serve to point up the need for safe and courteous driving by teen-age drivers began in Tecumseh today and will last for six months.

Any teen-age driver between 16 and 20 who has a Tecumseh Post Office mailing address is eligible to enter the contest.

Six prizes for the drivers with the best driving records will be awarded at a banquet which will be held at the end of the contest.

Drivers who wish to enter the contest must first register with the Tecumseh Police Department. According to Chief George Kilbourn who started the program here, drivers will be stopped and checked for defects in their equipment as well as for faulty driving habits. They also will be stopped when they are seen performing an act of courtesy. The former stops will go against their driving records; the latter stops will be used to improve their records.

Prizes worth $25 will go to the best boy driver and girl driver who win first place. Second place winners will receive prizes worth $15 and third place winners will receive prizes worth $10.

In addition to the City of Tecumseh department of administration and police department the following business establishments, industries and service clubs also are helping to sponsor the program and banquet next September:

Tecumseh Products Co., Tresco, Ottawa Machine Co., Bruce Foundry, Beach's Service, Baldwin Hardware, Hite's Hardware, R. S. Moore and Son, The Tecumseh Herald, Butler Motor Sales, Fisher Pontiac, Schneider Brothers, Exchange Club, Rotary Club.

Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce, Glenn Kohler Real Estate, Hanna Insurance, Wilson Motor Sales and Eberhardt Insurance.

SAFE DRIVING — This is part of a group of Tecumseh High School students who have signed up for the safe driving contest sponsored by the city, business establishments and industries.

Shown with the students as they signed for the contest last Monday are City Manager Ed Nelson, Chief George Kilbourn and Mayor Charles Mensing.

VISIT U. N. — During spring vacation, more than 50 Michigan State College students attended the United Nations Seminar in New York City.

Dr. LeRoy Bennett, of the M.S.C. political science department, gave students some tips on what to see and what questions to ask at the U. N. sessions.

The student group spent most of its time visiting and interviewing members of the U. N.

Sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A., sightseeing tours, concerts and the theatre also were on the agenda.

Jaycees Have 61 Members

Sixty-one young Tecumseh men have signed as members of Chapter 98, Junior Chamber of Commerce of Tecumseh.

They signed up last Thursday night at the club's first membership dinner held at Don's Grill.

More than 70 men attended the dinner meeting. Guests, present from Monroe, Ann Arbor, Milan and Carlton, included Frank Stanton, state vice-president from Milan; and Milton Knabusch, national director from Monroe.

During the business meeting Richard Colson was elected to replace Dick Eggleston on the board of directors. Dick last week was named to the board of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and he said he did not have the time to give to both jobs.

The following committees were appointed by President Jack Osborn:

Michigan Week — R. Williamson, Chairman, and H. Brion, F. Randall and R. Warren.

Finance — J. Graham, chairman, and R. Randell, R. Moore, G. Skipper and J. Puffer.

Membership—H. Wilson, chairman, and B. Hammack, D. Mayes and G. Holmes.

Charter Banquet—E. Baldwin, chairman, J. Curtiss, G. Holmes and T. Cage.

Get out the vote—R. Murray, chairman, and E. Merx, D. King, H. Brion, W. Pace, J. Stoner, R. Hamilton, R. Sheldon, R. Colson and H. Mead.

Youth — D. Poley, chairman, and H. Bagby, J. Hamilton, L. Brown, R. Kelty, J. Osborn, D. Faling, R. Moore, D. Murdoch, F. Randall, P. McManis, J. Cross and D. Purkey.

The next dinner meeting of the group will be held at Don's Grill April 22.

FORMER TECUMSEH MAN MADE VICE PRESIDENT

Harold J. Lowry, formerly of Tecumseh, who has been associated with the Michigan Mutual Liability Co. since 1923, was signally honored last week by being promoted to the office of executive vice president of the company.

Mr. Lowry joined the organization through his association with P. W. A. Fitzsimmons, also a Tecumseh resident and a former official and has advanced steadily with the rapidly expanding company. He is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and the University of Michigan and is a brother of Miss Margaret Lowry of Tecumseh.

Another former Tecumseh man, Glenn H. Hines was named comptroller.

Michigan

A meeting to discuss Tecumseh's plans for Michigan Week will be held in the city council chambers today (Thursday, April 1) at 5 p.m.

The week, which will be observed May 2 to 8, will point out to the citizens of Michigan and those in other states the many wonderful resources of Michigan.

All interested persons are invited to attend this first planning meeting.

City Manager Ed Nelson is chairman.

Polio Vaccine Discussed Here

About 75 persons attended the meeting called by the polio council Thursday evening at the Fellowship Center.

Its purpose was to explain the method of distribution of the polio preventive vaccine which is named for the doctor who developed it, the Salk serum.

Paul Alheman, county chairman of the polio program, was the speaker. He explained that Lenawee has been chosen as one of the experimental areas because of its good health program and that Tecumseh rated high because of its excellent record in the March of Dimes campaign.

While the date for the local clinic has not been set, some plans have been made. Cards will be sent home with each school child and, at the parents request, teachers of each room will be responsible for escorting the children to the clinic and checking their cards.

Three inoculations will be required and some, as a check on the experiment, will be merely sterile water, with only the doctor and a laboratory worker aware of the identity of the check.

Many assistants will be needed and Mrs. Riester requests that volunteers get in touch with some member of the council.

Fund Board Lays Plans For Youths

President Mrs. Frank K. Smith presided at the regular meeting of the Community Fund board held Monday evening at the United Savings Bank.

Other members present were Mrs. Richard Preston, John R. Thompson, Owen Partridge, the Rev. Edward Escolme, Howard Diedrich and George Green, Jr.

Jack Osburn represented the junior chamber of commerce and Elmer Eberhardt and Richard Eggleston the senior organization.

Mr. Diedrich reported on the work of the recreation board and Mrs. Preston on that of the playground committee.

A project sponsored by the P.T.A., playground work has been nearly completed but Mrs. Preston stated that an additional amount of gravel is still required to bring the ground to the proper level for installing playground equipment and the tennis courts, and that the funds allotted to the committee have been exhausted.

Mr. Osburn, speaking for the Jaycees, offered to assume the responsibility for supplying the necessary gravel to assist the committee.

It was announced that a party for teen-agers will be given April 30 in the high school gymnasium under the sponsorship of the P.T.A.

This is the postponed party promised the teen-age group last Hallowe'en.

Refreshments and entertainment will be supplied by the fund board and the Products orchestra will be furnished free.

The board requests that all regularly participating organizations submit their 1954-55 budgets before May 15.

JACK PINE DRIVE IN WILL RE-OPEN SATURDAY

Jack Pine Drive In west of town will re-open Saturday.

The drive in specializes in curb service, including sandwiches, soft drinks and ice cream products.

A staff of 17 girls has been hired for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stanifer are the owners.

Happy

A phone call can make a person very happy.

This was proved to Mrs. Lucy Lawton last Saturday the very moment she opened her Lad & Lassie store for the first time.

More than 600 persons from all over attended the grand opening of the store and Mrs. Lawton and her staff were tired but happy after a long day.

But Mrs. Lawton was happiest about the phone call. It was not an ordinary phone call. The caller was Mrs. Lawton's daughter Mrs. Chester R. Strong of Anchorage, Alaska.

Because of the difference in time between Anchorage and Tecumseh, Mrs. Strong had to get up at 3 a. m. to call her mother to offer congratulations on the grand opening of the store.

WALTER HOCHREIN

Porter Printing Changes Hands

Walter Hochrein, 27, of Ypsilanti is the new owner of Porter Printing. Eldon Peasley was the owner.

Hochrein takes over the local printing plant and office supply store today. He will continue to do job printing and to sell office supplies.

Catherine Teegarden will manage the office supplies section.

Formerly a printing shop foreman with a chain of newspapers that prints the Saline, Milan and Manchester papers, Hochrein also has worked for the City Printing Co. in Ypsilanti.

The new owner, his wife and son and daughter will move to Tecumseh as soon as adequate housing is available.

3 Sports Are Going At THS

In weather more adaptable to winter sports, athletes at Tecumseh high school began a complete spring sports program during the past week.

Although they were driven inside because of snow and soggy fields and cinders baseball players, trackmen and golf hopefuls are working out with enthusiasm.

Pitchers Joe Gregory and Earl Kruger, second baseman Albert Hart, shortstop Russ Hyatt and outfielders Jim Bowser, Harry Withrow and Marvin Yoakum will form the nucleus of this year's Indian nine. All are lettermen.

The baseball schedule is as follows:

April 12—Carlton—Home
April 20—Dundee—Away
April 22—*Bedford—Away
April 26—*Monroe CC—Home
April 29—Carlton—Away
May 3—*Hillsdale—Home

C of C Gives $2500 For Memorial Swimming Pool

At a special board meeting Tuesday the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce granted $2500 for the Joyce Andrews Memorial Swimming Pool.

The grant, coupled with outstanding pledges of $1635, means there is only $271 to be raised for the $67,000 pool.

The pool is not finished but work will resume as soon as weather permits. The city council has ordered fence and it is expected that the pool will be completed for the dedication which tentatively has been set for May 22. The recreation board is working on plans for the dedication.

The chamber of commerce Tuesday also discussed plans for a "Welcome, Stranger" program.

Such a program, long successful in other Michigan cities, would make newcomers to the city feel more at home through personal contacts of a representative of the chamber of commerce who would point out the many things Tecumseh has to offer in a social, cultural and economic way.

4-H RANGERS WILL DANCE

Macon 4-H Rangers will hold a benefit hard time dance at Tecumseh Grange from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Saturday night.

Glenn Driscoll's orchestra will provide the music.

The public is invited.

METHODISTS HONOR FATHERS-DAUGHTERS

The Father-Daughter banquet of the Methodist church last Thursday evening was a most pleasant occasion for the nearly 150 assembled dads and daughters.

Assembly singing was led by the Rev. Ronald Brunger, Aden Mead acted as toastmaster and Wilma Bumpus responded in a very effective manner to the toast to the fathers. Mr. Mead was recognized as having the most daughters and William Damon the youngest.

The main program event was the showing of pictures taken of the Caribbean island of Tobago by John McColl. As this is the island supposed to have been occupied by Robinson Crusoe, the pictures carried an extra interest.

Among the visiting daughters in town for the event were Mrs. Orval Minny of Toledo, guest of her father Ellsworth Collins, Sally Rentschler, home from Ann Arbor for the evening with Dr. T. Rentschler; Mrs. Stanley Woods of Deerfield, daughter of David Gibson and a granddaughter of J. M. Artman from Hillsdale.

HOW DO YOU RATE?

Students Make 30-Item Questionnaire For Training Of Good Citizens

Two weeks ago the HERALD had an editorial on rating your town. As a result, an interested Tecumseh citizen called Douglas Murdoch, teacher of citizenship at Tecumseh High School and suggested that the class make a similar rating questionnaire on citizenship.

The class compiled a list of 30 points, pointing out that everybody should rate at least 15 and if a person rated 20 or better he or she is a good citizen.

This is the list:

1. Do you stick up for fair play to all, even though they may differ from you in religion, color, nationality?
2. In an election do you vote?
3. Do you treat public property as your own?
4. Have you ever taken part in a project to help your community?
5. Are you active in P.T.A.?
6. Do you behave towards others as you would like to have them act toward you?
7. Are you willing to hold a public office if you are chosen?
8. Do you stand up for your beliefs when other people criticize you?
9. Do you attend church regularly?
10. Can you be depended upon to carry through with a responsibility once you have accepted it?
11. Can you graciously admit you're wrong when you are wrong?
12. Are you willing to compromise when your desires conflict with those of other members of your family?
13. Do you "count ten" before flying off the handle and then decide against it?
14. Do you take responsibility for the neatness and cleanliness of your home?
15. Do you obey the laws of your community even when no one is there to check upon you?
16. Can you tell the basic history of your home town? Your county? Your state? Your country?
17. Can you explain how your town government works? Your county government? Your state government? Your national government?
18. Can you name the political party in control of your town government? Your county government? Your state government? Your national government?
19. Can you tell about one of the main problems of your town?

SKETCH OF CONVENT — This is a sketch of the proposed convent to house the Dominican Nuns of St. Elizabeth Parish.

The convent will be 57' 6" wide and 34' 6" deep. It will be adjacent to the new grade school now under construction.

The first floor will have four bedrooms with adjoining baths, a combination parlor guest room with bath and a large centrally located living area.

The dining room is off the kitchen and the chapel is off the entry.

Plans call for a half basement that will contain a laundry area and a recreation room.

The exterior will be in brown brick to match the school, with California redwood trim. Windows will be in aluminum sash and the roof will be asphalt tile.

Plans for the construction of the convent will be let for bid to all interested parties next week.

News Of Perry Hayden's Death Spreads Across The Nation

News of the death of Perry Hayden spread far and wide.

Big Michigan and Ohio dailies and large radio stations in both states covered the death of the man who was known all over the nation as the founder of the dynamic kernels project.

The following is a reprint of an article by Frank Stewart in the Cleveland Press for March 22:

The final chapter in the dramatic story of the "dynamic wheat kernels" has been written. The founder of the nationally-known project, Perry Hayden of Tecumseh, Mich., died Thursday in an Ann Arbor hospital at the age of 53.

Curiously, the Cleveland clergyman, whose sermon in 1940 inspired the project in which the late Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, cooperated, conducted the funeral services for the farmer who resolved to plant for six years and give one tenth to the Quaker church.

The minister is the Rev. Clifton L. Robinson, pastor of First Friends Church, Superior Ave. and Melbourne Rd., who officiated in funeral services for Perry Hayden Saturday in Tecumseh.

He told me the story of the passing of the Tecumseh farmer when I visited First Friends Church yesterday afternoon for a special program arranged by young people of the congregation on "Teen-Agers and Religion."

In 1940 the Rev. Robinson was a senior in Cleveland Bible College. One Sunday he went to preach in the Friends Church at Tecumseh. He used the text from John 12.24: "Verily, verily I say unto you except a kernel of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit."

Perry Hayden was in the congregation. He was intrigued by the possibilities of wheat tithing. A few days later he planted a cubic inch of wheat — 360 kernels — in a plot near his home. It was part of a farm owned by Henry Ford.

They harvested the first crop with a sickle, and a carpet beater was used as a thrasher. It required 2686 acres for the last year's sowing in the six-year project and 266 farmers in Ohio and Michigan took part. Cleveland Bible College received part of the proceeds and the Hayden's "dynamic kernels" became known throughout the nation.

ORDINANCE — The recent case where a woman selling magazines in town picked up a valuable sweater from a local home points up the need for an ordinance to protect persons from unreliable outside peddlers.

With spring has come a flood of nomadic salesmen selling magazines, deep freezes, clothes, appliances, vacuum sweepers and what have you. Not a few of these have been the foot-in-the door type that will not take "No" for an answer. A number of cases already have been reported where this type of so-called salesman has actually frightened local housewives.

Some of these itinerant peddlers even have had the gall to work the main business section, actually competing with local merchants who pay taxes and license fees to do business.

When a fellow has this kind of gall, a slap on the wrist is not going to stop him. He would laugh and continue on his merry way at anything less than an ordinance that would bring police measures against him.

Such an ordinance, though, would have to be carefully studied so it would not work hardships against legitimate salesmen who labor hard and honestly to make a living.

JAYCEES — The HERALD welcomes the new chapter 98 of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and hopes it will be a successful addition to the organizations geared to the improvement of the community.

An organization of young men at work building for themselves a "life" instead of a living, the junior chamber commerce on a local, national and international scale is dedicated to:

1. Improvement and development of the community.
2. Improvement and development of its individual members to train them for business advancement and civic leadership.

As listed in their creed, members of the junior chamber of commerce believe:

That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;

That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;

That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;

That government should be of laws rather than of men;

That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;

And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

In short, a junior chamber of commerce is an organization of young men learning civic consciousness through constructive action.

More than 60 local young men already are members of this program in Tecumseh. If the spirit and enthusiasm they showed at their last meeting continues, they will be able to do a lot of good for Tecumseh and its progress.

MRS. WILLIAM TILTON BURIED IN BROOKSIDE

Flora Aebersold Tilton, widow of William A. Tilton, died March 26 at the Tilton family home in Raisin township. She had been in failing health for several years.

The daughter of Charles and Emille Aebersold, she was born Oct. 2, 1875, in Sandusky, Ohio, and in 1895 moved with her parents to the farm across the road from the one where she spent her married life. July 8, 1896, she was married to Mr. Tilton, who died April 3, 1949.

Mrs. Tilton is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Denz of Grayling; two sons, George, Tecumseh and Charles, Wyandotte; twelve grandchildren; three great grandchildren; three brothers, Clarence and Edward J., Tecumseh and George, Coldwater and three sisters, Mrs. Eli Bush, Hollywood, Calif., Mrs. Blanche Juillard, Stryker, Ohio and Mrs. Walter Meade, Tecumseh. Besides her husband she was preceded in death by two brothers, Charles and Lloyd and by two granddaughters.

Funeral services for Mrs. Tilton were held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Green Funeral Home with the Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery and the bearers were all nephews; William Aebersold, Pontiac; Robert Aebersold, Mt. Carmel, Calif.; Raymond Aebersold, Springville; Frederick Aebersold, Highland Park; Walter Meade, Tecumseh and Donald Skeels, Adrian.

SHOWERS HONOR BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Ruth Goodacre whose marriage to Harold Cole of Carleton will take place April 11, has been the honored guests at several pre-nuptial social affairs.

Last Saturday evening, Ruth and her mother, Mrs. Clark Goodacre and Mrs. Walter Bale of Tipton went to Carleton where they were entertained with nearly 30 other guests at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Edward Cole and daughter Barbara. The party was held in the parlors of the United Brethern church in Carleton. Games were played and refreshments served.

A family gathering March 14 featured a personal shower for the bride-to-be. Hostesses were Mrs. James Dick and her mother, Mrs. Oscar Snyder at the Snyder home. The fifteen guests included Mrs. John Cole and daughter Mary and Mrs. William Bale of Carleton and Mrs. Walter Bale and daughter Sally of Tipton.

Earlier Mrs. Frank Prichard and Mrs. Frank Gaegler entertained fifteen of Ruth's former schoolmates at the home of Mrs. Prichard's mother, Mrs. Earl Stuart on Burt St. The guest of honor received a shower of miscellaneous gifts and games and refreshments were enjoyed by the guests.

Letter To The Editor

Cleveland Heights, Ohio

Dear Editor:

I thought you would be interested in the Frank Stewart story on the editor's page of the Cleveland Press.

My family lived in Tecumseh one year 1947. My home town is neighboring Deerfield.

My sincere regrets on the loss of my friend and your fine citizen, Perry Hayden.

Sincerely,
Frank McMahon

As we were talking about the the sale of his home, Mr. Darwin remarked, "We'll have to have $11,000 for it. We paid that much 7 years ago. Naturally, we don't want to lose any money."

"I understand," I replied, "but the price of few things stays stable forever. I think you could take $10,000 for it — which is just about what it would sell for today — and still make money."

"How's that?" he asked. "Take $1,000 less and still be ahead?"

"Sure," I said with a grin. "It isn't sleight of hand. Just plain mathematics. You see, Mr. Darwin, to learn your true position you should compare owning with the alternative. If you had rented a similar house, you'd have been paying $70.00 per month. That's $5,880 for RENT alone in just 7 years. Instead of that, your house is worth within $1,000 of your original purchase price. That's a net gain to you of $4,880 for that period. And every day you've been happier too."

"Wow," said Mr. Darwin, "that's interesting. And true. Owning sure beats renting. Go ahead and sell it for $10,000. We'll still be nearly $5,000 ahead of the game."

Raymond Bird has been ill with mumps the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gray and sons of Ypsilanti were guests Sunday of Mrs. Guy T. Pocklington and Ronald S. Pocklington.

Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor visited her sister in Toledo, Sunday.

The United Workers Class met last week at the home of Mrs. Edith Southard with Mrs. Mary Boss as co-hostess. Devotions were led by Mrs. Gertrude Birdsall and Mrs. Southard conducted a Bible quiz. During the business meeting, it was voted to help serve the luncheon at the Meadowridge sale April 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Landin of St. Clair Shores spent Sunday with Mrs. Gertrude Birdsall and Terry.

Mrs. Eula V. Avery and Mr. and Mrs. Straub of Ann Arbor called on friends in town Sunday.

The burial of Charles Davidson of Detroit took place in Ridgeway Cemetery Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Baker of Clayton were guests Thursday of Mrs. Hattie Wood. In the evening they all attended the Junior class play in Britton. Mrs. Wood's grandson James Wood was one of the characters in the play.

GARDEN CLUB HEARS OF HIGHWAY PROJECT

Mrs. Victor Voorhees, vice president, presided over the business meeting of the Garden Club last Friday at the home of Mrs. Charles O'Neill on West Brown St.

Mrs. Paul Eddy gave an informative talk regarding Michigan's "Blue Star Highway". A project of the Michigan Garden Clubs, nurserymen's associations and kindred organizations, in cooperation with the State Highway department and all under the supervision of the Federal government, it has the object of developing natural beauty along state roads. She said Michigan has about 400 miles so designated, mostly in the north part of the state and the upper peninsula. The work is intended as a memorial to veterans of the World Wars.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. John Thompson, Mrs. J. F. Furry and Mrs. Waldo Mohr.

The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Victor Voorhees on Pennington road.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Mrs. Jerry O'Brien was hostess to fifteen friends of Miss Barbara Hall Friday evening at the home of Mrs. O'Brien's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Winfield. The occasion was a kitchen shower for Miss Hall whose marriage to Douglas Daykin of Britton will take place Saturday. Games were played and prizes were awarded which were presented to the bride-to-be in addition to the shower of gifts.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

When the mail man made his rounds the second of November, 1925, he left in every mail box in Tecumseh and its farming area a little, four page, five column paper, headed "Hayden's Tecumseh Globe." It was an introductory copy of a monthly farm paper edited by Perry Hayden, who had graduated that June from the U. of M. It was printed in Clinton by Russell Green, editor of the "Clinton Local" and sold for 25c per year.

Its mast-head stated that it was intended to, 1—"Bind the farmers in this area closer together," 2—"Establish closer contacts between the farm and the 'Biggest Little Town on Earth, " and 3—"Feature people, events and things of unusual interest in Tecumseh and northern Lenawee."

That statement of policy and the enthusiasm of its editor remained the same during the life of the paper, although there were many other changes in its two short years. Of some people it can be said that they "could do anything." That Perry Hayden could have been a newspaperman, par excellence, is demonstrated by the "Globe."

In a few months it had grown to an eight page, full size newspaper, still with a subscription price of 25c. It had an assistant editor in the person of Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, and its business office was at the Whelan Implement Co., then located at 127 N. Evans St. in a building long since gone. It had "guest editors" in charge of various departments; farming notes by Culver Wilcox, high school agriculture teacher; poultry, by Albert O. Howard; sometimes assisted by Fred Sheldon and an historical department with J. Newton Satterthwaite in charge. There were always some sermonettes by one of the several pastors; pictures galore by the picture editor, Lester Coller and even some long forgotten amateur "poetry."

One of its features was free classified advertisements for "dirt farmers," and of course there was gratefully received advertising besides a classified business directory.

All these gave it interest but its real appeal lay in the work that even the present day reader knows could have been done by no one but the editor. Personality sketches of all sorts and kinds of people and interviews that brought out facinating facts about the seemingly ordinary folks met everyday on the street. Through his recording of stories told him by the older generation, history has been preserved that would otherwise have been lost. Tecumseh's oldest citizen in 1926, Lawrence Van Tyne, gives a picture of early Tecumseh. Mrs. Myron Conklin tells some of the very few stories known of the local Indians, and there is a keenly interesting interview with Mrs. Harriet Wheeler on her 100th birthday.

In the summer of 1926 there was a new business manager, a Byron Parker who had been manager of the Michigan University Daily and the office was moved to that of Newton Satterthwaite in the Strand building. The subscription price meanwhile had risen to 50c and when, that fall, the paper was published every two weeks the cost went up to 75c. It began to lose a little of its spontaneity by this time as if the drab realities of the world of business had begun to interfere with editorial enjoyment. There was still another business manager in 1927, Everett Elwood of Tipton and when, about the middle of that year, Emil Ahrens bought the Tecumseh Herald he took over the subscription list and the Globe was "merged" with the older paper.

Besides its 104 year old Herald, Tecumseh has had many short-lived papers. Beginning with the early "Democrat" there have been the "Tecumseh Chief," "The Madisonian," "The Tecumseh Record and Agricultural Intelligencer," "The Raisin Valley Record" and probably others beside the "Tecumseh News" which lasted for several years. But few if any of them ever came as close to the hearts of so many of its citizens as "Perry's Tecumseh Globe."

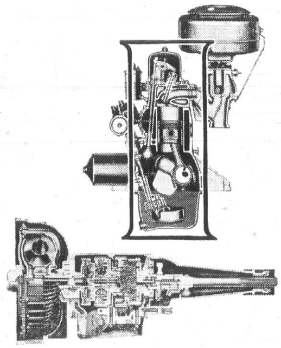
They really "GO" together

The new I-block Six-Fordomatic Drive combination is available in any of Ford's 14 body styles. Illustrated is the Customline Six Fordor Sedan.

Ford Six and Fordomatic



The new Ford 115-h.p. I-block Six whisks you along silently, smoothly, economically. Its deep-block build provides rigid crankshaft support for smoother, quieter operation. Low-friction design and high-turbulence combustion chambers mean more miles from less gas. And, thanks to the Six's higher compression and increased displacement, you get extra "GO" power at all speeds!

Fordomatic Drive shifts for you more smoothly than you could do it yourself. It's the only "automatic" in Ford's field to combine a fluid torque converter and an automatic intermediate gear. Should you ever need an extra burst of speed for passing or hill-climbing Fordomatic's intermediate gear takes over automatically when you step down on the accelerator.

A FORDOMATIC FORD IS AUTOMATICALLY WORTH MORE WHEN YOU BUY IT ... WHEN YOU SELL IT, TOO!

You get a double-value power package when you buy a '54 Ford with the new I-block Six and versatile Fordomatic Drive.

This brilliant Ford engine-transmission combination brings you all the smoothness and flexibility of the finest no-shift driving combined with the extra economy that's built into the industry's most modern, short-stroke, overhead-valve Six. And, of course, you get the smooth, level riding comfort, the easier handling of Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension, a feature exclusive to Ford in its field.

Remember, too, a Ford Six with Fordomatic Drive is automatically worth more when it comes time for you to sell!

We cordially invite you to Test Drive the Fordomatic Six F.C.A.

MUSIC CLUB TEA SET FOR MAY 8

Time and place have been decided upon for the Musical Tea to be given by the Tecumseh Music Club. It will be held May 8 at 2 p.m. in the parlors of the Methodist church. This event, which is held during Annual Music Week, May 2 to 9, is a part of a state wide project to raise funds for the support of the summer music camp at Interlochen, Mich. Mrs. Duane Service is general chairman for the tea and committees will be announced later.

GOOD CITIZENS ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

The three Good Citizens chosen by Abi Evans chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Lenora Jordan of Clinton high school, Margaret Kimerer from Britton and Patsy Purcell representing the Tecumseh school were guests of the chapter at the State D.A.R. convention in Battle Creek, Saturday. They were escorted by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw.

Two hundred and seventy-two girls from all over the state took part in the 10:30 a. m. "Parade of Good Citizens" at the Hart hotel after which they were addressed by the dean of women of Albion College. In a motorcade with police escort they then drove to the Post Club for luncheon and were taken in groups for a tour of the Kellog factory.

The afternoon was somewhat marred for the local group by the acute illness of Miss Jordan. She was taken to the hospital and later released and returned with the rest to her home in Clinotn.

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES Library

By MRS. CONRAD FOSBENDER

Encyclopedias seemed to be a main topic of interest around Tecumseh this past week. So across the library desk we would like to give you some information concerning the better known ones.

Encyclopedias come in many sizes and shapes. Some are written for children, while others for adults. Some are for the whole family. Two encyclopedias which are good for the whole family, but take only a small space in your bookcase are the Columbia and the Lincoln Library. Both are one volume encyclopedias and contain a vast amount of material.

Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia, Britannica, Jr., World Book, and the Book of Knowledge are all good encyclopedias for children and young people. These come in sets of 20 to 24 volumes.

The Britannica encyclopedia is the most expensive one. It is also the most scholarly written of all the encyclopedias, and comes in 20 volumes. The 20-volume set of Collier's encyclopedia is the newest of the encyclopedias. The Americana is just coming out with a new revised edition. This is a 30-volume encyclopedia. Most encyclopedias are brought up-to-date each year by an annual, which you purchase each year at a small fee.

When buying a set of encyclopedias, know from whom you are buying. Be sure to check the copyright date and see that you are getting the very latest. Check the contents of the books to see if they met your needs. We at the public library will be most happy to have you come in and see us or phone us for additional information concerning encyclopedias or any books you may be thinking of purchasing.

New books at the library:

Non-fiction: Pictorial History of the Automobile by Philip Stern; Treasury of the World's Coins by Fred Reinfeld; Architectural Graphic Standards by Ramsey & Sleeper; 1001 Poems of Mankind by H. W. Wells.

Fiction:

Golden Spiders by Rex Stout; Good Spirit of Laurel Ridge by Jesse Stuart; Rainbow on the Road by Esther Forbes; Dixie Nurse by Marcia Ford; Outlaw's Code by Evan Evans.

SCOUTS WILL ENTERTAIN MEMBERS OF MONDAY CLUB

The Tecumseh Monday Club will hold its annual luncheon in the Social Room of the Tecumseh Methodist church on Monday, April 5, at 1 p.m. The president, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara, will preside over the business meeting. Troop 17 of the Girl Scouts under the leadership of Mrs. Victor Peterson and with Mrs. Gerald Griffin as co-leader will present an educational program of music and dramatics. Mrs. T. Rentschler is in charge of the program arrangements. This annual luncheon marks the close of the club year and meetings will be resumed in October. Luncheon reservations should be made immediately with Mrs. Veva Connor or Mrs. Claire Beland.

OVER FIFTY CLUB

The Over Fifty Club will have its usual potluck luncheon in the Tecumseh Methodist church on Thursday, April 8, at twelve o'clock with the members of the Temple Dependable Circle as hostesses. The theme of the program will be "Easters of Other Years." Those attending are asked to be ready with Easter customs and to bring their old Easter bonnets for display. All men and women in the community who are fifty years of age or older are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Plans are being made for Mrs. William Friedrich, county commander of the Cancer Society, and some of her helpers to be at the Christian church April 9 at 2 p.m. Films will be shown with a question and answer period. Mrs. Norris Dartt is the Ridgeway township campaign chairman. Mrs. Verne Neidlinger is the Macon township chairman. All Extension club members and anyone interested in cancer education are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Exelby entertained at dinner Sunday for Mrs. Polly Judd, who leaves Willow Run airport April 16 to join her husband Donald Judd in Bamberg, Germany. Other guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leighton and family of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt and daughter Pat and Mr. and Mrs. Ford Exelby. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Linus Zeluff of Toledo.

Roxana Pilbeam was seven years old Saturday and to celebrate the occasion her mother Mrs. Llewellyn Pilbeam entertained 12 of her classmates in her home Saturday afternoon. The Easter color scheme was carried out in the table decorations and party favors. A two-tiered cake bearing seven candles centered the table. Games were played and prizes awarded. Roxana received many nice gifts. Refreshments were served with Judy Hoag assisting Mrs. Pilbeam. Each guest was presented a gift from Roxana upon leaving.

Rosalee and Natalee, five-year-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairbanks are recuperating from tonsilectomies performed Tuesday at Herrick Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Zarnow of Milan who have spent the winter in Florida were on their way home Monday when they called on Mr. and Mrs. Carl Auten.

Those in Monroe from here Tuesday evening to attend the visitation of Rebekah lodges were Mrs. Wm. Cundiff, Mrs. Charles McCarbery, Mrs. Ida Miller, Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield, Mrs. Joe O'Neil, Mrs. R. B. Kanous and Mrs. John Underwood.

Bill Bortel and Bob Younglove, students at Michigan State College, have been visiting their parents during the mid-term recess.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zarnow were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Scott and children of Allenton.

Mrs. Helen Linn has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clay Croll and family for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Kitchen of Bowling Green, Ohio, were Friday guests in the Croll home.

VEOS PORCELAIN ON STEEL TILE

COLOR GALORE!
Eleven subtly harmonious colors, permanently fused in genuine porcelain, provide custom tailored installations of enduring beauty.

Kitchens, bathrooms, powder rooms, and laundries can have walls and ceilings which remain always new, and which can be kept clean with a minimum of work. Veos tile is as smooth as glass. Dust and dirt can not cling to its mirror-like surface. Mere wiping with a damp cloth or sponge and Veos is shining clean.

EASTERN STAR INITIATES TWO NEW MEMBERS

Mrs. Donald LaBounty and Mrs. James Quigley were initiated into the Order of Eastern Star at a special meeting of the local chapter the evening of March 25.

It was announced that reservations should be made by April 3 for the dinner and reception to be given in Owosso April 10 honoring the Worthy Grand Patron, F. Lawrence Coy and Grand Marshall, Betty L. Coy.

Announcement was also made regarding the regular meeting April 1. A 6:30 potluck dinner will precede the meeting for which members are to bring a dish to pass and 25c to pay for meat, potatoes, rolls and coffee.

Members were also told that officers of the Lenawee-Monroe association will be guests at the special Friendship Night April 15. Other officers will be present from the chapters of Manchester and Fowlerville.

Refreshments were served after initiation by Mrs. Stanley Miller and her committee.

Questionnaire

Of your county? Of your state? Of your country?

20. Can you give four good reasons why Americans prefer democracy above all other forms of government?

21. Do you respect the rights of others?

22. Are you honest with your friends? (Do you keep promises).

23. Can your friends rely upon you?

24. Are you punctual?

25. Have you worked out a program of life insurance for your family? (Do you have a life insurance policy for yourself?)

26. Do you understand our system of social security—the taxes and your benefits?

27. Have you investigated the Income Tax and how it affects you and your family?

28. Do you patronize the stores of Tecumseh — regularly, occasionally, never?

29. Are you interested in the schools and their activities?

30. Do you take an active interest in the recreation in your community?

CARL FRECKELTON AND BARBARA DEVINE WED IN DETROIT

At a simple ceremony Saturday afternoon, Carl W. Freckelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Freckelton of Tecumseh and Barbara Devine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Devine of Ecorse were married. The ceremony was performed at 4 p.m. in the Fort Street Presbyterian church in Detroit by the Rev. Dr. Hastings, pastor of the church.

They were attended by Miss Ann Flanagan and Jack Betzoldt of Macon and a reception for more than 100 friends followed at the Devine home.

Mr. Freckelton, who graduated with the class of 1951 from Tecumseh high school and who has attended Michigan State College, is now employed in the Ternstedt Division of General Motors and is studying at Wayne University.

The bride is engaged in secretarial work and they will reside in Wyandotte.

Mr. and Mrs. James Freckelton and son Stephen were in Detroit for the wedding.

FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Allen of Allen Road entertained their parents Sunday, honoring their fortieth wedding anniversary. The celebration took place at the Allen home and those present included Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Allen of Boulder City, Nev., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Boussum and two children of Bay City and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Callihan and the twins of Tecumseh. The party was in advance of the marriage date in order that the Alfred Allens, who were here on a visit, might be present.

BAPTIST YOUTH GIVE TO "MILK FOR MILLIONS"

At last Sunday's meetings of the Junior and Senior Youth Fellowship of the Baptist church it was voted to donate $25 to the project "Milk for Millions." This is considered their share of the $6,000 required to send the 250,000 gallons of milk alloted to the Baptist young people of the nation. It is part of the 415 carloads of dried skimmed milk which has been given by the United States government for distribution abroad.

The inter-denominational organization known as Church World Service, has accepted the task of sending this vital gift to Korea, India, the Near East and Europe. It is estimated that money given by the local groups will furnish a cup of milk a day for more than forty people for one year.

Grade School News

Grade 2
Mrs. Van Winkle

In Social Studies, we are studying about our Community and its workers. A few weeks ago we visited the Fire Station. Mr. Manley was very nice to us and showed us all the fire equipment and told us what to do in case of a fire. We enjoyed this trip very much. This week we visited the bakery. Mr. Norris showed us all his bakery equipment and let us peek into the big revolving oven. We saw a loaf of bread get sliced and a jelly ball get filled. We each came back to school with a bag of delicious cookies. We enjoyed this visit very much also.

We are getting ready for our Easter Parade. The girls are bringing decorations for their hats and all the children in the room help design each hat. We try and choose a shape and color that looks best on each girl. No two hats will be alike. All will be originals. We have a lot of fun making them and some of us plan to wear them to church on Easter Sunday. The boys are making Robinhood hats for the parade.

Grade 2
Mrs. Puffer

At last we have a flag! The V.F.W. Auxiliary and Post have given us a beautiful new flag and standard. We are very grateful to these people and have written a letter to thank them. Now you should hear us give the pledge of Allegiance and sing "America" each morning.

On our blackboard we list each new sign of spring. We also have a thermometer outside our window so every day we make a note of the temperature and weather on the calendar.

Several of our children have had measles so we have been busy sending cards and notes to them. When Tommy Wilson was ill we wrote letters and walked down to his house at recess time and gave them to him.

It is hard to wait for handwriting time each day now that we are learning cursive writing. We know how to make many of the small letters and it is fun to see how many words we know how to write.

We had six March birthdays. On several occasions mothers came to school and surprised us with birthday treats. The boys are especially anxious to reach that eighth birthday so that they may join the cub scouts.

Grade 3
Mrs. Vallie

Since we last saw you we have discovered some poets in our room. Some of us are reading the unit, "On the Road to Laughter" in More Streets and Roads. We're writing a poem about one of the characters in each story.

In arithmetic we have just begun working on borrowing. We think this is a lot of fun.

Last Friday all of us went to the library. Mrs. Fosbender told us the story, "Dick Whittington and His Cat." Then each of us picked out a book to bring back to school. During the first fifteen minutes each morning two or three of us make a report on the book we brought back.

Andrew Nagy, Janice Hall, and Ronald Baxter had birthdays this month.

We think we have the most polished shoes in the building. We read a story in Health about buying shoes that fit properly. Then the class decided it would be nice if we kept our shoes looking new. So we're having a "shoe polishing contest." Thus far, the girls are leading the boys.

Next month we'll let you know if the boys and girls remember to polish their shoes even after the contest is over.

Grade 3
Mrs. Illeck

Spring has come!

We are getting ready for Easter. There is a large mural being constructed across one end of our room. It will be all about Easter and spring. We are planning a surprise for our mothers for Easter. We hope they will like our surprise.

We have celebrated many birthdays this month. The birthday children were Karen Robinette, David Blanden, Margaret Bayless, Terrie McEnroe, Phillip Radant and Bruce King. We enjoyed helping the children celebrate their birthdays. We wish to thank them for the treats also. It was fun to surprise Mrs. Vallie and Mrs. Puffer by singing to them on their birthdays.

Our room is divided into four teams. The Robins, Bluebirds, Cardinals, and Orioles. We are having a "Better Breakfast Club." The team having the most points at the end of four weeks will receive a prize. We are planning a trip to the library this afternoon.

Grade 2
Mrs. VanValkenburg

Since spring is here again, we have begun to watch for birds and flowers. We are each making a picture and story book about our common birds.

One day, when we took a walk, we saw many birds and heard them singing. We saw two squirrels playing tag in a tree. We saw their leaf nest high up in the tree.

We have been making a weather calendar for March. We read our thermometer to tell the temperature. We look at the flag, flying scarfs, or the clouds to tell the direction of the wind. We have watched different kinds of clouds and tried to foretell the weather.

We are enjoying reading in our new books. We are happy to be able to read many stories to the class instead of the teacher always reading them to us.

Grade 2—West Branch
Miss LaPointe

We are very grateful to Miss Beth Satterthwaite for having given us sunflower seeds to attract birds to our feeding station.

Barbara Colgrove is spending two weeks in Florida. She has written us saying that she is enjoying herself very much.

Stephen Freckelton has brought some guppies for us to watch. They are very tiny.

We have learned how to write sentences and are trying to remember where to use capital letters and how to punctuate.

While we were learning interesting things about Holland, Sharon Korth brought a Dutch doll and some wooden shoes.

Gary Buehrer of the First Grade showed us some large black wooden shoes. We still think we prefer leather shoes. Elva Mae Dickinson - Allen visited us before she left for her home in Boulder City, Nevada.

Grade 3—Patterson School
Miss Baker

Michael Rice returned from Florida with a nice tan. He told us many interesting things he did. He brought some nice pictures for us to look at.

Adele DePuy entered our class. She came from Australia. She told us many things about Australia—some of their customs, how their schools are different from ours and about her trip around the world. We enjoyed it very much.

Mr. Kaiser brought a bat to our room for us to look at. They look very much like a mouse.

Miss Baker brought us a Sacred Lily of India bulb to watch grow. It was three inches tall and grew to forty inches tall. One day it grew four inches. Last week Monday, when we came to school, we knew it had blossomed because of the odor. It did not smell very good. We removed the tongue and then it was much better.

In Science we are doing an experiment with beans to find out whether plants need soil and sunshine.

Jane VanValkenburg and Linda Selders planted beans in soil while P. K. Limes and Richard Brunger planted beans in a jar of stones and water. We are going to see who can grow beans.

Penny Head brought us some tropical fish which we enjoy watching.

Theresa McCann, Norman Grigg and Michael Whelan had birthdays this month.

In arithmetic we have been learning to carry and borrow.

We are starting to decorate our room for Easter. It won't be long until the Easter Bunny will be here.

Grade 2—Patterson School
Mrs. Garlick

Joey Hanna has discarded his crutches! We are all very happy to see Joey without those "helpers" which he has used since last fall.

We have had fun making up "Silly-Dillies" which are funny rhymes.

We have a Reading Club. We sign our name on a pad under the heading we choose, and on Wednesday or Friday the rest of the class enjoys what we have prepared.

We may choose to read a story, tell a story, read a poem, say a poem, read a riddle, or give a play or puppet show. We are finding out some of the things the listeners must do to make this an enjoyable time and, also, find out what the performers must do to make it interesting.

We are going to start cursive writing very soon. Our manuscript printing looks real nice now but we are all anxious to do this new kind of writing. We have started to use our new Talk, Spell and Write books.

Twelve of us have had the measles but we are all back now except Tim Lauer and Peggy Morris. They should be back soon and we do hope we don't all start catching something else.

Barry Seidel was our only March birthday.

Two reading groups have just started new books. We are so pleased to be able to read, because we enjoy reading our library books now with very little help.

Animal visitors at school have been two turtles brought by Paul Snyder and Ann Surratt. Ann's died while we had it and we are going to have to find out more about caring for turtles.

After the heavy rain last Wednesday we walked out to the bank to look at the creek. We are going to see how many days have to pass before it is flowing along as it usually does. We also went for a walk one day to try to find all of the signs of spring which were out.

Kathy Butler has new glasses. They are very nice.

We have been learning about getting work done in our Science class. We have decided that machines certainly make our work quicker and easier.

Jay Osburn brought a shell collection for us to see.

What Are These Precautionary Tests . . . ?

Quality is here a scientific fact, not just a word. We pay for quality, and make sure that we get it for you. Every step in manufacture must be a certainty. Crude drugs must be carefully selected, and checked against authentic standards. Tests for moisture, ash content, and soluble extractive are routine. Certain drugs are subject to physiological tests — others are assayed. The results are certain quality for you.

WHAT LACK I YET?

BY THE REV. B. O. BASHORE
PASTOR OF THE TECUMSEH BAPTIST CHURCH

May I suggest that for our Lesson we read in Luke's account in the 18th chapter — the 18 to 23rd verses.

It is very interesting that the world should be so filled with such wonderful folks who are so expert-at hating, at displaying malice, and are so proficient in the art of bloodshed.

God never intended that his children should engage in this type of life.

Insecurity and fear of other people prove that you and I lack something quite necessary to live a life of freedom and happiness. "Where there is no VISION the people perish."

Perhaps we are like Samson of old who was duped by a so-called lover. And soon after, Samson was found, "Eyeless, in Gaza, at the mill, with the slaves." We need to guard well those lines between ourselves and God. The bitter broth — the cost of standing for the right — is sweet to those who have kept the Faith.

As Leonardo de Vinci waited to finish the "Lord's Supper," the Monks became impatient. Replying to their impatience, he said, "I must wait for the VISION OF CHRIST to flood my soul." At this Easter time let us wait upon God, that His VISION may become ours. Not only do we lack VISION by many of us lack COURAGE, courage to stand for the things we know to be RIGHT, regardless of the apparent sacrifice.

Sure, the Apostles were frightened when they were crossing the sea of "life" and saw someone walking on the water. The only thing we have to fear is fear itself, you know. For in the midst of their confusion the Master spoke to them, "Be of good Courage — It is I."

"It matters not how deep intrenched the wrong
How hard the battle goes, the day how long,
Faint not, Fight on! Tomorrow comes the song.
Be STRONG."

With VISION and COURAGE there is of necessity FAITHFULNESS. If we are faithful to God he will be faithful to us.

"Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

I want to mention one more word, LOVE. How can anyone rise any morning without Knowing God has watched over him during the night? How can one sit down to a table laiden with good food without saying "Thank you Lord"? How can we possibly come to this time of the year without falling on our knees in a worshipful attitude to thank our Father for His Son our only Hope, our Lord and Saviour?

Let us not pass the CROSS this time without feeling the Sacrifice and Love of Christ. And as we come to the empty tomb, may ours be the experience of one who, through the Lord of life, receives "Life Eternal." Then and then only will we LACK NOTHING.

EPISCOPAL WOMEN ATTEND CONFERENCE

The March meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Episcopal church at the Parish House last Thursday afternoon was opened by a devotional service conducted by Mrs. E. C. Dickin. The business meeting in charge of Mrs. L. W. Larsen included several announcements.

The scheduled speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Dean Saxton, supply chairman for Convocation, who introduced instead Miss Eleanore D. PenBroeck, principal of House Bethany and Dean of the Episcopal high school at Robertsport, Liberia. Miss Pen Broeck gave a most informative talk on her work, showing pictures to illustrate.

At the next auxiliary meeting in April the speaker will be Gay Larsen McGee, who will tell of her experiences while in Japan during the recent tour of duty of her husband, Peter L. McGee.

MOST MUST BE LOONS

Feathered Friends Return To State In Spite Of Winter Snow And Slush

A duck or any other thing on wings that deliberately decided to return to Michigan this week would seem to belong to the loon family, but ornithologists insist that instinct is stronger than weather and an exact calendar schedule of migration goes on in spite of storms.

Ordinary observers have noted the foolhardy robins and grackels on the lawns and have already noted the broken eggs of the morning doves that the wind has shaken out of incredibly careless nests. Ducks have been seen on the creek but according to those who know other and more unusual birds are expected this week.

From the data furnished by Miss Beth Satterthwaite those observers who venture off the main street may see these old friends who normally reside in our midst — the Great Blue Heron (standing by edges of ponds and rivers). Vesper Sparrows (with white tail feathers, hiding along fences and by roadsides). Field Sparrows (singing in the rain like song-sparrows). Woodcock (on the ground in the woods). Swamp Sparrows and Wood ducks.

The migrants that may be seen this week are — Whistling Swans and Snow Geese (these two will probably be sighted only in such areas as the Watkins Lake game preserve) Winter wrens, Sharp-shinned Hawks, Baldpates etc.

Those to watch for next week are — Residents, Chipping Sparrows and Hooded Warbles, Loons and Pied-billed Grebes (on ponds and rivers). Among the migrants may be Hermit Thrush (the ones with very rusty red tails that are some times seen on lawns) and Blue-billed Ducks that may light on ponds or sheltered water like Keeney lake.

Interested observers who see any of these or other birds of passage might write The Herald to let their fellow bird watchers know where to look.

Growth Of City Shown In New Assessed Valuation; Increase Is $2,026,000

Growth of Tecumseh when the village became a city is graphically shown in the assessed valuation of the city as reported to the council Monday night by John Saling, city assessor.

The total assessed valuation of the city for tax purposes is $8,016,600. This is broken down into $4,939,500 in real property and $3,077,000 in personal property.

Last year the village was assessed at $5,990,600. This was broken down into $3,701,500 for real property and $2,289,100 in personal property.

The new assessed valuation is a gain of $2,026,000 over the assessed valuation of the Village of Tecumseh.

The increase is due mostly to the fact that additional territory was taken in when the village became a city.

About $120,000 in city taxes will come from the millage rate on the total assessed valuation. Tax payments begin July 1.

Councilmen probably will pass on the millage rate at their next meeting April 19. They probably will set the 15-mill rate again.

Landscaping Plans For Hospital Made By Garden Club

When spring finally arrives that committee of the Garden Club, which has charge of landscaping the grounds of Herrick Memorial hospital, will be ready to take adavntage of the proper planting time. The money now on hand will be used at once to supplement the work already done and as far as possible give the building the setting it deserves.

The club treasury lists the following donors who have contributed to date to the fund: St. Elizabeth Altar Society, $5; V.F.W., $25; American Legion and Auxiliary, $100; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Thompson, $100; and an anonymous donor, $500.

Mrs. Thompson, who heads the committee, reports that much of this fund has already been used but that the $100 contributed by the Legion and auxiliary, which was specifically earmarked as a memorial to the late Dr. H. H. Hammel and R. K. Anderson is planned for use this spring.

Flowering shrubs and other permanent planting will form a special corner or court always to keep green the memory of these two men who gave so much of themselves for the institution. It is hoped that at some future date it will be possible to have a bird bath with a memorial plaque in this nook but the funds now available will be invested in shrubs.

The local Cub Scout organization has requested the privilege of making a special contribution, perhaps a tree, to the committee's proectj and are at present considering the best procedure.

A high background planting of rapidly growing shrubs, such as common lilacs, to act as a screen for the back of the institution is also being planned, according to Mrs. Thompson.

It is emphasized that while much has been done, much still remains before the landscaping picture drawn up for the committee by Lloyd Rhein with the assistance of Leo Bishop is complete.

Contributions large or small from individuals or organizations will be most welcome.

Tre Ore

Sponsored by the Tecumseh Ministerial Association, Good Friday services this year will be held in the Assembly of God.

Tre Ore services will be held from 1:30 to 2:55 p.m. April 16 with the Rev. Ronald Hilfinger, pastor of the Methodist church, speaking on "We Go to Calvary" and the Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of Friends church, speaking on "Centrality of the Cross."

Members of the Association would like to have a hushed city during the services.

ROTARIANS HEAR SPEECH BY DR. JOHN PITKIN

Guest speaker at Rotary at the Country Club Tuesday night was Dr. John Pitkin, Director of the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic in Ypsilanti, who gave the members a graphic picture of the problem presented by the maladjusted child and told what the clinic is attempting to do to meet this problem.

March junior Rotarian, Ervin Pennington introduced the junior member for April, Bill Benham, and expressed his appreciation for his month's affiliation.

Two new Rotarians were also introduced, Orin Leudke, local manager of the General Telephone Co. and the Rev. Edward C. Dickin, pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal church and a visiting Rotarian, Hans Schmidt of Clinton.

James McDowell, high school superintendent, will be the speaker at next week's meeting.

Legion Auxiliary Adds 18 Members

Initiation of new members was the highlight of the April meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary with the welcoming of 18 to the organization. They were Mesdames Wallace, MacGeorge, Walter Murphy, Richard Sherman, Herbert Cleveland, William Hogan, Paul Maves, Milton Meyer, James Wallace, John Zarnock, Gladwin Henning, Robert Miller, Eugene Murphy, Homer Colson, James Rohrer, Edwin Goller, E. Dennis Goller, David Ealing and Keith Cammet.

The local ritual team officiated and membership pins were presented to the new members.

The group voted to send $150 to the state rehabilitation committee for the purchase of wheel chairs and for candy and cigarettes for the hospitalized veterans of the state.

Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, child welfare chairman, reported that a box of clothing and school supplies had been sent to Philippine war orphans and that 100 knitted squares for Korean women to make into afghans had been made by members.

Mrs. Harold Easton, membership chairman, announced that membership in excess of the quota has been neached with 164 paid members.

Entertainment for the evening was furnished by Mrs. Paul Maves with colored slides and an interesting account of her recent trip to Mexico.

Refreshments were served from a lace covered table with a floral centerpiece and lighted tapers, Mrs. Fred Marsh and Mrs. Purnell Osburn presiding at the silver service.

Hostesses were Mrs. Harold Green, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Herrick and Mrs. Charles Osburn.

V.F.W. AUXILIARY

A special meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary was held last Wednesday evening for the purpose of initiating two candidates and completing yearly reports and notebooks. Mrs. Bert Warren presided at the business meeting and welcomed the two new members, Mrs. Fred Ward and Mrs. Ray Thompson. Mrs. Freda Rollins of Erie was a guest of the evening. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Richard Drouillard.

Louie Gets Singular Honor

A fellow who has been a loyal Legionnaire for almost 35 years and who was elected the first vice-commander of Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 of Tecumseh while he was still serving with the AEF in Russia has been singularly honored by his post.

Louie Schneider has been awarded a gold-plated life membership in the American Legion.

Formally known as Louis, he was awarded the rare life membership last week by Bob Lowe, commander of the local Legion post.

A charter member of the local post, Louie has come up "through the ranks" in the Legion, having held important positions in his post, in county, district, state and national Legion affairs.

Local Legionnaires thought so much of Louie on July 19, 1919, that they elected him first vice-commander while he was still in the employ of Uncle Sam as a dog face in frozen Russia.

Cutting his Legion teeth under Col. H. H. Hammel, first commander of Underwood-Orr Post No. 34, Louie has held every office in the post except adjutant and he has served as chairman or member of every regular committee.

He has served twice as commander, the first time in 1932 and he was re-elected in 1933.

When the Legion had its building campaign, he was a member of the club board.

Stepping up to the county Legion, he served as county commander and he is past Chef-De Gare of Lenawee and charter member of the 40 & 8 and later served as grand Cheminots.

Louie organized and put into action the graves registration committee on the district level.

He became district adjutant in 1936 and he was elected district commander in 1937.

Later, he served as chairman of the district child welfare, welfare and finance audit, and steering committees.

Still climbing in Legion circles, he went on to serve as a member of the state department executive committee in 1937 and he later served on the state department child welfare, youth activities and was secretary of the department's Americanism commission in 1952-1953.

Serving the national Legion, he was a member of many convention committees and he was a member of the distinguished guest committee from 1951 to 1954.

He also has served on the "cradle to the grave" national committees ranging from child welfare and youth activities to graves registration.

Louie's buttons are popping from his Legion uniform.

But it's not from his getting fatter.

It's just that he's so dog-gone proud of his life membership in the American Legion.

Tecumseh's First Mayor Says He Can't Do Justice To His Job, City Problems

Mayor Charles Mensing resigned from the council Monday night.

Leader of the new city since Jan. 5, Tecumseh's first mayor dramatically read his own resignation at the council meeting.

His announcement came as a complete surprise to the other six councilmen.

Mayor Mensing said: "Of necessity I must protect my occupation and give my employers and employees a fair day's work. I cannot allow outside interests to permeate my thinking to the point where I am not doing the best job I am capable of and know how to do."

He also said:

"I also realized I was not doing the best possible job for the council or community as I was unprepared to meet the manifold situations which arose. The study and preparations required to be a good councilman and mayor requires much time and that time could be made available only at the sacrifice of other duties."

Mayor Mensing began the meeting in his usual familiar spot at the head of the table.

He listened to Mrs. Naomi Sallows read the minutes of previous meetings, then he said:

"I realize this is going to be unusual procedure but we're going to change the order of business tonight. I have a communication I want to read to you.

This was unusual in itself since Mrs. Sallows normally reads all communications to councilmen.

He then read his letter of resignation asking that it take effect immediately.

After he read the letter, he left the meeting, turning the chair over to H. H. Hanna, mayor protem.

The Mayor pro-tem asked Mayor Mensing to reconsider.

"Can't you stay on for awhile?" he asked.

But the mayor said he could not.

"It has been a hard decision to make," he said, "but my mind is made up."

Councilman Edith Smith said: "I am shocked."

The council regretfully accepted the resignation, but by charter regulation the resignation cannot be acted on until the next regular meeting April 19.

The charter also provides that Mayor Mensing's successor on the council be named by councilmen within 60 days.

The mayor's resignation follows:

"Members of the Council
City of Tecumseh
Tecumseh, Michigan
"Gentlemen:

"During the course of a lifetime a person arrives at many crossroads. Sometimes the proper path is followed, sometimes we err, as years later we look back in retrospect on what might have been.

"Tonight, after two weeks of serious thought and self analyzation, I have decided to take a drastic step—one that affects you and the citizens of the community, but more especially myself and my family.

"This communication is my notice to you of my immediate resignation as Mayor and Councilman of the City of Tecumseh.

"Last summer when I was elected to the Charter Commission, I gave up my vacation that I might particapate in all the meetings for the drafting of the new City Charter. It was a matter of great satisfaction to me when the voters of this City approved that effort and I was also elected to the Council. It was one

History

Births, marriages, deaths. All things considered, these are probably the most important stories in a weekly newspaper.

These stories of people you know, coupled with governmental and business progress and reports of organizations mirror local living and become in time the history of the community.

This recorded history of Tecumseh is kept both at the HERALD office and at the public library.

Bound volumes of the news or the history of Tecumseh for the year 1953 came last week.

With volumes that date back to the first year the HERALD was published in 1850, volume 1953 has been given to the library for the study and enjoyment of those living today and for the reflection of those Tecumseh folks who are to come.

Jr. Class Presents "Life With Father"

If you want an evening of good wholesome fun, go see "Life With Father."

The popular, three-act comedy will be given by the Tecumseh High School junior class tonight and Friday night in the auditorium.

The curtain rises at 8 p.m. each night.

Bob Francouer will have the role of the blustery family head whose exasperations with his wife and his children provide the humor.

Others in the cast of this comedy classic adapted from Clarence Day's sketches by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse are Brenda Fisher as Mother Vinnie; Dale Daniels as Clarence, the oldest of the Day sons; Gary Hizer as 10-year-old John Dey; Tom Neitling and John Naser as Whitney and Harlan, the youngest boys; and Beth McKenzie as cousin Cora.

Others in the cast include Dulcie Bowen, Chuck O'Neill, Phil Surratt, Glenn Haviland, Anita Dickinson, Diane Woodward and Connie Clark.

Papa and Mama Day and their four red-haired sons provide the story and action for this popular comedy.

HONORS SON

Mrs. William Beckey honored her son Larry Beckey on his fifth birthday with a party Saturday, April 4, at their home on Green Road. Out-of-town guests were Michael Bater, Kerri Lyn, Jack Douglas Bater, Johnny and Danny Dewey. Games were enjoyed, winners being Vicki Jean Kempf, Karen Miller and Kerri Lyn Bater. Larry received a host of nice gifts and refreshments were served.

Superintendent Summarizes Facts Concerning April 19 School Election

Supt. James McDowell has summarized the essential facts on the April 19 special school election. His report follows:

Last year of the total funds expended by Tecumseh Public Schools approximately 60 per cent came from state sources and 40 per cent from local property taxes.

Local schools are spending an average of 35 per cent more per pupil than the 23 other districts which send pupils to Tecumseh to school.

The children receive the same educational advantage with a saving of more than 35c per dollar. This is largely due to the fact that the State Legislature sets the maximum tuition rates which may be charged and this maximum rate is much less than the actual cost per pupil attending Tecumseh Schools.

Elementary pupils attending our schools who come from outside the local district cost taxpayers of Tecumseh 53c per every 47c the district from which the pupil comes spends.

Secondary pupils have the ratio of Tecumseh 15c to 85c for the sending district. Tecumseh Schools lose money on all tuition pupils.

Tecumseh Dist. No. 9 Fr. or the Waring District is statistically better able to pay for their children than the Tecumseh Public Schools for they have $6,874 of assessed valuation behind each child whereas Tecumseh Public Schools have $5,440 behind each child.

If the Waring District is annexed, Tecumseh Public Schools will gain more than $3,000 per year over what they now receive from this District. This will help to pay off the present bond issue at an earlier date if the Waring District is annexed to the Public Schools.

Waring District children are already in our schools and have been for years. They are neighbors' children who are now willing to meet their fair share of

Council Passes On Ordinance

Councilmen Monday night adopted a new ordinance that will give police more power to cope with persons charged with assault and battery.

This means that those committing assault and battery can now be charged with this crime. Previously they had to be charged with disorderly conduct under the disorderly ordinance.

Chief George Kilbourn several weeks ago asked the council to adopt such an ordinance and at that time City Attorney J. C. Beardsley immediately began to work on the proposed ordinance.

The chief pointed out that the increasing size of the city brought an increase in assault and battery cases.

He thought a tougher ordinance would help to solve the problem.

Now a person found "guilty of unlawfully posting, assaulting or fighting with any other person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."

Michigan Week Committee Plans Special Observance For May 2-8

A group headed by City Manager Ed Nelson met last Thursday to begin preparation work for Michigan Week which will be observed throughout the state May 2 to 8.

Those present represented the chamber of commerce and the junior chamber of commerce.

Councilman B. O. Bashore represented the city.

Bob Williamson, chairman of the Jaycee committee, outlined some plans for buying and displaying Michigan Week promotional materials.

And tentative plans were discussed for Tecumseh's participation in the observance of the special week which will focus attention on Michigan's resources, its heritage and its boundless opportunities.

It is intended to provide an occasion for Michigan citizens to increase their knowledge and appreciation of all that makes Michigan great.

Tentative plans for a special Tecumseh sale with most merchants participating also were discussed.

CADDIES WILL MEET

A meeting of new and old caddies will be held at the Country Club Saturday morning at 9:30 for instructions.

Willis Porter, club greens chairman, officially will open the golfing season next Thursday.

Jaycees Plan "Get Out Vote"

A committee of Jaycees headed by Dr. R. J. Murray appeared before the council Monday night with a plan to get more persons to register for voting.

Dr. Murray explained the plan, stating that the junior chamber of commerce would like to have some of its members deputized to register persons that are not registered for voting.

He said there were about 500 persons eligible to vote who are not registered.

Mayor Pro-tem H. H. Hanna explained to the committee that its members must be registered voters before they can register others.

He also pointed out that the registration must be complete and accurate.

The mayor pro-tem said City Clerk Mrs. Naomi Sallows may deputize the Jaycees to register voters for the primary election to be held August 3.

He said he was glad to see the Jaycees take an active interest in governmental affairs.

PRESBYTERIANS HONOR FATHERS AND SONS

About 200 fathers and sons turned out for the father and son banquet at the First Presbyterian church last Thursday night.

They heard Fred McIntire, agent in charge of the Detroit office FBI discuss aspects of FBI training and work.

He was introduced by Neville Hart, toastmaster.

The banquet was sponsored by the Men's Club with Bill Hanna, John Hamilton, Art Schwartz, Al Merz, Harold Hammel and the Rev. George Walworth serving on the committee.

The dinner was served by the Women's Association of the church.

Salutatorian Honors Are Not New In Moore And Boyce Families

That seniors Grace Moore and Marie Boyce will divide the honor of being salutatorian for the graduating class of 1954, with identical averages of 3.821, is only one of the coincidences of their selection.

Grace's father, Robert H. Moore, was salutatorian of his class of 1919, which was the first class to graduate from the Central building, then the new high school.

Marie's mother, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Kidman, was like Marie a co-salutatorian of her class of 1932.

Interesting parallels do not stop there, however. Grace is one of the third generation members of her family to graduate from Tecumseh high school as both her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Mopre, graduated with the class of 1890.

Marie has the even greater distinction of being, so far as is known, the first fourth-generation student to finish.

Her mother, Elizabeth Kidman Boyce graduated in 1932; her grandmother, Margaret Waldron Kidman, in 1906 and her great grandfather, Lewis M. Waldron in the class of 1868.

Graduating from Tecumseh High is a tradition in her family. Lewis Waldron was one of four children of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Waldron who finished school in the 1860's and '70's, when doing so was rather unusual, and there have been four graduates in each generation since with Marie the first of hers.

DEMOCRACY — More than a million high school students in the United States recently took part in an essay contest on the subject "I Speak for Democracy."

Winner Elizabeth Evans, 16-year-old Akron, Ohio, high school student, wrote:

I am an American.

Listen to my words, Fascist, Communist.

Listen well, for my country is a strong country, and my message is a strong message.

I am an American, and I speak for democracy.

My ancestors have left their blood on the green at Lexington and the snow at Valley Forge.

. . . on the walls of Fort Sumter and the fields at Gettysburg
. . . on the waters of the River Marne and in the shadows of the Argonne Forest
. . . on the beachheads of Salerno and Normandy and the sands of Okinawa
. . . on the bare, bleak hills called Pork Chop and Old Baldy and Heartbreak Ridge.

A million and more of my countrymen have died for freedom.

My country is their eternal monument.

They live on in the laughter of a small boy as he watches a circus clown's antics
. . . and in the sweet, delicious coldness of the first bite of peppermint ice cream on the Fourth of July
. . . in the little tenseness of a baseball crowd as the umpire calls "Batter up!"
. . . and in the high school band's rendition of "Stars and Stripes Forever" in the Memorial Day parade
. . . in the clear, sharp ring of a school bell on a fall morning
. . . and in the triumph of a six-year-old as he reads aloud for the first time.

They live on in the eyes of an Ohio farmer surveying his acres of corn and potatoes and pasture
. . . and in the brilliant gold of hundreds of acres of wheat stretching across the flat miles of Kansas
. . . in the milling of cattle in the stockyards of Chicago
. . . the precision of an assembly line in an automobile factory in Detroit
. . . and the perpetual red glow of the nocturnal skylines of Pittsburgh and Birmingham and Gary.

They live on in the voice of a young Jewish boy saying the sacred words from the Torah: "Hear O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is One. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy might."
. . . and in the voice of a Catholic girl praying: "Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee . . ."
. . . and in the voice of a Protestant boy singing: "A mighty Fortress is our God, A Bulwark never failing . . . ."

An American named Carl Sandburg wrote these words:
"I know a Jew fishcrier down on Maxwell Street with a voice like a north wind blowing over corn stubble in January.
He dangles herring before prospective customers evincing a joy identical with that of Pavlova dancing.
His face is that of a man terribly glad to be selling fish, terribly glad that God made fish, and customers to whom he may call his wares from a pushcart."

There is a voice in the soul of every human being that cries out to be free. America has answered that voice.
America has offered freedom and opportunity such as no land before her has ever known, to a Jew fishcrier down on Maxwell Street with the face of a man terribly glad to be selling fish.
She has given him the right to own his pushcart, to sell his herring on Maxwell Street,
. . . she has given him an education for his children, and a tremendous faith in the nation that has made these things his.

Multiply that fishcrier by 160,000,000 — 160,000,000 mechanics and farmers and housewives and coal miners and truck drivers and chemists and lawyers and plumbers and priests — all glad, terribly glad to be what they are, terribly glad to be free to work and eat and sleep and speak and love and pray and live as they desire, as they believe!
And those 160,000,000 Americans — those 160,000,000 free Americans — have more roast beef and mashed potatoes, the yield of American labor and land;
. . . more automobiles and telephones,
. . . more safety razors and bathtubs,
. . . more Orlon sweaters and aureomycin, the fruits of American initiative and enterprise;
. . . more public schools and life insurance policies, the symbols of American security and faith in the future;
. . . more laughter and song — than any other people on earth!

This is my answer, Fascist, Communist!
Show me a country greater than our country, show me a people more energetic, creative, progressive — bigger - hearted and happier than our people, not until then will I consider your way of life.
For I am an American, and I speak for democracy.

Letters To The Editor

Kind Words

Dear Editor:

Your story on Perry Hayden as carried in your issue of March 25 was very well done in my humble opinion. My mother (nee Ann May Bailey of Tecumseh) was a first cousin of Perry's mother. We are numbered among Perry's host of friends and admirers, in addition to the cousin relationship.

I would like to order six copies of the March 25 edition, if they are available. Enclosed are stamps for 75c to cover the cost.

We read The Herald with much interest each week. You and your staff are meeting the challenge of a growing community, undergoing growing pains, in the best of traditions of good journalism.

SHIRLEY MACK AND ROBERT BROOKS WED SATURDAY EVENING

Saturday evening at 6 o'clock the Rev. Ronald Brunger united in marriage Shirley May Mack and Robert L. Brooks. The double ring ceremony took place in the Methodist church before the members of their immediate families.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mack, was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Kay Morden and Douglas Aylesworth was Mr. Brook's best man.

Miss Mack wore a blue suit with navy accessories and carried a small formal bouquet of rosebuds and Eucharis lilies. Miss Morden's suit was navy, her accessories red and her flowers red rosettes with candy striped carnations.

The mother of the bride wore gray and navy with a camelia corsage while Mrs. Brooks' dress was navy and she also wore camelias.

The family party went to the Country Club after the ceremony where dinner was served for eighteen. At eight o'clock a reception for 150 guests was held in the Methodist church parlors, with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson as hosts. Mrs. Leroy Heilman, Mrs. Richard Duffin, Mrs. Donald Smith and Mrs. David Mack assisted in serving and the wedding cake was cut by Mary Lou Burleson. Virginia Gregory had charge of gifts and Carole Harper the guest book. The linen covered serving table had a centerpiece of pink carnations, snapdragons and sweetpeas and the decorated wedding cake was encircled by the same flowers. All those who assisted wore boutonniers of pink carnations.

The bride is employed at Tresco and the groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks of Tecumseh, is an employee of the Products Co. Both are graduates of Tecumseh high school with the class of 1953. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks went directly to their new home on N. Union St.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Murphy announce the marriage of their daughter Verna to Seaman Harold A. Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Gardner of Adrian.

The couple was married March 31 in Angola, Indiana.

She graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1953.

Harold is on the USS Des Moines now stationed at Norfolk, Va.

Realty Views

"It's sure good to own a home," a young lady said recently. "It's added a lot to the enjoyment we get from everyday living.

"For instance," she added, "I can play the piano now to my heart's content. But when I was in the apartment house, I worried about it because the sleepyhead above didn't get up until 1 o'clock.

"We didn't hold parties in the apartment. Afraid of the noise. Now, though, we can have all the company we want.

"In the apartment, life is impersonal. You pass folks with never a sidelong glance. Most times, you don't even know their names.

"But in our new home-owning neighborhood, that's changed. Everyone knows each other. We trade ideas, enjoy coffee together, swap recipes and borrow lawn equipment.

"Truthfully," she said, "we've embarked on a real adventure. It's wonderful. In an apartment house you exist; in a home, you LIVE."

All Roads Lead To God

BY THE REV. GEORGE E. WALWORTH
PASTOR OF THE TECUMSEH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Out of the great pages of history a significant statement bears unique emphasis for this day: "All roads lead to Rome." Definitely humanity knew a day when Rome seemed to be the center of the universe. However, men and roads change to the disgust and ruin of many.

Long after the roads led to Rome a special group of people in this vicinity could claim "all roads lead to Tecumseh." For those of us who exist in and about the community of Tecumseh most roads do lead us here.

One thing is certain, the capital or center of this existence may change, but inevitably the road for all will lead home. Without much doubt the eventual home of every soul will be the result of reaction to God.

In the Christian observation of Palm Sunday mankind faces the road-map of yesterday, today, and forever. The road which Jesus Christ took led to Jerusalem, the religious center of that day, and yet the road which He still takes leads emphatically to Tecumseh, Michigan, our own house, our own heart!

The hub of the world has changed with the varying power of nations, yet never has the capital of faith left the soul-searching span of God in Christ. On His Way to the capital—On His Way to Tecumseh—the reception He will receive is of critical importance.

When roads led to Jerusalem and Rome the general populace shouted grand Hosannas and gave Christ recognition, but little understanding and less obedience. What a day it could be should Tecumseh recognize, receive, understand, and obey Jesus Christ as He enters this city on Palm Sunday and every day of 1954.

Surely—"All roads lead to God!!"

MISS MARY WAGNER BURIED MONDAY

Funeral services were held at the Green Funeral Home at 11 o'clock Monday morning for Mary Henrietta Wagner, a former resident of Tecumseh. Miss Wagner was born in Napoleon, Ohio, June 21, 1880 and came to Tecumseh with her parents in 1892. She died Thursday morning in her apartment at 53 Marsden Avenue in Detroit. She had been in the insurance business until a few years ago.

Survivors are two sisters, Miss Phoebe Wagner of Tecumseh and Miss Ada of Detroit, a brother, William H. Wagner of Sioux City, Iowa; three nephews, Carrol of Omaha, Marvin of New York City and the Rev. William of Proxidence, R. I., and a niece Mrs. Ervin Sovoda of Omaha.

The Rev. Edward C. Dickin and her nephew the Rev. William Wagner of Providence, R. I., conducted the service and burial was in Brookside, the bearers being H. H. Hanna, Ed Heilman, Perry Satterthwaite, Fred VanTyne, John H. Smith and Lester Rogers.

Nowadays jellymaking knows no season—no doubt about that. For today, with the availability of frozen juices, more jellymakers know that when their favorite fruit is out of season, they can still make flavorful jelly quickly and economically by using frozen juices. And—one of the favorites is Orange Jelly that can be made any time of the year by using quick-frozen orange juice and Sure-Jell powdered fruit pectin.

Flavorful Orange Jelly can be made for as little as 8¢ a glass. And, most important to the busy homemaker, it will only take ten minutes of your time. And why does it take only ten minutes? Simply because you're using powdered fruit pectin and the short-boil method of jelly-making. Remember, too, if you prefer—you can use Certo liquid fruit pectin for many appetizing spreads.

Here is the recipe for Orange Jelly that we have mentioned above. Buy your supply of Sure-Jell powdered fruit pectin, frozen orange juice and sugar today. Then you'll discover that it costs less to make your own jellies—and they have a wonderful homemade taste.

Orange Jelly
(Using quick-frozen concentrated orange juice)
Yield: about 6 medium glasses
1 box Sure-Jell powdered fruit pectin
2 cups water
¾ cup (6-ounce can) quick-frozen concentrated orange juice, thawed
3½ cups sugar

Measure powdered fruit pectin and water into a large saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Reduce heat to low. Add orange juice and sugar. Stir until both are completely dissolved. (Do not boil.) Remove from heat. If necessary, skim off foam with metal spoon. Pour quickly into glasses. Cover jelly at once with ⅛ inch hot paraffin. Or if jelly is to be used within 2 months, just cover with lid, waxed paper, or foil, and store in refrigerator.

BAPTISTS TO PRESENT EASTER CANTATA

"Christ Crucified" is the title of the Easter Cantata which will be given at the Tecumseh Baptist church at 8 o'clock next Sunday evening. The adult choir of 20 voices will be under the direction of Mrs. Harley McConnell and Mrs. Herbert Dillon will be at the organ.

Soloists for the occasion will be Mrs. James Danforth, Mrs. Lyle Grigg, Warren Peck and Harold Black; and the scripture readings between the musical numbers will be interpreted by the Rev. B. O. Bashore. The public is cordially invited to this event of the Easter season.

Daykin–Hall Vows Exchanged

Barbara Swift Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hall of Herrick Park became the bride of Douglas E. Daykin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Daykin of Britton, Saturday afternoon, in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. B. O. Bashore in the sanctuary of the Baptist church.

Miss Hall was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Merlin Pilbeam as matron of honor, and by Miss Sally Bale of Tipton, who was the bridesmaid. Walter Glenn of Britton was Mr. Daykin's best man and the ushers were Douglas Hall, brother of the bride and Vern Eyler and Jack Barrett of Britton, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bridal gown was of white satin with lace bodice and was made with a sweeping train. Her veil was held by a tiara of lace and seed pearls, fingertip in length and she carried a white Bible with a cluster of white orchids. Mrs. Pilbeam wore pink net over pink satin, made with net stole and Miss Bale's dress was aqua in satin and net and had short puffed sleeves. Rubrum lillies arranged in the shape of fans were carried by both attendants. The flower girl, Janice Hall niece of the bride, was in yellow net and nylon, floor length and carried a basket of rose petals and little Michael Pilbeam, a nephew, as ringbearer, carried the rings on a pillow of satin and lace.

Mrs. Hall, mother of the bride wore blue lace over nylon and a corsage of white orchids while Mrs. Daykin's dress was green lace and her flowers were pink roses.

The Youth House was the scene of the reception which followed the ceremony where 150 guests were entertained. They were registered by Julie Crawford. Mrs. Charles Branigin, sister of the groom had charge of gifts, the bride's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Ernst cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Vern Eyler and Mrs. Jack Barrett, sisters of the groom poured coffee and Mrs. Douglas Hall, the bride's sister-in-law assisted with the serving.

When the newly-married couple left on a trip to Niagara Falls and Canada the bride wore a navy suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. On their return they will reside, for the time being, with the groom's parents at Britton.

The new Mrs. Daykin is employed in the production and laboratory office at the Tecumseh Products. She received her business training at the Stautzenberger Secretarial College in Toledo after graduating from Tecumseh high in 1952. Mr. Daykin, who is also employed at the Products Co. is a graduate of Britton high school and spent two yaers in military service in Germany.

SKATING PARTY

All Brownie and Girl Scouts are to have a skating party at Sand Lake Saturday afternoon beginning at 2 p. m. They will be guests of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Ass't and Mrs. Gerald Griffen is chairman of arrangements for the party.

FAMILY HONORS COUPLE MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Today is the golden anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Frank French who live at 112 West Patterson street. An early celebration honoring the occasion was held by their family Sunday afternoon at the Tecumseh Country Club, where a two o'clock dinner was served. Golden yellow roses and carnations decorated the tables and there was a decorated wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. French are the parents of three sons and two daughters, all of whom with their families were present. They are Mr. and Mrs. George French, Mr. and Mrs. Allen French and son David, all of Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth French and daughter Sandra of Cadmus; Miss Geraldine French, Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Elgas, daughters Patty and Cathy of Toledo and son Howard Harris of Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. French were married in Pittsford, Pa., April 8, 1876, and lived for a short time in Adrian before coming to Tecumseh where they have resided the past 48 years. Mrs. French was formerly Adella Goodrich, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Goodrich of Adrian and was born in Pittsford, Pa., April 22, 1881 while Mr. French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson French was born Oct. 13, 1876, in Rutland township near Hastings.

Mr. French was employed for 22 years by the American Steel and Wire Co., and then by the Quaker Oats Co. until he was retired. Because of the need of workers during World War II he began work at the Tecumseh Products Co. and is still employed by them.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY TO SPONSOR DANCE REVUE

One of the many projects sponsored by the Auxiliary of Herrick Memorial hospital will be the Nancy Randall Dance Revue which will take place the evenings of April 28 and 29. Held in the auditorium of the Central school building, the curtain will go up on this enjoyable entertainment at 8 p.m.

General chairman of the event is Mrs. Laine Holden. The ticket chairman is Mrs. Leo Bishop and the scenery is in charge of Mrs. Lillian Buttolph and Mrs. Earl Greene, while posters will be made by Mrs. Westdyke's art students. Mrs. George Elliott is chairman of publicity. The Future Nurses Club, under the leadership of Jane Smith, will usher and the programs will be the work of the journalism class. Mrs. James Barton will be narrator of the evening, describing the events as they are portrayed by the dancers.

Tickets will go on sale April 7 and will be available through the dance pupils and at Wright's Drug store and French's market. For every fifteen tickets sold by the children an extra ticket will be given free.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Partridge were hosts to the Wit and Wisdom Club Monday evening, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn VanDenbergh and Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Mast. It was president's night and Mrs. Lott introduced as speaker Charles Hesse, who has had five years experience in the treatment of the victims of poliomyelitis. His work has been in the field of physical therapy and he is now taking advanced study in Ann Arbor. He spoke on the general subject of the disease and told what had been done and what was hoped for the future.

Officers were chosen for the coming year as follows: President, Mrs. John Lott; vice president, Mrs. Frederick Dickinson; secretary, Mrs. Delmar Crisp and treasurer, Wilfred Waldron.

The May meeting of the club will be its annual banquet.
